Community Church Thrift Shop Proves Beneficial To Painting Fund

Even rain doesn't dampen enthusiastic Friday shoppers from browsing and buying at the popular Thrift Shop of the Newmarket Community Church where bargains galore await the customer's pleasure.

Started under the sponsorship of the Fireside Forum last April, the Thrift Shop has netted over $700, which will be turned back to the Church, probably for a painting fund. Although the Shop started with the idea of handling clothing, it has expanded to include books, jewelry, dishes, knick knacks and all kinds of interesting miscellany. Articles may either be donated for the cause or may be brought in on consignment on a 50-50 basis.

Another service the Shop offers is an exchange bulletin board where one can advertise articles For Sale, Wanted or For Trade. New merchandise, donated by a few local merchants, is also available at various times.

The Shop personnel has just opened up boxes of winter clothing as they look towards the cold weather ahead. The Shop is open every Friday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Committee members include Mrs. Robert Sewall, Mrs. Forbes Getchell, Mrs. Edward Polchlopek, Mrs. Irving Brown, Mrs. William Cashman and Mrs. Robert Filmore. Volunteer workers are Mrs. Lincoln Gowen, Mrs. Charles Dearborn, Mrs. James George, Mrs. John Dodds, Mrs. Sarah Gilbert, Mrs. John Carmichael, Mrs. Edward Dondero, Mrs. Jacqueline Ward, Mrs. Percy Larabee, Mrs. John Kitchin, Mrs. Nora Bassett, Mrs. Harold Szacik, Mrs. Robert Sewall, Mrs. William Cashman, Mrs. Edna Smith, Mrs. Mildren Livingston, Mrs. Albert Gilbert, Mrs. Clayton Bloom, Mrs. Joseph St. Armour and Mrs. Lloyd Wilson.

Other helpers include Mrs. Norman Cilley, Mrs. Edward Polchlopek, Mrs. Kenneth Anderson, Mrs. Lloyd Cotton, Mrs. Arthur Berry, Mrs. Ross Tennant, Mrs. Frank Jones, Mrs. Ralph Waugh and Mrs. Adelbert Clark.

54 TAX CASES HEARD SATURDAY

Fifty-four taxpayers were heard Saturday at the Town Hall by Mr. Donat Roy, State Tax Assessor. Out of the 54, 24 asked for rechecks, 12 dropped their complaints and 18 filed appeals.

Mr. Roy stayed until 5:30 instead of the stated 4 o'clock so he could process as many as possible.

Another meeting is being scheduled this Saturday, Oct. 8 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., to handle the few remaining complaints unable to be processed last week. The three Newmarket Selectmen were in attendance to lend their assistance.

Crash Through Bridge Near Pumping Station

Two Newmarket men, Eliot Bosinger, 22, of Maplecrest and Robert S. Labranche, 21, of Central street, are still recovering from their narrow brush with death last Saturday noon when the car in which they were riding crashed through the railings at the Water Works bridge into the Lamprey River.

The driver, Bosinger, was proceeding easterly on Packers Falls road and was just approaching the bridge when the overdrive locked as he tried to shift. He lost control of the car which careened through the fence into the river, landing right side up in nine feet of water.

Quick thinking on the part of the young men and favorable circumstances allowed them to surface through the opened windows and swim to shore with no trouble. An unidentified Massachusetts car picked up the victims and rushed them home.

Haines' wrecker of Durham pulled out the 1953 Willys, which was a total loss. Chief John Valliere investigated the accident. The town crew was called out immediately to fix the railing.

Another accident occurred

Sunday morning at 9 when a car operated by Ronald E. Labranche, 18, of 13 North Main street and a car operated by Henry A. Ziemba of 27 Beech street, collided in front of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

east on South Main street when the other car came out of the Rectory driveway and struck the left rear fender of Labranche's vehicle. No one was injured and only slight damage to the car was sustained.

A PROCLAMATION

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK — OCTOBER 9-15, 1960

WHEREAS, when you have to call the Fire Department it is too late to worry about FIRE PREVENTION, and WHEREAS, you can easily make an ammunition dump in your home or business by allowing an accumulation of flammable materials and by not heeding FIRE PREVENTION warnings, and

WHEREAS, if you clean up unnecessary accumulations, inside and outside, your property, and burn it properly you CAN control the fire YOU start, but too often it is impossible to control a fire that starts unknowingly, and

WHEREAS, FIRE PREVENTION is one of the few things that costs little, or no, money — merely time, care and thought

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WESLEY POWELL, Governor of the State of New Hampshire, do hereby proclaim October 9-15, 1960 as FIRE PREVENTION WEEK and call to the urgent attention of all our citizens that records prove that many FIRES CAN BE PREVENTED by heeding the warnings to check your heating systems, old or new; watch and check your smoking habits; keep exit ways clear at all times; never store flammables or flammable materials in closets under stairways; that a blown fuse means an overloaded electrical system and is a "Fire Alarm" warning to have your system checked, to look for short-circuits or frayed electric cords, never put in a larger fuse; panic is the cause of many deaths, train your family BEFORE A FIRE STARTS exactly what to do and where to go; be certain they have at least two ways out of every room in case one is blocked; materials marked "Flammable" mean just that, and can explode by a mere electric spark or from a pilot light; do not tamper with oil, gas or electrical appliances, "do it yourself" can cost a great deal — life — your home — or your business. Remember, we will soon be reading "Colder Tomorrow", to which the forecaster could all too often add "followed by death, injury and destruction by fire" unless each and everyone does his share in FIRE PREVENTION.

Given at the Executive Chambers in Concord this 3rd day of October in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and eighty-fifth.

By His Excellency, THE GOVERNOR /s/ Wesley Powell

COLUMBUS DAY

By Arthur LaBonte

The American holiday commemorating the oldest historic event on the North American Continent is Columbus Day — observed October 12th. This is, naturally, the most ancient occurrence in this part of the world because it marks the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus in 1492.

As we all know, Christopher Columbus was an eminent navigator, born near Genoa, Italy, about 1436. He became a sailor at the age of 14 years and developed a taste for astronomy and geography.

The history goes that he set sail on Aug. 3, 1492, with 120 men and three small vessels or caravels by the names of Santa Maria, Pinta and Nina.

Starting from Palos, he took a westerly course and reached land in the Bahama Group on October 12, 1492. He next discovered Cuba and Haiti, planted colonies on them and returned home in March, 1493. He died at Valladolid, Spain on May 20, 1506.

Naturally there are other claimants to the distinction of being the discoverer of this continent, and a few states, particularly those with large Scandinavian populations, have given some recognition to the claims of the Norsemen. Thus, in Wisconsin, Oct. 12 is known as Landing Day. In North Dakota and Indiana, it is known as Discovery Day. By avoiding designating names of any particular explorer, these holidays HONOR everyone who may have had a hand in discovering America.

Legend has it, of course, that Leif Ericson got to these shores in the 11th Century. Legend also says that Ericson, blown by storms, across the Western Sea, came to a land with self-sown fields of wheat and grape vines. He called it Vinland. Scholars have been trying to determine ever since, just where the intrepid Norseman landed, if indeed, it was on the North American coast.

It is generally accepted that he must have touched the southern coast of New England. However, that's a question we will leave to the Knights of Columbus and the Loyal Sons of Scandinavia to settle.

However, at this present day and age, what most of us are interested in is not America's past — but its FUTURE — and may we always remember and often repeat these 3 short words "GOD BLESS AMERICA."

Newmarket Cubs Opens Season

The first meeting of the three dens of the Newmarket Cub Scouts met at the home of den mothers, Mrs. Forrest Shorey, Mrs. Richard Schanda and Mrs. Phillip Mitchell Monday afternoon.

Den meetings are held weekly for an hour in the afternoon. Each mother is assisted by a Den Chief, who is an older boy scout. This is the second year the Cub Scouts have been organized and as is the case with the Girl Scouts, youngsters are unable to belong due to lack of leaders.

Two den mothers are urgently needed — anyone interested would be gladly welcomed and may call Mr. Phillip Mitchell, committee chairman. Dads are also needed to serve in an advisory capacity on the Cub Committee. This would only entail one meeting a month and would greatly benefit the organization. Dads interested may also contact Mr. Mitchell, or Cub Master Adelbert Clark.

The first Pack meeting will be held Tuesday, October 25 at the Library at 6:30. Theme for the meeting will center around Fire Prevention.

Field Marshal Montgomery Appears In Series Tuesdays On WENH-TV

Field Marshal Bernard L. Montgomery recreates his own World War II campaigns in a series over Channel 11, WENH-TV entitled "Command in Battle" telecast each Tuesday at 9:30 p.m.

The cocky Britisher takes viewers from the first reversal of the German and Italian forces in the North African desert to the eventual German surrender in Europe. British and German films, maps and charts are used to illustrate each campaign.

"Command in Battle" created widespread comment when first shown on BBC television, where the Field Marshal's outspoken comments caused much controversy.

Montgomery spares few of his critics or other military commanders who disagreed with his military strategy. He carefully outlines his differences with General Eisenhower about varying strategic plans in Europe.

Among the campaigns described by Montgomery are those of Alem Halfa and Alamein, the Battle of Mareth, the invasion of Sicily and Italy, the Normandy Campaign, the winter of 1944 in Europe and the German surrender at Luneberg Heath.

Michael Bowen, who produced the series for BBC, is a former Desert Rat who served as a wireless operator in a tank of the Fifth Royal Tank Regiment.

"Command in Battle" is being distributed in the United States on the National Educational Television Network in eight 30-minute installments.

EAGLES ACTIVITIES

With Arthur J. LaBonte

Last week, Sept. 28, at the Eagles' Hall, there was a very interesting meeting under the presidency of Harold Dawes. A new candidate, Mrs. Louis Chantre, was initiated in short form. Congratulations to the new member.

During this meeting many things were discussed, voted on and approved, for the good of the Order. A basketball team was approved and sponsored by F.O.E., to be in competition with other organizations in town. Then came the question of having a big class initiation in the middle of October. About 14 men candidates will be initiated in long form, with the cooperation of our home degree team, rehearsing once a week under the direction of Roderick MacDougall.

Then Whist parties were discussed. Whist parties are held every Sunday night at 7:30 p.m., Lower Hall, as a 10-week series. Eddie Dostie and John A. Schanda gave a few words of encouragement, hoping that at least 12 or 15 tables would be in action. More prizes will be donated at these card parties in the future.

Mr. Dostie said, "Announce the good news to your friends, spread the word around and remember that these card parties are run weekly to procure funds for a bigger and better Christmas party for our local children."

At the end of the meeting, a letter of resignation was read by our president, concerning the resignation of one of our best trustees, Richard Artz, who has other commitments for wintertime, therefore being unable to attend meetings regularly. "It is with deep regret," said President Dawes, "that we accept your resignation. We thank you and appreciate very dearly what you have done for the Aerie during these last two years, and our best wishes in your future plans."

After these words of appreciation, Mr. Artz received a rising vote of thanks by the whole assembly.

Richard H. Labranche, was elected and initiated as our new trustee, for the remaining of Mr. Artz's term.

Also, all the actors in the last show "Running Wild", received a rising vote of thanks for their kind cooperation and their success in behalf of the children's Christmas fund.

MUNICIPAL COURT PROCEEDINGS

Only one case was brought before Judge Russell H. McGuirk presiding at the Newmarket Municipal Court Friday afternoon. Henry Bosinger, Jr., of Packers Falls road, Newmarket was charged with failing to yield the right of way to an emergency vehicle.

Wilfred ("Tideo") Beaulieu, operator of the Newmarket fire truck, claimed Bosinger, who was driving a 1960 Vespa, failed to pull over and let the fire trucks go by when they were answering a call to a chimney fire Tuesday, Sept. 27, in spite of the trucks signalling with red lights and sirens.

Bosinger pleaded not guilty, but upon hearing evidence as presented by Beaulieu, Raymond Ripley and Albert Gilbert, the court found the defendant guilty as charged and ordered him to pay a fine of $25.

Bosinger appealed the fine, but as he was not represented by counsel, Judge McGuirk ordered him to post a $50 bond and gave him 48 hours to obtain counsel.

American Legion News

By Fred L. Beale

The Third New Hampshire District of the American Legion, held a district meeting with the Exeter Post as host post. The welcome to the members was given by Commander Joseph Bilodeau of Exeter and the response by district vice commander Honore Juillette of Salmon Falls.

Chairman MacLeod of the Boy Scout committee, reported that a new troop of Boy Scouts had been formed by the Epping Post and there were 85 boys in Farmington looking for a sponsor. Also, as chairman of the district oratorical contest, he reported that the brochures would be sent to the commanders of all Post and principles of all the high schools in this district sometime this month.

Chairman Harry Holmes of the child welfare committee, gave the following report: Amount of money spent on child welfare for the last year in this district was $9,334.00. In the total number of cases handled by the 17 Posts, 6,529 children were concerned. This is of particular benefit in the towns in which a Post is located as it measurably relieves the town officers of necessary expenses and help reduce the tax burden of the tax payers.

One exceptionally hard case came before the committee in which a father had gone to the hospital and will be there for a long time, leaving upon the mercies of the town and Post a prospective mother and 5 children, all in dire need of food and clothing. And a request for help for this family is asked and any person wishing to donate food and clothing may donate same to any of the local Posts or district officers. The local Post handling this case has given extensive aid, but is financially unable to carry on as is necessary.

Anyone in Newmarket who would like to add a little aid in this case may do so by contracting Robert McKenna, district adjutant or Fred L. Beale, district historian, by and they will call and pick up any donation.

The exact sizes of clothing needed will be entered in next week's TIMES, but food is of immediate need. In Newfields, call William Robitille, district commander, and he will pick up any donations.

The next district meeting will be held in Hampton on Oct. 14 and it would be a great pleasure to the officers if every member attending would bring the essential foods, canned or otherwise, to aid this very needy family. If unable to send food, any small financial assistance will be prudently handled and accepted.

Comrade Burk of Salmon Falls, who is handling the benefit to the seacoast area aid for retarded children, reported that tickets were out and being sent to all Posts with a hope that they will all be sold. Cash contributions will also be accepted and the entire receipts will be used only for this aid.

Joseph Bilodeau of Exeter was appointed as inter-Post activities chairman and Justin Renner of Newfields as hospital chairman and the two appointees were approved by the meeting. Chaplain James Rozencranz retired under the press of his business and same was accepted with regrets and Horace Gouley of the Kensington Post was appointed to serve the unexpired term of his office. This was also approved by the assembly.

The Robert G. Durgin Post of Newmarket challenged the Somersworth Post to a membership contest, to end March 31, 1961, and proposed a rotating trophy for a 10-year duration with the winner of the most contests within that time given permanent possession. The annual fall conference will be held with the Somersworth Post on Nov. 4. The membership committee of the Robert G. Durgin Post will start a concentrated drive for membership and asks the complete cooperation of its membership in order to try to be the winner the first year of the challenge trophy with the Somersworth Post. They will be calling on all members who have not paid their 1961 dues to date. Dues are due on or before Oct. 20 each year, which gives us only three weeks to make our quota. The quota is 417 and to date we have 48% collected.

Are you planning your costume for the coming masked Halloween party? Better get busy.

Here is another thought for the week: Opportunity may knock only once, but temptation keeps banging away for years.

Will those members who have books of tickets on the Corvair please make returns as soon as the books are sold. The district wants a report on the returns.

The next regular meeting of this Post will be Monday, Oct. 17.

Mr. Walter Gazda, local jeweler and watchmaker, has recently been awarded a Master Watchmaker Certificate by the American Watchmakers' Institute, Inc.

This is a very coveted award and is limited to only the most expert watchmakers in the country. Mr. Gazda is to be congratulated on his achievement and Newmarket residents are fortunate to have such a watch repair service in their town.

James B. Creighton

James Brackett Creighton was the son of Stephen Creighton, who was one of the old fashioned "school masters". His mother, the former Hannah Brackett, was a woman of great force and energy, and one not easily discouraged, but it was very hard for her when her husband died. James was only a baby at that time. They were then residing in Exeter. Mrs. Creighton opened her home to young men who were attending Phillips Academy.

When James was only 14 years old he decided he was going to get work and help his mother. He thought he would like to learn a clothiers trade and so one day he left home and journeyed to Lancaster with a pair of horses and a heavy wagon upon which was loaded a new and famous invention, a machine for carding wool into rolls.

As soon as it was set up the boy began to study its mechanism and to learn "how the wheels go around." The machine was very crude and its work very unsatisfactory and complaints came thick and fast from the housewives. James discovered that at one end the product was even, while at the other end, he described as "crinkley, knobby, and so you cannot use it."

With true Yankee daring, he seized a wrench and took the machine apart, found out what the matter was and corrected the defect in the mechanism, readjusted it and started the wheels. James now saw both ends turn out good smooth, even rolls. When Mr. Brown, his employer saw what James had done, he ordered that no one be allowed to touch the machine but James.

Having served his years of apprenticeship at Lancaster, Boscawen and Sanbornton Bridge before he reached his majority, we find that he has a mill of his own at Wadleigh Falls. After conducting this for a couple of years, he brought a mill privilege and land at Epping corner. Here he also built a house, milk barns, store houses and all necessary out-buildings incidental to the early manufacturing of cloth.

He was interested in the militia and was chosen captain, but declined the offer as he had but recently settled in Epping and he thought some of the older men should have that honor, but in 1817 his objections were overruled and he took command of his company.

In 1812, a call was made for men for 15 days to be stationed at Portsmouth Plains and his company went as a unit.

He moved to Newmarket in 1826, where he opened a department store and he could proudly say that he kept what his patrons wanted — a large and varied stock. He engaged extensively in lumbering and launched and sailed his own gondola and thus reduced his freighting bill. He owned a lot of property in Newmarket.

In 1830, he was appointed Aid-de-Camp with rank of Colonel, by his Excellency, Governor Harvey. Mr. Creighton served in both branches of the legislature, and in 1840 was president of the Senate. He was justice of the peace and also held the office of postmaster.

He was twice married. In 1814 he married Sarah, daughter of Zebulon Dow, by whom he had three children: Zebulon Dow, Eliza Eastman and Martha March. In 1836 he married Charlotte C. Murray, by whom he had one daughter, Sarah J., who became the wife of George Frank Walker, who is the grandfather of Frank Walker of Newmarket. His grandson is also named for him, George Frank Walker. Mr. Creighton died Aug. 11, 1882.

Baroness R. F. von Blomberg

At the Parent Teachers Association last week Mrs. Philip Mitchell introduced the speaker of the evening, Baroness R. F. von Blomberg. She was a very interesting speaker. She is an associate of Baron Frary von Blomberg in diplomatic relations. She is also a cousin of the Baron.

The Baron's family, old Frary family, dates back to the very early frontier settlement, 1638. The old Frary house in Deerfield, Mass., is now a historical spot.

His mother's family, the Brannens, are among the founders of Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada, in 1783.

He was adopted by the late Baroness Adelheid Marie von Blomberg, cousin of the late General Field Marshal Baron Werner von Blomberg, former Minister of Defense of Germany.

The Baron is an unusual man with an unusual career. Born a Yankee, made a German nobleman, listed in Almanac de Gotha, Knight of Malta, order of St. John of Jerusalem.

He is an advisor in International Affairs, experienced observer of World Developments, spokesman for exile and minority groups. He has travelled widely in most of the free world. Recently he spent seven months in South Africa.

The Baron was one of the first to introduce public relations in New England, in 1925. He is an extraordinary assistant to the Royal Greek government. He is an honorable member of the Polish home army and foreign advisor for German expellees.

Baronees Richard Fritz von Blomberg is an internationally known lecturer, traveller, Christian author and worker. She has travelled off and on the beaten pathways of the world and has served all ranks and races. She is renounced as the accredited discoverer of the fate of the late Col. F. H. Fawcett.

From all reports received, October 12th through October 31st in Coos, Carroll and Grafton Counties and from November 11th through November 30th in the southern counties. Bear Brook State Park is open to archers from October 31st through November 30th. Special Bow license will cost $3 and you must have a regular hunting license.

The condition and size of the partridge seem to have increased over last year. Many partridge have been spotted along the roads and in the alder patches. Wild apples and wild cranberry are fairly scarce but this may be only a local condition. A report on up-country bird hunting will be printed shortly.

The bow and arrow hunters will be busting the brush a few days earlier this year with the season opening on deer from October 12th through October 31st in Coos, Carroll and Grafton Counties and from November 11th through November 30th in the southern counties. Bear Brook State Park is open to archers from October 31st through November 30th. Special Bow license will cost $3 and you must have a regular hunting license.

Die-hard fishermen fought some real tough, cold, windy weather to catch their last trout of the season with back lake and swift river producing some nice fish. Rainbows hit well up in Back Lake while brookies and rainbows hit on Swift River.

By the way, the road from Lincoln to Conway has been made passable from end to end and for pure unspoiled beauty one must take this trip. Allow about 3 hours for the trip as you will stop many times just to look and take pictures. Just 20 feet off this highway is a wilderness which looks today as it looked before the white man crossed the big pond.

NEW SKATING RINK IS READY FOR WINTER

A spacious skating rink has recently been constructed and given to the children of Newmarket for their wintertime pleasure. Sponsored by the Servicemen's Club of Newmarket with additional donations from the American Legion and the Barrack (World War I Veterans), a beautiful natural rink has been completed on Lamprey street, just off North Main.

Adults, especially parents, were becoming increasingly alarmed at the danger of children skating on the river and it was this concern that sparked the idea of a municipal rink. Mothers may rest secure in the safety of the pond as it is only about eighteen inches deep. That seems certain, however, that the water level will remain constant, as it is constructed in lowland.

Many thanks go to the American Legion who also donated the use of the land and to the Filion Construction, Inc., for their fine donation and the excellent job of construction and to the individuals who pushed the project through to completion. Newmarket will well be proud of this latest addition to their youngster's recreational program.
