

BAY ROAD HOUSING PROJECT

Rumor has it that the structure shown above is an adaptation of an original Frank Lloyd Wright design referred to as an "A Frame." Most Newmarketers simply say to their neighbors, "Have you been down to see 'It'?" It is all roof!! The dwellings in question are situated in a housing project on Bay road and are combined with the more conventional type of ranch house in the development. Both are constructed by the Seacoast Development Company of Exeter, New Hampshire.

Summer Camp Revelers Given Court Sentence

Judge Ovila Gregoire of Dover recently fined two youths $50 each and sentenced them to 30 days in the county house of correction for "trespassing" at a camp in Lee and theft of beer. Bail was set at $100 each.

The four — Gerald James, 18, of Durham and Robert Ederly, 20, Charlene Lebeau, 19, and Loretta Labranche, 19, all of Newmarket — had pleaded innocent to trespassing at the camp of Joseph Morrisette of Newmarket at Wheelwright pond, June 12 and drinking beer taken from the refrigerator.

State Police Lt. Carroll Duffee testified that fingerprints taken from bottles and cans of beer and tumblers, matched those of several of the respondents.

Morrisette and his nephew, Alfred Binnette of Exeter, testified that when they arrived at the camp Sunday afternoon, they found the foursome inside.

Both youths admitted, to entering the camp and drinking the beer, but claimed that the girls had come to the camp about five minutes after they had entered it and that the girls had urged them to leave. All four had been swimming nearby.

The judge imposed the 30-day sentences against Ederly and James for the larceny of the beer and the $50 fine for trespassing. He warned them that trespassing was a serious offense and that the law provides for a maximum fine of $100 and a maximum of six months.

Police Deputy Staton Curtis investigated the complaint while testifying in court for the State were Trooper Donald Buxton and Chief of Police, Gilman Menter of Lee.

This was the second time that Mr. Morrisette's camp had been broken into this season.

EAGLES SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

With Arthur J. LaBonte

Before starting my second column of Eagles social activities, I would like to thank Mrs. Betty Philbrick for the words of introduction in the last issue. During the two months of my coverage of the 50th anniversary of the Eagles I had frequent contact with Mrs. Philbrick and found her most helpful and cooperative. As stated last week, I was most reluctant to begin a weekly column of Eagle events, but with encouragement from fellow members and friends, I plan a weekly series covering a variety of subjects of interest not only to Eagles but to all the readers of THE NEWMARKET TIMES.

I urge all of the local businessmen to continue their advertising support of this paper and trust that residents of Newmarket, Newfields and the surrounding towns to patronize these advertisers. As we used to say, "Nothing better than home made bread!" It's equally true of advertising and news. If you want to know what's going on in town or what's going to happen, then your 'home bread' — that is — your home reading is THE NEWMARKET TIMES, your local paper.

Our daily newspapers are filled with stories of disaster and destruction: "Seven killed in Fire!"; "42 reported dead in tornado"; Air crash claims 68!" These, in addition to the ever increasing highway fatalities.

Each of us reads the headlines, glances at the list of victims to be certain that no familiar names are included and passes to the more pleasant aspects of the news, safe in the knowledge that "it can't happen to me". Only, when a member of the immediate family or close circle of friends is killed or maimed in an automobile accident do we begin to take these same newspaper headlines and National Safety Council statistics seriously.

It appears that only through personal tragedy are we sufficiently impressed by the needless waste of life and property often brought on by the discourteous or careless driver.

Of course, we know the safety slogans by heart — "If you drink, don't drive"; "Speed kills!"; "It is dangerous to drive when overtired or emotionally upset". We all realize accidents are more likely to occur during storms and on rain slicked pavement.

Despite an acute awareness of all these warnings, we ignore them, often to the very point of disaster.

June is Crusade for Safety Month. Many organizations throughout the country are holding special safety programs, distributing safety literature and safety posters.

Will we take their advice or will we continue to believe "It can't happen to me", until it does.

Drive as if you owned your car and not the road!

HOW TO WIN THE GARDEN BUG BATTLE

Like it or not, it's necessary to fight a continuous battle against bugs in order to keep a garden thriving and beautiful all season. But armed with a few lethal chemicals and some knowledge of his enemies—the gardener definitely has the odds. Here are some tips from bug-control experts to help you recognize and outsmart the pests.

Apply sprays regularly. Many damaging garden pests—such as aphids, thrips and mealy bugs—can't be seen until their damage is done. But properly applied insecticides wipe them out before they start their attack. A combination of malathion and methoxychlor—Antrol's Hose-Spray Garden Insect Killer—is easy to apply and the results are effective against these and a baker's dozen of other garden insects.

Do a thorough job. The undersides of plant leaves are favorite feeding places for some insect pests. To apply chemical sprays efficiently, spray both sides of leaves. Cover stems and the soil surface around the plant as well. Remember that every insect you miss will produce hundreds more within a few days.

Time spray treatments properly. Warm sunny mornings are usually best because insects are most active at that time. Also, you'll cut down your spray efficiency if the wind is too strong, or if it rains too soon after treatment. If you prefer using a garden dust, apply it when the plant is dry.

41st Summer Session At P.E.A. To Open With 144 Students June 28

The forty-first summer session at The Phillips Exeter Academy will open on Tuesday, June 28th, with an enrollment of 144 students, the largest number in recent years.

Attending the session, which is under the direction of Phillips E. Wilson, are 120 students from schools other than the Academy. The remaining have been accepted in the regular session and will be working during the summer to strengthen their position in various courses.

The student body at the session represents 27 states, the Canal Zone, and five foreign countries, one of which is Kenya, Africa.

While most students are taking courses in English, foreign language and mathematics, there has been a marked increase in the enrollment in the introductory course to physics and chemistry.

The twenty-eight man faculty of the summer session is comprised primarily of regular session teachers. In addition there are several teachers from other schools including Lawrence Stone, who is leaving Exeter high school to assume a position at Portsmouth high school and, Townsend Thorn-dike who will be teaching at Exeter high school in the fall. Both of these men will work in the extensive athletic program of the summer session.

The session ends August 20.

POPULAR FISH STICKS TEAM WITH LOBSTER SAUCE

Of all "convenience foods," fish sticks are probably the most convenient. And that's one reason they have zoomed to popularity in just a few years. All you need do is follow the simple directions on the package, and you have beautifully browned, delectable pieces of fish, high in protein, minerals and vitamins, so necessary to the health and well-being of children and adults alike. Even if you serve fish sticks often, you needn't feel that your meals will become monotonous. Vary the seasonings; vary the sauces. For example, fish sticks become a company meal for six to eight people if you've a can of lobster with which to make a Lobster Newburg sauce. This recipe is sufficient for two packages of fish sticks.

LOBSTER NEWBURG SAUCE

Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine in top part of a double boiler. Remove from heat and blend in 1 tablespoon flour. Gradually add 1 cup light cream and return to heat. Cook, stirring until sauce is thick and smooth, but do not boil. Add 1 5-ounce can lobster meat broken into small pieces. Add salt and cayenne pepper to taste. To 2 well-beaten egg yolks add a little of the hot sauce, then stir the mixture into the sauce. Cook over boiling water for 3 minutes, stirring well. Add 2 tablespoons dry sherry (or 1 tablespoon lemon juice and 1 tablespoon water). Makes six to eight servings.

NEWS FROM LEE

By Mrs. Lloyd Stevens

Fire Department

That big bang Lee residents heard Monday evening was not a supersonic boom but a big blast of dynamite set off by members of the fire department who were enlarging the water hole in back of the town dump for more adequate fire protection.

A spectacular fire blazed the sky for miles around causing complete damage to a barn and shed belonging to Willie Mitchell of Mitchell road, Nottingham, late Saturday afternoon. Residents from all over the town called to report the fire saying it looked as though the whole forest was ablaze. Ted Turner, with the Lee fire truck, was the first at the scene and was able to keep the fire confined to the barn area until the Nottingham fire department arrived.

Special Fire Deputy Attending Training Session

Lloyd Stevens, special deputy for Forestry District 5, attended a two-day training session in forest fire fighting techniques at Hemmingway park in Tamworth last Friday and Saturday. Working with state forestry officials and the lookout on Great Hill, the deputies were given training in compass work, hose laying, communications, setting up camp and all other activities pertinent to actual fire fighting situations.

Fire Department Auxiliary

One of the highlights of the social season in Lee is the annual potluck supper held for auxiliary members and husbands each June. This year was no exception as the couples gathered together to enjoy a delicious repast on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Johannes Johnson's home at Harvey's Mills, South Lee.

Auxiliary members, Mrs. Johannes Johnson and Mrs. Tom Mahoney made up the supper committee.

Firemen's Fair News

It has been announced by Mrs. Ralph Booth, chairman of the raffle committee, that tickets are now available. Members may obtain same at Mrs. Booth's home on Mast road.

Auxiliary members Mrs. Joy Harre, Mrs. Irene Gooch, Mrs. Almeda Durepo and Mrs. Marion Stevens met at the home of Sandra Morrison Tuesday evening to work on posters for the fair.

Road Work Starts

Road agent Lloyd Stevens reports that work has begun on the improvement to Jenkins road. The sum of $2,000 was appropriated at the last town meeting to re-construct and tar if possible the stretch of road between Wednesday Hill road and Packers Falls road.

Lee Hill 4-H Club

The Lee Riders met at the home of leaders Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dennis Tuesday evening to make final plans for their Gymkhana - Horse Show to be held July 9 in conjunction with the Lee Firemen's Fair. Class lists were distributed and a committee formed to work on soliciting local merchants and interested citizens for contributions for trophies. Anyone interested in contributing may contact Miss Joan Chadbourn.

4-H Delegate Chosen

Miss Carolyn Granger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Granger, was one of the two 4-H representatives from Stratford County chosen to be on the 4-H Planning Council for the Youth Citizenship Conference being held this week at the University of New Hampshire.

Well Child Clinic

It has been announced by district nurse Lois Booth that monthly Well Child clinics at Lee will continue through the summer. The next clinic for immunizations, vaccinations, physical examinations, etc., will be held Tuesday, June 28 from 10 to 11 a.m. in the Lee Vestry. Dr. Greenleaf of Durham will be assisted by Mrs. John Fernald of Nottingham.

Lest Polio Clinic Scheduled

NEW MARGARINE HAS MANY ASSETS

This Viennese Coffee Cake owes its rich, deliciousness and appetizing golden color to a new corn oil margarine — Fleischmann's Margarine. The new product creams easily and blends quickly, making it an ideal all-purpose shortening. More important, the flavor equals that of the finest table spreads.

VIENNESE COFFEE CAKE

Dough:	Filling:
1/2 cup milk	1/4 cup honey
1/2 cup sugar	1 cup chopped pecans
1 1/2 teaspoons salt	1/2 cup melted corn oil margarine
1/4 cup (1/2 stick) corn oil margarine	1/2 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup warm (not hot) water	2 tablespoons cinnamon
2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed	1 1/2 cups raisins
2 eggs, beaten	Topping:
3 cups sifted flour	1 egg white
2 cups sifted flour (about)	2 tablespoons granulated sugar
	1/4 cup slivered unblanched almonds

Scald milk. Stir in sugar, salt and the 1/4 cup corn oil margarine. Cool to lukewarm. Measure water into large bowl (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed yeast). Sprinkle or crumble in yeast and stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture. Add eggs and the 3 cups of flour. Beat until smooth. Stir in remaining flour. Turn out on lightly floured board. Knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl. Brush top with soft margarine. Cover. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Punch down and turn out on lightly floured board. Roll into an oblong 8 x 20 inches. Spread to within one inch of edge with a mixture of the filling ingredients. Roll as for jelly roll. Seal in filling by pinching edges together. Elongate roll by slightly stretching and shaping it. Coil into a well-greased heavy 9 or 10-inch skillet. Cover and let rise in warm place free from draft until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Brush with egg white and sprinkle with sugar and almonds. Bake at 350 degrees F. 45 to 50 minutes. Makes one coffee cake.

adults from Durham, Madbury, Lee, Barrington or Nottingham. District nurse Lois Booth urges everyone to take advantage of this last opportunity for immunization before the polio season starts. Dr. Ellen Greenleaf of Durham will be the attending physician.

The clinic is sponsored by the Lee fire department auxiliary and the Lee Congregational Church donates the use of the Vestry.

Personals

The employees of Sears, Roebuck Co. in Dover aren't apt to forget Mrs. Jack Randall of Lee in a hurry. While helping to load a bed in the station wagon she very seriously smashed her thumb, almost severing it. The employees rushed to the rescue, applying first aid treatment. When examined by her physician, it was discovered that Mrs. Randall had broken the bone.

Mrs. Woodruff Mason and

Mrs. William Carpenter recently attended an applied arts exhibition of the students of their sister, Miss Pauline Bartlett, at Lexington, Mass.

Mrs. Grant of Swampscott, Mass., has been spending the month with her daughter, Mrs. Johannes Johnson at South Lee.

Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Buchan of South Lee celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. David Randall of Durham, Conn. and their family spent the weekend in Lee to help celebrate David's parents golden wedding anniversary.

Joe Dixx's Sport Corner

By Richard Schanda

If you intend doing any deep sea fishing out around the mouth of Portsmouth harbor, now is the time to wet your line. This past weekend the local deep water boys put out for the Shoales. The sea was fairly calm with a nice breeze out of the South South East.

The fish these boys picked up had to be seen to be believed. One fisherman, using a 57 lb. test line with twin hooks baited with clams, caught a 20 lb. pollack and with the drag full on, this fish just ran out over 200 ft. of line. It took 15 minutes to land this fish. The rest of the gang hauled in fish up to 16 lbs. Our boat caught several nice cusk, haddock and 2 10 lb. pollack.

Spring fishing, usually the best fishing, is yours for the asking, so get geared up and head for the coast.

With the waters warming up, trout fishing should improve this month. Some nice native trout are being caught with the best catches being taken with gold spinners and worms. Brother Joe caught a nice 12 1/2 inch brookie which weighed 1 1/4 lbs. This is a good trout in any fishermen's language.

These fish are now moving out of the shallower pools and rapids into the deeper pools which tend to stay cooler. Look for some quick action near the mouths of smaller brooks which empty into larger creeks or rivers. Fish deep for the big ones.

A petition is being worked on which will ask the Fish and Game Department to check the Lamprey river to see if Atlantic salmon could be stocked in the upper river. With the construction of two fish ladders, one at the Macallen dam and another at the Old Power dam above the Highland house, the seasonal spawning runs of the Atlantic salmon could be possible. Once established, a salmon always returns to its birthplace to spawn. It sure would be nice to see a Spring run of salmon up the river.

This Spring run has not been seen in the late 1790's. Back in those days the coastal Indian tribes camped along the various rivers and speared these fish for food. The old camping grounds ran from the foot of Water street down to Pound rock.

When the mills were built and the dam constructed this interfered with the natural run of salmon and eventually the great fish left this area. The last Atlantic salmon known to be taken in Great Bay was caught in Willy Watson's fish weir down at Shackford's point. This was around the early 1940's.

Newmarket hunters and fishermen buy around 750 hunting and fishing licenses which would figure out to about $1500 in fees. We should get more for our money than we do at this present time. If we could interest the Fish and Game Department in the salmon situation, and I feel we can, we could have this old river of ours producing some great game fish.

That big herd of deer which wintered down on the Ash Swamp road has finally broken up.

Three does were seen in a field just beyond Mike Ross's farm, three more down behind Plant's on the Ash Swamp road, two down on the New road and three up on the Epping road. With the young deer and adults this herd should number around 15. This should make the Fall season interesting.

Pony League To Play 1st Game Tues., June 28

Due to change in plans, the first pony league game will be held on Tuesday night, June 28th, at 6:00 p.m. This game between the Newmarket Cubs and the Newmarket Dodgers was to be played on Sunday, June 26th, but our Hand Tub company Tiger No. 1 is holding its first muster down at Upton, Mass., and many of the pony league ball players are also members of the Hand Tub crew.

Swanzy Post #84 received a special trophy in honor of their having 100% or better in membership for the last seventeen consecutive years. Many resolutions were passed and will be written up in future editions of THE NEWMARKET TIMES. Don't miss them.

Among dignitaries at the convention were U. S. Rep. Chester Merrow, Mayor Benoit, Gov.
