Mongeon Brothers Purchase Hotel

It was announced recently that Gerard and Norman Mongeon have purchased the Hotel Willey property and the Willey apartments in the rear of the hotel. They assumed ownership at the beginning of the year.

Structurally, the Hotel Willey has changed little in the past 60 years. Recorded accounts state only that a certain George H. Willey acquired the hotel in May of 1902. Mr. Willey was a man of varied talents. He had worked in a shoe shop, had been appointed by President Cleveland as mail agent, had later worked for the B&M, and operated an express prior to buying the hotel.

His son George appears to have carried on until the mid-forties when the hotel furnishings and building were sold at public auction. The next owner, Mr. Ralph Berry, converted the building from hotel to apartment house and also remodelled what appears to have been the barn at the rear of the building into several apartments. Mr. Berry disposed of many of his Newmarket holdings in the fall of 1959 when the Mongeon brothers bought the property in a private sale.

INQUIRY CLASSES TO BEGIN AT ST. MARY'S PARISH SCHOOL

For the second year an information class in the teachings of the Catholic Faith will be conducted at St. Mary's school. The purpose of these classes is to give an opportunity to non-Catholic adults to come to a better understanding of the Catholic Church and what it teaches. Last year sixteen residents of Newmarket and Newfields attended and profited greatly from the series of instruction.

The information classes will be held one night a week and will begin the first week of February. The exact date of the first class will be announced in the next edition of The Newmarket Times.

Father Eugene Dumas extends a cordial invitation to all who may wish to take advantage of these instructions on the Catholic religion.

F.O.E. Awards Life Certificates

Last week Lamprey Aerie of Eagles held their regular monthly meeting at the Eagles hall and honored four Charter members for their devoted work in the Aerie during the past fifty years.

Honored were Joseph A. Brisson, Rosaire Turcotte, John A. Edgerly Sr., and Napoleon Emond and were each presented a Charter Membership Pin and a Life Membership Certificate by Aerie President John Schanda, who expressed the pride and appreciation the organization felt for these members and wished them all continued good health and long life.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles, familiarly known as the F.O.E., was organized in Newmarket Nov. 21, 1910. The first president was the late William P. Haley, who worked hard as did the 57 new candidates who organized Aerie 1934. Today only four of those original members remain.

American Legion News

by Fred L. Beale

The Robert G. Durgin Post will hold a benefit Whist Party for the benefit of the March of Dimes, Sunday night, January 24th at Legion Hall.

The Degree Team of the Third New Hampshire District, the American Legion, will put on Legion Degree at Legion hall on Saturday, Feb. 13. The Post will put on an old fashioned Initiation. It has been some time since we had one and there are over 200 members to be initiated and if you don't know whether or not you were initiated, all you have to do is see if you have an American Legion Lapel button. If not, chances are you haven't been initiated as the giving of the Lapel Button is one phase of the degree. Refreshments and dancing will follow the ceremonies. The ceremonies will be public and the members of the 50/50 Club are invited to attend.

This week I had several inquiries as to why the Legion flag was flying at half mast. When a member of our Post dies, the flag is flown at half mast in respect of his memory until after the funeral. In the past, several of the next of kin of a veteran have returned the flag to us which draped the casket and we fly them in memory of the Veteran for the life of the flag. We have one flown from the Riverside Cemetery and one in front of the Legion hall. These two flags are flying in memory of Past Commander James B. Griffin and Past Chaplain Euclide F. Blanchette. James B. Griffin was our first Commander and also a Charter member. Euclide (Clyde) Blanchette was also a charter member and one of the most faithful members of this Post. This week Leo A. Camire passed away and that is why the flag was flown at half mast.

Did you miss dancing to the music of the J. B. Trio at last Friday's social. If you did — don't miss him this week. Every Friday evening, we hold our weekly social and have excellent music for dancing.

A warning to those who have not got their dues in yet. Sometime in March we will be giving out the longevity cards and when you pay this year's dues, you may be one who has belonged continuously for five years or several units of five years for which you will receive a longevity card. To get one, the deadline is January 31st. Your dues must be in by that time.

Watch this column for coming activities of this post. They will be published weekly and there is no excuse for not being up-to-date on our activities. Subscribe to the Newmarket Times and be sure not to miss anything.

Lee Fire Dept. Buys Resuscitator

The Lee Fire department held its annual meeting Thursday evening at the fire station. Mr. Lloyd Stevens was re-elected Chief, Maurice Hatch was elected Secretary-Treas, and Arthur Pratte was elected director for three years. The budget for 1960 was accepted as proposed by the Board of Directors and will be presented for approval by the town at Town meeting.

A five member committee was appointed by the Chief consisting of Chris Cook, chairman, Maurice Hatch, Ted Gooch, Leonard Wenant and Arthur Pratte to present a report at the February meeting on recommendations for membership classification and eligibility for accident insurance.

After a dynamic demonstration and talk on the new Fyr-Fyter mouth-to-mask resuscitator by Mr. Nelson Evans, the fire department purchased same with money from the donation fund. Mr. Evans, who teaches over WENH-TV, has spent many summers as a water front counselor where he learned the value of this new type resuscitator. Easy to operate, the fire department felt the apparatus would be a valuable piece of equipment.

The department gratefully accepted several articles such as rope, lanterns and boots which Leonard Wenant, Civil Defense Director had obtained through the Civil Defense program.

There will be a training session and work meeting on Jan. 28, Thursday, at 7:30 at the Fire Station.

Through The Years . . .

With Mary Richardson

THE HISTORY OF PROUD STREET (Continued from Last Week)

Then comes the Cheswell cemetery where Wentworth Cheswell, a brave soldier of the Revolutionary War and his family are buried. Next to that was the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richardson. The front part of the house is as it used to be when my father built it many years ago, but the part which was an attic has been raised to make two chambers and a bath room.

There were very few houses on Proud Street when our house was built. Dad left his loaded shot gun with mother when he went to work. The railroad was being repaired, and there were some pretty tough customers on the job. One evening as mother was washing the supper dishes, father having gone to work at the store — a man came to the pantry window and demanded some matches. Mom wouldn't give him any, and as he still persisted in his demands, Mother pointed the gun at him. He gave her one look, turned around and told her where to shoot and then rolled down the banking. My father was a very busy man. He kept chickens, a pig, two horses and a large vegetable garden. Besides his grocery store, he was sheriff under Mr. Coffin, who was high sheriff at that time, and also an auctioneer. He would have the auction at his store, and would open by ringing a large bell and everyone would come to see what was happening. He often walked to work in the morning, and you could hear him before you saw him as he was always whistling. His favorite tunes were "Marching through Georgia", and "Annie Laurie", and sometimes he got stuck on Annie, when she went too high.

We will now visit the little house next to the Richardson home — the house where I now reside. This house, over 100 years ago, was moved down from Schanda's field on the Epping road by rollers and many yoke of oxen. Many have lived in the little house through the years. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Demeritt and family, Mrs. Hattie Chapman and her son Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ashley, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Proctor and little Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cheswell, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Edgerly and two children.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hudson and two daughters lived in the little house several years. Mrs. Hudson was a good housekeeper and cook. She loved to move things around. Mr. Hudson didn't know where "he was at" when he came home at night for when he left in the morning the dining room was on the right side of the house and when he came home at night, it had changed places with the living room.

One evening he came home very tired and as soon as it was dark, decided to retire. He didn't bother to take a lamp, as he knew where everything was — or did he? He managed to undress and after falling over a chair, placed his clothes there. He then started for the bed but where was it? He fell into the bureau and table and hurt his big toe — and he just couldn't find the bed! Mrs. Hudson, hearing the racket, came upstairs with a lamp and there poor Henry stood — in the spot where the bed had been the night before, but just wasn't there now! It had been moved to the other side of the room.

We will now visit the Brown house — where Uncle John and Aunt Hattie spent many happy years. The house was built on much the same plan as the Richardson home.

Mr. Brown was a merchant tailor. He worked in Ben Haley's tailor shop for many years. Mr. Haley would send Uncle John to Boston, or other places to measure soldiers for their uniforms. He would bring the cloth home and have the uniforms made at Haley's shop. He would be gone several days.

Uncle John loved pets and had a flock of bantams but would never eat a single one! His nephew brought him a couple of pigeons and soon the barn chamber was full of them.

After Uncle John passed away, Aunt Hattie went to live with her sisters in Concord. The house is now owned by Mrs. Walter Webb.

We come next to the old home of Mr. and Mrs. Alanson Haines. This house was brought down on rollers and oxen over 60 years ago. When the house neared Fred Durell's home, it became stuck — but by much "heeing and hawing", it gradually got going again. The house was moved from where Harold Lang has his residence on the Epping road. In fact, Harold built his home on the same cellar where the old house stood.

Mr. Haines was a Civil War veteran and assigned to Co. K, 6th Inf., Mass. Vol. Militia. He was appointed corporal. Mr.

Haines was cashier at the New Market bank for over 20 years.

The house is now occupied by Dr. Brown and family.

The two apartment house owned by Mrs. Hannah Webb was once owned by Edward Richardson. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Kingman occupied the whole house. Mr. Kingman was well up in the Masons as was his son Bela.

After the death of Mr. Kingman, the house was made into two tenements. The next house is the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Carpenter and adjoining this is Maple Crest. A few years ago Maple Crest was pasture land and full of lovely wild flowers. (Linotype operators note: Now it's full of lovely homes and wild kids!)

We will now cross the road and see William Carter's large apartment house. In the beginning, this was a story and a half house, owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Boardman. Mr. Boardman used to drive a fine span of black horses. The house was surrounded by beautiful flowers. After the death of Mr. and Mrs. Boardman, the house was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haines who enlarged the building. The agent of the Newmarket Manufacturing company lived here with his family for a few years. The Cape Cod home next to this has not been built too long. It is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Varney.

We now come to the Newmarket High school, situated where once was a large field where circuses used to pitch their tents. Wild strawberries grew here in profusion — and poison ivy. I should know as I got into it one day while hunting strawberries.

The next house was built by Andrew Watterson, but after it was completed, his wife didn't like it so it was sold. Mr. Curtis and family lived there several years and after that Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dockum, their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. True Smith, and their daughter Miss Edith Dockum. They had hens, chickens, a large vegetable garden and a beautiful flower garden.

The owners are now Mr. and Mrs. Joseph St. Amour.

The next home, now owned by Mrs. Fred Philbrick, was built by Pierce Haines. He worked in a grocery store where the Griffin Insurance Agency is now located on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Haines had one son, Bernard. They owned an old horse who used to take them to ride on Sunday, a bull dog named Tessy, and a bob-tailed cat.

Now we come to Uncle George Leavitt's. He and Aunt Josie had two daughters, Alice and Bessie. Alice was a fine housekeeper — like her mother but Bessie didn't like housework and managed to be absent when it was time to do the dishes. Uncle George was full of fun. If he saw a cat, he would squall like a tom-cat — only worse and that poor cat would scoot as if his Satanic Majesty was after him. Uncle Georgie had chickens, a big pig, and each spring a dozen or more little porkers. It was the style those days to have a pig.

Bessie and Alice went to California and Bessie got married. They sent for their parents to live with them and as they were getting along in years, they decided to go. The home is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kent.

The house next to the Leavitt house has seen many changes. It was built by Harold Baril, who moved away because of poor health. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Berry lived there for some time until they moved to Florida. The house is now

Auto Accident Victims

Two local young people were in a serious accident in Epping Friday evening. Jack Randall, 19, and his sister Barbara, 22, children of Mr. and Mrs. John Randall of Lee Five Corners, and two passengers, Miss Janice Griffin, 19, of Portsmouth and Miss Nancy Redden of Dover were struck by a skidding car operated by Maurice Fortin of Manchester on Route 101. Fortin escaped injury but the four in the Randall car were all injured. All were taken to the Exeter hospital. Miss Griffin, who suffered a leg fracture, was transferred to the Portsmouth hospital, Barbara Randall suffered multiple lacerations of the face and is reported in "good" condition at the Exeter hospital and Randall and Miss Redden, who suffered bruises and lacerations, were released from the hospital after treatment.

Personals

Electrician 1st Class, USN, Charles Bennett is a frequent visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett and will be until March as his ship, The Sablefish, is in drydock in Portsmouth for repairs.

Notice

We recommend anyone wishing to file a petition with the selectmen to be put in the town warrant to do so immediately, as the warrant will be going to press in the very near future.

Interest in town affairs is perking up as March fast approaches. After hearing rumors of potential candidates to fill the open offices, we checked with town clerk Mrs. Annie Piper and can report only the following two people who have filed: Mr. George Bennett for selectman and Mrs. Inez Bennett for Tax Collector.

We will try to keep our readers as up-to-date as possible.

1853 12-GAUGE BREECH LOADING SHOT GUN

The gun pictured above is quite rare in these parts because of the fact it was made in England as a trade gun for the natives in India and Africa. It takes a 12-gauge shotgun shell and is stout enough to stand the modern-day load. I know, because I have used it quite often for both bird hunting and deer hunting. This gun was converted from an English Cap and ball to a Breech Loader. Right in front of the rabbit-ear hammer a piece of the chamber has been cut out and a casting put in its place. This opens upward and slides back to remove the spent shell. It is a crude — but efficient — rig and shoots well. It has a 34" barrel and weighs 13 pounds. It also is a full choked bore, being 1/8" tighter than modern full chokes. Being bored for black powder, this tighter bore increases the pressure of modern powder.

Late last fall the Fish and Game department sent out 5,000 cards which asked the hunter whether the partridge population had increased or decreased in relation to 1958 and now they have released their findings.

Of the 5,000 cards sent, 2,161 were returned with the following results: 311 hunters indicated an increase, 265 said no change over 1958 and 1585, almost 74%, saw a decrease. It was a strange bird season, for during the month of October the partridge seemed very scarce but as soon as we found what the birds were feeding on we started to connect. After the leaves fell and you could get clearer shots, the feeding habits again changed. The big flocks of starlings and robins have a lot to do with the changing habits as they strip partridge cover of ground food such as weed, seeds, berries and white and red clover leaves, which make up 80% of October and November food for partridge.

The N. H. Beaver season will open on January 20th and will last until March 31st. As usual this will make some fishermen happy and others very sad. This trapping of beaver raises many hot difference of opinion around the old pot bellied stove. Some fishermen claim that when the beaver dams the streams, the waters warm up and in turn release the tannic acid which forms when hemlock, popular and other woods steep in warm water. This concentration of acids and warm water tend to weaken the trout which then fall victim to diseases and predatory fish. On the other side of the fence, the story goes in the other direction. These fishermen claim the trout need deep holes in the dead of summer to survive the warming trend of the streams. They argue that when white men first settled here, beaver and big fat trout, salmon and many other scarce game fish got along very nicely. As soon as the beaver were trapped out the brooks, rivers and ponds without their natural flood control dams flooded out and at times warmed up. Droughts dried up many streams which had never before ceased to run. Well, look around at the rivers. There are no Atlantic salmon running, rainbows are scarce, trout must be stocked to provide decent fishing. Take your choice — personally I like to see beaver working the waters. I like to think I could flip my line over a dam into a nice deep hole and catch that 14" brookie hanging out under the bank.

The local game warden reports that dogs are running deer in the Newmarket, Lee and Barrington area.

In Newmarket most of the offenses are centered around the bald hill area. In Lee, most of the dogs are working around Wheelwright's Pond and the Tuttle road area. In Barrington, the area squared by the Concord road and Rt. 125 seems to be worst affected. If you live in or near these areas, keep an eye on your dog. Protect your dog, your deer and maybe your pocketbook.

EAGLES DEFEAT CONCORD

stocking and rearing successes. A total of 15,350 birds were raised and of this number, 7,262 were cocks and 8,088 were hens. These birds were released during 1959: 2,691 were let out early in the spring, the balance was released in early fall. The department took a cue from other states and let the birds out closer to the season. This was supposed to up the hunter kill and lower the mortality rate due to fox, cats and dogs. This may be a good deal for the midwest gunners who have hundreds of corn fields and other ideal pheasant ranges to hunt over. But N. H. hunters must look and hunt in many varied covers and locations. The birds need twice as much time to locate their feeding grounds and suitable roosting areas. Let our birds out too early and within a week after the 1st rolls around, not many birds are to be found.

Not much to report on ice fishing except that the ice shanty towns are blooming up all over the lakes. This brand of ice fishing offers much enjoyment as these people elect Mayors, name streets and have a whale of a time.

My Uncle "Flub" took up ice boating. With little or no training in the art of dry land sailing, he did very well his first time out. Of course, the Bob House he hit will be repaired and a new boom and mast will be installed on his ice boat. But I doubt very much if the irate owner of the shanty will ever repair his shattered nerves. The poor fellow was just dozing off, dreaming of a Great Lake trout when "Flub" piled into his snug little ice shanty doing at least 60 m.p.h. Like I said — no one was hurt. But nerves were ruined and so was Uncle "Flub's" left eye.

P.A.A. Hoopsters In Second Loss

The Newmarket P.A.A. were beaten for the second time this season last Thursday night by a fast, experienced Rochester Club 60-55. "Lee" Nadeau poured 24 points through the hoop for the visitors but Bobby Michel, Somersworth H.S. coach stole the show with his lightning speed and fine shooting. Jack Douglas, Rochester's Holy Rosary coach, was the big man on the boards. Mel Cross made his debut with the locals and turned in a brilliant performance of all around play netting 25 points. The locals were handicapped by sickness and injuries before the game and ace playmaker Jacques Gagnon had to leave the game after two minutes had elapsed. Casey Call and Gus Zwearcan racked up 12 points each to help Cross in the scoring.

Thursday the 21st the locals take on the Raymond Town Team in Newmarket at 8 p.m. and on Sunday night the 24th they will play the strong Dover All-Stars in Newmarket at 7 p.m. Dover is led by five former All-State players, including Wimpy Leighton, Jack McNally, Jerry Crowley, Sonny Kelley and Bobby Butterfield.

Mules Beat Sanborn; Lose To Pembroke

By Ronnie Griswold

N.H.S. 51 — SANBORN 28

The Newmarket High Mules romped over Sanborn last Friday night at Kingston. The boys moved very slowly in the first quarter as they only led 14-10. Walker and Sklarski were the guns for the Mules with Kustra, Hayes and Byron doing the ball handling and setting up the plays. As the second quarter began, Homiak went in for Byron and did a good job in helping Kustra set up the plays. This led to an 18-4 romp in the second quarter to give the Red and Black a lead of 32-14. The game was in the Mule's hands from then on as they outscored the boys from Sanborn 10-7 in the third and 9-7 in the last to grab the victory for the Mules. This win gives Newmarket an 8-1 record.

This small Sanborn team has not won a game as yet because they have a completely new team. I figure that another year of experience these boys will give a good account of themselves. This team has a very good forward who was one of the better scorers of the game.

Walker and Sklarski led the Mules attack with 14 points each. Hayes followed with 11 after having a slow start. Doug Call and Byron each got 5. Doug should be given a good hand as he scored five points in his first game.

PEMBROKE 53 — NHS 49

The Mules lost their second game of the season at the hands of the Pembroke team at Pembroke 53-49 in a real thriller. The Red and Black were behind by about 16 points with only two minutes remaining when they started a rally that pulled them within four points. Led by the great shooting of Chickering from Pembroke who netted 29 points for the night, the Mules were outshot. At the end of the first quarter, the Red and Black were ahead 16-13 thanks to the great shooting of Dennis Sklarski who had 10 points in the first quarter. Between Walker and Sklarski, the Mules were able to stay ahead at the half 26-22.

Going out after the half, the Red and Black were in for a big surprise in the third quarter as the boys from Pembroke outscored the Mules 23-9 to take a lead of 11 points. The Mules fought back vainly throughout the last quarter only to fall short by four points.

N. H. S. GIRLS GAME

The Newmarket High Girls team made it two straight as they beat a strong team from Winnacunnet. Behind the 26 point score of Joyce Grochmal the girls led all the way. The game started off at a slow pace with a 7-7 score. Great foul shooting by Joyce was shown as she made five out of six tries. Gail Griswold made a field goal to give Newmarket seven. At the start of the second quarter Joyce took over again as she got four free throws and three field goals to give her ten. The only other scorer for Newmarket was Gail Griswold with one more field goal to give Newmarket a 19-13 lead.

The game continued on somewhat the same way until some of the girls started fouling out. For Newmarket, by the end of the last quarter, Gail Griswold, Joyce Albee, Joyce Grochmal, Evelyn Hamel, Kathy Labranch and Carol Kustra had fouled out. This left only five girls to finish the game. Working opposite six girls from Winnacunnet, the Mules won 37-32 by the scoring of five points by Elaine Kleczek in the last quarter. There were 71 fouls called in this game with Newmarket having 43 and Hampton 28.
