Private Snow's wife, Mrs. Ethel (Hargreaves) Snow, lives on Grape street and is formerly of Farmington. She has received the Purple Heart, awarded to her husband for wounds received in action in Holland October 7.

Local Man Reported Dead, Another Missing In Action

Casualty telegrams were in the hands of two additional Newmarket families this week when one man was reported dead and another missing in action in European war theatres.

Pfc. Stanley K. Chadwick, USA, step-son of Mrs. Carl Millette of the New road, was killed in action in Belgium January 14, according to an official War Department telegram. Private Chadwick was a radio operator in a tank battalion.

He was a graduate of Sanborn academy in Kingston and enlisted in the service in 1942, after working in the supply department of the Navy Yard at Portsmouth. He was stationed at Fort Devens, Mass., and Camp Cook, Cal., prior to departing for overseas service in September, 1944.

A brother, Pfc. Clyde Chadwick, USA, is in the Philippines, and a half-brother, Stanley A. Millette, Machinist's Mate 1-C, USN, is at the Navy research laboratory in Washington, D. C. Other survivors include Delma and Mona Millette, half-sisters, of this town.

The soldier is the twelfth Newmarket man to give his life in this war.

Mrs. Marie (Demers) Pelletier of 30 Elm street, received a telegram last Friday informing her that her husband, Pvt. George O. Pelletier, USA, 26, has been missing in action in France since January 20. Private Pelletier is a son of Alexis Pelletier, 7 Nichols avenue, who has five other sons in service. He received his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla., before leaving for overseas.

One of his five brothers in service, Cpl. Ernest Pelletier, USA, now is home on furlough for 30 days after 28 months of duty in the Mediterranean war zone. Other brothers are Raymond J. Pelletier, USN, in the Atlantic theatre; Pfc. Gerard Pelletier, USMC, in the So. Pacific; Pvt. Leo J. Pelletier, USA, in Belgium; and Pfc. Henry Pelletier, USA, with the Second Armored Division somewhere in Germany.

Red Cross Drive Begins March 1

Preliminary plans for the 1945 Red Cross War Fund drive were made Sunday evening when members of the executive committee of the local Red Cross branch met in the Newmarket National bank. Presiding over the meeting was Charles H. Stevens, vice chairman, who is to be chairman of the drive for funds.

Stanley Szacik, a member of the executive committee, announced that the Polish club voted to contribute $50 to the campaign during its business session Sunday afternoon. This is the initial definite contribution, it was stated. The drive is to begin March 1 and continue throughout the month.

Community Church Activities Held

Miss Eva Sanborn's class in Sunday School which consists of grade seven boys and girls, had charge of the devotions during the worship period on Sunday morning. The devotions were led by Miss Lillian Barker and the offering was taken by Albert Gilbert and Robert Branch. Music was played by the orchestra consisting of Roy Bouse, Rev. Chesley Lantz, and Miss Dorothy Patat, with Mrs. Lantz at the piano. Four birthdays were celebrated including Miss Peggy Ann Audette, Clifton Thompson, Miss Hazel Atherton, and Miss Beverlee Recorde. Mrs. Theodore Coolidge, who continues to give a series of discussions on the Bible in the absence of one of the teachers, taught the freshman boy's class. Rev. Mr. Lantz announced that next Sunday the school will be visited by Mrs. Charlotte Bridges, of Berwick, Me., who is chairman of a religious education committee for the Baptists of Rockingham county. Mrs. Lantz's class will have charge of the devotions next Sunday morning and they are planning a Valentine party to be held in the church club rooms next Saturday evening. In the primary department a fine worship program is conducted each

Budget Meeting Monday Night

The Board of Selectmen today announced that on Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, a public hearing on the Newmarket town budget is scheduled to be held in the town hall.

All public-spirited taxpayers are urged to attend this meeting.

HEADMASTER TO BECOME SUPT. OF UNION 7 IN NORTHERN N. H.

Austin J. McCaffrey, headmaster of Newmarket High school for the past five and a half years, completed his duties here today and prepared to assume his new position as superintendent of schools in supervisory union No. seven in the northern part of New Hampshire.

Mr. McCaffrey was appointed as superintendent by James N. Pringle, state commissioner of education. His territory will include the communities of Pittsburg, Columbia, Stewartstown, and Colebrook. It is in the latter town that he will reside during his period as superintendent in the district.

The former headmaster replaces Albert Knightly, who has gone to a New York hospital for treatment for a serious back injury. He qualified for the position by taking examinations in August of 1944. It is likely that he will remain in that union until the month of July when he will receive a similar appointment in a more central area of the state.

The Newmarket School Board will probably meet next week to select a new headmaster to replace Mr. McCaffrey, who has been headmaster here since September, 1939. It is likely that the new headmaster will assume his duties Monday, February 26, when the school reopens after the one-week spring recess.

Mrs. McCaffrey and sons, Timothy and Hugh Michael, will remain at their home at 72 Exeter street until other arrangements can be made. The family formerly resided on Boardman avenue before moving to the Exeter street address.

In the summer season Mr. McCaffrey was employed as superintendent of the State Bath house at Hampton Beach. He was an active worker in all phases of community activity, and was a member of every principal war-time campaign in which the town of Newmarket has participated.

NEWMARKET 'SNOWS OUT' FROM STORM

Newmarket citizens "returned to normalcy" this week as they dug their way out of the worst blizzard in many years. Many persons were not aware of the full gravity of the storm until late Friday morning, at 7:05 o'clock when a three-blast whistle was sounded to indicate that there would be no school that day.

Others had arisen earlier, and they were shoveling out, steadily, painfully. The Highway department, under the direction of road agents Alex Pelletier and Harold Lang, had been awake nearly all night in the emergency. The department did a truly magnificent job under the circumstances, and should be commended for its fine work.

Foster Clan Loses To St. John's In Heartbreaker

Hopes of a comfortable berth in the Class B competition of the state hoop tournament quickly faded away Tuesday night when Coach Wally Foster's rakish, fighting Newmarket hoopsters traveled to Concord to receive a 32-28 setback from St. John's High. It was the second defeat pinned on the Yellow and Blue by the Capital City quintet. St. John's previously won over Newmarket, 36-25, on December 5 but it was the first tilt of the season for the locals.

When the initial stanza came to a close the scorebook showed the Concord club out front by the scant margin of 8-7. Again, at the completion of the half, St. John's maintained a one-point edge, 16-15.

During the third period Newmarket forged ahead in an uphill battle, tossing eight markers thru the hoop to hold a 23-20 edge over the victors. The final quarter, however, proved to be St. John's as the Concord club amassed a dozen markers to give it an eventual scant 32-28 win over Newmarket's basketweavers. The contest was tied five times during the 32 minutes of play.

Hardiman, St. John's center, led his squad with a total of 18 points. "Fibber" Fillion, scrappy N. H. S. forward, was the big gun for Newmarket as he presented his team with a 14-point total for his evening's work. Sharples and Houle

Russians Strike for Berlin as Nazis Plan Their Last-Ditch Defense

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union news analysts, and not necessarily of this newspaper.

EUROPE:

Berlin Goal

Berlin was their goal as the First White Russian and the First Ukrainian armies plunged to the winding ice-packed Oder river on a wide front, with German resistance growing stronger as columns of reinforcements rushed to the front and took up their positions in the flaming battle line.

With the two Russian armies drawing up to the Oder on an almost solid front from above Berlin clear down to the Czechoslovakian border, Berlin was imperilled by a powerful outflanking maneuver by Marshal Zhukov from the north and Marshal Konev from the south.

The great thrust on Berlin promised to put the Germans' vaunted Oder river defense line, over two years in the making, to the test, and further strain Nazi strength, already outnumbered by about three to four in the east. In early assaults on the Oder in the Silesian area, German regulars, reinforced by fanatical 16 to 65-year-old home front troops, stubbornly held their ground against the powerhouse attacks of the First Ukrainian army, which had been the first to reach the defense line from central Poland.

Finish Fight

Long the hallowed center of Prussianism, Berlin, it appeared, was not to be spared the fate of other great European capitals as the Nazis made strong points of its public buildings and institutions for a des-

Declaring "there is no evidence yet of any rout in the German retreat," Navy Secretary Forrestal said: "They are withdrawing to the great line of defenses on the Oder river . . . where . . . they may fight with the same tenacity and ferocity they have shown in the west. . . . All that will beat Germany is power, sheer, crude power."

perate stand and prepared to blow up all factories and installations in the district.

"Not one stone atop another . . . will be left . . . when the Russians enter," proclaimed Propaganda Minister Goebbels.

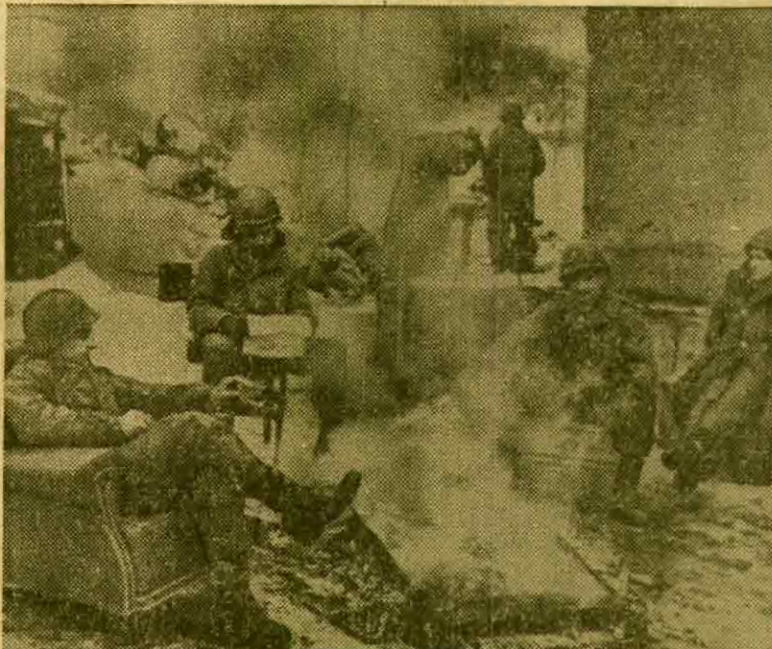

Meanwhile, as thousands of German refugees streamed into the Reich from the east and Hitler called upon all able-bodied men for a last ditch fight and all others for industry, Nazi leaders threatened . . . cowardly creatures who try to desert the fatherland in its hour of need." Said they: "We shall not permit them to throw a wrench in the works. . . . Germany will fight on no matter where or under what conditions. . . ."

Fear Yank Drive

Attacking in snow and slush in strength along an expanding front below Aachen, Yanks put the enemy's vaunted Siegfried defenses to the test again even as Berlin feared an all-out drive to break the deadlock in the west.

At the same time, the Germans began to slowly break ground in Alsace to the south, where mixed U. S. and French forces increased heavy pressure on their huge pocket below Strasbourg and threatened the enemy's escape roads eastward to the Rhine.

No less than 100,000 U. S. troops reportedly burrowed their way into the outer defenses of the Siegfried line along the sector from which Von Rundstedt had burst into Belgium and Luxembourg in his great December drive. As the Yanks plowed through heavy snowdrifts, they met bitter opposition at Nazi strong point

CONGRESS:

Busy Session

With publication of President Roosevelt's agreement to the separation of the Reconstruction Finance corporation with its vast loaning powers from the U. S. department of commerce, the senate passed the George bill authorizing the action by a 74 to 12 vote and thereby paved the way for the confirmation of Henry A. Wallace as the department secretary.

Although Wallace's confirmation was postponed to March 1, it was considered likely at that time, since principal objection to his appointment had been based on the fact that he would have controlled the vast resources of the RFC in the postwar period, with fear of their use on government projects to provide full employment. House approval of the bill to separate the RFC from the commerce department was expected to meet speedy approval.

At the same time, the house passed, and then sent to a none too sympathetic senate, a work or fight bill, under which all men between 18 and 45 would be frozen in essential occupations or asked to take jobs designated by their local draft boards under penalty of induction or fine and imprisonment in case of refusal.

FARM MACHINERY:

Pinch to Persist

Stating that ". . . as long as the war continues, farmers will not be able to buy as much new farm machinery as they need," the Office of War Information said that the production of equipment for the year ending July 1 will fall short of heavy demand despite the fact that it should approximate peak prewar output.

Although expecting quotas to be generally met despite a slow start in production, OWI warned ". . . no more new tractors, side delivery rakes, combines or other haying and harvesting machinery will be available during . . . 1945 . . . than were available during . . . 1944."

Indicating that farmers will have to fall back on the same methods this year to meet food goals, OWI said that 1944's high production resulted from intensive use of existing machinery, increased use of fertilizer, greater acreage and harder work and longer hours, with output per hand 28 per cent above 1940. Reprocessing of some 365,000 young farmers between 18 and 25 for the draft, however, may further complicate the already pressing manpower problem, OWI said.

MEAT:

U. S. to Take More

With smaller slaughter in federally inspected plants reducing allocations of meat for military and lend-lease purposes, the government moved to channel more stock into these packing houses from non-federally inspected establishments.

To trim slaughter at the 27,000 non-federally inspected plants, whose entire output goes to civilians, the government reported that they will receive cattle subsidies ranging from 50 cents to $2 per hundredweight only for the same amount of stock that they butchered a year ago, while payments of $1.50 per hundredweight on hogs will be made on only 70 per cent of the volume of 1944.

Effect of the regulation will be to make less meat available for civilians in centers served by non-federally inspected plants, but only slightly more for consumers supplied by federally inspected houses. Present government acquisition of half of the beef and 45 per cent of the pork output of federally inspected plants will be increased, it was said.

Luckiest Man

In rear base hospital in Pacific recovering from frost bite, Sgt. James B. Krantz of Hickory Point, Tenn., might well consider himself the luckiest man in the world.

Blown from gunnery in waist of B-29 during raid over Japan, one of Krantz's legs was miraculously held by a safety strap while the rest of his body dangled in the air at 29,000 feet before buddies pulled him back in.

SAFETY COLOR:

Yellow Challenges Red

The long accepted belief that red is the leading safety color is challenged by modern scientific investigators who now assign the prime safety role to yellow. According to researchers, yellow is the most conspicuous and visible of hues. Brilliant yellow-green ranks second, orange ranks third, and red comes fourth on the list.

Yellow and yellow-green are the regions of highest visibility in the spectrum, it is said, and that in the dim light encountered in many industrial environments, they are the two colors that hold their brightness best, with red fading out and resembling black—a phenomenon long recognized by science.

GRAIN MARKETS:

Get Boost

With brokers interpreting the senate banking committee's approval of a bill increasing the Commodity Credit corporation's borrowing power from $3 to 4½ billion dollars as a means of maintaining major farm prices at 90 per cent of parity for two years after the war, grain prices firmed.

Also adding to the market's strength was the expectation of an increase in the government subsidy to wheat millers, and reports of CCC purchases in Minneapolis, Minn., with CCC acknowledgments it had given large quantities of high protein wheat to millers in exchange for inferior grades.

In approving the increase in the CCC's borrowing power, the senate banking committee limited food subsidy expenditures to $845,000,000 for the year beginning next July 1, and also permitted sale of more than 1,500,000 bales of cotton a year from CCC stocks.

ACCIDENTS:

High Toll

Ninety-four thousand people killed, 9,750,000 injured and material losses of $4,850,000,000—that was the nation's accident toll in 1944, the National Safety council revealed.

As a result of mishaps, lost time equalled one year's production of 1,000,000 workers, it was pointed out, or the manufacture of 29,000 heavy bombers.

Although the death toll showed a drop of 5,000 over the previous year, with the greatest reduction shown in home accidents, authorities were alarmed by the increasing fatalities among children. More than 1,000 toddlers under five were killed, more than in 1941, the Safety council said, while accidental deaths of youngsters from 5 to 14 in the home were high.

Though slow, results of safety programs in industry, the services and the homes were sure, it was said, with management and labor making among the most concerted efforts to prevent mishaps in plants.

FARM FORECLOSURES:

Greatly Decreased

With more and more farmers recovering from the drought years, and with present high incomes making it possible to reduce debts, farm foreclosures totalled 5,800 in 1943 compared with 11,000 in 1942 and 65,000 during 1934, the Farm Credit administration reported. These figures are equivalent to 2.7 foreclosures for every 1,000 farms mortgaged in 1943, 5.3 in 1942 and 30.3 in 1934, when farm activity still was at a low ebb, the FCA said.

On Nation's Honor Roll

To Pvt. John Hartman of Exeter, Calif., went the Silver Star for gallantry in action. During a fierce enemy counterattack in Italy, seeing that two machine guns 200 yards to the front and right front were causing considerable trouble, he moved forward into the face of these firing machine guns on his own initiative. Edging his way forward with enemy bullets landing within inches of him, and in spite of the fact that he had received a serious wound in his arm, he fired till he had silenced both machine guns.

Also honored was Lieut. Russell C. Pearson of South Minneapolis, Minn. In the Solomons islands, he rescued a wounded soldier from an exposed position during an action against the enemy. When his patrol was ambushed by a numerically superior hostile force, he displayed exemplary leadership and a superlative fighting spirit in tactically deploying his forces in such superior manner as to turn a potentially tragic ambush into a triumph for the American patrol. During the fight, he unhesitatingly went to the aid of a wounded soldier and, through a hail of enemy bullets, dragged him to a covered position where he could get first aid.

PACIFIC:

Strategic Moves

Strategist and tactician, Gen. Douglas MacArthur scored two more landings in Luzon, directly aiding his triumphant march on Manila, while far to the north, U. S. forces continued to drive to the eastward in bitter hand-to-hand fighting, which threatened to cut the island in two.

In one of the landings, U. S. troops overran the Subic Bay area, which opened up a big harbor for naval use and supply of American forces above Manila, while the other landing Yanks stepped ashore below the Philippine capital itself, threatening any enemy effort to bring up reinforcements from the south. As long as MacArthur still appeared to be holding back some of his strength, Jap commanders were reluctant to commit sizeable forces into the battle in the Manila region.

talion and Filipino guerrillas made a surprise attack on a Japanese prison compound behind enemy lines on Luzon, freeing 488 Americans, 23 British, three Dutchmen and a Norwegian. Although over 100 were so weak from malnutrition, disease and old battlewounds that they had to be carried off on husky Ranger backs or in carabao carts, only two failed to survive the 25-mile journey to safety.

RELIGION:

Russian Congress

As hundreds of spectators jammed Moscow's ornate Church of the Resurrection, robed and bearded patriarchs of the Russian Orthodox faith solemnly entered the structure to the measure of psalms and bells for the denomination's first congress since the Bolshevik revolution in 1917.

Gathered from all over the world, the ecclesiastics met to select a grand patriarch to succeed the late Sergei, with Acting Patriarch Alexei of Leningrad in line for the appointment.

Present at the opening ceremony was Russia's chairman of church affairs, Georgi Karlov, who said: "All through the period of war, the Orthodox church has continuously taken part in the defense of the country. The church has made many sacrifices for the motherland. . . . We are praying for the government and Stalin, who is leading our country to victory and happiness. . . ."

As another wartime concession to the Orthodox church, Russian permission of the assemblage was looked upon as a further improvement in the cloudy religious situation in the country.

ARMY PURCHASES:

From Smaller Business

The army quartermaster corps in 1944 placed more than 65 per cent of its prime contracts, representing 46 per cent of the dollar value of all QMC depot contracts, with smaller business organizations, the war department said.

Total purchases of subsistence and other supplies for the army and military services by the quartermaster corps amounted to $6,037,872,909.

Simplified Rules Are Given to Aid in Making Out Your 1944 Tax Returns on New Forms

Answers to Puzzlers Found in Filling Out Income Tax Reports

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The article below was prepared as a service to the readers of this newspaper in an effort to assist in the filing of income tax returns as required by law. While the forms have been simplified, it is urged that returns be filed as far in advance of March 15 as possible.)

REMEMBER all that talk last year about abolishing income tax returns? We hope you didn't believe it, because the treasury reminds us that the law requires an income tax return not later than March 15th from every person (even children) who had $500 or more income in 1944.

The truth is that congress and the treasury simplified the income tax forms quite a bit, but still insist on the annual March 15 accounting between you and Uncle Sam.

Altogether, the treasury figures that about 50,000,000 Americans must file 1944 returns. A few million, including many farmers, have already got the chore out of the way by filing their returns January 15. Those early-birds filed early so as to combine the filing of their "returns" with the filing of their "Decare figured in the middle of each bracket.

Q. Who is allowed to use a withholding receipt as a return?

A. Any wage earner whose total income was less than $5,000, provided not more than $100 of his income came from dividends, interest and wages from which no tax was withheld, and all the remainder of his income was from wages from which tax was withheld. However, in the so-called community property states of Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas and Washington, a withholding receipt cannot be used by a husband or wife alone. In those states, married couples can use the withholding receipt only as a "combined return." In those and all other states, moreover, a combined return can be made on a withholding receipt only if their combined income is within the limits mentioned at the beginning of this paragraph.

front and back of the receipt. Be sure to correct any mistake in your name and address which your employer has already written on your receipt. Sign the receipt. If you have more than one receipt, fill out only the last one but be sure to attach the others. Then mail the receipt or receipts to the collector of internal revenue in your district. That's all. Don't send any money if you file this way, because the collector will figure your tax, give you credit for amounts already paid, and then either send you a bill if you owe more or a refund check if you have overpaid.

Q. How do I fill out a short-form?

A. Get a copy of Form 1040. If all your income was from wages, dividends and interest, you write only on page 1, and find your tax from the table on page 2. If you had other income for instance, from a farm, a business, rental property, annuities, etc.) you also fill in part of page 3. Page 3 is printed on the back of page 1, so you can tear off and throw away the other half of the form. That's why it is called a short-form. When you file Form 1040, and find (in item 8, page 1) that you still owe some tax, you must pay that amount in full at the same time you file your return.

Q. What do you mean by the word "income"?

A. As used in the income tax blanks, income means all kinds of income, including wages, (or salaries), dividends, interest, business profits, rental profits, and profits on selling or trading securities or other property. For tax purposes, however, "income" does NOT include certain items specifically exempted by law, such as the first $1,500 of active service pay for members of the armed forces and their mustering-out payment when discharged. Also exempted is the government's contribution to monthly family allowances to relatives of servicemen, social security benefits, gifts, bequests and inheritances, and amounts received as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy by reason of the death of the insured person.

Q. What kind of taxes do we pay?

A. The 1944 income tax is made up of two kinds of tax. There is a "normal tax" (formerly called "victory tax") at the rate of 3 per cent, and a "surtax" (formerly called "income tax") at rates ranging from 20 to 91 per cent.

Q. What kind of exemptions do we get from these taxes?

A. For normal tax, a taxpayer filing a separate return is allowed only a flat exemption of $500. If husband and wife file a joint return and each had at least $500 income, they receive a joint normal-tax exemption of $1,000. If they file a joint return, and one of them had less than $500 income, the joint normal-tax exemption would be $500 plus the actual amount of the smaller income. For normal tax, there is no exemption for dependents.

For surtax, you may get exemptions of $500 for yourself, plus $500 for your wife (or husband), plus $500 for each of your dependents. However, you can claim an exemption for your wife (or husband) only if you file a joint return with her (or him), or if she (or he) had no taxable income and was not a dependent of another taxpayer.

Q. Can the wife of a military man claim an exemption for him?

A. Usually, she can. Since the first $1,500 of military pay is exempt from tax and since most men earn less than that amount in the armed forces, they are considered to have no income, as far as the tax laws are concerned. Therefore, their wives can claim exemptions for them unless their army pay exceeds $1,500.

Q. How do I fill out a long-form?

A. Fill out pages 1 and 3 the same as for a short-form. But instead of finding your tax from the table on page 2, turn to page 4 where you can itemize your deductions and compute your tax according to the special instructions printed on that page. Taxpayers whose income was less than $5,000 must itemize their deductions if they use the long-form. Taxpayers whose income was $5,000 or more can either itemize their deductions or take a standard deduction of $500, whichever is to their advantage.

Q. Since we are on the pay-as-you-go system, why do we still have to file income tax returns?

A. The pay-as-you-go system (under which tax is withheld from your pay check) can only come close to collecting the correct amount of income tax. It may collect too much from you and it may not collect enough. That is why, at the end of the year, it is necessary for you to fill out an income tax return and show yourself and the government whether you still owe some more tax or whether you are entitled to a refund.

Q. What counts as "close relatives?"

A. Children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, parents, grandparents, great grandparents, brothers and sisters, fathers-in-law, mothers-in-law, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, uncles, aunts, nieces and nephews. Legally adopted relatives count the same as blood relatives. Do not count uncles, aunts, nieces or nephews who are related to you only by marriage.

Q. What should be done by a person whose income totaled less than $500?

A. If single and the income included wages from which tax was withheld, he should file a separate return to get a refund of the tax withheld. If married, it will usually be to the family's advantage to file a joint return with his wife (or husband). At any rate it will pay to file returns.

Q. What are the rules for claiming exemptions for dependents?

A. You are entitled to an exemption for any close relative, provided you furnished more than one-half of his or her support during 1944, and provided he or she did not have $500 or more income of his or her own. A dependent must also be a citizen of the United States or a resident of the U. S., Canada or Mexico.

Q. Will it pay me to figure my tax both the short way and the long way to see which is cheapest?

A. The 10 per cent allowance is far more than the vast majority of taxpayers actually spend for deductible items. Therefore, most taxpayers will realize readily that the withholding receipt or the short-form will be cheapest for them. Only those whose actual expenses for deductible items were close to 10 per cent have any reason to figure both ways. Those whose deductions are considerably above 10 per cent should use the long-form.

Q. If a taxpayer still owes part of the "unforgotten tax" which was figured on his return a year ago, when and how does he pay it?

A. Collectors will send out separate bills to the taxpayers who owe such amounts. The bills are payable by March 15, and are treated entirely separately from the 1944 returns.

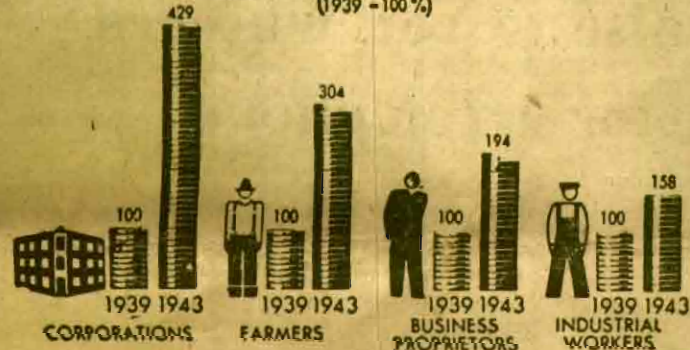

Q. Do people also have to file an estimate for 1945?

A. Only about one out of four taxpayers will have to file an estimate. The 1945 estimate, also due March 15 (except in the case of farmers, who are permitted to wait until January 15, 1946), is called a "Declaration of Estimated Tax." Declarations for 1945 are required only in the case of persons expected to receive in 1945 (a) wages subject to withholding totaling more than $5,000 plus $500 for every exemption except their own (for instance, $6,000 in the case of a taxpayer with two dependents), or (b) more than $100 of other income, if their total income from all sources is expected to be $500 or more. Most wage-earners are excused from filing declarations because their income taxes are kept substantially paid up by the tax their employers withhold from their wages. Businessmen, farmers, investors, landlords and other types of taxpayers generally have to file declarations.

larations of Estimated Tax," thus winding up all their 1944 income tax chores. But most of us still have our returns to fill out and file between now and March 15.

Here are the answers to some of your inevitable questions about the job:

Q. What kinds of forms or blanks do we use?

A. There are two forms. One is the withholding receipt, officially called Form W-2 (Rev.), which your employer gives you if you have been working for wages from which income tax was withheld. The other blank, the standard Form 1040, is not being mailed out generally this year, but copies should be easily obtainable from local collectors' offices, banks, post offices, and employers.

Q. I hear there are three ways of making a return this year. Is that true?

A. Yes. You can use Form 1040 as either a short-form or a long-form return. That makes two methods of filing. The third method, which is one of the major simplifications in the new law, is to use the withholding receipt.

Q. Do we have to fill out both the withholding receipt and Form 1040?

A. No. If you are eligible to use the withholding receipt as your return and desire to do so, forget about Form 1040. If you fill out Form 1040, attach your withholding receipts to the form, but do not fill out the receipts.

Q. Is this standard allowance exactly 10 per cent?

A. The tax on a withholding receipt or a short-form is taken from a table in which the tax and deductions are averaged for income brackets, such as from $2,000 to $2,025, from $2,025 to $2,050, etc. The 10 per cent allowance and the tax

If husband and wife file a combined return on a withholding receipt, their tax will be figured either on a separate or joint basis, whichever is to their advantage.

Q. Who can use the short-form Form 1040?

A. Anyone whose income was less than $5,000.

Q. Who uses the long-form Form 1040?

A. The long-form must be used by anyone whose income in 1944 was $5,000 or more, and by anyone who claims more deductions (for charities, etc.) than the standard allowance of about 10 per cent which is given automatically to taxpayers filing withholding receipts or the short-form.

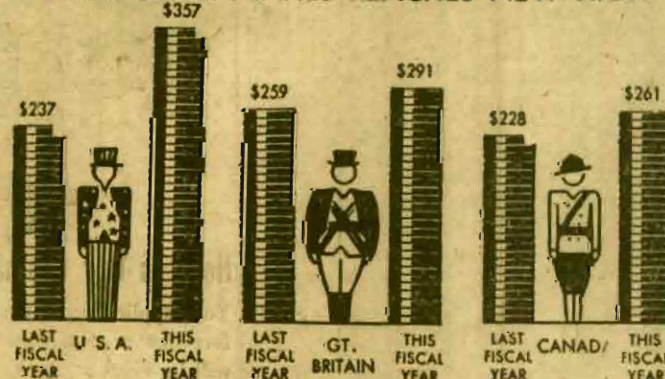

Q. Can I save money by using the long-form instead of the other forms?

A. That depends on your deductions. If you use the withholding receipt or the short-form, you cannot take any deductions for non-business items such as charitable contributions, interest, taxes, medical expenses, and casualty losses, but receive instead a standard allowance equal to about 10 per cent of your income. For instance, if your income last year was $4,425, and you use your withholding receipt or a short-form, your tax is automatically figured as if you had $442.50 of deductions. Now, in this example, if your actual deductions were less than $442.50, it would save you money to use your withholding receipt or a short-form. If your actual deductions were more than $442.50, it would save you money to make a long-form return on Form 1040.

Q. How do I fill out a withholding receipt?

A. Simply answer the few questions about your income and exemptions which are printed on the

"Totle" Bouras & Clifton J. Thompson

Mr. McCaffrey today completed his duties as headmaster of the High school after five and a half years of faithful service. He will become superintendent of schools in Colebrook, Pittsburg, Columbia, and Stewartstown.

Who will replace Mr. McCaffrey is not known at present but his successor will probably be known next week.

We all wish Mr. McCaffrey the best of luck in his new venture and congratulate him on his new position. Newmarket High is losing a capable headmaster.

Orchids to Bob Carder and Bill Audette, who left this week to don the blue of the U. S. Navy. Al Houle is soon scheduled to report, also. We congratulate these fellows on their patriotism. Good luck to you, and smooth sailing in the service.

The eighth grade presented its assembly program Tuesday morning, supervised by Miss Higgins. It consisted of a Lincoln Day Program (Abe's birthday was Monday but he's been dead for quite a while—bless his soul.)

The program was as follows: Song, "John Brown's Body," salute to the flag; "O Captain, My Captain," Jean Marshall; essay, The Boyhood of Lincoln, Marguerite Stevens; essay, Lincoln's Rise to the Presidency, Patricia Shelton; essay, The Years in the White House, Clifford Abbott; Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, Marilyn Abbott; song "When Johnny Comes Marching Home"; play, "Jane Meets President Lincoln," Jane, Anne Piecuch, Mother, Josephine Wardman, Father, Richard Cilley, Abraham Lincoln, Sonny Caswell; song God Bless America.

What's the word—Dauzvordss—on the board in room six. Guess it's Polish, I don't know.

The boys' and girls' basketball squads will hold their annual testimonial outing Saturday night. The players will be accompanied by their coaches and managers. Letters also will be distributed soon.

THE JUNIOR PROM is May 11, probably in the Rockingham ballroom. The Senior reception is Thursday, June 14.

Dave Mongeon now is an employee of Blanchette's bakery.

Here's some jive-lingo terms we promised to print. Learn 'em. Attractive girl: slick chick, whistle bait, rare dish, solid sender, dilly, dream puss, zazz girl, destroyer, 20-20; attractive boy: drooly, heaven-sent, swoony, mellow man, hunk of heartbreak, glad lad, Jackson; not attractive girl: sad sack, goon, rusty hen, off the beam, spook, flub, scrag, dog biscuit, strictly for the birds, crate, seaweed; not attractive boy: dog face, void coupon, to safe, stupor Sam, sad Sam; girl with sex appeal: drape shape, frame dame, wolfess, able Grable, classy chassis, black-out girl, ready Hedy; boy with sex appeal: groovy, twangie boy, go-giver. We'll publish more next column.

We understand Blanch slept in the State Police barracks in Danvers, Mass. What's the matter—you in trouble again.

A Freshman wants to know who sent him a valentine signed "A sincere admirer." Please tell him, he's almost frantic with curiosity.

We hear Norma Brisson is all black and blue. She got in some more snowball fights.

Hear quite a few Polish words floating around room three. What's it all about?

Stape, of E. H. S., is working for the state, we heard at the recent basketball game. Shoveling snow during the blizzard.

Playoffs at Exeter Tuesday night February 20. We play Exeter High in the playoff; Somersworth and Hampton knock off in the prelim. Exeter's got the league all tied up, but how about that tournament bid. The tourney's February 22, 23 and 24, at Lewis Field house UNH, in Durham.

Here's my predictions for who will compete in the tourney—remember, I can be wrong and probably am.

Class A: Keene, Manchester Central, Nashua, Dover, Portsmouth, Berlin, Concord High, St. Joseph's of Manchester. The Port City club shouldn't go, but will because it draws the crowds.

Class B: Lebanon, St. John's of Concord, Peterborough, Exeter, Franklin, Conant, Littleton. Let's see—one more berth to fill; how about Newmarket?? We hope so, just keep your thumbs crossed.

Class C: Vilas of Alstead, Raymond, Marlboro, Lincoln.

Clifton Thompson observed his 17th birthday Saturday night with a party at his home, 2 Forest St. He received many swell gifts and the evening was spent in dancing and games. At 11:30 p. m. the group left to attend a dance in the town hall. (Incidentally, that was the last dance in the town hall until further notice.)

Among those attending were Lorraine Poulin, Mary Margaret (McBride) Ryan, Peggy Cook, Duane Ayers, J. Jordan, Franny DeAngelis, Margie Hale, Kurt Brandt, Bob Carder, Dot Patat, Mary DeAngelis, Catherine Nelson, Johanne Russell, Janet Thompson, Peggy West, Ed Branch, Dolores Marshall, Allen Mastin and Roy Bouse. Herbie was around, too.

What are those little darts which are thrown around by the Freshmen in room three? Jimmy started it, they say.

Joe Schanda was elected president of the Freshman class Tuesday afternoon at a special meeting to fill the vacancy made when Louis Chantre left school.

Hugh's telephone No. in Boston is: Stadium 1648. Call him up some time.

There were no movie performances here either Friday night or Saturday afternoon, due to the violent blizzard. No films arrived in time, but the Saturday night show went on!

Last time Newmarket High went to a hoop tourney was in '40 when Rusty Sharples, USN, paced the local quintet. The N. H. S. club was edged out in the preliminary contest, 29-22, by Whitefield High.

To be in Class A in the tournament, a school must have 200 boys or over; Class B, 51 to 200; Class C, 50 or less.

Jimmy Bentley had a SWELL time this week with the mumps. Wade has new shoes. Dean was reading "Woman's Life" in room six.

We hear Stape got into a minor fight Saturday night in Dover.

Saw a taxi go by Main street Sunday afternoon at 4:12. What's this town coming to?

Harold Hood can knit—so he says.

What was Peggy Cook doing on Tuesday morning by making faces and pretending she is shooting something. (?)

It seems that Duane, Dorothy, Clifton, Catherine, and Johanna had a "wild" time Monday p. m. You're kidding you.

We are wondering if a certain Junior girl has been 'kicked out' of her home. She hasn't been sleeping there lately.

Glennie Dumbrack visited Boston recently with a friend from Newburyport. The main event was "Earl Carroll's Vanities" at the R-K-O Boston theatre. He returned Sunday evening.

Girls in room four are always passing the latest gossip to their friends across the aisle, by means of notes. If we could get a hold of some our column would burst.

Caroline, in a note to a "neighbor" doesn't know what glamour means. He was the only one in "bor" across the aisle, wrote "Stan—the English test who left it blank."

Looks like Sharples has developed a new way to tie his necktie.

Forty friends of Robert Carder attended a farewell party for him Tuesday evening. The event convened at 7:30 and was not halted until 2 a. m. Robert was presented gifts and money by Mr. McCaffrey, who entertained the group by singing "Irish Eyes Are Smiling." Members of the basketball squad arrived at 11:15 after returning from Concord, where they played St. John's High. Coach Foster also attended. Refreshments were served.

Robert, the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Carder, left on Thursday morning for preliminary training in the U. S. Navy.

Previously in the column (today's), I mentioned Newmarket High among a list of Class B teams I thought might go to the tournament. With the discovery that we lost Tuesday to St. John's, however, I withdraw this and substitute Woodsville High as the eighth club.

Remember, there's no school all next week, and the tournament is Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Go to as many games as you can—they're worth seeing!

Wade Balla and Chas. Lang, stalwart Republicans, declare "L-S-M-F-T" stands for: "Let's Start My Fifth Term," in reference to FDR.

A possible club to win the Class A tourney crown is Manchester Central, which this year has a really outstanding record in hoop circles.

Here is a Message and a Promise to You Who are Waiting for a Telephone

BECAUSE the very lives of our fighting men depend on our giving them practically all the telephone equipment that can be made, thousands of civilians in all parts of the country who want service must wait.

How long? We wish we could tell you.

Meanwhile, we are providing facilities as they become available to those most in need, in accordance with government regulations set up to apportion service in the fairest way.

For example, preference is given where certain conditions of illness are verified by the attending physician, and under certain circumstances preference is given to wives of men away from home in the armed forces.

Of course service is provided immediately in cases where public health, safety and welfare are involved. None so qualified has had to wait for a telephone.

From time to time the War Production Board has modified these regulations, and the scope of the preference list has become somewhat broader. We intend to keep those on the waiting list posted periodically on such changes, and we'd like to have them keep us posted on changes in their own circumstances which would alter their status under these regulations.

By waiting, by accepting the inconvenience and hardships of doing without a telephone, you are sending YOUR telephone straight to the fighting fronts.

Here is Our Promise:

Your application will not be forgotten or overlooked. It will be filled at the earliest possible time in its proper turn.

HOOF DUST

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7—Within eight miles of the White House, W. E. Miller, who has been one of the top ranking amateur harness horsemen of this country for over three decades, has gone into the stock farm business in a big way and from now on he intends to raise his own trotters and pacers.

"W. E." as he is best known, has ten brood mares who are in foal and as all are well bred, he looks for some fast steppers.

This year he has twenty head in training including nine which have just turned two-years-old. Seven of them are named Rosecraft, after his Oxon Hill Road farm.

Because of his furniture business pressure, W. E. has not been able to devote as much time as usual in training his stock, leaving much to Charley Mabrey, who was signed at the York sale and Otis Shirley, who has been with Miller for thirty years.

Mabrey, who is a real good judge of horse flesh, because of his half century with the standardbreds, says he never saw any better looking two-year-olds than Commander Rosecraft, a bay colt trotter by Symbol Gantle; Bang Up, the $3,000 pacer by Follow Up; Direct Rosecraft, a black pacer by Billy Direct; Virginia Rosecraft, a sorrel filly by Mr. McElwyn and Major Rosecraft, a bay pacing colt by Billy Direct.

The first of the foals to arrive at Rosecraft in 1945 is a bay filly by Billy Direct out of Nora Hanover.

Usually "W. E." takes a trip to Pinehurst with his stock but that is out this year. If he goes South it will be to Aiken but it seems likely now that he will do all of his preliminary work on the half-mile track owned by him which is several hundred yards from his large barn.

Twelve heads are in training at Jake Rudnick's Dover, Del., half-mile track with J. M. Davis of Clayton, Del., owning Director 2:07½ and Philadelphia, 2:07½ and Performance 2:12¼, three fastest at the racing strip.

Elbert Saunders, the veteran trainer, has eight of the twelve head on the grounds and it is planned to race at Westbury, L. I., if the ban is lifted this summer.

Harry Goodhart, who is now training at Roxana, Del., has eleven head, is pretty high on Sergeant Therian, a two-year-old bay colt.

Harrington, Del., is a busy training spot with Paul Vineyard, Jack Brown, Paul Welp and Art Phillips holding forth there.

Six of Vineyard's horses are owned by Fred Greenly of Harrington, Del., a chicken raiser who has 37,000 chicks in his sheds now.

Colby Hanover, the aged trotter, looks bigger and better than ever before and Vineyard says he's as a tame kitten these February days.

Willis Hanover, a two-year-old trotter owned by Paul Coombs, is taking on weight and growing tall so rapidly that the help in Vineyard's barn are calling him "Jumbo." Already he stands 15.3 hands and weighs 1100 pounds. He's a Mr. McElwyn and is showing signs of being a good trotter.

Direct Express, a baby pacer, is well liked by Vineyard and he may go places. Tokyo Express, a two-year-old trotter and full brother to Cannon Ball, is also a likely looking youngster. Vineyard recently put the trotter Elliott Hanover on the pace and he shows plenty of brush.

Jack Brown has a two-year-old Gregory Hanover, that W. C. Wright of Federalsburg, Md., bought at the York sale that can really turn on the steam and knows nothing else but trot. Jack is calling the bay colt Junior Titan Hanover as he is by Calumet (chuck out of Goldust Express. Brown says that this is the best two-year-old he has had in years and he has had some real good ones.

Word has been recently received in this country that Charles Martens of Belgium, his family, property and horses came through the war in Belgium without too much damage. He also advised that racing continued in Belgium, France and Holland during the war.

Ben C. Mayo of Tarboro, N. C., was re-elected a U. S. T. A. director of the Seventh District for three years at the Richmond, Va., meeting last Sunday. . . . Richmond horsemen want a director named from their section. . . . The death of Walter Traynor of Lexington, Ky., at a Cincinnati hospital came as a shock to horsemen all over the country who knew this colt specialist. . . . He helped develop Yankee Maid, Spencer Scott, Eton and many others. . . . Lansdown has been sold by Octave Blake to George A. Harrison of Edgerton, Wis. . . . Queenly Day, dam of Red Tower has been sold by Mrs. Thorne Smith of Millbrook, N. Y. to Leo C. McNamara of Two Gaits Farm, Carmel, Ind., for a fancy figure through Eddie Havens, agent for Mrs. Smith. . . . Jim Warman of the Dunes, night club at Pinehurst, N. C., bought a Peter Song weanling out of Miss Wooster from R. Horace Johnston of Charlotte, N. C., and shipped the baby to Henry Knight of Almahurst to be turned out until next fall. . . . Warman has named the young trotter Jimmy Dunn after his nephew. . . . Doc Parshall of Urbana, Ohio, left the keys in his automobile in one of the main streets of Southern Pines, N. C., last Monday night and a few hours went to get the car and it was stolen. He left his gas stamps in the compartment and the thief could go a good distance with the stolen car and tickets. . . . No trace of the car has been found by the police. . . . Jacob F. Klepser of Catskill, N. Y., a groom for Vic Fleming, lost or had stolen his wallet this week containing a money order for $100, a check for $12.40, $77 in cash as well as his social security and other identification papers. . . . Philip Pearson, Kennebunkport, Me., has been named a member of the Maine racing commission. There is more interest in harness racing in Va. than heretofore, according to Mr. Thomas L. Stackhouse, veteran starter of Marion, Va. . . . Starting Judge L. S. Smith of Moon, Va., was given a vote of appreciation at the Richmond, Va., horsemen's meeting for the fine work he had done in helping to put racing over in that state. Dr. G. B. Gill of Washington, D. C., was named a prospective director at the Richmond, Va., meeting if the national board will ratify his election in March at Milwaukee.

Jimmy Fleming, youngest son of Vic Fleming, is now in a Belgium hospital suffering from concussion received in Germany on the counter offensive. . . . He was hurt in the shoulder with shrapnel in France, taken to a British hospital, patched up and sent back to the front where he was injured a second time. . . . Percy Gray has bought the first offspring of Bill Gallon, now twenty days old and will call him First Gallon. . . . Harry Whitney had a half dozen teeth removed at Aiken, caught cold in his upper gums and had an infection which kept him on the ground all last week keeping Bill Allen busy. . . . Jerry Shively, press agent for the Aiken track is seeking to buy a bicycle to ride to and from the track from town. . . . Sheraton, a two-year-old Dean Hanover owned by W. N. Reynolds of Winston-Salem, has been burning up the track at Longwood, Fla., with Ben White up, according to reports coming to the North. . . . The latest reports had the colt out of Station Belle a mile in 2:24 with the last quarter in 33 seconds. . . . Dan Parish and C. R. Wilson of Canfield, O., are dishing out $41,000 in their four-day meeting at Canfield, Aug. 30, 31, Sept. 1, 3. . . . That card should attract the top horses. . . . Canadian Violinist Scheduled To Play For Concert Ass'n Members March 9th

When Arthur LeBlanc, the eminent Canadian violinist plays here on Monday evening, March 5, in the third concert of the Rochester Community Concert Association series, he will appear as a somewhat more familiar musical figure, since it is only a year ago that many concertgoers had occasion to enjoy his music at one of the Dover concerts. Also, in recent years his occasional radio appearances in sonata recitals and as soloist in ed familiarization with his talents.

LeBlanc was born in the beautiful "Evangeline" country of Acadia where he first appeared in public recital at the age of ten. He was then sent to the city of Quebec where he studied under Professor Gilbert. Later he attended the New England Conservatory of Music where he worked under Richard Burgin, concertmaster of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and Felix Winternitz.

In 1930 LeBlanc was awarded a scholarship by the French Government and went to Paris where he won highest honors at the Ecole Normale de Musique. His violin teachers included Jacques Thibaud and George Enesco; his teachers of composition Paul Dukas and Nadia Boulanger.

ARTHUR LeBLANC

After successful tours of France, Belgium and Switzerland, he returned to Canada in the autumn of 1938 and since then has played over 300 concerts in the United States and Canada. He has appeared with major symphonies, in successful New York recitals, at the White House, and at the palace of the Governor-General of Canada in Ottawa.

On tour, LeBlanc carries with him his precious Guadagnini violin, dated 1775, and a bow valued at $2,500 made by Tourte, the most famous of violin bow-makers.

Although known as "Canada's National Violinist", Arthur LeBlanc's fame has far outreached the borders of his native land. He is one of the most important violinists of the younger generation and has taken his place in the international world of music.

Name Mrs. Filion In Easter Seal Drive

Thirty-five names of Rockingham county chairmen and co-chairmen in the 1945 Easter Seal sale campaign which starts February 20, were announced in Nashua today by the New Hampshire Society for Crippled Children and Sandicapped Persons. J. Brodie Smith of Manchester is president of the society.

Included in the list was Mrs. Thomas J. Filion of 214 Main street Newmarket.

Miss Hood Receives Call From General

A telephone call was received Friday evening by Miss Marion Hood from Washington, D. C. The call was made by General Crane, USA, who had just arrived from the battlefield in Italy.

General Crane gave Miss Hood a message from her fiancé, Tech. Cpl. Donald Stilson of Epping. Corporal Stilson has been serving with the general in the Fifth Army for the past eight months. He has been stationed overseas for approximately one year.

Reward

The lady in the apartment house window was pitying the poor man standing on the street corner. He was evidently too proud to beg openly, but every now and then someone would walk up to him, whisper a few words and give him a dollar or two. The lady smiled at him, and he smiled back, so she decided to do her share of charity. Taking a $2.00 bill, she put it into an envelope with a card bearing the words "Take courage," and tossed it to him. A bright smile was her reward.

But not all of it. That evening her doorbell rang and there was her acquaintance of the street corner. "Here's your $40.00, mam. 'Take Courage' won at 20 to 1."

and Ed. Keller for Old Orchard from July 16 to Aug. 4 calls for the distribution of $66,100 to say nothing about the purses for the aged horses. . . . The entries for the Old Orchard races close on Feb. 13. . . . Guy James, one of Harry Whitney's grooms, who was left $5,000 by the late Walter Cox, celebrated his 70th birthday the last day of 1944 by going into Aiken and getting a haircut.

Experience is victor, never the vanquished; and out of defeat comes the secret of victory. That tomorrow starts from today and is one day beyond it, robes the future with hope's rainbow hues.

They Would Betray Us Again

Timed with the German break through American lines, the isolationists in Congress raised a clamor in favor of a negotiated peace. That was exactly what the Germans had in mind when they attacked.

And as usual there are American senators ready to spearhead the German propaganda drive in this country, as they have done so effectively and with such a callous disregard of American life for so many years.

They are now saying that the determination of the allies to crush Germany is "costly and brutal." They say the fighting the war through to complete and unquestioned victory will cost American lives.

Certainly it will. But a negotiated peace will cost more lives. American boys are dying by thousands today because American senators betrayed them a quarter of a century ago.

And thousands more will die if this country permits itself to be betrayed in the United States senate again. We are fighting today because the senate refused to let this country join with other nations in an organization with the power to enforce peace.

And the senate today contains men of the same treacherous character as those who lost us the peace after the last war with Germany.

These senators are striving desperately to halt the national sentiment in favor of world cooperation for peace. The returns from the last election sent chills down their spines. It retired several notorious isolationists from public life.

Those still remaining know they will be defeated in 1946 unless they can change public sentiment. This they are trying to do by renewing their attacks on our allies, by questioning every military reverse and by creating the fear that our sacrifices are in vain.

They say we should negotiate a peace with Germany even though they know that we are negotiating another war if we do so.

"Costly and brutal," they call our national policy. Those words apply to the men who utter them. Such senators would shed the blood of babies yet unborn because they know the generation they would sacrifice cannot vote them out of office.

That's the job of the rest of us, from Montana to Maine. We must clean out this nest of reptiles or their venom will poison our children.—T. H. E.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

Sun's Weather Studied in Relation to That of Earth

Since 1941, a unique study to determine whether there is any connection between the weather of the sun and that of the earth has been carried on at Harvard's observatory near Climax, Colo., says Collier's. As photographs of the solar corona taken during a natural eclipse could not be used, a special movie camera had to be developed.

Called the coronagraph, it creates an artificial eclipse with masking screens, and automatically takes a picture in color every 10 seconds.

Few High School Boys Consider Politics Worthwhile Career

Fourteen per cent of 91,300 American high school students would include a political career on a list of possible careers for consideration as a life work. This is revealed in the latest survey of the Institute of Student Opinion, sponsored by Scholastic magazine. Seventy-six per cent would not include politics on their list of possible careers while 10 per cent expressed no opinion.

An analysis of the student attitude toward men and women in politics shows that 61 per cent believe that the ability, integrity and character of politicians is either superior or equal to that of men and women engaged in other careers. Thirty per cent deprecated politicians; half of this number expressed the opinion that it is impossible for politicians to advance in their careers and remain honest and fearless citizens; the other half feels that in politics loyalty to a political party is placed above human and social welfare, and politicians compromise with their convictions more often than people in other professions. The remaining 9 per cent believe that the financial remuneration is too low to attract persons of high caliber, or they had no opinion.

The poll was conducted by the staffs of more than 1,200 high school newspapers, members of the Institute of Student Opinion, representing all sections of the country.

Among predominant reasons set forth for not including politics in a list of possible careers were: "A public office sometimes lasts only as long as your party is in power and I want a permanent job." "If more money was offered for political jobs, more brainy people would train for them as they do for other professions."

Those who favored a political career gave as their reasons: "I want to do more in government than vote. I'd like to be a politician in order to help make changes that are needed." "Politicians are doing an essential job efficiently and working for the benefit of the nation as a whole."

Many students would like to see politicians trained for their careers and offered the following suggestions as to how this should be done: "I think passing an examination should be a pre-requisite for holding public office." "There should be a school for congressmen. People should prepare for this sort of job just as they would for any profession."

Asiatic Elephants Differ From African Animals

Carveth Wells says if an elephant has five toes in front and four behind, it comes from Asia; if four in front and three behind, it hails from Africa. An elephant from Asia has one tip on the end of his trunk; an African, two. If its trunk is smooth it is Asiatic; if apparently in segments, it is African. The ears of an Asiatic elephant are about two feet long and rather ragged; an African's are about the size of a piano.

Scuttlebutt

by Bob Allen

Nothing irritates me more than what is altogether too common an occurrence here in Rochester—as any member of a basketball or foot ball team of Spaulding High about to play Dover or Portsmouth walks along Main street, one of numerous pseudo boosters asks, "Are you going to win?" and before the unfortunate lad can answer wise cracks back, "You can't beat Dover—they never have and you never will."

If enough people told you that you were losing weight and looked sickly and it was repeated to you two or three times a day for two or three months, you would finally believe it and end up in the hospital being made sick from imagination. So how can you expect a team, made up from the young men of Rochester, to defeat Dover or Portsmouth if they have fear driven into them before they can get started.

Mike Mirey has done a wonderful job in coaching at Spaulding high for the past two years, although hampered by the Rochester defeatism that is very prevalent, he has instilled into the boys the urge to win and that is something we of Rochester haven't had for a long time.

Another thing that isn't fair to the boys is the use of the word "we" if Spaulding wins and the word "you" or "they" if the Raiders lose. There are a few loyal backers that say "we" when we lose but those are far and few between.

Now the "Spaulding High Boosters Club" was started to back the boys to the farthest extent and it can be said right here and now that it has done a wonderful job, as you all know, money can't buy everything which includes real, sincere backing of the team. Sure, when the Raiders win we all say that they can't be beaten and all such chatter that runs on the same line, but boy, oh boy, when Rochester loses one game everyone says and thinks that they will not be able to win one during the remaining games of the season, which all amounts to false backing of the boys.

The Spaulding High Raiders once again were bumped off by the Dover jinx as the Green Wave pinned back the Raiders' hopes 34 to 27.

Apparently this was the best Rochester team that has played at Dover but it just wasn't good enough last Saturday night to register a victory over Dover.

All of the Rochester players figured in the scoring as Phil Kelley led the pack with 8 points followed closely by Hubbard who chalked up 6. Douglas, Varney and Flood all tallied 4 and Blake with one.

The basketball league at the Maple street gym is now in full swing. Frenchtown leads the league with three wins and no defeats followed closely by the Spaulding All Stars who have won two in two starts.

The Blackhawks chalked up their first win of the season when they bowled over the Dublin Tigers 24 to 12. The Tigers are still trying to chalk up their first win.

The Jr. League was opened last week when the Jr. Raiders ran up 53 points against the Ramblers 11. The second game was won by the Jr. All Stars when they defeated the Royal Basketeers 18 to 16.

This game was won on a fluke as Romeo Larochelle, captain of the Royal Basketeers, dropped the ball through the All Stars' basket to give them the two winning points. It's a costly way to learn which basket to shoot for and without a doubt captain Larochelle will not do it again.

The committee for selecting the teams that compete in the New Hampshire state basketball tournament to be held in the field house at the State university in Durham February 22, 23 and 24, will meet this coming Saturday to pick the teams to play.

The selection committee is made up of the following men: Lester Cummings, headmaster, Sunapee High school; Daniel Metcalf, headmaster, Alstead High school; William B. Hounsell, headmaster, Dover High school; Lawrence W. Slanetz, chairman, University of New Hampshire Senate Committee on Athletics and Athletic Director Carl Lundholm.

Out of the ten class A games that the Raiders have played they have won 5. Adding this up according to the point system that the officials use to choose the teams Rochester has a 2.70 average. Although not high this is somewhat better than some of the other class A teams in the state.

The argument that is presented between Berlin and Rochester is that the Mountaineers haven't played very many class A games although I believe that they won the couple that they did play but the majority of their schedule consists of class B teams and it is very hard to judge a class A team when they play mostly teams of a lower class.

Spaulding high should be invited to the tourney as they are improving with every game and they will give any team in the state a real battle. Adding this with five class A win the tournament committee should not overlook the Spaulding Raiders.

Basketball has come to a head around the state now as the most that any team has yet to play is one game, before the tournament committee meets. Manchester Central, Nashua, Keene, Concord, Dover and even Portsmouth, are all reasonably sure of bids. Cathedral will probably receive the seventh bid with Spaulding, Berlin or Stevens, getting the eighth nod.

Central, after making a slow start, is now rated the best team in the state, with Nashua high a popular second.

The winner of the tournament? Your guess is as good as anyone else's as all the teams have lost a couple of games at least and if the tourney goes as the season went, it will be some tournament.

Tony Anctil, 1944 grid captain, left for the armed services last week. Tony left about as quietly as he was recognized by the general public during the past football campaign.

He made the All-New Hampshire football team but in this town it apparently doesn't amount to much as the only thing that he got out of it was his name and picture in some of the papers around the state. Tony wasn't the kind of a guy to kick 'cause, after all, he was picked by the New Hampshire Sportswriters' Association as one of the 11 best football players in the state and to any kid that has made any "All" team, whether it be "State" or "New Hampshire," he is truly satisfied with himself.

So even though a bit late, I want to wish the Best of Luck to the kid that was Captain of the best Spaulding High football team yet and here's hoping that as a man he plays as hard for Uncle Sam as he did for Spaulding High.

By defeating Manchester West at Manchester last Tuesday night the Red Raiders received their revenge for an early season West defeat.

Kelley, Hubbard, Douglas and Blake paced the Raiders with ten, eight, seven and seven points respectively. In the last two or three games Hubbard and Douglas finally found their shooting eyes or, to say it another way, they both have started to shoot a little.

DOVER BASKETEERS WIN OVER SPAULDING FIVE 34-27

The Red Raiders of Spaulding High put in a bad evening last Saturday when they bowed to Dover High's Green Wave 34 to 27 at the Dover Gym.

The Dover quintet could not be classed as a first class ball team judging from the brand of basketball they exhibited but the Spaulding team was worse. The Raiders were far from the team that played in Portsmouth a week ago as they fell far below their par.

This was the game that Coach Mike Mirey had been grooming his team for, only to see them collapse like an accordion when the chips were down. It was very apparent that the Mireymen should have taken this Dover team into camp but they can not pass the ball all over the court to everyone but a teammate and win games.

The Spaulding Raiders lost plenty of scoring chances in the first period but came out of the initial chapter all even at 8 points each as Moe Varney, Ken Flood, Jack Douglas and Ralph Hubbard managed to send a basket each through the strands to give the visiting Raiders their 8 points while Dover helped themselves to the same score on two baskets by Keenan and one each by Sheehan and Theodoras to send the teams into the second period all even.

Dover came through the second frame with a total of 6 points for their efforts while Spaulding chalked up a single point as a result of a free throw from the foul line by Franklin Blake who replaced Kelley at center while Phil took over a forward position.

Long John McKernan lead the Dover attack in the second period with a basket and a foul shot to account for half of the Dover 6 points during that period. A basket by Theodoras and a foul by Keenan made up the other three points to give the Green Wave a 14 to 9 lead as the teams left the floor at the half time mark.

With the third period came Keenan's one man assault as he sent four two-pointers through the basket as Sheehan helped him along with a basket and a foul shot to give Dover a total of 11 points for the period while the Spaulding Raiders were making an effort to get back into the game as Flood, Kelley and Douglas scored goals from the floor at the rate of one each. Varney made good two shots from the foul line while Hubbard was sinking one to give the Mireymen 9 points for the stanza and leave them on the short end of a 25 to 18 count as the teams went into the past period.

Both teams came through the last period with a total of 9 points on the sheet as Dover protected their 7 point margin as again Keenan led the way with a two basket and a foul assault to ring up 6 of the 9 Dover points. A floor goal by McKernan and foul shots by Sheehan and Theodoras accounted for the other four Dover points.

Spaulding came through with the same amount as Kelley got two of his shots through the hoop and made good two foul shots while Hubbard succeeded in sending a goal and a foul through the nets to give the Raiders an even break.

SPARES and STRIKES . . by "Biggie"

With the Bowling League approaching the halfway mark the Vols who have so far been sitting snugly in the top berth find themselves not alone at the top of the league as the idle Royals slip into share one half of the throne as the Vols took it on the chin last week from the Macmen to the tune of 4 points to 1.

The Macmen climbed into third place by the win as the Observer dropped 4 points to the Sluggers who retain their position in fifth spot while the Tigers turned on the hapless Champlin gang of Boxmakers to push the boxmen into the cellar while the Tigers climbed out of the basement into sixth place.

Freddie Boulanger turned on the heat last week to threaten the three string high total of 342 held by Carl Rhines when Fred slammed out a total of 341 missing the high mark by a single pin. The 341 match sent Boulanger's stock up to a 105.42 average to give him a 4 point lead over his nearest rival who happens to be Norman Jacques at present with an average 101.60.

Will Lacasse vacated third place in the average column in a hurry as he failed to hit as much as a 250 last week to send him down the toboggan slide to eighth place leaving a new comer Leonard Boudreau entrenched in third place while Leo Larochele retains his position in fourth place.

Harold Wescott continued to climb and is in fifth spot while Carl Rhines jumped his average a half a point to hold down sixth place just .16 of a point ahead of Tiger Matthews who again regained his composure to get back into the 300 class last week.

Leo Larochele stayed in first place in the Strike Derby although he was idle last week. Fred Boulanger climbed up another notch in the Derby along with Doc. Hilton as they each hung up one more to give them a total of 6 to leave their deadlock for second place unbroken.

Monday night the Tigers broke loose to take the match from the Champlin Boxmakers 4 points to 1. Tiger Matthews was back in his old form by getting two of his strings up over 110 to give him a total of 311 in spite of an 80 second string. Tiger also hung up another strike which happened to be the lone grand slam the Tigers chalked up all night.

Joe Boudreau managed to come up with a 269 score just one pin under a 90 average but it took a 108 third string to bring Joe out of that 80 rut he was in for the first two strings.

Red Merchant the lone right-hander of the Tigers stayed right in that high 90 class in all his three stanzas to help the cause along.

Ed Hardy missed the coveted 300 mark by just three pins. After rolling two strings in the 90s Ed bumped the ante to 107 in his final try.

Fred Michel is still trying to get back in old form but as yet has had no luck in getting started. His initial try netted him only an 81 and his next two attempts gained him marks in the 90s to settle for a 270.

The Champlin entry was getting along very well for the first two strings as they lost the initial point by 13 pins but took them back in the second chapter only to have the Tigers break out with three of the Junglers rising up in the 100's to chalk up a score of 515 to settle all arguments as to the match and take the four points.

The Boxmakers took it upon themselves to violate the 'dummy' ruling but to no avail as they lost the match regardless. It is just as well the match ended the way it did as if the Champlin entry had happened to win the contest it would have become null and void and rolled off at a later date.

The boys all know that the league calls for a five man team and they all expect to compete against a five man team and not be placed at a decided disadvantage.

age of rolling against some team that takes it upon themselves to roll a dummy although the opposing team consents to the idea through sheer sportsmanship. It makes a lot of difference in the score of a team if the individuals are rolling their two boxes in turn or are having the advantage of rolling a couple of extra boxes every fourth turn. If a team elects to have a dummy instead of filling their line-up the score of the dummy should be ruled at 75 a string or a total of 225 for the match. This low rating is to discourage the use of a dummy and keep the league on somewhat equal bases.

Tuesday evening's match found the Vols taking it on the chin from the Macmen marking the first time the Vols have bowed this season.

It was Fred Boulanger that set the pace for the Macmen with a total of 341 to steer the Macs to win and make it possible for the idle Royals to pull up into a tie for first place.

The Macmen hit a 482 for the first string but it was not enough to win the point as the Vols turned in a total of 487. Although Boulanger hit a 126 for a first string score, three scores in the 80's among his mates allowed the Vols to take the initial point as the Vols held all but one of their scores well up in the 90's with the exception of George Roshier who slapped the maples for 110.

The second point went to the Macmen as Comfort, MacDonald and Boulanger hit over the 100 mark to give them a string total of 494 in spite of the fact Veno hung up a 79 for the string but the 494 mark was enough to top the Vols 490 as Roshier and Desaulnier chalked up scores of over 100. The Macmen copped the final string by 12 pins to give them the match and 4 points as Ray Vachon slipped back to an 80 third string score while the rest of his mates were not doing as well as they had in the first two strings while the Macmen hung up enough to give them the win.

My old team of Observers ran into plenty of woe and grief Wednesday evening at the hands of the Sluggers who proceeded to slug us all over the alleys by taking 4 points while the Observers managed to salvage 1 point from the wreckage.

We must have hung up a new record in that first string by securing a total of 402. I don't think the team from the Old Soldiers' home ever hit a score that low but the new pins and bad breaks took their toll with the Observer on the losing end.

MANPOWER SHORTAGE

As the war has progressed and manpower shortages have become more and more serious, it was pointed out by Mr. Andrew C. Graves, manager of the Dover office of the U. S. Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission, it has been necessary to tighten manpower controls from time to time in the interests of supplying war industries with adequate numbers of workers.

The Brynes' directive of last December, in tightening the manpower belt another notch, brought part-time workers within the scope of the Stabilization Program, under which business and industry in the Portsmouth area have been operating since September of 1943. "This makes it necessary," explains Mr. Graves, "that employers understand just what constitutes a part-time worker, in the meaning of WMC regulations as there has been some confusion on this point."

Under the Stabilization Program, a distinction is made between part-time and supplementary workers—a "part-time" worker being one who is employed not more than 50 percent of his employer's actual work week, and a "supplementary" worker being one who works a limited number of hours for another employer in addition to his regular job. At the same time, a Government Service, to make sure they are directed to the jobs where their services will count for most in the war effort. The only exceptions are veterans of World War II, and a few other special groups such as teachers who work during vacation periods and students outside school hours."

USE "MINE" DETECTOR

Some thought that it was a mine detector that the city highway employees were using Monday morning in trying to locate several sewers along the main stem, but in all fairness to everyone they were informed of the real reason for using the device.

So the 'mines' or booby traps turned out to be none other than sewer covers which the department was trying to locate so they could open them up to let the free water around the streets find its way to the river.

Street Commissioner Ralph O. Meader explained that the detector had been procured to locate sewer drops buried beneath snow and ice, the device detecting steel at a depth of 15 feet.

HURT IN CRASH

Miss Pauline Descheneau of Gonic received minor injuries Monday night as the vehicle in which she was riding and reportedly operated by Grant Towle of Dover, was in a collision with a station wagon, owned and reportedly operated by Nicholas R. Anastasia of West Newbury, Mass., on the Milton road.

The station wagon, containing five passengers and the driver, was enroute north and had almost reached the driveway at the Ike and Ine's restaurant when, it is said, the other machine, containing three passengers, turned left as it entered the highway.

Mr. Anastasia told Asst. Marshal Thomas K. Redden and Patrolman Ernest J. Levesque that he applied his brakes and turned to the left but could not avoid the collision. Both machines were damaged.

Miss Descheneau was given treatment at the office of Dr. J. J. Morin while the other passengers in both machines were uninjured.

It was on their complaint that he had been arrested and brought to court at which time he was given 90 days at the house of correction and costs of $5.70 with the jail sentence being suspended upon the payments of the costs.

MORE VETERANS

Seventeen veterans of World War II were among the 43 new students entering the University of New Hampshire with the opening of the second semester last Monday. It was announced by Dr. Everett B. Sachett, registrar and director of admissions. The ex-servicemen range in age from 19 to 39, with the average age about 23. Approximately half of them have been overseas and their service runs the gamut from the frigid Aleutians to the tropical South Pacific.

These men, on the whole, have seen more service than any other veterans who have entered the university and some of them were in for more than four years. This will bring the total number of returned servicemen attending the university under the Postwar Education Service up to 75.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

The first use of motor trucks — and that means rubber tires — by the U. S. Army in active campaigns occurred during the Punitive Expedition into Mexico in 1916. About 800 motor vehicles were in use on the Mexican border.

B. F. Goodrich's latest analysis of the rubber situation shows that after the war annual potential rubber production of the world should be 2,800,000 long tons. This is more than twice the amount of rubber used by the entire world in 1941, the record year, when consumption totaled 1,300,000 long tons.

IT SEEMS like sheer inspiration to team Eddie Bracken and William Demarest on the air as well as on the screen. Nobody who saw them together in "The Miracle of Morgan's Creek" and "Hail the Conquering Hero" will ever forget the hilariously funny scenes they played together. Now, at 8:30 Sunday evenings, E.W.T. on NBC, we have "The Story of Eddie Bracken," supposedly scenes from his life, with

EDDIE BRACKEN

Eddie playing the bewildered youth caught in a whirlpool of events beyond his control, and Demarest as the bull-voiced, irascible older man, goads Bracken into asserting himself, finally causing the worm to turn.

Jerome Cowan reported on the set of Republic's "Return at Dawn" one morning recently in high spirits. He'd gotten up early enough to have a real breakfast, said he—fruit, cereal, ham and eggs. "That's too bad," said Director John English, sympathetically. "Because in the first sequence this morning you've got to eat a full turkey dinner, from soup to dessert."

Claudette Colbert is in for another of those ageing screen roles. It's the second time in her screen career that she's been shown going from youth to advanced age, which is none too easy; it's a matter of so much more than just make-up, and only a good actress can do it convincingly. But Claudette succeeded in "Remember the Day," and repeats in International's "Tomorrow Is Forever."

When Shirley Temple was to appear on that coast-to-coast radio salute recently, casting trouble arose; Shirley's career was to be traced from her first picture to her latest one—and who'd play Shirley at the age of seven, in "Baby, Take a Bow"? A casting director finally solved the problem—and the impersonator, letter perfect, turned up in the person of Mary Jane Wong, aged twenty, a full-blooded Chinese!

Constance Bennett's launched as a producer; her first picture, "Paris—Underground" is under way, with Constance Bennett, star, playing the lead. Her wardrobe's by Adrian, Gregory Ratoff is directing, and Gracie Fields is billed as co-star.

ODDS AND ENDS—Gloria Blondell, co-star of "Hollywood Mystery Time," recommends working in television as a weight-reducer—she lost 12 pounds in an hour under those lights. . . Jimmy Durante's plans for 1945 include a new personality for himself; instead of chasing the girls, he'll let the girls chase him—he hopes. . . Film bad man Dan Duryea grows blue ribbon sweet peas. . . There was real blood at the "Inner Sanctum" mystery broadcast when Jack Arnheim, sound effects man, cut his finger while crashing glass. . . Karl Swenson, of "Grand Central Station," has one of the largest bee farms in New York state.

At both the young people's societies on Sunday afternoon the discussion topic was on Colored Handicaps. At the Intermediate Endeavor the leader was Miss Shirley Wilson, and at the Senior Endeavor, the leader was Miss Lois Kent. As a social activity, the Intermediates are planning to bowl in the near future and the Seniors are having a Valentine party. Serving on the senior committee for refreshments are Miss Anne Wardman, Roy Bouse, and Miss Lois Kent. Serving on the entertainment committee are Miss Peggy Cook, Edmund Branch, and Miss Dorothy Patat. Douglas Webb will be the discussion leader of the next young people's meeting and Miss Caroline Charest will lead the Intermediate group.

The Pioneer Y. M. C. A. club, consisting of boys in grades five and six, meet every Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church club rooms. The following officers have been elected: Pres., Clifton MacDougall; vice pres., Gordon Ayers; Sec.-Treas., George Hauschel; Executive Committee, Acer Hilbourne, David Dearborn, Robert Keller. The boys met at the parsonage recently and drew up a constitution and an achievement chart to be presented at the next club meeting. After the club meeting the boys enjoy pool, pingpong, and basketball. A game will be played in the Portsmouth Y. M. C. A. in the near future. The club was recently visited by John Lewis, who has charge of Y. M. C. A. work in this district who offered some very helpful suggestions. On his next visit on February 20, he will bring samples of emblems to be used for the achievement program according to which a boy may be awarded stripes to indicate that he has attained the following ranks: Private First Class, Corporal, Sergeant, 1st Lieutenant, Captain and Major.

The church choir under the leadership of Mrs. Walter Foster with Thomas Rooney at the organ, sang two numbers at the worship service on Sunday morning entitled, "O King of Peace," and "Let the Earth Now Praise the Lord." The offering was taken by Richard Hilton and Fred Philbrick. The flowers which decorated the altar were given by Mrs. Carey Savage in memory of her husband. The worship program has been improved by the addition of a choral response after the benediction entitled, "The Grace of Our Lord" (by Flugel). "Jim Crow Religion" was the title of the sermon theme and the text was taken from Luke 18:9. "And he spake also this parable unto certain persons who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and despised others." The service was conducted in observance of Race Relations Sunday to commemorate the memory of Abraham Lincoln, the great emancipator of the Negro people. Next Sunday will be the first Sunday in Lent and the sermon theme will be entitled, "Prevailing Prayer." At a meeting of the officers of the Baptist Society the pastor was authorized to collect a contribution from the Baptist members of the Community church to help pay for the Northern Baptist Assembly Institution at Green Lake, Mich. This outfit is valued at a million dollars but was purchased for three hundred thousand.

The Board of Trustees met in the church vestry Sunday afternoon, presided over by the chairman, Charles H. Stevens. Other members of the Board present were Richard Hilton, Elmer Kimball, Fred Durell, Fred Philbrick and Rev. Chesley Lantz. Among items of business discussed plans were considered for the observance of the 25th anniversary of the formation of the Newmarket Community church. Rev. Mr. Carvel was the pastor at the time the Community church was formed and it was suggested that he be the principal speaker at a celebration to be held on Thursday, April 26, and if this meets with the approval of the Executive Council, the clerk of the Board of Trustees was authorized to negotiate the appointment.

The regular monthly meeting of the Friendly Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Stevens.

Family Night sponsored by the Ladies' Guild will be held on Thursday evening, February 22, when a pot luck supper will be served to which a special invitation is extended to all the men of the parish.

A Washington's Birthday program will be held for the Baptist Youth of New Hampshire at Derry on February 22. Plans are being made for some of our young people to share in this fellowship.

Dr. Robert Armstrong, secretary of the New Hampshire Congregational Society, will be guest speaker at the morning worship service on Sunday, February 25th.

Rev. Paul Martin, pastor of the Congregational church in Exeter, will be guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Men's club to be held on Tuesday, February 27. He will give a review of Walter Lippman's book entitled, "The Foreign Policy of the United States."

Mrs. John Dalton, president of the Ladies' Guild, requests that during February, March and April, work be done on aprons and fancy work in preparation for the annual fair.

The pastor is urging that especially during the Lenten season, a special effort should be made to attend church regularly.

A few notable facts concerning the Negro race mentioned by the pastor last Sunday morning were as follows:

"Four million eligible Negroes are not permitted to vote. Five million Negro children have schools below the minimum standard of the schools for the white children. Nine million Negroes live below the poverty line. Seven million Negroes have little chance to share in the blessings of hospital facilities. The death rate is naturally higher than that of the whites and life expectancy is ten years less.

"No matter how well behaved, the Negro cannot ask for a drink of soda water at any of the drug or department stores in the metropolitan districts of many of our cities without the certainty of being denied.

"It is an ordinary thing for educated young people to pass high in civil service examinations and get called to jobs which they have meritoriously earned only to get turned down after their race identity is discovered.

"They are expected to live and lie for their country but in fairly liberal Tennessee, Negro soldiers are denied canteen service freely given to their fellow white soldiers on the same train.

"The Negro thus feels that he is not a part of our national life. He is a dark, shadowy figure moving vaguely somewhere in the background. Subconsciously he regards America as the white man's country, despite the fact that he has been here ever since the seventeenth century and has shown more willingness to be assimilated in American life than any other national group."

The pastor closed his remarks by saying that in the name of Abraham Lincoln, of Booker T. Washington, of Albert Schweitzer, of every loyal Negro-American, and above all in the name of Jesus Christ we should recognize our responsibility in bringing freedom and opportunity to the Negro race, recognizing that any discrimination on the basis of color is un-Christian and un-American.

Snow Storm

Residents speculated on whether or not the famous St. Valentine's day blizzard of 1940 exceeded the current one in fury, while others argued that the storms of 1922 and 1926 were worse. They were still shoveling, however.

Electric wires were reported unaffected by the storm. This was attributed to the fact that the snow which had fallen was dry snow. Clarence O. Martin, acting railroad agent, reported a general jumble of B & M traffic as huge, mammoth drifts impeded the passage of trains.

Portsmouth Navy Yard war workers, enjoyed a day of rest—if they weren't shoveling—when it was announced that the yard had cancelled its midnight shift due to the severity of the storm. Overland travel was utterly impossible in most regions as highway crews tackled the job of clearing them for use.

When no films arrived for the advertised program, the Star theatre was obliged to cancel its Friday night movie session. It also was forced to close its doors Saturday afternoon but was able to reopen for the Saturday evening performance.

Many persons were out with cameras—if they had film—to photograph the event for their grandchildren. Many years from now, when there is a blizzard somewhere, they will haul out the time-worn photos and say, "This ain't nothing! You should have seen the storm of '45!"

"China" was the topic of an address by Dr. Anna Rudd of the University of New Hampshire, who spoke before a meeting of the Newmarket Woman's club Wednesday evening. Dr. Rudd also exhibited her collection of Chinese souvenirs and curios. Mrs. Doris Mullen was the hostess.

Plans are being formulated for the observance of the organization's 40th anniversary which will be in the form of a guest night soon after the Lenten season.

Miss Rena Young is in charge of the publication of a cook book by the home economics department.

William Soby, Clarence Martin, Pete ("Grandpa") Morin, and Henry Ross recently attended the Sportsman's Show at the Boston Garden in Boston. Through this medium, Mr. Soby has gained an insight into the intricacies of fly casting. Mr. Ross now is reputed an expert in photography.

What Could They Be?

A small girl was entertaining her mother's visitor. "How's your little girl?" she asked.

"I'm sorry to say, my dear, that I haven't a little girl."

"How's your little boy?"

"I haven't a little boy, either."

"Then what are yours?"

Little boy (who had been sent to dry a towel before a grate)—"Oh, Mama, will it be done when it's brown?"

Strange, Did He Say?

"You have such strange names for your towns," an Englishman remarked to an American soldier. "Weehawken, Hoboken, Poughkeepsie, and others."

"I suppose they do sound queer to English ears," said the American, thoughtfully. "Do you live in London all the time?"

"Oh, no!" said the unsuspicious Briton. "I spend part of my time at Chipping Norton, and then I've a place at Pokestogg-on-the-Hike."

FREE LAND FOR WAR VETERANS

AT THE CLOSE OF THE CIVIL WAR the government provided large numbers of mustered-out veterans with free farms. That was then a practical compensation for patriotic service. The government then had many millions of acres of fertile land in states west of the Mississippi, and each veteran desiring it was given 160 acres capable of good crop production.

Following World War I a small portion of the mustered-out veterans were rewarded with such free farms as were available, but they did not represent the choice lands of the late 1860s and early 1870s. The desire for land on the part of mustered-out veterans, which the government could not satisfy, was productive of a harvest for unscrupulous land sharks. They organized land companies, and sold the soldier acres that, all too often, were worthless as crop producers.

I recall the large number of abandoned homes in the cut-over forest sections of Michigan. Those homes had been built by veterans on what were supposed to be developed as 20-acre fruit farms. Many of the purchasers knew nothing of fruit culture; they could not start from scratch; they could not grow enough of anything to provide food for themselves, and could not pay interest on the mortgage.

What was true in Michigan was true in a number of other states. It will again be true following the end of this war unless the discharged veterans are protected against those who would prey upon them.

Today we are more an industrial than an agricultural people. A larger portion of our armed forces were recruited from the mines, factories, stores and offices than from farms. Returning veterans who came from the farms will make good on the farms, but those from the towns and cities should not be encouraged to attempt farming as a vocation. There is a technique, a "know how," to farming, as there is to other specialized lines, and in the great majority of cases, the novice who undertakes it will fail.

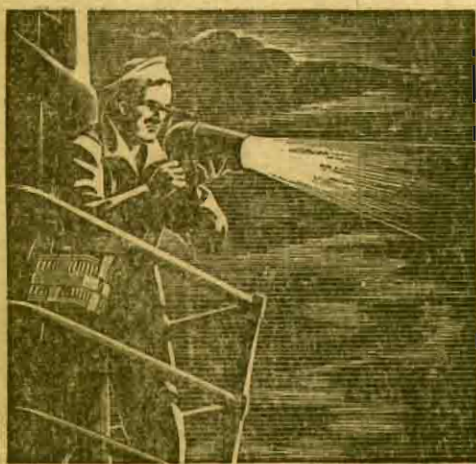

In a number of states, organizations have been perfected for the purpose of protecting discharged veterans from land-selling sharks; to discourage those not qualified from attempting to farm, and to see that those who do buy land get full value for what they pay. That is a worthy purpose.

REAL DANGERS OF INFLATION

THE GREATEST DANGER to our continued prosperity is that of uncontrolled inflation. We have financed a war at inflated prices for the commodities that war has called for. Much of the cost of those commodities is yet to be paid for, and the payment will spread over a considerable period of years. It is well that such inflation as we have had during the war should continue until the war debt is paid. We bought bonds with dollars of less than par value. Unless government can pay off that bonded indebtedness with dollars of the same below par value we will again have a depression. Our prosperity lies in continued high prices for labor and commodities to the same extent we have had during the war. If our dollar values can be held at that point we will not have a run-away inflation, but will have prosperity. Either increased or decreased prices would be dangerous.

Meet the Men

WHO USE YOUR BATTERIES!

The Navy and Merchant Marine send rapid ship-to-ship messages by battery-powered flasher signal lights when radio communication might give a ship's position to the enemy.

It's difficult to locate men drifting in the sea! Water-tight battery lights on buoyant lifesaver suits have meant the difference between life and death for many Merchant seamen.

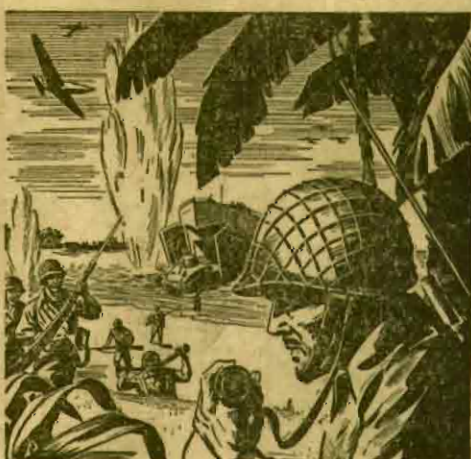

For emergency communication by voice, the Merchant Marine uses a portable megaphone to broadcast orders and instructions. Dry batteries give necessary power to the megaphone.

Two men and a bazooka make a winning team! But it takes large quantities of ammunition and dry battery power to keep these portable, hard-hitting weapons firing at the enemy.

Deadly flamethrowers are blazing the road to Victory! Dry batteries help to create the spark that sends these efficient weapons into instant, flaming action against the enemy.

The Signal Corps man with a Walkie-Talkie has freedom of speech as long as he has plenty of dry batteries! Handie-Talkies also use thousands of war batteries to power vital communications.

When they come Home—Burgess Batteries will be back again, too
... powering flashlights, radios, telephones, instruments and controls for millions of homes, farms and industries throughout America.

SOMEBODY'S STENOGRAPH—No Family Stuff, Please!

Star Theatre Projection Booth Offers Interesting Mechanism

Thousands of movie-goers who frequently attend the Star theatre, have little conception of what goes on "behind-the-scenes"—in the little projection booth from which all phases of the everyday motion picture performances are operated.

Edward J. Dondero, of R. F. D. 1, Newmarket, operator of the booth for a year and a half, is a busy man—far busier than most people realize. It is his job to see that all the minor, preliminary tasks which lead up to the eventual movie performance are done with care and precision. Mr. Dondero holds an official operator's license from the state of Massachusetts, and his alert eye is trained to spot anything which might prevent the program's smooth routine.

When the films arrive the operator must examine every scene and see that each is scrupulously clean. A minute particle of dust or a hair is magnified many times by the projectors' powerful lenses. The projectors also must be cleaned with care, and the sound system must be checked before each performance. Two hours and longer are consumed before each performance in inspecting, arduously, the reels of film.

The majority of persons who "go to the show" are under the assumption that only one projector is used in the projection booth. This is incorrect, however—there are two large, beautiful projecting machines, each with a 27-volt high intensity arc lamp. In order to light the "lamp" in each projector, two copper-coated pieces of carbons are placed together in the machine to provide the brilliant light. This ray of light is sufficient to blind a person should he look directly into it.

All lights of the theatre, side colored lights, and the curtain are manipulated by the operator from the fireproof booth. The sound is a very interesting part of the motion-picture game. Sound is PHOTOGRAPHED DIRECTLY ON THE FILM. Strong lens are focused on the film, and these "pick it up" and run it through the amplifier circuit. The circuit, in turn, transmits the sound of two large amplifiers set on a big baffleboard directly behind the movie screen. Tiny perforated holes in the screen in turn, pick up the sound so that it is clearly audible to the audience at all times.

During each presentation, eight or more reels of film are used. Each reel continues approximately 2,000 feet of film! The projectors are operated simultaneously—"back and forth," so to speak. "Exact, split-second timing is the keynote here," said Mr. Dondero. "The projectors must be manipulated in such a manner that not a single scene is missed by the audience." When one projector goes off, the other one must take up the task of further bringing the movie to the audience's eyes immediately—and so on.

The "backbone" of the modern motion picture projector, the Star theater operator explained, is found in the photo-electric cell. When the lights are doused, the curtains are drawn back, and the show is "set to go," the film is run from the top magazine, brought through the projector head, through to the sound head and the photo electric cell, until it passes the lens-exciter lamp and is automatically wound on the lower magazine.

Complicated, isn't it? Yet we see Turner and Grable just the same.

Due to the severity of the recent blizzard, the setto with Sanborn academy of Kingston has been postponed from last Friday night to this evening (Friday, February 16.) This contest will officially complete the 1944-45 season for the Varsity squad.

The local quintet will journey to the academy in Exeter Tuesday night when it will meet Exeter High in the playoff game of the Rockingham Victory league. The Exonians captured first place February 6 by beating Newmarket, 30-28, and it is expected that the locals will end up in second place. The preliminary game will be played between Somersworth High and Hampton High, Sanborn academy of Kingston being the lone league team which is left out "in the cold."

Two Varsity hoopties departed this week to don uniforms of the U. S. Navy, and it is expected that another soon will follow suit. They were William Audette and Robert Carder, although the latter resigned from the squad following the Exeter tilt of January 19. Alfred Houle, crack guard, will enter the Navy soon after the season ends.
