EDITORIAL

We can no longer afford to shut ourselves behind the closed doors of indifference and self interest where our children are concerned.

The youth today hold the only hope for tomorrow; we must see they have every opportunity to develop into intelligent and mature young men and women.

We can't do this by sitting at home watching TV, at the clubs or pursuing our own selfish interests.

Welfare Secretary Abraham Ribicoff recently said, "The American people's supposedly deep commitment to education seems to be one of the great illusions. To me it seems the contrary is true. I don't think the American people realize the importance of education. You can see this in every community where bond issues fail four or five time and school budgets are rejected. If the people were committed to education this would never happen."

A parent's genuine concern and interest in the progress of his child's development and education is his most sacred responsibility, whether the child goes to private, parochial or public schools.

After age six a child spends his days away from home, behind the school door. Do you know, do you care, what is happening to him during these seven hours of every day?

How many parents have visited their child's classroom, met his teacher, discussed the teacher's and the school's program?

In the public school system, how many parents show enough interest in their children's school life to attend meetings of the P. T. A., the sole purpose of which is to create a better understanding between parents, teachers and students?

According to this year's school report there are 144 elementary pupils, 84 junior high and 132 high school pupils in Newmarket, making a total of 360 children. At the last few meetings of the P. T. A., there have been only fifteen or twenty parents present.

We would like to list a few of the accomplishments of the P. T. A. during the last six years, some of which have benefited both parochial and public school children: prime mover in the hot lunch program, support of the school dental clinic, bought portable scales for school nurse, white Christmas drive for Salvation Army, sponsored Eagle's Christmas party, helped purchase cyclorama for stage in gym, purchased tape recorder, contributed $60 for transportation (three times) of children to Exeter for Salk vaccine, established P. T. A. scholarship of $25 (now $50) for outstanding high school student.

Also, Trade's Fair to help dental clinic and aid purchase of gym equipment, purchased new stove for hot lunch program, sent Boy Scout to Camp Carpenter for a week, contributed to 4-H baseball team ($25), helped establish the polio clinic and continuing to do so, contributed to high school yearbook, purchased teaspoons for home economics, bought motion picture projector for elementary school ($500), donated money for library books for high school, purchased syringes and needles for polio clinic, sponsored Well Child Clinic, helped establish Cub Scout organization and continues to sponsor it, contributed to educational TV, sponsored the Bantam Bowling League in Exeter for all Newmarket children, helped purchase rainwear for safety patrol unit and the present project—to continue to expand the facilities of the high school library.

We think this is an impressive list and it constitutes a great deal of work by dedicated parents and friends. However, this is no time to rest on our laurels; our children face a fiercely competitive society where the best in education is the barest necessity.

With every new generation of parents, the demand for parent education mounts. As we advance into the age of automation and atomic power, new educational, economic, social and health problems will confront the American people. The task of the P. T. A. today and tomorrow is as challenging as at any time in the past. Its usefulness and ability to act for the good of children and youth will continue to attract the energies, skill, talent, imagination and resources of all persons who care about what happens to young people.

The P. T. A. needs more parent interest. Won't you volunteer?

BOB BENNETT HONORED BY POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

Twenty postal employees honored Bob Bennett, retired rural mail carrier, and his wife Edwina at a dinner party Saturday evening at Four Oaks, the summer cottage of Nick Zuk.

Mr. Bennett was presented a "Superior Accomplishment Award" by Newmarket Postmaster Frank Labranche and a letter from Michael Zeeb, regional suggestions and awards officer, which follows:

Dear Mr. Bennett,
The Regional Incentive Awards Committee was highly pleased to take favorable action on Postmaster Frank Labranche's recommendation that official recognition be extended you for your superior performance of assigned duties while you served as a rural carrier at Newmarket, N. H. and for your dedication to the Government's service objectives.

In appreciation of those outstanding contributions which you have made for the benefit of our Postal Service, we present to you the Post Office Department's Superior Accomplishment Award, signed by Post Master General J. Edward Day and Acting Regional Operations Director C. O. Tedrow. Please accept this with our sincere congratulations.

A copy of this letter will be made part of your permanent personnel folder.

STATEWIDE CIVIL DEFENSE ALERT SCHEDULED FOR COMING WEEK

At the monthly meeting of the Newmarket Civil Defense Organization held Monday evening at the fire station, Director George Hauschel announced notification of the state-wide Civil Defense alert to be held next week.

It is most imperative that members and the general public note that during the red alert all sidewalks and streets must be cleared and pedestrians must take to the nearest cover.

Director Hauschel also read an interesting communication from the state Civil Defense news letter as follows:

"O. C. D. M. Director Frank B. Ellis has announced that bids for construction of the first regional underground headquarters have been requested.

"It is estimated that the structure will cost about $2,000,000. It will consist of an above ground building for normal operations and a two-story underground shelter building, 172 feet long and 142 feet wide. It is planned to accommodate five hundred people for thirty days. Other such headquarters buildings are being planned for all O. C. D. M. regions."

Director Hauschel requested all geiger counters be checked before the alert. He also called for a report from Fred Harclerode on investigation of the old silver mine at Great Hill in Newmarket. Mr. Harclerode reported that he had received a request from Mrs. Viola Alling, Durham, head of the radiological C. D. in this region, to test the old silver mine at Great Hill for any radioactive material. The findings were negligible.

Following the business meeting, Ronald Bunton and Harold Clark showed films and spoke on the Port Charlotte Development in Florida.

A delicious supper was then enjoyed which was furnished by George Hauschel and Warren Sawyer of smelts, scalloped potatoes, salad, bread and butter, cake and coffee to thirty-four members and several guests.

The Newmarket Times learned today that the committee in charge of the basketball testimonial banquet had secured the famous Bill Sharman as the principle speaker for the forthcoming affair.

Sharman is a graduate of the University of Southern California and in his last two years playing college basketball he never missed a foul shot for a college record which still stands.

The last ten years he has been playing for the Boston Celtics who with his great back court work have won the NBA professional league championship four times in the last five years. This year he won the foul shooting championship in the NBA.

His attendance should assure the success of the banquet and those who haven't already obtained tickets should do so soon as the Polish Hall will seat only about two hundred persons.

Sharman has just signed a contract to manage and coach the Los Angeles Jets, newest member of the American Basketball League.

This testimonial is being sponsored jointly by the American Citizens Club of Polish Descent, the Fraternal Order of Eagles and the American Legion.

Plans call for the banquet to be held on Sunday, April 30 at 2 p.m. at the Polish Club Hall. Tickets are now available at the club rooms of the sponsoring organizations.

Donations have been made by all the local manufacturing establishments and the merchants which will help this affair to be a big success. Those who wish to contribute but have not been contacted are asked to see any of the following committee members: Kenneth "Red" White, Eddie Ross, Freddy Pohopek, Rusty Sharples, Stan Siekicki, Harold Dawes, Bill Duffy, Harold Ward, Dickie Labranche and Ernest Bearisto.

Metropolitan Life Pays $8,795,168 To New Hampshire Policyholders

J. Leo Quinlan, manager of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company's Dover district, reports that the company's payments to policyholders and beneficiaries in New Hampshire last year amounted to $8,795,168.00.

"On the basis of company-wide averages, about twice as much was paid to living policyholders as to beneficiaries of death claim payments," he added.

Over the last five years, payments to New Hampshire policyholders and beneficiaries have amounted to $41,470,335.

Metropolitan paid out a record of $1,755,000,000 to policyholders and beneficiaries last

Accident Report

April 14: Vincent J. Termini of Newfields reported that at 6 a.m. while on his way home from work he lost control of his car near the Rockingham Golf Course, skidded in the snow and hit a telephone pole. He was alone at the time and was not injured. Slight damage was reported to the rear right fender of his car.

April 15: A car operated by Raymond Lepage of 15 Exeter street, while proceeding north on Main street near the Eagles' Hall, collided with a car of Willis Mailhot of Epping. Misjudging the width of the road, Lepage's car hit the Mailhot vehicle. No damage was reported to the Mailhot car but the Lepage car was damaged slightly.

On April 16, a car operated by Robert P. Goney of Mast road, Durham, ran into the rear of a car operated by Armand J. Lepage of 60 Main street, on Main street. No damage was reported to the Goney car but the Lepage car sustained a damaged rear bumper and trunk cover.

In other police news, on April 17, Erwin Mandigo of 15 Central street, complained to the police department that sometime Sunday night two hubcaps were stolen from his Mercury car which was parked in Turcotte's lot. The hubcaps were of the Oldsmobile spinner type.

The memorial tile committee of the Community Church recently received a box of tile from the Bahamas.

The Robert Skeeles had also included tile signed by friends; one from Dick's Point, Nassau, one from Fenchurch street, London, England, and two from South America.

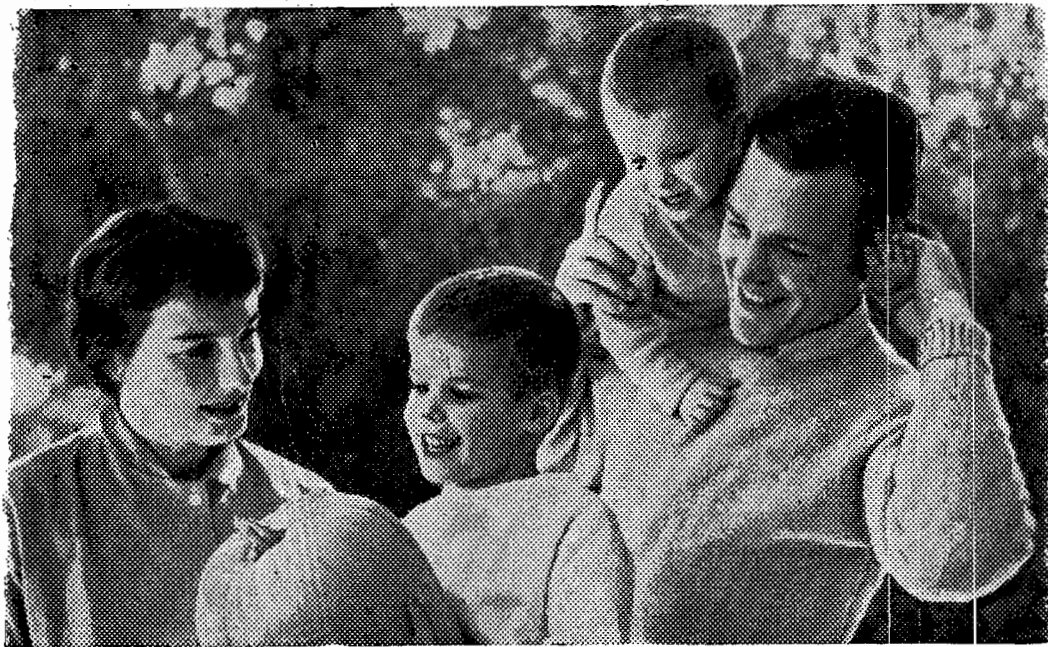

The latter were signed by donors from Puerto Ordaz, Estado Bolivar, Venezuela, and from Caixa Postal, Victoria, Brasil.

The committee had fun getting out an atlas and finding just where these kind people live.

Mrs. Getchell, chairman of the tile project, said, "We also discovered that Brasil is the Portuguese spelling of Brazil. Our project in worldwide

Nomination of Officers

I would like to remind all Eagles that on Wednesday, April 26 at 8 p.m., there will be the nomination of officers in our Aerie. Needless to say, this meeting is the most important of all, considering the fact that F. O. E. takes a great interest and makes every effort to see that able officers are chosen for the ensuing year, which begins in June of each year.

It is highly important also, that all Aeries have sound leadership, because only then can they carry out their functions properly for the best interest and best advantage of all members.

Fortunately, Eagles all over the United States and Canada and I should say all over the world, have generally managed to elect good leaders each year and that is the main reason why the F. O. E. has such a good name and such a good reputation the world over.

Also, we must realize that it is only through continued inspired leadership, that our organization will remain in the vanguard of fraternal groups. Therefore all members should do their utmost to attend this important meeting on the date above mentioned.

While I am on the subject, I would like to remind all members that election of officers will take place at the first meeting in May and that installation of officers will take place at the first meeting in June.

So, lets hope that next Wednesday, April 26, we shall all meet and nominate our Aerie officers, for 1961-62, in order to keep up the good work so efficiently carried out in our small community since 1910 with the kind cooperation of all members of the Aerie.

Our next F. O. E. code is (10) plus.

banners next week. One winner will be selected, and that person will be able to take her husband, his wife, a member of the family, a relative or a friend to enjoy the bonus vacation for two.

The lucky shopper will travel to Logan International Airport and will fly Eastern Airlines to New York, where hotel accommodations will be waiting at the beautiful Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. While in New York a busy schedule will await the vacationing two-some.

Included in the vacation will be tours of the United Nations with a stop at the International Gift Shop, the Book Shop and the U. N. Postal Administration in the visitor's concourse.

Visits to Lower New York, Chinatown, the Bowery and the Battery, a harbor tour, and a trip to the financial district are scheduled in the itinerary. The vacationers will have their choice of tickets for an evening musical or theatre, followed by after show reservations at the Village Barn for a floor show, dancing and refreshments.

Then, an Eastern Airlines flight to Boston, return to Dover with lasting memories of a story-book vacation as the winner in Dover's Spring Festival.

Hundreds and hundreds of folks will register at the many participating stores. Will you be the winner of a bonus vacation in New York?

HELP NEEDED NOW FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN DRIVE

Returns for the 1961 Easter Seal campaign in New Hampshire are coming in slowly but steadily, but we are far from reaching the needed goal, it was announced today by Robert W. Upton, state Easter Seal chairman.

In the report issued to all chairmen in the state, Mr. Upton stated that Strafford County and fifty-nine towns have now reached the Easter Seal "Honor Roll" (exceeding last years returns) including: Walpole, Dalton, Freedom, Brookline, New Boston, Greenville, Chichester, Dunbarton, Henniker, Sutton, Hill, Grafton, Holderness, Piermont, Wentworth, Kensington, Northwood, Stratham and Washington, to be added to thirty-four previously reported.

"Orchids" were announced to eleven towns in which they have exceeded last years results from one and one-half to four times as much. They are Stark, Mrs. Laura Oakes; Litchfield, Mrs. Lorraine Pelkey; New Ipswich, Mrs. Phillip W. Taylor; Pelham, Mrs. Frank Foise; Wilmont, Mrs. Frederick Lajoie; Piermont, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Robinson; Thornton, Mrs. Evelyn Benton, and New Hampton, Mrs. Caroline M. Spadone.

The agency issued a special salute to the boys of New Hampton School for their contribution of $50 which helped that town go well over the top in the campaign.

With still thirty-three towns not having reported as yet, Upton feels confident that with added support the Easter Seal Agency will reach its desired goal. In the membership contest for the state and in which the Robert G. Durgin Post #67 took an active part, the results were Martel-Roberge Post #47 of Salmon Falls won the McLin trophy, Robert G. Durgin Post was second, and the LeClair-Caron Post #13 of Greenville was third. The trophy was easily within the grasp of the Durgin Post and only eight more members' dues would have done it. The deadline was March 17. We are now awaiting the results of the Newmarket-Somersworth contest, which ended April 1.

Monday night's regular meeting turned out to be one of the most active and invigorating meetings held for sometime. It was the largest attended meeting of the year and showed what could be claimed as an unusual interest in the affairs of the Post and if that same kind of response can be had each and every meeting there would be unlimited lengths for good for the Post and our community endeavors. One of the high-lights of the meeting was the election of officers for the 1961-62 season and the following were elected and will be installed at the Legion Hall by the district officers on April 29:

Commander, Robert L. McKenna; vice commander, Frank M. Toland junior; vice commander, Frederick H. Degonyoun; adjutant, Joseph L. Ledger, finance officer, Fred L. Beale; historian, Bertram E. Branch; chaplain, Harold E. Ward; sergeant at arms, Richard Gilbert, and service officer, Theodore Allen Jr.

Also trustee for the club for three years, Frank Schanda; trustee for one year, John F. Sullivan; and five members elected to the executive committee were Charles A. Bennett, Frederick H. Degonyoun, Gerard Plante, Robert Ferland and Joseph G. A. Plante.

Delegates to the department convention in Portsmouth in June were commander-elect, Robert L. McKenna and Joseph L. Ledger, adjutant by the by-laws also, Charles A. Bennett, Fred L. Beale, William Duffy and Harold E. Ward. Alternates are John F. Sullivan, Frederick Degonyoun, Arthur Pratte, Richard Gingrass, Theodore Allen Jr. and Louis L. Rowell.

Dr. Ellen Greenleaf of Durham was attending physician, and Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Clarence Faulkner were the registered nurses in attendance.

The clinic was sponsored by

Mrs. Lois Booth, RN, State Health Department public health nurse.

For those who missed their polio inoculations for various reasons or who will need second shots may obtain them at the Well Child Clinic to be held May 11 at the Community Church in Durham from 9:30 to 11 a.m.

Fire Department

The Lee Fire Department held its monthly meeting Thursday evening in spite of the snow storm. There were eight members present.

It was voted to purchase new hose as soon as possible.

All members present signed a letter of appreciation to fellow fireman, John Knabenschuh, who recently moved to Virginia. Knabenschuh was one of the departments most active firemen.

There was a discussion concerning disposal of the utility trailer in favor of a four-wheel drive vehicle which would be much more practical for fighting brush and forest fires. No action was taken.

Weather permitting, Monday night, April 17, was set to clean up the dump.

Previous to the meeting, all the Indians pumps were serviced.

Personals

Mrs. Benjamin Lang recently returned to her home on Calef Highway, Lee, after a two-week vacation in Florida. Mrs. Lang traveled with her daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Quinn, by plane to West Palm Beach, where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Connor and family and Mrs. Lang's newest grandson. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Al Gray at St. Petersburg. They motored back to New England with Mrs. Bernice Lang Assetta who had been residing with the Connors.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tuttle and two sons spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pratt of Bryantville, Mass.

Radarman Second Class Benjamin Gooch was home on an unexpected week-end leave. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gooch, drove him back to Norfolk, Va., where he soon will embark on a Mediterranean cruise.

Mrs. Carl Brown of Concord road recently won third place in the bowling roll off with an individual score of 500. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Robert Badger are members of the inter Bowling League in Portsmouth. The league will hold its annual banquet on April 20 at the Dragon Seed restaurant.

Spring Concert at O. R.

Students of Oyster River Elementary School in Durham, from kindergarten through sixth grade, will take part in a spring concert Friday, April 21, at the Oyster River Auditorium.

Mrs. Hazel Kingsley, elementary school music supervisor, will be in charge of the program. Each grade will perform as well as the beginners and junior bands.

Children who are performing must report to their own rooms between 7 and 7:30 and will remain there except for their respective appearances on the program. This is due to the limited space available in the auditorium.

Admission for parents will be fifty cents and children under school age will be admitted free. Mast Way School will hold a separate concert sometime in May.

Bishop Place Burned

The Lee Fire Department took advantage of Sunday's torrential rains to burn down the remains of the old John Bishop place at Newton Plains; a job long contemplated but never accomplished due to the lack of proper conditions.

Fire Chief Stevens and firemen taking part in the operation expressed their sincere appreciation for the coats, hats, boots and pike pole donated by the Lee Fire Departments Auxiliary, which eased the job considerably.

School Vacation

Vacation at the Mast Way and Oyster River Schools will start Friday, April 21. Schools will reopen on Monday, May 1.

Community Church

On April 27 there will be a meeting of the entire church membership at 7:30 p.m. in the church. The purpose of the meeting will be to vote on the proposed constitution of the United Church of Christ.

The Rev. Richard Clark, pastor of the Lee and Madbury Churches, expressed his opinions of the merger thus:

"All have had the opportunity of reading the proposed constitution of the United Church of Christ and most should be competent now to vote. Many have read the pros and cons in one of our state papers. It must be pointed out that our leaders have in all instances acted with charity and have honestly tried to present and interpret the facts. The same cannot be said for the opposition.

"As we come now to vote as a church on this important issue, we must bear in mind one fact: We do not vote according to our personal likes or dislikes. Our decision must be based on whether this new step is the Will of God, does it best fulfill the mission of the Church of Christ: It is His Church not our's. We must vote in the spirit of prayer."

Clean Up Day

At the recent meeting of the board of trustees, it was voted to have an all-church clean up day on Saturday, April 29. The day will begin with a service in the church at 9:30 a.m. All are asked to bring a picnic lunch, beverages will be provided. If anyone cannot come for the whole time, he would be most welcome to come for whatever time is possible.

With rakes, volunteers will attack the outside and with brooms, rags and cleaning miracles the inside will get a going over.

The Church Council will hold a meeting at 8 p.m. on Friday, April 21. On April 26, the Christian Enlistment Committee will hold a meeting at 7:30 in the vestry.

Need Swimming Instructor

The Lee Fire Department Auxiliary is looking for a competent instructor to teach at the Lee Swimming School for four weeks this summer.

An accredited Red Cross or YMCA instructor is desirable. However, the auxiliary and the Lee Chapter of the American Red Cross will send a boy or girl 18-years-old or over to Camp Tevya, one of the ARC's finest Aquatic Schools, if the applicant is sincerely interested and would return to teach at the Lee Swimming School.

Anyone interested is asked to contact Mrs. Lloyd Stevens, at OL 9-3447.

The Story of a Brave Man

Wentworth Cheswell was prominent in the history of Newmarket as citizen, soldier and scrivener. He was educated at Dummer Academy. He became a prosperous business man of old Newmarket, three times elected selectman, six years assessor, active in the parish until the year of his death in 1817.

He was born in Newmarket in 1746 and served in the Revolutionary War. At the time of his death he owned all the land bordering on the Wadleys Falls road from his house, which stood where Mrs. Jesse Carpenter's house is now, west to Moonlight Bridge and northerly to the bridge where the pumping station is.

The mansion house of Wentworth Cheswell was built in 1766. It faced the south and was founded upon a rock. The foundation wall of the east end of the house was part of this ledge. In 1863 the house looked old but not dejected. its solid oak timbers had resisted decay.

The hand-wrought nails and spikes held boards and beams in their original position and the great central chimney received the flames from the wide fireplaces with as much safety as when it was built. Time had colored the house uniformly and well.

It contained fifteen rooms. On either side of the wide front door extending the width of the house was a wall of cut stone solidly built from the flagstone walk about four feet high.

The house was beautifully situated. There were four stately elm trees in the front yard. Stone walls bounded it on either side. A tall old balm-of-gilead tree stood near the gate, from whose branches medicinal buds fell to the ground and were carefully gathered for the healing of the neighborhood.

To the west and north there were one hundred and sixty acres of garden, orchard, pasture and woodland to Pigeon Hill, with its dark road winding through the old growth of pines to the Pisacassic River.

There used to be a saw mill at the foot of Pigeon Hill and the tall chimney stood a good many years after the rest of the mill had disappeared. There was a large hole in front of the chimney and many of the children in the town, sliding down the hill in winter, often forgot the hole and slid into it, but none of them were ever hurt—only shook up and scared.

The top of the hill was fenced in by a queer kind of fence made of roots of trees, but it served the purpose as none of John Smart's cows ever succeeded in jumping over.

Wentworth Cheswell is buried in the little cemetery on South Main street. It is called the Cheswell Cemetery. It is situated between the homes of Miesowicz and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Melville. Every year at Memorial Day a flag is placed on his grave by a member of the American Legion.

The Story of Pigeon Hill

Speaking of Pigeon Hill you immediately think of the good times the people of Newmarket used to have on the Fourth of July. There was always a picnic.

These picnics started before the time of the Civil War. All the church bells would be ringing, the cannon fired and all kinds of firecrackers. The horribles paraded the streets before sunrise.

There was a parade which started at ten o'clock from the Town Hall, for the picnic grounds on Pigeon Hill. The parade was lead by the Newmarket Brass Band by a drum-major, a large man with heavy whiskers in a resplendent uniform and huge bear skin cap. He led his marching men while spinning his balled capped staff in the air and then catching it in time to martial music.

The fire companies were there in uniform, the school children were dressed in white, a long line of citizens on foot, with carry-alls, buggies and democrat wagons bringing up the rear. The vehicles were left in the open field, where the line

IGA GROUP AT MEETING

Robert Labranche and five of his employees, Bob Valliere, Kenneth White, Bert Lepine, Leonard Labranche and Paul Blanchette, attended the annual regional IGA meeting held by the Cressey Dockham IGA Depot in Salem, Mass., Monday evening.

Glen Curtis, vice president of IGA from IGA headquarters in Chicago, gave an inspiring talk on the latest techniques and information on perishables.

A demonstration on meat cutting and how to make the famous original IGA TableRite country club roast was given to the group. A lunch, provided by the Nissen Baking Co., was enjoyed by all following the meeting.

reformed and marched to the top of the hill.

At that time Pigeon Hill was covered with tall pine trees, where long tables were spread, trimmed with evergreens and summer wild flowers, and just loaded with pies, cookies, cakes and doughnuts which had been furnished by the ladies of the town. There was lemonade and mead to drink.

The children had peanuts, juju paste and sticks of striped candy. There was no such thing as ice cream in those days.

After the refreshments, the ministers and important men of the town made speeches, after which the children sang and the Declaration of Independence was read.

One Fourth of July, there was a grand celebration in honor of the newly installed Newmarket water works. There was a grand parade with the band leading and with floats—the children were told not to go too near as it was dangerous.

There was a large truck drawn by two block horses and on this truck was a small building. When the parade came opposite the Town Hall it stopped and some of the men of the town began making speeches, when all of a sudden the building inside the truck burst into flames and then along came our firemen with a long hoses which they hooked to the nearest hydrant and doused the flames. The fire was soon out.

Washington Scene

By Senator Norris Cotton

Although the Newmarket High School seniors will probably be too late for the cherry blossoms, they may be interested in Senator Cotton's comments on the Capitol's scenery which they will be viewing shortly on their class trip.

"Spring, the cherry blossoms, and a host of visitors all burst on Washington this week. With them came the approximate halfway mark of this Session of Congress.

"The tourists came in unprecedented numbers. They thronged the Capitol until, for the first time in my recollection, police had to refuse entrance to any more. In seven days 68,000 ascended the 555-foot Washington Monument by elevator or muscle power, to say nothing of the vast hordes that milled around its base and spilled over into the crowds at the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials.

"The visitors had little opportunity to observe Congress which is having its Easter mid-session break. Most of the week the Senate and House Chambers, as well as the committee rooms, remained dark and silent. With no Congressional activities to report, I can only become your guide and invite you to join the sightseers.

"The Capitol faces east. Maj. L'Eenfant, Washington's planner, felt it should face the rising sun as a symbol of a nation looking toward the future. However, the real city grew up behind it on what was then swampy wasteland. This might seem an evil omen that our future is behind us, were it not that the old city in front of it is now being rejuvenated. And, to rival the attractions of downtown Washington, it will have the new stadium where all the baseball and football games will be played.

"The Capital City is a wonderland for tourists, especially the young people from our schools. Of course, it's only once a year that you can witness the breath-taking beauty of the white shaft of the Washington Monument, the pure marble of the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, and the blue waters of the Basin—all cushioned in cherry blossoms.

But, Washington has a fabulous assortment of year-round attractions if you take the time to seek them out. Indeed, the average tourist misses far more than he sees. Where else can you find the largest elephant this side of the African jungle, the world's biggest black diamond, the first snow-leopard ever born in the Western Hemisphere, a government gift shop with necklaces made from caribou hoofs, or a Government Department where fish are as much at home as Federal workers?

"The Fenykovi elephant and the black diamond are in the Smithsonian, as are a million other objects of interest including George Washington's epaulets. The aquarium is in the Department of Commerce with thousands of strange fresh-water fish, including the man-eating piranha of the Amazon and albino trout, white with pink eyes. There are other fascinating caches hidden away in the driest and mustiest Government Departments. For instance, Room 2428 in the Treasury is filled with smugglers' gimmicks—a shoe with a hollow sole which once contained diamonds, innocent-looking children's toys with secret compartments for drugs.

"The snow-leopard kitten is in Washington's magnificent zoo where you can also see Mohini, the much-talked-of white tiger from India, and the only fossa outside of Madagascar. Incidentally, the zoo is a fine substitute if Congress doesn't happen to be in session.

"The caribou necklaces are in the Indians Arts and Crafts Shop in the Department of Interior where you can always find genuine, authentic souvenirs—Indian dolls, silver jewelry, animals carved from Alaskan walrus ivory, pottery, baskets—and, speaking as one Yankee to another at bargain prices.

"Yes, this is the session's mid-point—at least it's supposed to be. Thus far, we've enacted only four of the President's 16-point priority list—12 more to come and a raft of other legislation as well. As usual, everything will probably lurch up at the end, and we'll drag on until Labor Day.

"Congress always reminds me of the Principle of Inertia which we studied in high school physics. It takes a lot of force to get it going, and then when it finally starts to roll, it takes a lot of force to stop it."

The Fish and Game Department released a progress report on the salmon survey in the Lamprey River. Below is a copy of that report.

April 13, 1961

Dear Mr. Dixx:

In answer to your letter of April 11, I have checked with the Management and Research Division on the status of salmon management in the Lamprey River. During the winter months, the dams in the Lamprey River were surveyed and it was decided that the construction of fish ladders is quite possible. The status of salmon management now depends upon the suitability of the river itself for rearing salmon parr and holding adults. It is planned that sometime during the late summer or early fall months, a survey will be made of the entire watershed to determine the extent of spawning and nursery habitat and the extent of the rough fish population. Thermographs will be installed to determine the temperatures during the summer months. It is planned to submit a detailed report on this stream sometime next fall.

Sincerely yours,

RALPH G. CARPENTER, 2ND
Director.

The contents of the above report indicate that a thorough check of all the angles will be made by the Fish and Game Department. When the state boys see the fine gravel and sand spawning beds up around Camp Lee, I think this will cinch the final report.

I sent to Concord for a copy of the bear kill report for 1956-60. This proved to be a well written report with much information.

The report, along with other facts, tells the bear hunters the locations of the biggest kills. If a hunter wants this report, address your request to Ralph G. Carpenter, Director, Fish and Game Department, Concord.

The recent northeast storms which battered the coast and our local area has raised the brooks and rivers and will put a crimp in the early season trout fishermen.

The first victims of the storms and high water were the local smelt fishermen. The upper river dumped a lot of junk into the bay and this debris piled up on the leads of the smelt wiers.

The strong current then laid over the lead. This is a tough end to a fine season. The fast water also washed out the dip netting for the year.

Just in case you have forgotten, trout season opens this Saturday, April 22. Oyster River, North River and Little River should be as good as any to wet a line.

Rum Brook, up beyond Boston Bridge, always produces some limit catches but low water produces best results.

Four deer were seen next to Arthur Boucher's lower field last Saturday morning. No doubt the high water in the low lands drove these deer out to feed.

The deer seemed to be on the small side but quite fat. This would indicate fair hunting in that area next fall.

After the recent wild north easter two local boys headed for Hampton Beach to pick up some storm-dug sea clams. This is a fairly common sport and many people try their luck.

The two local boys did not find any clams but what they did find made them rub their eyes in disbelief. They claim they found several good size fresh water horned pout scattered around on the sand.

They swear that this is the truth and I claim it is an Uncle Flub story. You can take your pick.

News from Concord.

Representative Albert Sewall voiced concern over the passing by the House of the new deer season law. Being on the committee which investigated this bill he found that it was undesirable in many ways. He listed many faults (listening to him I had to agree with him on many points).

1. We cannot conserve or build up our deer head by lengthening the southern county hunting.

2. The northern counties will be under-hunted.

3. Rabbit, bird and duck hunting clothes do not mix with deer hunters traditional red jackets.

4. Southern counties will experience over-hunting and border concentration.

Mr. Sewall predicted that an amendment would be added by the Senate which would either kill this bill or rearrange the dates and/or shorten the season.

New hunting bills to watch:

HB 325 tightens up prohibition against discharging firearms within two hundred yards of building when area has been properly posted.

HB 341 requires the director to print and distribute before Jan. 1 each year, "adequate numbers" of copies of current fishing and hunting regulations.

HB 36 clarifies regulation pertaining to transportation of deer so that they will apply alike to residents and nonresidents in certain provisions.

HB 260 advances the date when it is prohibited to allow self-hunting dogs to run at large from April 1 to Jan. 1. Makes provisions to protect interests of rabbit hunters, etc.
