

Literature On Preparedness To Be Distributed For C.D. By 4-H Boys

The Newmarket Civil Defense Unit held its monthly meeting Monday night with Chm. George Hauschel presiding. It was announced that the unit accepted an invitation from the Service Club to participate jointly at the April 25th meeting. At this time the main speakers will be Basil Broadhurst, Public Information and Training Officer of the State Civil Defense Headquarters and George Moses, State Operations Officer.

Mrs. Margaret Jackson reported that her 4-H boys will distribute Civil Defense literature at a later date. This material is designed to better acquaint the public with the need for preparedness, and to inform citizens of the best methods for adequate protection in emergency situations.

It was announced that the remainder of the Red Cross funds, remaining from the days when Newmarket had its own chapter, will be transferred to the Civil Defense unit for the specific purpose of providing cooking utensils to be used for canteen work and mass feeding. These utensils will be obtained through surplus, if possible.

The Exeter Chapter of the American Red Cross notified the group that an instructor is available to teach First Aid to any interested CD members. Sixteen members present expressed their willingness to take the course. Tuesday evenings are tentatively scheduled as class nights and details will be completed March 1st.

Operation Alert 1960 has been scheduled for May 3-4-5. According to State CD headquarters, each local unit will be required to notify the State the number and type of services it can offer to assist in carrying out this operation. When all local units have responded, the complete plans for Operation 1960 will be announced, and each unit given instructions. The Newmarket unit has nearly completed its manning table and is sufficiently organized to take part in this coming exercise.

Following the business meeting, Ross Tennant showed colored slides of the racing stables and breeding farms in Kentucky, and also slides of local scenes and individuals.

The following three men volunteered to prepare and paint the C.D. helmets which were obtained through surplus: Clayton Bloom, Charlie Heath and Ronald Bloom.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Margaret Jackson.

Only 18 Donate At Bloodmobile

The Red Cross Bloodmobile was at the vestry of the Community Church last Friday.

Twenty-five local people came to offer their blood. 18 were accepted, 6 were rejected because of recent colds and infections. It is hoped that these people will volunteer again at the next drive. One volunteer was turned away because of the 60-year-old age limit set by the national Red Cross.

Theodore Byzinki received a 1 gallon pin; Leo LaPlume, Robert Goerner and Arthur Pratt, each received a 2 gallon pin.

Mrs. Jean Bloom and Mrs. Margaret Jackson were co-chairmen. Mrs. Jackson was in charge of the canteen, assisted by Mrs. Nellie Anderson and Mrs. Shirley Walker.

Assisting on the nursing staff from Newmarket were: Mrs. Elma Kitchin, R.N., Mrs. Betty Philbrick, Red Cross Nurses Aide. Dr. Irving E. Brown, Jr., served on the donor screening unit

New Amusement Center Causes Furor In Town

Letters to the Editor

Newmarket, N. H.
February 17, 1960

To the Editor
Newmarket Times
Newmarket, N. H.
Dear Sir:

This letter is being written as a parent and as a member of the School Board to protest the continued operation of the so-called "Amusement Center", located in Bomze's old store, opposite the post office.

While the words are mine, the thoughts expressed represent unanimous conclusions reached after a two-day stint of telephone and personal conversations with most of the religious, political, business, professional and educational leaders of Newmarket.

To sum up briefly, all agree that the establishment of such an operation in Newmarket is working contrary to all the objectives that the various groups have attempted to improve during the past few years.

The feelings about this matter are impersonal and are not directed toward any individual or group sponsoring such a place. The feeling is that such a place is a social eyesore and a blight to the community and that its operation should be discontinued.

There is no particular resentment concerning the machines themselves, but, rather a resentment toward the type of an environment such a place be-

An Amusement Center opened this week in the store formerly occupied by Max Bomze on Main Street. It is set up with a variety of coin operated amusement machines and a pool table.

The property was leased by Mr. Robert Labraich, local grocer, who planned the venture as a teen-age recreation center.

With the advent of the opening many complaints have been registered about the desirability of such an establishment in Newmarket. Many social, business, religious and educational leaders have voiced concern about the environment which such a place creates for the teen-age youth of the town.

Many of the objections were based on the assumption that undesirable out-of-town delinquents would frequent the establishment and it would become a hang-out for gangs and teen-agers from other areas.

Businessmen generally felt that this type of enterprise was definitely not in keeping with the generally good appearance of the Main Street business area.

comes for our children and teen-agers. Traditionally, these places become the focal point and the rendezvous for all sorts or characters. Sex deviates, loafers, rummies, and yes — even, dope peddlers find such places a ready-made recruiting ground for their varied and nefarious types of anti-social behavior.

At the present time, I know of no concerted effort to close the place by legal means. It is generally felt that enough social pressure can be brought to bear by parental, social, and religious groups to make the project unattractive to its backers. However, I do have assurances that if this means fails to accomplish the desired ends, that there are ways available to close it by legal means.

If you, the reader of this letter, as a parent and as a member of this community exert the pressures available to you, I am certain that the existence of this place will be short lived.

Respectfully yours,
/s/ Kenneth W. Varney

To the Editor:

AMUSEMENT CENTER?

There is something rotten in Newmarket! It exists in a form of illiterary which accepts glorified terms such as "Amusement Center" for things which they are not.

Why don't we learn to call a spade, a spade, and an "Amusement Center", a hangout, clip joint, dive, Pigalle or other term as accepted by the more lived-in cities and towns of the U.S.A.? And since an inclination for the misunderstanding of words is proved, let us note from the following to what extent certain definitions have changed through usage.

Machines: bandits

Occasional Patron: live one Habitual Patron: Vagrant, pornography peddler, pursesnatcher, junior pawn-broker.

Supervisor: irresponsible coin changer, pimp (Europe & Asia.)

Proprietor: Let them eat cake Champion, feed 'em beans Artist.

Parent: Semi-illiterate booz-er.

This writer, an incurable gambler, has no doubts that the child who gains his introduction to gaming through the medium offered here, will at some time in the future, place blame on his parents for their inability to have instilled in his mind a love of useful pursuits at a time when he most needed direction.

ACTIVITIES IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

Grade One

Two reading groups have started reading Our New Friends. They are the Jack-O-Lanterns and the Bluebirds.

We have started to learn spelling words. In our first test, 12 children received 100's. They were John Schanda, Nancy Gorski, Michael Stone, Shirley Langlois, Kathleen Brady, Diana Reilly, Marilyn Sewall, Patti Sewall, Rene Boisvert, Alan Mitchell, Cheryl Bucklin and Bruce Willey.

In science we are studying living things and non-living things. We are making a collection of each. There are many non-living things and among living things we have guppies, snails, plants, a cocoon and a fly. We have also made posters to show the two kinds.

Everyone decorated their own Valentine Box and we put them on our desks. The room is decorated with cupids and hearts. We all enjoyed a party last Friday afternoon.

Grade Two

The following people received gold stars in spelling: Beth Hazeltine, Mildred Knowles, Sharon Miesowicz, and Larry Ward. These students received silver stars: Helen Beairsto, Stephen Schultz, Judith Byron, Janice Carmichael, Francine ones, Joyce Stevens, Margaret Philbrick, Janet Szacik, Joanne Schanda and Richard Harclerode.

We have started a unit about communication and have been discussing the various ways people have used to communicate ideas to each other over the years.

We had fun trying to communicate to each other without using oral or written language.

Second graders are beginning to feel more "grown up" as they learn to do "real" writing.

During the past few days we have begun to set some time aside for independent reading. Each child chooses a book to read and sits down at his seat to read it.

If help is needed, the child raises his hand. During this time we try to read without moving our lips and without using our fingers to guide our reading.

Grade Three

Hearts of all shapes and sizes decorate the third grade grade room. On one wall birds, made of hearts, are perched on twigs with heart-shaped leaves. Red and white hearts hang from the ceiling. The children worked hard to decorate their room for their Valentine Party which they had on last Friday, February 12.

The Third Graders would like to thank the Room Mothers who have participated to make our parties a success.

Good foods and the right foods in our meals are essential to all. To show this the children are collecting pictures and will paste them on to posters to show us the right foods to eat.

Why doesn't the sky fall? Why don't we fall from the earth? Why can't we live on the moon? These are just a few of the questions that will be answered in the weeks to follow in science.

Grade Four

New class officers have been elected for the month of February. Librarians are Timmy Russell and Michael Pazdon. Room Manager is Alan Kustra.

The following pupils received 100's on their spelling tests last week: Alan Kustra, Sara Reuter, Timmy Russell, Faith Silver and Doreen Wilson.

Those receiving 100's on the history test were Sara Reuter and Kirk Kitchin.

Speaking of history, the 4th grade class has learned a great deal about the early beginnings of New Hampshire as a result of the new television program now being given on WENH-TV. Not only are they learning about New Hampshire on this program, but also about Newmarket, as the town has been mentioned several times in the first three broadcasts.

In geography class, we are studying about the continents of the world. We have maps all around the classroom, and the whole class is becoming interested in locating different places in the world.

Grade Five

by Donna Stevens

In science class we are exploring inside the earth. We are planning to make a model of a volcano. We have a sample of volcanic rock from Puerto Rico.

Barbara Sewall, Janice Call and Sharon Sewall all received 100% in the weekly spelling test.

Raymond Hatch and Alan Smith are members of the starting band.

Grade Six

by Jane Hazeltine

The Spelling high scorers last week were Irving Brown, Christine Carpenter, Donald Dziedzic, Deborah Carpenter, Theresa Emond, Jane Hazeltine, Linda Marelli, Peter Nesbitt, Thomas Moore, John Pazdon, Wayne Piecuch, Cynthia Sewall, Jacquelyn Varney and Rebecca Walker.

In Social Studies, the class divided in four groups with each group making a different type of map of South America.

The Stamp Club met and organized their hobby club. They elected Jacquelyn Varney as President; Alan Knight, Vice-President and Christine Carpenter as Secretary. Everyone is busy trading.

The Military Collectors organized and elected the following: President John Pazdon; Vice President Peter Nesbitt; Secretary Alfred Zych. They have already displayed some of their pictures and models. Both of these clubs meet after school with our teacher Mrs. Rooney, as advisor.

Last week being Boy Scout Week saw our scouts, Thomas Moore, Alan Knight, Peter Cardoza, John Pazdon, Peter Nesbitt, Daniel and Donald Dziedzic and John Rollins wear their scout uniforms. They conducted the flag exercises each morning and also gave the Scout Oath and Laws.

Marion George and Donald Dziedzic served at hot lunch last week. Judy Dziedzic and John Rollins are serving this week.

Eagles Aux. Plan Buffet Supper

The Women's Auxiliary of the Eagles is planning a Buffet Supper to be held Sunday, Feb. 28 at the Eagles Hall. Supper will be served from 5 to 7 p.m. by members of the unit. The meal will feature turkey, hot casseroles, salads, desserts and a choice of beverage.

This is the second in a series being held by the Auxiliary. The first in November was successful and the proceeds were used to assist in financing the annual Christmas party for the local children.

The Eagles Auxiliary next regular meeting will be held Tuesday, Feb. 24 at the Eagles Hall with Mrs. Jean Provost, presiding. Plans for the buffet will be completed at this time.

Stamp Collectors News

by Mrs. Ione Kent

The hobby of stamps is world wide — with so many stamps and phases of collecting. People of all ages and in all nations become interested. The Queen of England has fabulous collection handed down to her from her father, George VI. Many of our Presidents have saved stamps — Our Government has a vast collection — Cardinal Spellman has often had parts of his stamps on exhibit. Yet a small boy once had in his possession a dark and gloomy stamp which he wished to sell in order to buy bright, new stamps for his album. He was much surprised and delighted when he was given one dollar and seventy-five cents for it. Many years later that same stamp brought as much as $50,000.

However, aside from all this past glamour and now and then modern errors and inverts, stamps are interesting in many ways. The beginner has much fun discovering to which country a stamp belongs and often where that country is on the map. This may sound strange to those who are used to seeing just the U.S. stamps — but to collectors faced with Helvetia, Hebernia, Magyar, C.C.C.P. and many others — a stamp finder and a map are helpful. All collectors learn much of geography and also of history through commemorative stamps each country issues.

The topical collections give artistic persons vast fields for their skill — Religion, flowers, birds, animals, ships, railroads or transportation, and parks are some of the subjects. For others who do not want to collect stamps of the past, are plate blocks, first day covers, mint singles, mint singles plus blocks of four and stamps of the newly formed republic or commonwealth. — The choice is yours.

U. S. Stamp Notice — Feb. 8th, 4c Boy Scouts Golden Jubilee was issued; Feb. 18th, 4c Winter Olympic Games, Olympic Valley, Tahoe City, Calif.; March 7th, 4c and 8c Thomas G. Masaryk, Champion of Liberty.

More Credo stamps to come.

Through The Years . . .

With Mary Richardson

LEGENDS AND YANKEE SAYINGS AND STORIES OF THE MILLS

Many years ago when Mrs. Jane Hilton used to ride her horse to town, she always went home by the Grant road, which swings to the right and crosses below where Haines' grist mill used to be. It was believed there was an old witch, by the name of Mrs. Fox who lived nearby, and if Mrs. Hilton didn't hurry, would jump on behind and have a ride. If anything went wrong, like a brick falling off a chimney, a cow getting lost or a baby having colic, Mrs. Fox was to blame!

It is believed Mrs. Fox is buried in the pasture across the road from Charles L. Norton's place on the Epping road.

There are two old cemeteries on Ash Swamp road, and on moonlight nights, it is claimed you can see the ghosts going from one cemetery to the other.

Arthur Bennett was the first Bennett to live in the Bennett home on Lee road. This was in 1722. While he was walking in his field near his barn, he was surprised and killed by Indians. He was buried in the field where he was killed.

There are falls in the river in the field near the Bennett place and a saw mill stood there many years ago. One noontime, a young man who worked in the mill (we do not know his name) was eating his lunch, when he chanced to look up and there was a big black bear coming towards him. The bear went up to the big saw mill wheel and started to hug it. He was quickly cut in two.

One Friday afternoon, after school, Mary Richardson went home with her school mate, Hattie Pendergast and her two sisters, Lydia and Mary, to spend the week end. They decided to go blueberrying Saturday. The grandmother wanted to go — so we all started out. We were a little frightened as there was a story around about a dog, called the ghost dog, who around noon time each day would run in the woods and give the most blood-curdling howls. A man said that he saw him one moonlight night baying at the moon. The man started after him but the animal vanished. He was pure white and how he did run!

The berries were scarce so we decided to go into another pasture. We would have to get over some bars. You could either climb over, go under or squeeze through between the top and middle boards. Just as we came to the bars, we heard the most awful barking and yelping. Hattie, Lydia and Mary didn't stop for anything — over the bars they went — leaving Grandma and I on the other side. But poor Grandma, she was halfway through the bars and couldn't get one way or the other. She was stuck! Lydia came back and pulled from the front and I pushed from the rear. And just then there came another blood-curdling yelp — Grandma got free!

Here are few of the expressions the Yankees used and some of these are in use today. There was a man by the name of Brooks, who was always "on the off side". So if any one was contrary, they would be called "Old Brooks." If any one was very neat, they were "as neat as a pin." If you were bright and happy, you were "Chipper." "Fair to Biddin'" meant hat things were going quite well, with you, but not too good. If anyone was surprised, they would say, "By snum", "Gracious Peter", or "Jimminy Cricket." "Don't cross the bridge, until you come to it", "A penny saved is a penny earned", "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush", are also some old Yankee expressions which are still used today.

To reach Haines' grist and cotton mill, you went down a road on the right side, before coming to the bridge on the Epping road. Although this was many years ago, parts of the machinery are still standing. In the cotton mill, fine cotton batting was made.

Miss Lizzie Perkins, who later became the wife of Herbert Tuttle of Durham, used to work in Wiswell's paper mill on the Packers' Falls road. Large quantities of old rags were sent to the mill to be made into paper, and it was the duty of the girls who worked there to look them over, and these rags were not always clean. One day Miss Perkins was so ill she could not go to work. The doctor was afraid it was small pox, which she had contracted from these old rags. She was not ill very long and no one else caught it.

The cost of building Number One Mill was eleven thousand, one hundred ninety-seven dollars and ninety-four cents. The looms with one reed and two shuttles cost the Company ninety dollars each.

When the mill was finished it was considered very modern. There was a six hundred pound bell placed in the cupola. The bell in the morning rang fifteen minutes before the starting to work bell, and this bell rang at seven o'clock. The return to work bell rang at half-past seven. The yearly average for a day's work was eleven hours, fifty-seven minutes and forty-seven seconds.

The highest wage of weavers was two dollars and seventy-two cents a week, but only three people ever attained to that wage. The average was two dollars and twenty-nine cents a week for the fine work and one dollar and eighty cents for the coarse work.

Joe Dixx's Sport Corner

By Richard Schanda

The boys have been having good and bad luck with their ice fishing. Provost and Marden and Company seem to do all right. Then Bert Lepene and his gang had good luck at Silver Lake. They picked up a 21", 3 lb. laker. Dick Atherton and his friends fished Ossipee Lake all day long and caught only 1 fish. The ice fishing fever, and it must be a fever, to keep these guys from freezing to death, has really taken hold of many fishermen. The difference between warm and cold weather fishing is like night and day. Each is a science in itself. It takes a lot of patience to roost on an ice cake for hours on end, but then the American Sport is a patience sort of a fellow. Just don't ask him to run down to the paper store for the daily paper — especially if it is raining or snowing.

It is almost time for our town meeting and I haven't seen the article concerning the public landing at the foot of Water street which was to be put in the town warrant. It was a good low-cost idea and it was certainly needed. So Harvey — if you read this article, get with it and turn the plan over to the Selectmen.

My old Uncle "Flub", who laughed at the cold weather, has gone to Florida for two weeks. It is rumored around the pot bellied stove that he also bought an electric blanket. I hope his friends at Chenny's Place don't get wind of this. He's supposed to be a champion all-weather hunter, fisherman, and trapper.

Here is some additional information about those new salt water laws which I wrote about last week. This should be entitled, "Can You Top This!"

Smelts cannot be taken with a weir in Great Bay and its tributaries unless you have owned or operated a weir for three years preceding the passing of this law. You must also notify the Fish and Game department within 90 days of the passing of this law, the size and location and number of weirs you have had for three years. These locations cannot be changed or the weirs enlarged. Eventually the weirs will disappear from the bay area.

The dip net law was changed from no limit to 30 lbs. a day. You must also have a fresh water fishing license to catch salt water smelt.

On clams — the size limit has been removed. You can take only one peck a day. The clam basket must have your license number clearly printed on the side. Even if this clam basket is on the dock in your boat or on the flats, it still must be numbered. The fine, which is quite stiff, is from $25.00 to $100.00 for violations of the above mentioned laws. More next week.

Concord Eagles Whip Local Eagles In Bowling Series; Now In 2-All Tie

Sunday, Feb. 14 saw the Concord Eagle team whip the local Eagle bowling team by 93 big pins. Local arm chair bowlers claim the bad weather of snow, sleet and rain, upset the local Eagle stars — namely George Gendron, "Chicken" Goudreau and Red White, who usually bowl in the high 300's.

They bowled 242, 268 and 258 respectively. The Concord team rolled 4892 while Newmarket ended up with 4799.

The next match is scheduled for Sunday, March 13 at the Exeter Lanes. This match will wind up the season. The series now stands at two wins and two losses for each team. The locals are calling for all fans to come and cheer their team along to the Championship which will be decided at the next match.

Transportation will be provided for fans without transportation to the Exeter Lanes.

P.C. Take Lead In Shuffleboard

The sixth game of the P.C. Eagles tournament was held Feb. 15 at the Polish Club with the host team taking 4 of the 6 matches played, thus giving them a 3-game edge of the Eagles.

1st game, P.C. 21 to Eagles 8; 2nd game, P.C. 21-7; 3rd game, P.C. 21-7; 4th game, Eagles 21-5; 5th game, Eagles 21-10; 6th game, P.C. 21-12.

High scorer for the Polish Club, Frank LePan with 18; runner-up Jack Haley with 17.

High scorer for the Eagles was Dick Labranche with 17.

The next game in the series will be at the Eagles hall on Monday, Feb. 22. A non-scheduled challenge game will be played by the P.C. team versus the American Legion team at the A. L. hall.

Group Donates $30 For Library Reference Books

The American Home department held a meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Gail Fogarty on Exeter road with 10 members present. The group voted the sum of $30 for reference books for the library. Providing materials for the library has been a department project for several years. The project is currently being financed by the card parties each Wednesday.

The mystery package brought by Mrs. Betty Philbrick, was won by Mrs. Mildred Cashman. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

THE FLYING MULES

Mules Make Tourney

By Ronnie Griswold

A huge crowd pushed their way into the gym at Newmarket High School last Friday night as they were to be witnesses to an exciting game between Oyster River and the Newmarket Mules. It was to be a crucial game, as both teams are in the "Sweet Sixteen" bracket, which is the first sixteen teams in the state in Class M which consists of medium schools. If either of these teams lost, it could have meant that they wouldn't go to the Tournament in Durham.

The game started with both teams realizing that this was a crucial one they had to win. It was 6-0 before the Mules could score. At this point, both teams were just about even as the lead see-sawed back and forth. Gilman and Cloutier were doing the scoring for the blue while Kustra, Walker and Sklarski were the punch for the Mules. As the quarter came to a close, the Mules were behind 16-11.

It looked as though the Mules were in for another defeat, but in the second period, they put on a better showing. They were stealing the ball and rebounding harder than ever. Doing a great job for the Mules on rebounds was Gene Hayes, who seemed to have lost his eye. But Gene made up for that as he snared many rebounds for the Red and Black. At this point, the Mules had caught up from the 5 point deficit and were on the march. Walker and Sklarski from N.H.S. put in two field goals to put the Mules ahead by one. With only a few seconds left, Bamford made a basket and the Mules ended up on the short end of a 26-24 half-time score.

As play resumed, the red came out all fired up and really looked for the game. The crowd could see that the Mules were all fired up as they started to score more freely and at the same time held the blue down. The zone the Mules were now playing seemed to mix the Bobcats up as they only scored sparingly.

It didn't look too good for the Mules in this quarter as they were missing on their field goals. The teams were still close as the quarter was nearing the end and the Mules were behind. The crowd was screaming more than ever as both sections of this huge audience enjoyed yelling at their team as the teams switched the lead back and forth. Thanks to Walker and Kustra, the Mules managed to stay in there as these boys were fouled many times and put the free throws in. Newmarket at this stage of the game got the feeling of the Pinkerton game which the locals lost by one. The boys got the ball with about twenty or thirty seconds left when a Mule shot and the ball rolled out and the Bobcats got the rebound. It looked like the end when the blues player kicked the ball out of bounds and the Mules took it out. The only fact remains is that time ran out and the Mules fell short again by a mere one point. Being outscored 20-15 in the last quarter, the Mules dropped the game 54-53.

NHS 51 — Somersworth 41

The N.H.S. Mules won the game that they need to go into the playoffs by beating the Somersworth Hilltoppers last Tuesday night by a 51-41 margin. The Red played a good brand of ball throughout the whole game with Walker, Sklarski and Hayes doing a great job at rebounding while Kustra and Byron did the ball handling. Then, Walker, Kustra and Hayes started to hit from all over the floor. A great ball handling exhibition was put on by Jordan, a sub for the Mules.

Newmarket went out in front in the first half but were a little shaky as they knew that the 11-point lead they held could be blasted by the fast-moving Hilltoppers who play a fast brand of ball.

The game continued to be very hard and close through the second half with the lead changing many times. The game was getting close as the final minutes ticked away. Kustra was called on fouling and now the Mules had him with four fouls. He rested and then went back in with a few minutes left and continued to play the fine brand of ball he had done all night. The final seconds ticked off and with only a few remaining, Walker laid one in to put the Red up 10 points and give his team a 51-41 victory.

GIRLS WIN 1 — LOSE 1

The girls seem to be playing like the boys as they split games with Winnacunnet and Somersworth. The first game was with the Warriors from Winnacunnet at the Hampton gym. The local lassies seemed to be out for this game as the boys were drubbed twice by the Hampton boys. In a very tight game, the score was tied at 17 all at the half.

The girls came back after the half and played hard ball but still couldn't keep up with the fast pace set by the Blue. The end of the game was in sight and the Mules were behind and remained there to lose by a score of 39-35. A good battle but a bit out-classed.

The summary:

Griswold	4	3	11
Grochmal	7	8	22
Kleczek	1	0	2
Totals	12	11	35

WINNACUNNET

The next game was with the Somersworth girls team. The Red played the Hilltoppers the same day that the boys played them. The Red took out the revenge on this team as the boys team from Somersworth had beaten our boys before hand. The game started quite slow with the Mules holding a nine point lead, 17-8. But the Mules had the best of it as they took a 36-14 lead at the half. Griswold put in most of the punch for the Mules as she collected eleven while Grochmal collected six.

The Red played like the Celtics as they netted more points and finally sent in the subs who did a great job.

In the final quarter, Grochmal with 11 and Griswold with 6 supplied the Mules with plenty while Kleczek added 5 points in the game to give the girls a 69-23 win.

Discussion Group Holds 1st Meeting

The first meeting of the "Great Decisions — 1960" discussion group met at River House last Thursday evening. The subject was "Communist Timetable 1960 — What Odds?" The communist military threat, economic competition from Soviet bloc nations and possible U. S. defenses were considered.

This informational program is organized nationally, by the Foreign Policy Association and sponsored locally by the New Hampshire Council of World Affairs. For eight weeks people listen to a TV panel of nationally known experts on foreign affairs. Then friends and neighbors meet in small groups in each others' homes for an informal give and take discussion of the current problem.

This week "Divided Europe — Cooperation or Crisis" will be explored on Channel 11 at 7 o'clock Thursday evening. Mr. Conrad Quimby, executive director of the N. H. Council on World Affairs will be the moderator. His guests will be Mr. Jack Hines of Exeter Academy and Professor Kuusisto of the Department of Government at U.N.H.

The discussion meeting this week will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Dickson Smith, Bay road, at 8 p.m. Friday evening. People who wish to join the discussion group are asked to call the Smiths at OL 9-3054.

Robert G. Durgin Post No. 67 held Initiatory Ceremonies last Saturday night and the following members were initiated: Charles A. Stoffel, Stanley J. Sielicki, Owen Shea, Theodore Puchlopek, Edward Foss, Kenneth J. Tilton, Michael George, Eugene Brousseau, Arthur A. Doyle, Joseph Lemire, Frederick Degonyoun, Buford Brown, Olin R. Downing, Gerard Filion and Robert McKenna.

The work was put on by The Third New Hampshire District Degree Team. Although several regular members of the team were sick and substitutes were used, the work was excellently carried on.

District Commander Robert True of Durham was present and congratulated the Post on having the work put on and also the team on the good work they have done. Luncheon was served in the dining hall and a social evening was enjoyed downstairs in the club room.

The club recently had a shuffleboard installed and it has made many friends and is very busy. It seems that in such a short time we have experts in the game and look for some spirited competition among our members.

The next District Convention will be with Epping on Friday night, February 19th. We would like to see a large delegation from Newmarket as the traveling distance is so short.

The regular meetings of this Post are held on the 1st and 3rd Mondays of each month. Our Jackpot is now about $30.00. On the first Mondays meeting we held the 50-50 Club awards.

The heating change-over will start this week as the equipment has arrived and it should not take long before the old smokers will be a thing of the past.

Many Generous Gifts Bestowed Libraries By Late Benjamin Miller

A genuine feeling of gratitude for the role books played in his life, plus a philanthropic nature, motivated the late Benjamin Miller, former resident of Newmarket and Lee, to bestow many generous gifts to both town libraries. Shortly before his death last month, Mr. Miller notified Mrs. Elizabeth George, Lee librarian, that he was contributing complete sets of the World Book Encyclopedia to both libraries. It was only a few years ago that he gave a set of Compton Encyclopedia and other miscellaneous books to both libraries in memory of his late wife, Mary Chricherson Miller. Continuing in the tradition of her father, Mrs. William J. Hogan of Bronxville, N. Y., recently gave each library $75. in memory of Mr. Miller.

Benjamin Miller, at the age of thirteen moved to Lee with his family from Minnesota. Besides himself, the family numbered his mother and father, brother Carl and an Aunt, Miss Annie Phelps, who for many years was organist and Sunday School teacher at the Lee Congregational Church. The Millers bought Dan Plumer's farm at the foot of Lee Hill, now owned by the Ralph Granger family. It was here they made their livelihood by operating a successful truck garden farm. While living in Lee, Ben was a member of the Jeremiah Smith Grange and attended the Lee Church.

Mrs. Woodruff Mason, who taught Ben for three years at the Lee Center school, remembers him as a particularly brilliant student. In those days, a pupil could continue studies after the eighth grade if the teacher was willing and Ben stayed long enough for Mrs. Mason to give him a solid foundation in college algebra, geometry and history. Many times during visits back to his home town in later years, Mr. Miller expressed his gratitude to his old teacher for her sound instruction which he felt had contributed in good measure to his start in the engineering field. Without any further formal schooling he was able to attend and graduate from the Lowell Lecture Course at Harvard University.

When Ben left Lee at 23, he went to work in the Fore River Shipyard in Quincy, Mass. as a draftsman and later as an engineer. Before his retirement in 1945, he was employed as an engineer for the NYC engineering firm of Babcock and Wilcox in Wadsworth, Ohio. He was one of the engineers who worked on the Hoover Dam and it was through this connection he invented and designed the penstock which was used on the dam.

Mr. Miller married Miss Mary Critcherson, who was living with relatives in Lee at the time and teaching school at the Lee Center school. The Millers had three children: Mrs. Jean Miller Hogan who lives in Bronxville, N. Y., with her husband who is Vice President of American Airlines and Mrs. Betty Miller Popov of Darien, Conn., and one son, Dr. David C. Miller of King City, Calif. Mr. Miller was visiting with his son in California this winter when he passed away at the age of 75. Dr. Miller is a heart specialist, who at one time, did a study of heart conditions of the Arizona Indians and who also did research and editing with the famous heart specialist, Dr. Paul Douglas White.

The Millers moved to Newmarket shortly after retiring, where Mr. Miller took an active interest in town affairs. He was past president of the Newmarket Service Club and had served on the town Water Board as well as being a member of the State Water Resources Board.

Mr. Miller once remarked that Lee was the only town where he had put down any roots and he returned to visit old friends and to attend Old Home Sunday at Lee Church as often as he possibly could.

His interest in the Lee library was evidenced by his frequent visits to chat with the librarian and keep up with the library's progress. Mr. Miller is fondly remembered by his many friends in both Newmarket and Lee. His generosity to the town libraries seems a fitting memorial to his warm-hearted regard for his neighbors and fellowmen.
