SUCCESSFUL AERIE OUTING HELD AT SIMPSON'S PAVILION

Last Sunday, August 21st, the F.O.E. Lamprey Aerie held their annual Outing at Simpson's Pavilion with nearly 150 present to enjoy the event. The weather was at its best save for a little shower in the afternoon, which helped to cool the temperature for a while.

The main attraction before dinner was the soft ball game organized between the married men and the single men, which was held in the field near the pavilion. The married men's team featured Ken H. White, Sr., as pitcher and the old reliable Bob Harney as catcher.

The single men's team had Jennie Provost as catcher and Willis Myit as pitcher. Raymond Latour relieved as pitcher in the last 3 innings.

Thanks to the "Old Pro" Ken White, the married men won the game 20-9 and in addition, they won the "bottle of cheer" as first prize. The star of the game was Al Zych with 4 home runs and a memorable stumble. A horseshoe tournament was in progress at the same time with Petow Bascom and Eddie Miesowicz against Charles Rardon and Hector Morin. The latter team won the championship with 2 out of 3 games.

The dinner served at 1 p.m. was excellent with each serving consisting of a hot broiler with all of the trimmings. Music was furnished by Don Grayson and enjoyed throughout the afternoon. Prizes were given to the best dancers present.

Many representatives from other Aeries were present. The door prize drawn by Ken White, Jr., was awarded to Mrs. Alfred Densmore of Dérry, N. H.

The chairman and co-chairman, Eddie Renzulla and John A. Schanda respectively, have expressed their thanks for the cooperation which made this 1960 outing such a tremendous success. Let's hope we all meet again next year!

Swimming Instructions Put To Use When Boy Is Injured By Tree Limb

Two brothers put into practice some of the water safety rules taught them at the Lee swimming school when one of them was hurt in a swimming accident recently.

The boys, Doug and Dennis Pratte, were swimming at St. Clair's on the Lamprey River where the favorite sport is jumping into the water from a swinging rope on the opposite bank. When Doug's turn came he decided to take another swing to get over deeper water but on the return hit a protruding limb which ripped a six-inch strip from his underarm.

When brother Dennis saw his brother's wound and saw him hit the water, he immediately yelled for Doug to get on his back and backstroke one-armed to the shore. Mrs. Pratte rushed the hurt boy to the Exeter Hospital where it took 23 stitches to close the inch deep wound.

Mrs. Pratte credits the quick thinking of the boys to the training they received at the Lee swimming school.

The Newmarket School Board reports that following the yearly audit of their accounts, the School District has a balance of $6,235.51 plus $1,357.21, an underpayment from the 1959-1960 appropriation. Chairman Mrs. Beatrice Geoffrion states that the state auditors have assured the Board that this substantial balance will help the town of Newmarket maintain its tax rate at the current level if not perhaps reduce it.

Mrs. Geoffrion informed the Times that the Board has been cutting financial corners wherever practical and has instituted the practice wherever possible of letting the School District accounts and services out on bids.

The Board has recently accepted bids on bus transportation of school pupils. The Contract has been awarded to Joseph Berry of Hampton, the lowest bidder, who will provide bus service during the coming school year. The bid submitted by Berry's firm represented a sizeable savings over that of the next highest bidder.

The Board also announces the hiring of Fred Harclerode of Maplecrest as custodian-janitor of the Elementary Schools.

The Board is accepting bids from local dairies interested in supplying milk to the school system.

The contract for the paving of the play area of the Stone School was awarded to Bell and Flynn of Exeter, whose estimate was lowest. The work will be completed within the next two weeks. The lawn will also be seeded and a hedge planted around the area.

This landscaping represents a marked improvement to the property as well as improving the appearance of the neighborhood. Adjacent landowners have already expressed their pleasure and satisfaction with the work. Taxpayers are urged to inspect the school grounds and see for themselves.

At the School Board meeting last week Mrs. Geoffrion was elected chairman replacing Kenneth Varney who has resigned. Parents wishing to contact her may do so evenings.

Two Rivers Farm and Other Interesting Places

If you wished to visit Two Rivers Farm you would go across North Main street bridge, turn to your right and go down Bay road for a short distance. You will see a dirt road which is about a mile long. This will take you to Two Rivers Farm.

On the left side of this lane you will come to a little cottage where Peter Wycik made his home for several years. He had a fine flock of chickens which he called his biddies. Pete knew where all the nice berries were and also the mushrooms. He didn't have much money but he managed to get along selling a chicken now and then and some of his eggs.

The little house now standing at Two Rivers Farm is not the house that was originally built, as that burned years ago in 1912.

Mr. and Mrs. Eligah Wilson, their son Hiram and daughter Mildred enjoyed a vacation at the Almon Smith place the summer of 1892. This house was a garrison made at the time of the Indian raids. The building was situated in a beautiful spot near the water.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith often gave dance parties and it was at one of these that Miss Mildred met her future husband, Albert E. Stevens, who had a fine farm just a short distance from the garrison. On November 23, 1897, he and the attractive Miss Mildred were married. They were very happy especially when little Mildred came to town.

Mr. Stevens' great, great grandfather Nathaniel, settled on Two Rivers Farm somewhere prior to 1800. Albert was born in Durham but his parents moved to Newmarket when he was only two years old. He attended Newmarket schools, including high school. He had one of the largest and best managed farms in the vicinity, with a large herd of fine grade cows.

In 1912 the Stevens' home caught fire one cold night two days after Christmas. The fire department came as quick as they could but the house burned to the ground. The barn and cattle were saved. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens and little daughter Mildred moved to a home in Newmarket on North Main street. The property passed from one hand to another.

After a while a small house was built and sold to Mr. Stec and family and later the place was purchased by Mr. Benjamin Hunneman. He and a young man by the name of Raymond Merrill carried on the farm for over two years.

One fine day, Mrs. Sibley, who after the death of her first husband, married again. Her daughter Mildred and granddaughter Beatrice motored down to visit their old home. Mr. Hunneman liked them very much and Ray found Beatrice so attractive that every time he went to Newmarket he called on her. The result was that they became engaged and were married.

Mr. Hunneman found a place in Exeter which he liked so well that he sold Two Rivers Farm and purchased this home. He soon found a lady to his liking and got married.

Ray and Bea live in Newmarket where he has a good job. They have one dear little girl, who will be six years old in November.

A fire destroyed the barn, at Two Rivers several years ago, but the house was not touched. We understand a family from Pease Air Force are living there now.

The old Smith garrison has fallen apart. Many who wanted souvenirs took anything they could find, even pieces of wood pulled from the stairs.

Ralph Waugh of Rockingham Junction thought it a crime that the garrison be left to deteriorate in this way so he went to the University of New Hampshire and asked that the old garrison be repaired and used for a museum. He was refused the request.

Another beautiful spot on Great Bay is the Watson home where the two sisters and a brother and the niece and nephew still reside and also Warren Sawyer, Jr. There is a large veranda on the house from which you have a fine view of the Bay. There is also a pretty grove near by where you can have a picnic. The Newmarket fire department generally has their yearly picnic in this grove.

Lee Family Encounters Moose While Driving Through Maine Wilderness Recently

The Ronald Buchan family was treated to a sight usually reserved for only the most adventuresome woodsmen—a face to face encounter with a full scale moose.

It all happened when Mrs. Ronald Buchan and her three children, Rob, Joan and Ian, were returning from a visit with their friends, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Newhall at North East Carry, Maine. The only other place besides a boat crossing over Moosehead Lake, is a 43 mile wilderness road belonging to a private lumber company.

It was while traveling this lonely, dusty road that the Buchan's way was blocked by the inquisitive animal who had somehow wandered too close to civilization. For some minutes it was a question of who had the right of way but in the end the moose majestically moved off into the woods leaving behind four shaken but excited travelers.

Mr. & Mrs. Donald LaBranche Begin Westward Trip To Seattle, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald LaBranche left Tuesday morning for a trip to Seattle, Washington, where Mr. LaBranche will work for a master's degree in fine arts at the University of Washington.

Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. John LaBranche of Granite street, Newmarket, graduated as an art major from the University of New Hampshire last June. He recently was honored as one of the first contributors to a series of collections of art work by UNH alumni which will be exhibited in the new fine arts building at the university. The oil painting purchased by the university was a landscape entitled "Memory of Maine".

Mrs. LaBranche is the former Sandy Ruolo, daughter of Mrs. Charles Norton of Epping road, Newmarket. Sandy attended schools in Lee and Newmarket, graduating from Newmarket High School. She has been dental assistant, receptionist and "right-hand man" to Dr. John Robshaw of Newmarket for six years.

The LaBranches are taking a leisurely cross-country tour, their first real vacation since they were married five years ago, on their way out to Washington, traveling through Canada and the northern United States.

Accompanying them on the camping trip will be Peter Bodge.

Mrs. Crystal Wietzell, the former Crystal Marden, has replaced Mrs. LaBranche in Dr. Robshaw's office. Mrs. Wietzell who graduated from Newmarket High School where she was active in school affairs, is the daughter of Mrs. Pat Marden of Newmarket.

Mrs. Carrie Mason and Mrs.

Molly Carpenter, direct descendants of the original Mathews family who was given the grant of land by the King of England, were the hostesses.

Mrs. McConkey spoke following the regular opening exercises, the reading of the American's creed and a short business meeting.

Fourteen members of the Granite Chapter were present and three guests from the Elsie Cilley chapter in Nottingham, Mrs. Barbara Guptill, Mrs. Grace Tuttle and Mrs. Louise Sawyer.

Also present were Mrs. Pauline Bartlett from Lexington, Mass. and Mrs. Hannah Lockwood from Westminter, Maryland.

Pipers Attend Reunion

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Piper of High road and their daughter, Myra Piper Jennison, her husband Lt. Col. Lewis Jennison and their two sons, attended a reunion of the Dame family held at the summer cottage of Mrs. Piper's niece, Mrs. Frank Braunfield at Mt. Major, Lake Winnepesaukee.

The twenty-four family members enjoyed a picnic lunch, boating, water skiing and swimming.

An accident temporarily marred the festivities when Lewis Jennison caught his hand on a boat hook while water skiing and had to be rushed to the Huggins Hospital in Wolfeboro where 34 stitches were taken in his left hand.

Personals

Townfolk were greatly grieved to learn of the untimely death of Mr. Ben Richardson last Friday. Before moving to Newmarket, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson lived in Lee where they made many friends and were active in the Grange and other community activities. The couple came to Lee from New York City where Mr. Richardson was a well-known professional musician.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spinney, former Lee residents, were in town recently visiting old friends. Mr. Spinney is curator of Old Sturbridge Village. The Spinneys formerly owned the old Pelletiah Thompson house now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Chris Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ninde of Durham have purchased the historic, old Cartland Homestead from Mr. Henry Nichols. The Nindes plan to move to Lee in the near future.

Mrs. Marion Sanders of Lee Hook road will retire from her job as Food Manager at the Memorial Union in Durham, Sept. 1st. Mrs. Sanders has been employed at the Memorial Union and the Notch in the food service for eight years.

Mrs. William Parmenter of Hopkinton spent several days recently with Mrs. Carrie Mason and Mrs. Molly Carpenter at their home in South Lee. Accompanying her were Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Parmenter and daughter Carol. Other recent visitors at the Bartlett farm were Chief Warrant Officer and Mrs. Abram Simmons, Jr., and their three sons from Camp Eustis, Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Caswell of Dover and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fletcher of Needham, Mass. CWO Simmons entertained the company with beautiful colored slides of his three months tour of duty in Greenland last year.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Eastman and four children were recent visitors at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Sackett at Turtle Pond road. Dr. Eastman was a former English teacher at UNH and lived in Lee for a short while. He is now on the faculty of the University of Michigan.

Douglas McGrath, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. MacGrath of Mast road was honored on his sixth birthday with a party and a cookout last Monday evening. Guests were members of his kindergarten class. A good time was had by all in spite of the rain and hail storm which forced the party indoors.

Fire Chief Lloyd Stevens and firemen Arthur Pratte, George Durepo and Charles Woodward attended the monthly supper meeting of the Strafford County Forest Warden's Association last Wednesday which was held in Alton.

Mr. Nelson Deveneau and family from Sudbury, Mass., were recent overnight guests of Mrs. Lloyd Stevens, the former Marion Deveneau.

Danny Nichols has been spending a few days with his cousin, Rany Stevens.

Jennison Family Reunion

For the first time in twelve years all ten sons of Mrs. Eva Jennison of Madbury were able to gather together with their families for a reunion. Sunny skies assured a fine day Saturday for the boys, wives and children to renew old family ties as they met at the home of Roger Jennison on the Concord road. Three large picnic tables laden with food assured the crowd no one would go home hungry and the laughter and shouts of the 28 children attested to the joy of cousin's reunion.

The ten brothers present ranging from oldest to youngest were Harold and wife and five children from Natick, Mass.; Charles and wife and one daughter from Madbury; Lewis and wife and two children from Tom's River, N. J.; Allyn and wife and three children from Madbury; George and wife and three children from Brunswick, Me.; Russell and son from Dover; Edward and wife and two children from Dover; Roger and wife and three children from Barrington; Richard and wife and four children from Peterborough and Robert and wife and three children from Madbury.

Oyster River School Registration

Any child not previously registered for school in the Oyster River Cooperative School District, including the towns of Durham, Lee and Madbury, is urged by Principal Thomas McAdam to do so as soon as possible to facilitate room and transportation planning. The principal's office is open Monday through Friday, except August 25 and 26, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Due to the delay in opening the new elementary unit of the Oyster River School now under construction in Lee, temporary housing has been set up for the first, second, third and fourth grade sections which will eventually be situated at the new school.

The first and fourth grade sections will be housed at the Durham school, while the second and third grade sections will be housed in two of the Durham churches. There will be no kindergarten in either school until the Lee unit is opened for business.

The hot lunch program will start with the first day and cost the same as last year, i.e., 30c a meal. The section of second and third grades held in the churches will not participate in the hot lunch program.

At a recent school board meeting tuition rates for the Oyster River elementary school, kindergarten through grade eight were set at $260 per year.

MY TRIP TO THE NATIONAL JAMBOREE

By John Willey

Part Two

Saturday, July 16th we awoke at 6:00 a.m., took showers, packed our bags on the bus and went to breakfast. At 9:45 a.m. we began touring the Henry Ford Museum in Greenfield Villiage at Dearborn, Michigan.

The part that interested me most were the first cars, airplanes and locomotives. The progress made from the very first of these has been terrific. We completed our tour at 12 noon.

We ate our lunch on the road and headed for Chicago. We had supper in a restaurant on the Indiana Toll Road and arrived at the Y.M.C.A. in Chicago at 9:30 p.m. We took showers and went to bed and believe, me the bed really felt good.

Sunday, July 17th, we were up at 7:30 a.m. and had breakfast. All the Catholic boys attended church at St. Mary's which was across the street from the hotel. After church we went to the Chicago Museum of History which was very interesting. We ate lunch at the museum cafeteria.

We then went to the John Atler Planetarium. It was then dinner time so we returned to the hotel. After dinner we cruised on Lake Michigan for two hours in a Mercury boat and were able to see Chicago by water.

Monday, July 18th, we were up bright and early, as we had more sightseeing to do in Chicago. We toured the Chicago Grain Exchange. We saw a movie for better understanding of the Exchange. Seeing the men and women exchanging stock was very interesting. After lunch we had three free hours and were allowed to go anywhere we wished. We left Chicago at 3:00 p.m. We were now on our way to Omaha, Nebraska. This was the only time we slept overnight on the bus.

Tuesday, July 19th, we arrived at Offutt Air Force Base at 5:00 a.m. and as soon as we got our sleeping gear off the bus we bedded down and caught up on the sleep we lost while riding the previous night.

After lunch we had 3 free until 2:30. At 3:00 p.m. we left for Boy's Town and at this time the temperature was a hot 109 degrees. We had a very nice time Touring Boy's Town, buying souvenirs and looking at the many articles in the buildings. We returned to the base at 5:30 p.m. and had supper. The rest of the evening was spent washing our clothes.

Wednesday, July 20th, we were up at 5:00 a.m., packed and loaded our gear on the bus, had breakfast and were on our way at 8:00. We arrived in Sterling, Colorado at 6:00 p.m.

Here we received a royal welcome, as police escorts were awaiting our arrival to escort us anywhere we wanted to go, and escort us they did! Thru stop signs, red lights, the works. We left our sleeping bags at the Logan County Fair Grounds and went to supper. After this we went swimming and when we returned we saw a movie of Colorado.

Thursday, July 21, we were up at 6:00 a.m., had breakfast and left Sterling (again with police escort) at 8:45 a.m. We were on the last lap of our journey as we were soon to be at Jamboree Camp. As soon as we arrived we set up our camp site and we all went to bed as we were all mighty tired.

Friday, July 22, we were up bright and early and spent most of the day rearranging the camp site. Friday night at 7:10 p.m. the Jamboree was officially opened. A half-century of scouting in America was marked by a colorful flag-raising ceremony which officially opened the fifth national Boy Scout Jamboree.

A new U.S. Flag with 50 stars was lofted and the nation's chief scout executive lighted 50 electric candles on a giant birthday cake 26 feet in diameter and 20 feet high.

While 56,000 scouts stood at attention, the flags of the states were raised in the order they entered the Union. Five-thousand Scouts took part in the show, with marching bands and scenes from the days of Columbus down to the old West in America unreel in a giant pageant portraying the history of the United States.

The Koshare Indians of La Junta performed with their famous dance. The panoramas of American history portrayed by the Boy Scouts from throughout the country and the presentation of the new 50 star flag in such numbers was a breathtaking sight to see. In fact, I haven't or rather do not know the words to properly describe the different scenes to do them justice. As far as I am concerned, I have never in my life seen a sight to compare with this.

Jim Arness, Marshall Matt Dillon of TV "Gunsmoke" fame rode onto the stage on horseback and he narrated the major portion of the program. There were talks by Dr. Schuck, chief scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America, President Ellsworth Augustus of the BSA and a short address of welcome by the governor of Colorado, Stephen McNichols.

The Opening ceremony concluded shortly before 10 p.m. with a fireworks display from both the Jamboree site and the top of Pikes Peak. The display of fireworks were so spectacular as to cause complete silence and at other times bring a deafening roar from the 72,000 present.

It was a most thrilling night and I know that we scouts will never forget it. After the fireworks so many section numbers were called out and at the command of rise and march, 1500 scouts marched out of the arena in about four and one-half minutes. In 45 minutes, all 56,000 scouts were out of the arena. This too was quite a sight to see.

BOATING ANYONE? If your answer is "Yes," don't scuttle your savings. You still can buy the boat of your dreams by borrowing the money instead. It's just about as easy to float a boat loan today as it is to borrow money for a new car. Demand for all kinds of pleasure craft—from small outboard to large cruiser—has made this nautical sport a good investment. Thus, more and more banks are now offering special-loan plans to would-be boat-owners. And you'll probably find it cheaper to borrow the money yourself—directly from a bank.

SPECIAL NERVE CELLS, located in our upper nostrils, are headquarters for our sense of smell, science tells us. It's also known that odor molecules in the form of solids and gases are carried to these cells and produce chemical reactions we recognize as smells. But something new has been added to our storehouse of scientific knowledge about smell—a recent discovery that different kinds of odors call for different deodorizing treatments. And today's home-maker benefits from this finding. The newest in aerosol room fresheners are Wizard's two new formulas—Fresh Breeze, a kitchen deodorizer, designed to kill cooking odors, and Mountain Mist, for bathroom use. Both leave a clean, light fragrance as they wash odors out of the air.

BASEMENTS ARE NO LONGER just places to store a way home-made preserves. They add new rooms to the home, and as such, they need their own particular attention. Because they are "submerged," they are often too damp for comfort—personal or property-wise. The answer? A dehumidifier which provides protection against dampness, mildew and rust. A dehumidifier can remove up to 24 pints of water in 24 hours. McGraw-Edison's Coolerator engineers point out some of the benefits derived from an efficient moisture remover in your home: Keeps valuable tools and equipment from rusting. Stops basement walls and pipes from sweating and dripping. Dries clothes faster when hung in the basement. Makes any room dry and livable for only a few pennies a day. Protects expensive furniture from swelling and warping.

Certificates Awarded At End Of Lee Fifth Swimming School Season

The fifth season of the Lee Swimming School, sponsored by the Lee Fire Department Auxiliary, came to a grand conclusion last Friday afternoon when pupils participated in a water ballet before a record crowd of interested parents, friends and townspeople at Donald Thompson's private swimming beach off Tuttle road in Lee.

Red Cross instructor Robert Buchan produced this type of show, instead of a competitive swimming meet, in the belief that every pupil from the youngest, age 4, to the oldest, age 16, should have a chance to perform. Classes taking part were the "tiny tot" beginners, advanced beginners, intermediates and swimmers.

Following the swimming events, the youngsters lined up to receive their Red Cross certificates and awards which were presented to them by their instructor.

Passing the Red Cross accredited beginners class were Barbara Haine, Toni Brown, Joanna Tyson, Burt Richmond, Russ Richmond, Randy Stevens, Maureen Labranche, Susan St. Amour and Kirk Kitchen.

Passing intermediates were Robert Loiselle, Carol Haine, Tim Brown, Joan Dow, Jerry Eickholt, Bill Mahoney, Maye Mahoney, Linda Pratte, Linda Calef and Andrea Calef.

Passing swimmers were Patty Richmond, Douglas Pratte, Cynthia Taylor, Nancy Taylor, Julia Underwood and Mary Lou Emhardt.

Mr. Buchan presented the following pre-beginners with honorary certificates: Carolyn Nugent, Steven Nugent, Bruce Haine, Kathy Brown, Jonathan Tyson, Ann Mahoney, Heidi Hubely, David Stevens, David Bailey, Wanda Bailey, Jonathan Drew, Ricky Drew, Rachael Taylor and Bill Calef.

Other pupils registered were Johanna Booth, Larry Haley, Donetta Haley, Peter White, David White, Paul Hubely, James Laing and Ann Hardin. Mrs. Lloyd Stevens and Mrs. Tom Mahoney, Auxiliary swimming co-chairmen, presented Mr. Buchan with a surprise gift of appreciation from the youngsters and their grateful parents.

The three assistants, Miss Patty Richmond, Miss Carol Underwood and Miss Joan Buchan were also given gifts of appreciation. The co-chairmen expressed their thanks on behalf of the Auxiliary for the cooperation of the following people who made this fifth swimming season the most successful: Mrs. Florence Caldwell, Lee chairman of the ARC and Mrs. Florence Dame, ARC director of the Dover chapter; Mr. Donald Thompson for the use of his private swimming pool; Ian Buchan and Nancy and Cynthia Taylor for assisting the instructor; Miss Alice Dudley for taking movies; Mrs. Fred Drew and daughter of Barrington for the use of their flag; and firemen Oliver Kennard, Lloyd Stevens, Ted Gooch and Arthur Pratte for donating lumber, fixing the beach, building and installing the docks.

"The Lee swimming school could not have been accomplished without the generosity and cooperation of the many dedicated folks in town who turned a supposed impossibility into a reality and we hope by our example other towns will become inspired to start swimming programs for their youngsters," the co-chairmen stated.

This year the Lee Fire Department Auxiliary and the Lee chapter of the American Red Cross cooperated in inaugurating a new program whereby an 18 year old will be sent each year to Camp Tevya in Brookline, N. H., one of the 14 ARC Aquatic Schools in the United States. Upon completion of his or her training, the accredited ARC instructor will then return

COMFORT COUNTS AT YOUR SUMMER-TIME PARTY

Even if your home isn't air conditioned, you can be as cool as a cucumber when you're entertaining this summer. It's all a matter of planning — and here's how to make it a perfect evening for you and your guests.

On the morning of the party, close the blinds or shades on the sunny side of the house. As the sun rolls around, close up the other side of the house. This will keep the interior fresh and cool. Do most of your housework during the cooler morning hours, and work at a steady, leisurely pace.

A necessary precaution for your guests' comfort during the summer months is to spray each room with a good insecticide — such as Black Flag's Fly and Mosquito Bomb — for mosquitoes make unwelcome guests at your party.

Prepare your food in advance, so you won't have to spend too much time in the kitchen that night. Keep the menu simple, and be sure to include a large crisp salad or a refreshing fruit bowl as party fare. Guests feel more at home if you let them serve themselves, and a buffet table makes much less work for you.

If you're planning to bring flowers inside to brighten up your living room, wait till dusk before you cut them — they tend to wilt in the noonday sun just as we do!

AWARDS PRESENTED AT CLOSING SESSION OF LOCAL PLAYGROUND

The Newmarket Playground closed its six-week season with ceremonies held on the stage of the high school auditorium last Thursday. The trophies to be awarded were displayed prior to the presentation.

Receiving the two top awards for good sportsmanship were George Phalen and Sandra Paradise.

Craft awards were given to John Carmichael and Peggy Shorey, each receiving a cup from Director Jack Dow. Runners-up for the craft awards were Ramon Romero and Claudia Marcoux. These cups were given on the basis of ability, willingness to be of assistance to others, character and attendance.

The high point winners were announced as follows: 1st place, Dale Marden with 852 points; Bill Ernest, 2nd with 815 points; George Phalen, 754; Bill Fecteau, 744; and Timmy Marcoux, 740 points.

High points for the girls were Sandra Paradise with 794; Jane Hazeltine, 513; Diane Van Fleet, 394; and Peggy Shorey, 386.

Runners-up for the boys were Ramon Romero, 594; Lionel Arsenault, 507; John Langlois, 500 points; John Carmichael, 489; Alan Knight with 457 points; Fred Edgerly, 443; Roy Lemieux, 418; Bumpy Filion, 371; and Dick Pettingell, 362 points.

Runners-up for the girls were Claudia Marcoux, 343; Nancy Demers, 321; Jill Carmichael, 255; Pat Munroe, 254; Jackie Varney, 127; and Linda Larivee, 125 points.

One-hundred and fifty children attended the annual outing at Pine Island Park. Two buses were hired to accommodate most of them. The remainder were transported by private car to save the cost of an additional bus.

Supplying cars were Mrs. Doris Paradise, Jack Dow and Mrs. Doris Gillis who also served as chaperones with Mrs. Toni Malek, Mrs. Helen Levesque, Mrs. Ann Downs, Mrs. Helen Cassano, Mrs. Catherine Huggins, Mrs. Leanna Chantre, Mrs. Shirley King, Mrs. Claire Howcroft and Dick St. Jean.

All of those present were treated to an ice cream party.

Mr. Dow expressed regret that the interest of the parents did not equal that of their children in this special final day. Despite the careful planning of the playground staff to honor the outstanding members of the group for their abilities and talents, very few parents made an effort to be present.

He also remarked that this has been the most successful season to date with no mid-season slump, due to the continued high level of interest, with the average daily attendance at 100 or better and that of special events nearing the 300 mark.

Behavior and discipline problems were infrequent. The accident rate presented no problem. Any casualties were from the barbed wire in the rear or from immovable equipment on the grounds. Less than one box of band-aids were used during the six-weeks.

Mrs. Paradise reported that interest in the crafts was maintained until the last minute. Over 200 lanyards were made, 70 pincushion and bug pins beyond count. Numerous face cloth bunnies were made during the last week.

Anyone with old usable rugged toys, coloring books, scraps of yarn of any color and weight could easily reserve these for the 1961 playground season.

On the 19th the two directors and volunteer helpers met in the crafts room to itemize and pack equipment for storage until the next season. Fred Edgerly served as a second assistant during the season and also in the final clean-up.

Mrs. Bentley Is Guest of Honor At Stork Shower

Mrs. Olive Bentley was honored recently at a surprise stork shower given at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Muriel Bentley of Rock street.

Attending were Mrs. Dolly Dostie, Mrs. Jean Blanchette, Mrs. Shirley Walker, Mrs. Linwood Gage, Mrs. Samuel Roper, Sr., Mrs. Helen Rogers, Mrs. John Bentley, Mrs. Roger Munroe, Mrs. Joseph Waldon, Mrs. Joseph Wojnar, Mrs. Dorothy Beauchesne, Miss Carol Roper and Mrs. Philip Hendrickx.

Guests from out of town included Mrs. Raymond Twombly, Mrs. Robert Dupre, Mrs. John Filion, Mrs. Samuel Roper, Jr., Mrs. William Chick and Mrs. Ronald Manning.

Mrs. Philip Hendrickx assisted the hostess at the buffet lunch which was served.

Miss Paradise Honored At 16th Birthday Party

Little League Organization Shows Much Progress In First Two Years

By Rusty Sharples

The majority of the people in the town of Newmarket have become familiar with the significance of Monday and Wednesday evenings of our summer season through the period of Memorial Day through August, three months of the utmost importance to the youngsters of our town. This is the season in which our version of the Little League is conducted.

Probably no greater project has been attempted for the youth of America than this program of providing our children with the opportunity to participate in organized athletics under the direct supervision of individuals who understand them and their anxieties.

How and where did this movement start? Although we would be justly proud to be able to claim Newmarket as its birthplace, it is unfortunately not so. As a matter of fact, the Little League movement gathering momentum as it spread throughout the country shortly after World War II, was met with indifference and a negative approach by most of the townspeople who even took the trouble to discuss it.

This apathetic view was however, in the spring of 1958 when a hurry-up meeting of interested parties was called, committees selected, details assigned and the Little Mule League Corporation of Newmarket was projected.

Spearheading the drive from virtually every angle were Harry Marelli and George Bergeron, the complete organizers and Leo Landroche, high school headmaster, who was unanimously elected president of the corporation.

Money was our immediate need but local manufacturers were more than generous and their contribution made it possible to completely outfit each of the four teams. Personal donations provided other equipment so necessary to the program and contributions from other local business establishments provided the funds to construct the field of play.

At this stage of the game we had just about everything we could ask for, everything that is, except a location. But as every Broadway production has its backers, our "Angel" emerged in the person of Adela Beaulieu, who turned over his lot on Shackford's Hill and we were off and running.

If any individual phase of the entire program could be called a community project, the construction period was it! Nightly and through-out each week end the afore named men led what amounted to a Jack of All Trades group and although the faces changed from day to day, the purpose and effort were unyielding. Here, if space permitted, would be the place to list the names of those who gave so generously of their time and labor; but we're certain they will each recognize our expressed appreciation if we say the teams of Romeo Loisselle and Barney Turcotte did a tremendous job.

Surprisingly enough, the field was ready for play on opening day and what a season it was — a two-way tie for first place which Eddie Finn's Giants won in a play-off with the Red Sox — and a two-way tie for third position.

To start the 1959 season more physical changes were made. In addition to seeding the field, a steel fence and scoreboard were erected; two features which we feel add a great deal to the convenience of the fans and the enjoyment of the players. It was hard work but the results have been gratifying and for those who participated a wonderful experience.

With Mr. Marelli elected president and Mr. Landroche commissioner, the '59 season again provided a "down the wire" finish with the Giants nosing out the Red Sox for first place honors. The competition was keen and each boy every inch a sportsman. The umpires were extremely faithful and did a fine job in situations where decisions are deceptively difficult to make.

We realize that mistakes have been made and are working hard to correct these situations. The first year taught us much that caused us to change our thinking, our routines and expectations. Distinct assignments have become a part of our by-laws and another year may see all the wrinkles ironed out.

The height of the season was the trip to Boston's Fenway Park where the 65 players and the minor league lads too, got a chance to watch the very best baseball players in the world. The trip was thoroughly enjoyed by all, including the chaperones who had little difficulty dropping off to sleep that night.

The past two years have been enjoyable ones for the approximately 30 active members who feel they have embarked on a successful venture. Membership is open for the asking and we'd welcome the opportunity to put your hands or your head to work in an attempt to provide every boy the opportunity to realize a wonderful dream.

The die has been cast, and for many evenings of the "unexpected" we solicit your continued attendance; attendance that not only has a monetary value, but also serves as an inspiration to the boys.

Many of these lads are accomplishing something that is immensely important to them and they want desperately to share it. Participation in this, the most vital phase, requires only attendance. Time well spent showing your youth we believe and that we care.

Red Deceit

A couple of weeks ago on a nice summer evening after supper, I sat down very comfortably with my usual daily paper when suddenly I noted an article concerning Khrushchev hinting about a new Summit conference after the November elections, suggesting that President Eisenhower is not qualified to deal with him now and that perhaps another president would more easily yield to his proposals and agree to his plans for world domination.

How wrong can a man be to try such a strategy? Eisenhower is up to his position and so will the next president when elected in November, be he a Republican or a Democrat! Neither will yield to his demands or proposals if they are not on the level at any future summit meeting!

Khrushchev had the nerve to say this, and I quote, "It is impossible to envisage a new Summit conference in advance of U.S. presidential elections in November, 1960." Who does he think he is to make such a statement? After ruining the last Summit and placing the blame on our president. He actually believe that with the next elected president he will succeed at another Summit and dictate his wants.

After reading that article, I decided to write the following which I call "Red Deceit". Of course, what I write is my opinion and not that of THE NEWMARKET TIMES.

Everyone will agree that this is not the time for complacency, indifference and calm contentment. The red wolf is too close to our front doorstep in Cuba.

Let's review briefly what the communists have done and are still doing in their quest for world domination. Who does not know that their boss, the big "K" demolished the Summit conference last May with the U-2 incident and with it crushed the hopes of millions for a world of peace? We know also that victims of centuries of oppression in Russia and more recently behind the Iron Curtain, are threatening to break their bondage with a violence which could engulf all of us in the free world. Other nations live in hunger and heed in this year of plenty. This is one of many problems we would like to solve, but in our optimism we must be aware of the reality of the present when we live in a world of misunderstanding and hatred . . . a hot volcano which may easily erupt starting a third World War.

As I said, "K" wants another summit meeting. But really history has proven that any parley with Soviet bosses appears to leave the U.S. at the boom of the heap. While the United States must exist on the same planet with Soviet Russia and maintain diplomatic relations and hold conferences, we must always remember that this is merely routine and does not constitute progress toward peace.

We know from 20 years experience that the Russians will not keep a promise that they can break. Dealing with Russia is different from other nations. Other diplomats bargain for the best terms for their respective countries. Russians admit openly that trickery and deceit are inherent in the communist ideology. They make their own rules and reward their representatives who excel in deceit.

Quoting Lenin, who according to Marx is a communist God, from his description of communist morality, "We say, that is moral which serves the destruction of the old exploitative society, and the unity of all workers around the proletariat." Lenin decrees that anything goes which helps the communist effort. This is really an underword doctrine, a credo of slave drivers who confidently expect to enslave the world in the near future. The important thing from now on is not to let ourselves be lulled by Khrushchev's promises of sweeping disarmament, his lip service to the cause of peace or his recent good-will trip here. We must bear in mind that communist diplomacy is based on duplicity. Our leaders must be certain that controls and inspection are fully provided and that the free world does not disarm only to discover, too late, that the communists have been increasing their military strength. "It is always better to prevent than cure."

In conclusion, let's not kid ourselves about future summit conferences. Negotiating with Soviet Russia is as low as anybody can stoop!

Next week I will elaborate with more facts regarding the manner in which Khrushchev gained control of the satellite countries surrounding the Soviet Union, and explain what could be done by us to help remedy the situation in an article entitled "Crusade for Freedom."

Here in the United States we are fortunate to enjoy the four freedoms: freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from want and freedom from fear, each of which is fully guaranteed each citizen. I for one, certainly enjoy freedom of speech or I should say, freedom of the press, in this series of varied articles and will continue my free-lance efforts for the education and enlightenment of the TIMES readers.

Joe Dix's Sport Corner

By Richard Schanda

With hunting season just around the corner, a little reminder seems in order. Many hunters use dogs to hunt birds and these dogs are quite difficult to handle when they first hit the fields.

If you notice a hunter's car stopping or parked along the road a little caution should be observed. It seems that a dog always dashes across the road or at least part of the way.

Many dogs are run over and killed in this way and when this happens a hunter loses a fine friend and hunter and the driver remembers that feeling when he sees the dog darting out in front of his car.

The Fish and Game Commission predicts an increase in the partridge population for all of N. H. except for the western section. Many foxes and a wet, cold week during the nesting season cut the hatch in the western section.

Our section should improve over last year but a poor wild fruit and seed crop will put a dent in next years birds.

A local visitor to the lower Lamprey has moved on. The beaver which had a den under the No. 6 mill has not been seen this year.

Local people had many explanations, but the most logical seems to be as follows.

A little while back a large beaver was run over by a car in front of John Pazdon's house. The game warden was notified and examined the animal. He then gave this beaver to the finder who sold it to a fur dealer in Exeter.

If there were a pair of beavers in the river, no doubt the other beaver left looking for a new mate.

Some experts claim beaver mate for life. If this is so the other may have left in search of its dead mate. Whichever reason it was, we lost our beaver.

A semi rare angler fish weighing around 25 lbs. and over 4 ft. long was caught by a local salt water fishing party just outside of Portsmouth. This fish had a mouth which would easily hold a ten quart pail.

The name angler comes from a pair of feelers which extend out from the fishes head. These feelers are tipped with a simulated minnow. The wands droop down in front of this fishes great mouth. This attracts small fish and when they get close the fish simply opens it's great mouth and in goes it's supper. It sounds like quite a stunt but it is all there in the dictionary.

A family of five mink have been spotted feeding and playing down in the lower Lamprey. It is quite a sight and a rare sight for wild mink are usually quite timid. Two of the young minks are tame enough to take food from your hand. When these mink find out how hard we humans are to get along with, they, no doubt, will lose this love for man.

That age old question on wood cock has been asked again. For your own protection check your local post office for the Federal regulations which are posted. You will see that you need a duck stamp to take wood cock.

League Officials To Meet Monday

A meeting of Little League officials will be held at the Town Hall on Monday, August 29th at 7:30 p.m. All officials, coaches and managers are urged to attend as this will be the final meeting of the year.

The meeting will center around the coming outing which will be held on September 11th at the Stratham Hill Park. Games, prizes and refreshments will be worked out and groups appointed to head these different items.

Bantam Bowlers Plan Outing

The Bantam Bowling League will conclude its first season with a banquet Saturday, Sept. 10th at Kingston State Park.

A charge of 50c per person will be made. Parents of children who have bowled with the league this season are urged to call Mrs. Norma Otash or Mrs. Nellie Anderson by Sept. 1st and make their reservations.

This is an excellent opportunity for parents to enjoy an outing with their children and to witness the presentation of awards and trophies. Transportation will not be provided for this event. Each parent of a young bowler will assume the responsibility for getting the child to the park by 12 noon, Sept. 10th.

Other bowling groups will hold similar outings at the park the same day and there will be swimming and games following the outdoor dinner.

All-Stars Edged By Epping, 2-1

The Newmarket All-Star team dropped a close 2-1 game to Epping last Sunday at the Little League Park. Loyal Newmarket rooters claim that at least two rule books were worn out as the game progressed.

Several rhabarbs erupted and when the dust had cleared the Epping coaches had pulled their team off the field. It took some time to convince the Epping boys that the umpires were calling, not the coaches.

The game went into extra innings with the score tied at 1-1. A fielding error in the first of the eight by the Newmarket team allowed the winning run to cross the plate. Even if the home team lost, we all saw a swell game.

Newmarket will again meet the Epping team at Epping next Sunday, August 28th at 2 p.m.

The All-Stars will meet Durham at Newmarket on the 1st of September at 6 p.m.

LITTLE LEAGUE FINAL STANDINGS

THIRD DISTRICT LEGION OFFICERS

Third District Legion Department Convention Is Termed Successful

Once more the Legionnaires of Newmarket have reason to be proud of their organization. Saturday, August 13th was the date of the 13th Annual District Convention of the Third New Hampshire District of the American Legion. The Robert G. Durgin Post were the hosts for the 3rd time within the last ten years. Proof in itself the important part this Post takes in Legion affairs in both the District, State and Local levels of Legion activities. To start the event, a Baked Bean Supper was served to members and visiting delegates from 5 to 6:30 p.m. A parade through the business section started at 7 o'clock from the library. Commander William Robitille of the 3rd District lead the parade with his staff of District officers and the District colors, followed by District Director June Daley of Portsmouth and her suite of District officers of the 3rd District American Legion Auxiliary. Next came the massed colors of several of the individual Posts followed by members of nearly every Post in the District. This District has 63 delegates and about 75% of them attended the meeting accompanied by their women folks. The actual business of the Convention started at 8 o'clock in Legion Hall and the meeting was called to order by Commander Robitille with the presentation of the colors, prayer and reciting of the Preamble of the American Legion.

The main item of interest was the election of the following officers for the season of 1960-61. Following are the new officers elected at this meeting: Junior Vice Commander Everett Mann of Hampton, Sgt. at Arms Leonard Kukesh of Exeter, Chaplain James Rosencranz of Kensington, Service Officer Walter Johnston, a Past Dept. Comm. of Portsmouth, Historian Fred L. Beale, Child Welfare Officer Harry Holmes.

Also Adj. and F.O. Robert L. McKenna, the Vice Comm. of the Durgin Post of Newmarket; Judge Advocate T. Casey Moher, a past Dept. Comm. of Dover; Membership chairman Honore Ouellette of Salmon Falls; Boy Scout officer Donald McLeod of Dover.

Publicity officers: Fred L. Beale for Rockingham County and Donald McLeod for Strafford County; Inter Post chairman, Joseph Biladeau of Exeter; Employment officer Francis Tucker of Portsmouth; Time and Place chairman Roland Paige of Hampton; Athletic officer Gordon Robinson of Durham; Naturalization and Americanism officer Justin C. Renner of the Portsmouth Post; and Oratorical chairman Donald McLeod of Dover. This makes an imposing roster of officers and one that augers well for the 3rd District for 1960-61.

It was voted to hold the next District meeting with the Pingree, Moss, Chatigney Post of Exeter on Friday, Sept. 30th at 8:00 p.m. sharp.

The following list of guests were present and spoke. Comm. Charles A. Bennett, Jr., of the Robert G. Durgin Post welcomed the convention and hoped that all the delegates would enjoy the privileges and facilities of the Post and have an enjoyable evening. Response was by Honore Ouelette, the District Vice Comm. Selectman John Twardus brought the greetings of the town and also hoped that the Legionnaires would enjoy themselves especially as he was a life member of the Legion.

Department Alternate Elect of the Auxiliary thanked the convention for her invitation as did the District Director elect Rita MacLeod of Dover. District Director June Daley of Portsmouth thanked the District officers for the assistance they had given her during her tenure of office and said she would do her utmost to assist them in any way for the coming season.

The Grand Chancellor of the Order of Knights of Pythius of New Hampshire, being present, was introduced to the members present. Grand Chancellor Charles E. Browne of Dover said that although the convention was composed of actual veterans and many of them also were members of his organization and that his organization was essentially a patriotic order and having been formed about the time of the Civil War and were working for many of the aims that the Legion worked for. He wished the convention all the best possible success in their programs and thanked the convention for the courtesy extended him.

Department Commander Paul Geddis of Pittsfield spoke and remarked that this was his first trip to the third district since his installation into office and that he had heard much about the good work that was done in the 3rd District and he has seen part of the way we did things down here and was much pleased with what he saw. He also told us that his District, the 5th New Hampshire District had a little bet on with the 3rd District on the membership percentage of the two districts for the year 1961. He stated the annual Fall Conference would be held on November 6th.

The newly elected officers were installed by the Department Commander Paul Geddis.

National Executive Committeeman Floyd J. Daley of Portsmouth and Past Department Commander Thomas McLin of Somersworth did not care to speak as they were members of this convention and had the opportunity to speak at all the meetings.

After the business meeting and picture taking of the newly installed complete District slate of officers for publication were taken, an evening of unsurpassed social activity took place.

It would seem that the music was in cahoots with us as some of the best music for dancing was presented by Dotty and her Pals. Yes, even the music players outdid themselves and the convention closed with the following individual remarks which shows the fame that this Post has for getting things done as they should be.

Remarks: "That was the best music that I have danced to for years." "Newmarket sure knows how to put on a good time at a district convention." "When will we have another time like this."

Your committee who had the preparing and work of this convention were mighty pleased to hear these remarks and they wish to thank the following for the hard work that was done with such satisfaction. Acting chairman Fred L. Beale and Robert McKenna extend many thanks for the satisfaction attained to Robert Ferland who took practically all the kitchen work on his shoulders and those who helped him, Mrs. Edna Ferland, Mrs. Phyllis McKenna, Mrs. Helen Levesque, Mrs. Charles Hobbs and Miss Florence Turcotte. Thier work in cleaning up was especially appreciated.
