

NABS CULPRIT

FIREMEN'S AUCTION

Auctioneer Philbrick confidently states that "a stuffed white goose is something no home should be without". The bird had reposed on a lawn on Epping road, a temptation to passing hunters. The former owner recalls hearing a car slow down, watching the car window roll down and catching the glimpse of a gun barrel. The goose now perches atop a fence post up on Proud street.

Royce Shoe May Resume Operations Within Six Weeks

The Newmarket Service club held its last spring meeting on May 23, 1960. After the dinner which was served at the Centre Spa, the meeting was continued at the town selectman's office.

One of the primary functions of the Newmarket Service club is to acquaint the townspeople of Newmarket with projects and proposals and all efforts of groups or individuals and to look into and recommend any legitimate effort that may generally help our town.

In this same thought, the Newmarket Service club is very happy to make known to the public the following information.

In recent weeks the town of Newmarket has been deprived of an industry, namely the Royce Shoe Co., which employed over 200 people. Through reliable sources it may be said that a serious effort is being made by the owners to comply with a satisfactory adjustment through the bankruptcy court to meet a deadline by June 11. If successful in this effort, the Royce Shoe Co. will be able to resume operation which will in time benefit many employees who are now jobless. It is estimated that if all goes well, operation will begin in about 5 to 6 weeks.

Royce Shoe has been given until June 11 to raise a sum of money equal to 18% of all unsecured obligations. This adjustment has been deemed acceptable by the creditors of Royce Shoe Co. Should the money be raised the bankruptcy courts will give Royce Shoe the green light to proceed again with operations.

The Newmarket Service club desires to inform the public that all male members of Newmarket who are interested in the welfare of the town are invited to join the organization. The club is not meant for a selected few, Newmarket needs your help and you can best help by joining and supporting the Service club.

The following committees were formed at the last meeting:

Program committee: Hank Soper, chairman, Dan Mullen and George Bergeron.

Publicity: Ben Richardson.

Activities: Colonel Pearson, chairman, Walter Gazda, Norman Langlois and Alfred Zych.

Membership: Ernest Cutter, chairman, Bob Rousseau and Edward Dondero.

Thursday, June 2nd, at the Superior Court session before Judge Griffith, Chester E. Stewart, 42, of Rochester, N. H., waived trial. He entered a plea of guilty to a charge of bad check passing and was ordered to make restitution and put on 2 years probation. He was released at 12:30 p.m. and arrived in Newmarket on his way home. After acting in a disorderly manner at Adrien's restaurant, he proceeded up Route 108.

At the residence of John H. Rollins he encountered John M. Rollins, 15, and Barbara Jenness, 16, and engaged them in conversation. When they proceeded up

Co-Op School Still Unsettled

Epping voters rejected a plan to join a cooperative high school program with Newmarket by a 134-96 vote last Friday night at a special school district meeting. Earlier they had failed by 37 votes to reach the necessary two-thirds vote required to act on a proposed $213,000 bond issue for the construction of a new high school. The vote was 204-157.

The lengthy meeting, lasting until well after midnight, began with a 90-minute discussion as to the legality of the checklist being used. Attorney Russell McGuirk, legal counsel of the town of Epping, ruled that the checklist had been legally adopted by the school district.

Epping school officials state that permission will be requested from Superior Court to hold another special meeting after a 30-day waiting period, at which time voters will again attempt to solve the school question.

Eppings decision will provide the solution to the question of whether or not that town along with those of Newmarket, Newfields and Brentwood will "go cooperative." Each of the other town school officials are marking time until the decision can be reached.

Epping holds the "ace-in-the-hole." Cooperative schooling must of necessity remain a dormant issue for each of the other three towns until Epping voters make up their minds. No matter what the outcome of this question, Epping will have to take steps to provide new schooling — and soon.

Fire Department Auction Termed Successful Despite Bad Weather

The Fire Department auction was held last Saturday, June 5th in the town hall because of cloudy skies and frequent showers. Originally the event was to have been held in Turcotte's parking lot.

Articles generously donated by townsfolk and local merchants as well as out-of-town businessmen were offered to the highest bidder by amateur auctioneer Herbert Philbrick. The sale began at 1 p.m., recessed at 5:00 during the supper hour and resumed at 6:15 and continued until 8 p.m.

A refreshment stand was in operation at the rear of the hall with hot dogs, coffee and soft drinks available. At the conclusion of the auction, members of the department manned the broom brigade and cleaned the hall and cleared away the remaining pieces of merchandise.

George Griswold, auction chairman has expressed the departments heartfelt appreciation to townspeople and merchants for their generosity. Without their cooperation, the venture would not have been a success. Griswold asks everyone to bear in mind the fact that this auction will be an annual affair and hopes as many as possible will save any furniture or any suitable articles for the 1961 Firemen's Annual Auction.

the Rollins driveway he followed. Rollins, the owner noticed his arrival and ordered him off whereupon Stewart swung at him.

Stewart then backed the length of the driveway back to 108 and with his fist broke the plate glass window in the front door at the residence of Robert LaBranche. He then continued between the LaBranche and nearby Babineau house and cut across the Rollins property crawling through the tall grass and circling the house. He smashed a window near Rollins who was on the phone and broke two more windows in an attempt to get in and "get Rollins and kill him".

Rollins managed to grab Stewart by his arm pushed through the broken window and held on so that Stewart was wedged against the window frame until Police Chief John Valliere arrived. Stewart offered no resistance and got into the police cruiser meekly. However, by the time they reached Kruzcek's garage the man grabbed for the chief's gun, which altered the situation slightly. After a stop beside the road while he tried to divert the man's attention from the gun, Valliere decided that discretion being the better part of valor he'd better proceed to the police station with all deliberate haste.

Upon reaching the local town hall, Chief Valliere shouted and recruited Raymond Ripley and Bob Keller. Stewart was firmly assisted to the cell block in the police station. He is now back at Brentwood after his three hours of freedom, awaiting the disposition of his case in Superior Court.

LAMB LOAF COMBINES EASE, ECONOMY

Why not put the adventure back into meat loaf? Here's one that suggests the glamor of the near East, a la Omar Khayyam, since it features traditional lamb and rice, dried apricots and honey.

There are some other surprises in store. To add to its interest, the meat loaf is concocted sandwich-style, so that its colorful rice and apricot filling shows off to advantage. One of the nice things about using rice as a stuffing is the fact that it combines equally well with fruit or vegetable, seasoning or spice and, in addition, it always has that just-right consistency.

Lamb makes a pleasing variation for a meat loaf, and the final touch to the dish is provided by a drizzle of honey spread over the top.

GOLDEN RICE STUFFED LAMB LOAF

- 3/4 cup diced celery
- 3 tablespoons minced onions
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 2 cups cooked rice
- 3/4 cup cut dried apricots
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon savory
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 3/4 cup water
- 1/2 cup crisp rice cereal, roll into fine crumbs
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1 1/4 pounds lean ground lamb
- 1 tablespoon honey

Saute celery, onions, and parsley in butter or margarine until tender. Add rice, apricots, 1/2 teaspoon salt, savory, and 1/8 teaspoon pepper and toss lightly. Remove from heat.

Combine egg, water, rice cereal crumbs, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper. Add ground lamb and mix thoroughly.

Spread 1/2 of the meat mixture on bottom of 10 x 6 x 2 inch baking pan. Spread stuffing over meat and press down firmly. Cover stuffing with remaining meat mixture and smooth with spatula.

Drizzle honey over top and spread evenly over meat. Bake at 350° F. about 45 minutes, or until meat is done. Cut into squares to serve. Makes 6 servings.

Through The Years . . .

With Mary Richardson

Charlie Dog and Queen Vashti

There used to be a carriage house situated on South Main street between the house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bouse on one side and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker on the left side. Dr. Brown's house is on the right. The carriage house belonged to Edward Richardson, my father. He kept his grocery wagon and harnesses there. After my father died the house where Frank Walker lived was sold to Mr. Alanson Haines and the carriage house was moved onto the big house and a kitchen made of it, thus making two apartments.

Charlie

Before the carriage house was moved it was a fine place for the kids to play in. There was a loft, which was reached by climbing an inside ladder.

One day I was playing in this carriage house around noon-time and my friends had gone home to dinner. I heard a noise and there was my father driving in and sitting beside him on the seat of the wagon was the dearest little golden brown puppy, with a yellow bow on his collar.

I named my new pet Charlie for Charlie Whitehorn, who came into dad's store most every day. Dad took the pup down to the store to see his namesake. Big Charlie thought he was wonderful. When Charlie Dog came to visit his friend, Mr. Whitehorn would sit down in father's chair with Charlie beside him. Mr. Whitehorn would talk to Charlie and tell him he was a fine dog and a little Christian gentleman.

Charlie Dog would often spend the forenoon at the store and come home at noon. At first he rode on the wagon seat, but as he grew older he didn't want to but would run beside the wagon and you could hear them coming way down to the railroad bridge.

Charlie was a very brave dog(?). He would go up to a dog twice as big as he was and tell him "where he got off", and then run like the dickens. Sometimes he would spend the night out and once he was gone two night. About five in the morning as it was coming light I heard a scratching at the door. I ran down stairs and opened the door and there stood my brave Charlie and what a Charlie! He was covered with mud and had such an expression you would think he had lost his last friend, and insult upon insult, his beautiful golden plume had a tin can tied to it. For a while Charlie was cured of his wandering.

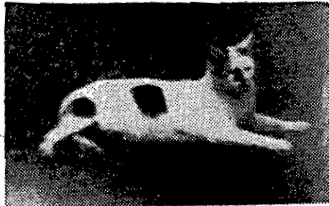

One Saturday afternoon we, that is Charlie and I, decided to visit my chum Edie. We sat down on the grass in the back yard and admired Edie's hens and big rooster. The pup behaved very good at first and did not bother the hens. Edie then had an idea. Why not give the hens a concert?

Her mother that afternoon had found an old hymn book, so Edie went and got the book and we started singing. Our first selection being "When the Roll is Called up Yonder."

Charlie Dog didn't like the singing, so he just opened his mouth and howled and their yours truly got upon a high note and that settled it. That pup went out of that yard and down the street like a streak of lightning and the hens began running around as if they were crazy, so we had to stop our singing and after that I went home to see what my dog was doing.

Charlie lived to a good old age, and if doggies go to a dog heaven, Charlie certainly deserved to go.

Vashti certainly was a queen or I should say is, as she is still with us. Her mother, Regina, was a tramp cat, pure white with a yellow tail. She came to me one morning asking for a home and I gave her one. She had such pretty kittens but as had several other cats we could only keep one. We named her Vashti after Queen Vashti of the Bible. She is white with yellow and black spots. She is about twelve years old and very smart.

Perhaps some of our friends do not remember who Vashti was. She was the wife of king Ahasuerus, who in Bible times reigned from India into Ethiopia. He gave a feast that lasted seven days, to all the "big Bugs" and all who were in Shusham palace. On the seventh day he sent seven of his servants to Queen Vashti, who was very beautiful, to bid her to come to the feast and wear her crown. She didn't want to go among that drunken crowd, and so she refused. She was a brave woman, for the kings in those days had the power of life and death over their household.

I do not think Vashti was honored as she should have been for what she did, so I have named my cat after her. Vashti thinks she is very important and does not have much in common with the other cats.

The queen has a six months old yellow and white kitten. His name is "Lucifer Son of the Morning" and he thinks there is nothing like him and I guess there isn't. He is into everything, wants to run the typewriter or talk on the telephone.

Vashti had quite an experience several years ago. When I came down stairs one morning I heard an awful spitting and growling. I couldn't see at first where it came from and then I saw Vashti in the living room back of the table and when she saw me she started running around and the other cats chasing her. She had something in her mouth and I thought it was the kitten that belonged to my black cat. I tried to get it away from her. She finally dropped it and I saw it was some kind of small rat. Such a queer looking thing. It had short legs and a short tail and small pointed ears. It had dirty gray fur that stuck up all over it. It died in a little while.

Vashti was so proud of herself. She was the mighty hunter of Proud street. She still thinks it is beneath her to have much to do with the other cats.

Reception For Cong. Merrow

A reception was held at the Tower Room of the library last Sunday evening, June 5th for Congressman Chester Merrow and Mrs. Merrow. The event was sponsored by Mrs. Herbert Philbert, chairman of women of the Merrow-for-Congress committee of Newmarket and Daniel P. Antopolos of Dover, area chairman of the Young-Voters-for-Merrow.

BUDGET COMMITTEE MEETS WITH DEPARTMENT HEADS

The Newmarket Budget committee held a semi-annual inventory meeting with the heads of the police, fire department and Civil Defense groups last Tuesday night in the courtroom of the town hall. The Board of Selectmen were present to assist in any problems presented and to explain any future plans regarding each of the departments. The Budget group has already met with the heads of the Public Work Department and the cemetery department to receive reports of expenditures of each from January 1st to the present.

Police Chief John Valliere reported that of the $12,500 appropriated for use by his department, as of May 30th, $4,291.48 of this sum has been spent on salaries and $1,482.79 for department expenses such as department insurance and withholding tax.

He stated that the financial yield from the parking meters cannot be accurately forecast because weather often determines the efficiency of their operation. Sixty of the present 80 meters definitely are in need of replacement. The manufacturer recommends the ideal production meter years, as 7. Most of the meters in use are now 12 years old. Receipts of meter revenue have fallen during past year because of repairs to the curbing and Main street during which the meters were not used. The present devices freeze and are often inoperable during the winter months and the closing of one of the local shoe shops, bakery and a restaurant during this period.

Revenue from the meters is designed to pay the salary of one police officer. However, his workday schedule must be flexible to allow time for patrolling, answering complaints, conferring with county and state officials and as a consequence many times these interruptions leave little time for the adequate checking and supervision of parking meters. In addition, this same officer is responsible for their repair and maintenance.

The Budget committee recommended that the 60 devices which have outlived their usefulness be replaced. This will possibly be done on an exchange basis. The replacements will probably be rebuilt housings with new timers and purchase will be budgeted over a period of time and paid from meter receipts.

Chief Valliere also explained that an unforeseen emergency had risen within the department. The police boat, in use for many years, has become un-seaworthy, despite caulking and careful repair each year. It ships water faster than it can be bailed out. He suggested the purchase of an aluminum boat and appealed to the Budget committee for assistance in this matter.

The committee voted to recommend to the Selectmen that some method be worked to purchase a 12' aluminum boat, the price not to exceed $200, the choice of style to be determined by the police department. It was suggested that possibly the purchase price might be derived from an over-lay fund and later re-charged to the police department.

Prizes Awarded To Winners Of Rexall Contest

Winners of Kingman's Rexall Boy's and Girl's Contest were announced and prizes awarded by Mgr. Paul Rousseau last Saturday.

The winners and their prizes were as follows:

Grand prize of a Columbia bike went to Martin Vidler for the boys and Shelly Sharples for the girls.

Boys 1st prize went to Larry Gowen, electric train; 2nd, Roger Cardoza, movie camera; 3rd, Norman Bonenfant, hockey game; 4th, Vincent Jordan, model plane; and 5th, Fred Toland, micrography set.

FIRE DEPT. CHIEF KELLER LISTS EXPENDITURES

Chief Robert Keller of the fire department presented his budget expenditures for the period ending May 30th, 1960. Of the $6,600 appropriated in March, approximately $2511.74 has been used for running expenses, heating fuel, gas, phone, lights, insurance, repairs, steward services and the salaries of the department officers and men.

Chief Keller, deputy-chief Philbrick and Civil Defense head George Hauschel reported that the additional $500 voted the CD program for use in converting the fire department radios and base station as per FCC ruling will now not be sufficient to complete the work because of a change in Matching Funds policy regulating the purchase and use of the necessary generator. The local fire department feels the size and type generator required by the Matching Funds agency both impractical and unnecessary in light of the fact that a smaller generator may possibly be obtained through surplus which will better serve department requirements. Such a generator would be permanently installed at the fire house to provide emergency power for radio reception and transmission, as well as heating and lighting.

Because of the recent FCC ruling requiring conversion of existing sets to allow the addition of more stations, the present radio in the Chevy truck becomes obsolete August 31st, but the radio of the Seagraves can be converted as well as the base station which also can be changed.

The additional $500 appropriated for Civil Defense and specified for this purpose will be necessary to finance the job plus $225 which will have to be squeezed from the fire department budget.

The meeting closed with the suggestion that the committee meet with members of the school board after the closing of their fiscal year. The next meeting was tentatively set for late summer.

Miss Lasofsky To Wed Sunday

Miss Mary Lasofsky and Henry F. Wajda, son of Mrs. Anna Wajda, will be married at ceremonies at the Star of the Sea Church in Salisbury, Mass., at 1:00 p.m., Sunday, June-12. A reception will follow at the Rockingham ballroom in Newmarket.

Stamp Collectors News

By Mrs. Ione Kent

The Great Bay Stamp Club meets June 7th. Dinner will be served at Yoken's at 6:30 and then a meeting will be held in the Main Service Club Building at Pease Air Force Base at 8 p.m. Those who do not wish to go to Yoken's can join the club at the base.

The new airmail stamps for regular use may be our best stamps of the year. A little thought went into them. People of other countries to which the stamps are sent were consulted. The man who seemed to typify Liberty to them was Abraham Lincoln. The object which most people in Europe long to see is the Statue of Liberty. Some countries decided on the Liberty Bell as the symbol of freedom to them. So the 10c stamp has the Liberty Bell, the 15c has the Statue of Liberty and the 25c has President Lincoln.

For the serious Plate Block collector the following cancellation may be of interest. The Franklin Credo stamp with autograph "Benj. Franklin" had plates 26534, 26537, 26544, 26549 and master plate 26522. No impressions were made from these: plate 26558 for 8c Masaryk stamp (no impression); plate 26478 and 26479 for 4c;

Lincoln regular postage (412,421 impressions); plate 26468 and 26469 for 4c Lincoln Booklet (411, 525 and 411, 526 impressions); plate 25949 for 30c Robert E. Lee regular (66,022 impressions); plates 25980 and 25981 for 1/2c Franklin regular (361,764 and 361,765 impressions) were all destroyed.

Jacques C. Scheff, Jr., 1536 West 111th St., N. Y. 25, N. Y., has published a 24-page price-list of U. S. Plate Number Blocks and mint and used singles from 1923-60. They cater to collectors of matched sets. A copy will be sent free on request.

Russia has issued a stamp showing their version of the back side of moon with their names for mountains and seas. Togo, a new country, issued 4 stamps to celebrate the Summit Meeting. Four flags on each plus a larger single flag — one Russian, one French, one British and one United States. They were rather previous, it seems.

The new 1960 editions of Scott catalogues is now available. Many new prices are listed. Some are up and some down. For instance, the Vatican and Austria stamps are on the up side and Israel is on the down side.

New issue of UNesco Graft stamps is now available. If you are interested you may write to Mrs. Paul Rodzianki, care of United Nations, N. Y.

Stamps removed from sale by the Philatelic Sales Agency in Washington, D.C. at the close of sales May 4th were: 4c Lincoln-Douglas Debates, 1958; 4c Noah Webster (Famous Americans) 1958; 4c Jose de San Martin (Champion of Liberty) 1959; $2 Migratory Bird Hunting stamp 1957-1958; and 1/2c and 1c Postage due of 1930.

U.S. Stamp notice: June 2 — 4c American Woman was issued. June 10 — Airmail, 10c regular, Miami, Fla. June 17 — 1 1/4c regular and 1 1/4c coil, Santa Fe, N. M. June 18 — 5c Airmail postal card, Minneapolis, Minn. June 25 1 1/4c stamped envelope, Birmingham, Ala. July 4 — 50-star Flag, Honolulu, Hawaii. July 19 — 4c Pony Express, Sacramento, Calif. July 19 — 4c Pony Express envelope, St. Joseph, Miss. August 28 — Employ the Physically Handicapped, New York, N. Y.

A correction: The Pony Express end in 1861, not 1811 as stated. This will be the last stamp news until fall. New stamp notices will be published occasionally so that you will not miss any of the new issues through the summer.

A special committee to be known as the Welfare of the Post committee was appointed at the last meeting of the post. The committee is composed of the following members: all members of the executive committee and Clifford J. Abbott, Gordon E. Ayers, Eugene A. Brousseau, Norman E. Boisvert, Theodore S. Bizinski, Roland L. Couture, John J. Deem, Olin R. Downing, Arthur F. Doyle, Leo P. Fillion, William P. Duffy, Richard A. Gilbert, Richard E. Hill, Joseph H. Kustra, Robert Labonte, Robert H. Labranche, Jos. L. Ladger, Harold A. Mastin, Jr., Theodore Puchlopek, Jos. G. S. Plante, Henry Peltier, Frederick M. Plock, Hubert E. Randall, Jr., Robert J. Ross, Robert E. Rogers, Daniel K. Savage, Owen J. Shea, Joseph F. Sargent, Jr., Kenneth J. Tilton and George Zuk.

This committee will become the most important committee in the activities of this Post and each individual member will be notified shortly of the first meeting.

August 7th is the date set for our Annual Outing which will again be held at Schanda's camp on the New road. The post is sending three boys to Boys State at the University of New Hampshire from June 26th to July 2nd. The boys are being sponsored by the following organizations: Frank Szabo by the Robert G. Durgin Post #67. Richard Homiak by the Polish American Citizens Club. Peter Charles Jordan by the Lamprey Aerie #1934 Fraternal Order of Eagles.

It is hoped to have a picture of the three boys in the next issue of THE NEWMARKET TIMES.

The Shuffleboard Tournament is progressing and the high scorers to date are William Robitille with a score of 33, Eugene A. Brousseau and Joe Dostie tied for second with 32 points. The fourth game will be next Tuesday, June 15th. Come down and learn about the game and perhaps you will want to join in the games.

The Friday night socials are still drawing a large crowd and if you don't attend you are missing a good time. Air condition club room. No work clothes, please.

The Department Convention will be held in Manchester from June 17th through the 19th. The big parade is on Sunday, June 19th. If you can make it, don't miss it.

It is the hope of the Robert G. Durgin Post that all who possess a flag will fly it on Flag Day, June 14th. Lets all show we are backing up America by showing our colors. If you do not have a presentable flag to fly now is the time to begin to think about getting one. The post will put on a drive to have every business establishment and every home fly the American Flag on prominent holidays and occasions. If you are interested in purchasing a new flag set get in touch with some one of the members and they will report it.

Finance officer Fred L. Beale is sending an order to National Headquarters soon and any member desiring to purchase a legion cap or other equipment should get in touch with him during the next week.

Have you noticed how nice the two cemeteries look this year. Grass has been cut on all lots and roads have fixed and will continue to be graded during the year. You should all appreciate the good work and comment on it.

You may have noticed the greater number of hawks and owls around the wooded areas. As you know, hawks and owls, all species, are now protected. Unless you catch the bird in the chicken coop, hands off. The Game Commission claims that only two or three of these birds do any real damage to the game crop and even then the harm done is over-balanced by the good.

The diet of the great horned owl includes every game bird and animal except deer. It is said a pair of horned owls, put away, in the course of a year, at least 60 medium sized birds, grouse, pheasant, wood cock and duck, along with hundreds of jack and coney rabbits.

Those birds make us so-called bird hunters look like a bunch of amateurs.

Bass season opened on June 1st and be careful you do not misread the bass law. During the month of June, 1st through the 30th, you can take 3 fish or 7 lbs. From July 1st through October 31st, you may take 5 fish daily or 7 lbs., which ever limit is reached first. The bass must be over 9 ins. to qualify as a keeper.

The schools of striped sea bass which have been running off Plum Island and through the Cape Cod Canal have now pulled into the Great Bay area. Many fish from 3 to 4 lbs. have been caught in the bay and from the Sullivan bridge. Rig up your poles with big streamer flies or small eel skins. The fly seems to be your best bet. The area from Adam's Point down to the Sullivan bridge has always been the favorite spot of local fishermen. The sunken ledge area, Northwest of the black can buoy has been the hottest corner.

Fish the incoming tide after dark and remember you must have running lights to cover your boat legally under the new laws.

If you lose yourself during the next deer season, Major General Francis McSwiney of the National Guard has promised to let the Fish and Game department have the services of a helicopter. So if you see one of these whirly birds flying around, attract his attention, he may be looking for you.

NEWMARKET LITTLE MULES PLAY GAMES ON MON. & THURS.

The Newmarket Little Mule League plays every Monday and Thursday with game time at 6:00 p.m. If a game is cancelled, two blasts will be sounded on the fire whistle at 5:30 p.m. Cancelled games will be played the following day.

The remaining Little League schedule is as follows:

June 9, Yanks-Braves; June 13, Braves-Giants; June 16, Yanks-Red Sox; June 20, Braves-Yanks; June 23, Giants-Red Sox; June 27, Braves-Red Sox; June 30, Giants-Yanks.

July 11, Red Sox-Yanks; July 14, Giants-Braves; July 18, Red Sox-Giants; July 21, Yanks-Braves; July 25, Yanks-Giants; July 28, Red Sox-Braves.

August 1, Braves-Giants;

August 4, Yanks-Red Sox; August 8, Braves-Yanks; August 11, Giants-Red Sox; August 15, Braves-Red Sox; August 18, Giants-Yanks.

The contributing sponsors of the Little League are the Gallant Mfg. Co., Foster Beef Co., Rockingham Shoe Co., McCullen Co., Sam Smith Shoe Co. and citizens of Newmarket.

The top six hitters are Jack Brown, Braves, .715; Randy Gage, Giants, .667; Bob Bosinguer, Red Sox, .500; Lionel Arsenault, Red Sox, .500; and Greg Grochmal, Red Sox, .429. Top strike out king is Lionel Arsenault of the Red Sox with 17.

Team Standings

Braves	3	0
Red Sox	2	1
Giants	0	2
Yanks	0	2

In the double header Sunday, June 5th, the Braves beat the Giants 10 to 7 in the first game and the Red Sox beat the Yanks 5 to 2 in the second game.

Sunday's double header proved to be more enjoyable to watch than our own Boston Red Sox's who dropped a double header to the Yanks. We had better drop the Sox scouts a line and have them take a peek at Jack Brown who had 4 for 4 in the opener. Randy Gage on the losing team collected 3 for 4.

The nightcap provided many thrills with Roy Lemieux flinging a one-hitter for the Red Sox.

At the Little League business meeting following the Braves-Red Sox game last Monday, June 6th, the problem of one or two pony league teams was discussed. After much discussion, it was decided to form two teams and hope for the best. With their fine training in the Little League these boys should and will go places.

Harry Haley and Rusty Sharples will manage these two teams and, we hope, bring a pony league championship to Newmarket.

Umpire in chief, "Jabby" Silver, would like some help with the umpiring chores. He can use all the help he can get and if you are interested speak to "Jabby" Silver or Barney Turcotte. By the way, Ray Bernard wanted to pay for an eye examination for Ump Silver who politely turned the generous offer down with this reply, "Ray, if my eyesight was poor I would apply for a job in the post office sorting mail."
