75% Registered Voters Cast Ballots Tuesday

by Marion Stevens

Over 75 per cent of Newmarket's registered voters turned out Tuesday to cast their votes in the National and State elections, marking an all time high record. One-hundred-forty-one new voters were registered bringing the total number of registered voters to 2,080, with 1,532 casting ballots.

Break down is as follows:

QUIET HAL'OWEEN REPORTED HERE

With a great deal of credit going to the Civil Defense Auxiliary Police for their fine cooperation with the regular police force, Chief John Valiere reported one of the quietest Halloween seasons ever experienced in Newmarket. Besides the regular police force, 10 members of the CD team patrolled town Saturday and Sunday nights. The only damage reported were three panes of glass broken in the elementary schools.

Sunday evening a group of 15 teenagers from Newmarket and surrounding towns were apprehended by the local police after littering Main street with streamers of paper and taken to the court room where they were given a chance of cleaning up the street or bear the consequences. The group chose to do the street cleaning and did a fine job under the supervision of one of Newmarket's police force. Later they were released to return to their homes with the chief's admonition to stay out of trouble. Out-of-towners were escorted by the police officers to Newmarket town line.

Arthur Berry To Speak Here

Arthur Berry of Newmarket will be the feature speaker at the November meeting of the Newmarket Women's Club to be held at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 15. His topic will be "Banking". The program is sponsored by the Civics Dept. Hostesses are Mrs. Theresa Mullen, chairman, Mrs. Nellie Anderson, Mrs. Edie Carmichael, Mrs. Rose Dondero, Mrs. Mary Hodson, Mrs. Lola Smith, Mrs. Veryl Moisan, Mrs. Ruth Willey and Mrs. Nellie Zuk.

GIRL SCOUTS NEED LEADERS

Ten girls are eagerly waiting for just three volunteers (one leader and two committee members), and to offer their assistance so that a third Girl Scout troop can be organized and the ten can join this wonderful organization.

Mrs. Carrie Tilton, Newmarket Girl Scout troop organizer, is sending out an urgent plea for volunteers to step forward and be counted as part of the character-building Girl Scout movement. The little amount of time and effort put into helping out the girls is tenfold repaid by the feeling of good service well done.

Newmarket Children Christened Sunday

Three Newmarket children were christened at the regular Sunday service of the Newmarket Community Church. They included Gregory Scott Gowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gowen; Brenda Lee Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walsh and Julie Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker.

NEWMARKET REPUBLICAN CLUB ELECTS NEW SLATE OF OFFICERS

A good turnout showed up at the Republican meeting held in the Newmarket Town Court Room on Thursday, Nov. 3, with the following officers being elected to serve on the Republican Town Committee until October, 1962:

Armand LePage, Charles Stevens, co-chairmen; Rose Dondero, Rhea Dumas, Herman Hauschel and William Cashman as vice chairmen; Bernetta J. Major, clerk; and Donald Mullen, treasurer.

Town committee members include Edward Dondero, Milton Kimball, Gertrude Hauschel, Stella Waugh, Hazel Johnson, Esther Kimball, Augusta Hodgdon, Earl Hodgdon, Armand Fonatine, Fred Durell and Elma M. Stevens.

Jermey Waldens, vice chairman of the Rockingham County Republican Committee, was guest speaker and helped with the organization of the Newmarket town committee.

It was decided that members of the Newmarket Republican committee would assist at the Town Hall on election day, telephone to get out the vote and provide transportation to the polls.

Several members of the town Republican committee and other Newmarket Republicans attended the final Republican Rally which was held Sunday evening at the Portsmouth Senior High School. A dinner preceded the program. All the New Hampshire State Republican candidates were on hand to wind up the campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Labranche were honored on their fiftieth wedding anniversary Saturday, Nov. 5 with a reception and open house held at the Eagles Hall.

Following a renewal of their marriage vows, a well attended anniversary mass was said for them at the St. Mary's Catholic Church Saturday morning with Rev. Eugene Dumas officiating.

Following the mass a reception for relatives was held at the Eagles' Hall with about 100 present. All of the Labranche's eleven living children were present with the exception of Raymond who was unable to come from Florida. Relatives came from as far as Canada; others from Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Maine and throughout New Hampshire.

An open house at the Eagles Hall was held from 1:30 to 3. Mrs. Venla Camire made a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake for the occasion. Raymond Labranche was in charge of the guestbook. Friends assisting with arrangements were Mrs. Dorothy Duffy and Fred Vandazi.

Mr. and Mrs. Labranche were married in St. Mary's Church fifty years ago. They have 11 children, 30 grand-

HIGH SCHOOL BRIEFS

The Newmarket High School faculty recently chose the following students for the varsity and jayvee cheerleading squads:

Varsity — Eva Szacik, Carol Hazeltine, Marsha Jordan, Lyn Carpenter, Gail Griswold, Connie Sharples, Lorraine Paradise and Carol Roper.

Jayvees — Gail Larabee, Thelma Stilson, Peggy Roulo and Gerry Larabee.

The Carl Fisher Music Studio in Boston put on an assembly Friday afternoon for grades 4 through 12 at the high school auditorium. All types of musical instruments were demonstrated for the students.

The program was arranged through the courtesy of music supervisor James Bunker.

The Sophomore class is sponsoring a record hop Friday night, Nov. 11 from 7:30 to 10:30 for the benefit of the class. Admission is the regular 35c.

The Senior class has scheduled two outside basketball games that promise to be thrillers, for the benefit of the class.

The first one will be held Sunday, Nov. 29 at 8 p.m. at the high school gym and will feature the nationally famous Kansas City Stars who will challenge a Newmarket team for a round of good fun and exciting ball.

The second game is scheduled for Dec. 21 and will undoubtedly bring forth a rousing good attendance when it is learned that two local ball teams will challenge each other aboard donkeys. These donkeys are highly trained and rubber shod to eliminate any damage to the gym floor. It looks like a night of hilarious entertainment.

The Senior class is now soliciting for advertisements for its yearbooks. Anyone wishing to donate toward this worthy cause is cordially invited to contact one of the Senior class members.

Under the capable direction of coach Mel Cross, Newmarket High School's cross country team placed third in the State at last Saturday's State cross country track meet in Durham.

In addition to this honor, Frank Szabo won third in Class M which entitles him to compete in the New England cross country meet to be held in Boston this Saturday.

The high school library has been re-arranged and the change-over is expected to be finished in a few weeks, upon completion of the painting and cataloguing of books.

Donations from townfolk for the school library would be deeply appreciated. Anyone having books which they would like to give to the high school library may contact the school, who will arrange to pick them up.

ST. MARY'S ALTAR BOYS ARE HONORED

Friday night, Oct. 28, at 7 p.m., at St. Mary's Church, the Altar Boys were received into the Society of the Knights of the Altar. Twenty-six boys took part in the ceremony. Unfortunately, two boys were too ill to attend, Lionel Arsenault and Walter MacDonald.

The ceremony was presided over by the Reverend Pastor, Father Eugene Dumas and under the able direction of Father Robert Pripion, curate at St. Mary's.

The girl's choir rendered the beautiful singing for this occasion and at the closing sang "Christ the King."

The music, singing and ceremony were most impressive.

How Newmarket Received Its Name

The first official reference, which has been found in regard to the site and organization of Newmarket is in the proceedings of the provincial legislature and in the legal proceedings, as found in the records of the court, for fixing the boundary between Exeter and Dover.

In 1668, Edward Colcord testified that the northerly bounds of Exeter, mentioned in an agreement made with Wehan-now-it, the chief of the Indians located here, was the westerly part of Oyster River, about four miles northerly beyond Lamperiele River. This (Oyster) river is mentioned several times as the boundry between Exeter and Dover and Exeter claiming to own a strip of land northerly of the river.

Like many early names of localities, rivers and mountains, the name of the river was spelled in various ways, as Lamperiele, Lampreele and Lampeill. It was claimed it was six miles from Exeter and six miles from Dover, but it really is about eight miles from Exeter and nine miles from Dover.

In 1652 a man by the name of H. Nutter said that the land in the year 1636 was in possession of the inhabitants of Dover, on both sides of the river, for fishing, planting and felling of timber. William Furber also testified to the same. John Baker testified that he was one of a committee to fix the bounds between Exeter and Dover and that Lamprey River was the bounds. Here we find the name of this river spelled Lamprey for the first time.

The principal business of the settlers at that time was fishing and perhaps the name Newmarket may have been derived from the fact that a new market was opened for the sale and purchase of fish.

Afterwards a saw mill and carding mill were erected and the place became quite a lumber mart. Much ship timber was cut and carried here, and at one time for quite a while, a large ship yard was in active operation and ships of the capacity of 500 tons were built here and floated to Portsmouth, where they were rigged and put in order for sea.

The next mention we find of this river and settlement is also in connection with the line between Dover and Exeter in the same year. It is therein provided that those holding the oldest grants of land shall be good to them that have them, always excepting highways and such land sufficient to mills or works set up on Lamprill River.

The next mention of this place was a petition, praying for the erection or establishment of a parish in the north part of Exeter. Upon this petition the following action was had: "In council Dec. 14, 1727, it was ordered that the prayer of the petitioners be granted and that the petitioners have leave to bring in a bill accordingly and that the name of the parish be Newmarket." In the House of Representatives the same day, "Read and concurred."

In the proceedings of the Provincial Legislature, Aug. 18, 1737, it was voted that Newmarket have liberty to bring in a bill and to have the privilege of choosing their officers as other towns have. Newmarket seems to have been formed into a parish in 1727 and in 1737, ten years later, given town privileges. No record has ever been found that the town has ever been incorporated.

In the olden days, cooking was done by the open fireplace or by a Dutch oven, which was placed by the glowing coals to heat for the baking. In the early days everyone went to bed early, as the light from the open fireplace was the only light that they needed.

Sometimes if you had to stay up late, an invention by the housewife was used; a saucer of grease, a button or button mould tied securely in a piece of cotton or linen cloth with the upright end an inch long, clipped smoothly. This was placed in the saucer to absorb the grease. The upright end or wick was lighted and gave a flickering, smoky light. This was called a slut.

Candles, called tallow dips, were in general use and later whale oil and fluid lamps.

The housewife always had a pot of lye for soap-making, a kettle of dye for the homespun cloth, the spinning wheel and hand loom, the hemlock broom, which was washed and hung in the cellarway to insure longer usefulness.

We mustn't forget the strings of apples carefully pared and sliced drying in the September sun, with the flies and bees flying over them, from which later in the winter dried apple pies would be made.

In 1719 Archibald McPhedris came to Newmarket from Portsmouth and established what he called the first iron works in America. The General Assembly encouraged this enterprise and granted the company a strip of land two miles wide and Governor Shute in 1722 granted to township of Barrington to the proprietors of the ironworks at Lamprey River.

The proprietors were Archibald McPhedris, George Jaffrey and Robert Wilson.

The iron ore to be used was supposed to be found in large quantities at Lamprey River. The iron fixtures of the Warner House at Portsmouth were made here.

The wife of McPhedris was the daughter of Governor Wentworth and the daughter of the house of McPhedris died in 1729 and soon the first ironworks in America was a dead industry.

In 1757 there was a carding mill in operation on the west bank of salt river. It was two stories high. The lower story was used to dy and full hand-woven cloth supplied by women of the town. There were blacksmith shops, harness makers and shoemakers doing business in town.

There was a tannery in the field near the Exeter street crossing. In 1904, the late Ernest F. Harvey found and dug up the tannery vats in his field near the brook.

AMATEUR RADIO SOCIETY PLANS YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

The Exeter Amateur Radio Society commenced activities for the 1960-61 season with 25 active members. The society was one year old Sept. 29 and is looking forward to another year of growth and various programs relating to its hobby. Basic radio theory classes are being conducted every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 8:30 by Darrell Kenison and classes in Morse code from 8:30 to 9:30 are offered by Joseph Kenick, Jr.

The club's amateur radio station is rapidly being pushed to completion under the direction of Donald Day and it is expected to be on the air shortly before Christmas.

It was voted to dedicate the station in memory of the late Jerry Selleck, a charter member and whole-hearted supporter of the group, who passed away recently. All who knew him feel a deep sense of loss at his death.

For an annual fund raising project, the society is offering a prize of a World Wide Nine Transistor Radio covering the U.S. commercial broadcast band and the international short wave band, as prize. Tickets may be obtained from all club members or at the Roberge Photo Shop on Water street in Exeter.

At the invitation of the Port City Amateur Radio Club, many of the Exeter members attended the Portsmouth club's annual banquet and installation of officers. A very enjoyable evening was had by all.

The two clubs co-sponsor a display which is currently at the Portsmouth High School, to introduce the students to ham radio as a hobby.

The display is available to libraries, schools, and other similar institutions in this area on request. Interested parties should contact Ralph King, Jones avenue, in Portsmouth, whose telephone is GE 6-1887.

An interested and varied program of activities is in store for any area amateur or other persons interested in amateur radio who wish to join the Exeter society. Visitors are cordially welcomed every Wednesday evening at the society meetings which are held at the Exeter Community Center.

Two cases were brought before Judge Russell McGuirk Monday morning by Conservation Officer Carl Akerley. James A. Nettles of Portsmouth was charged with taking oysters from Great Bay on Oct. 29, as a non-resident contrary to law. He was found guilty as charged and fined $20.

Billy Lowery of Dover was also charged with taking oysters from Great Bay without first procuring a license, was found guilty and fined $20.

A surprising reverse vote was reported on the liquor store question when Lee voted 240 yes and 101 no; it is usually the other way round. The Lee storekeepers can breath sighs of relief as the town voted 287 for beer sales and 66 against.

A deceded trend toward split ballots was also noted in this election.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

By Carole Willey and Gerry Larrivee

The second Newmarket Girl Scout Troop has been holding its meetings at the Eagles Hall. Leader of the newly organized troop is Mrs. Doris Winn, assistant leader, Mrs. Poris Puchlopek and program aide, Carole Willey.

Troop officers were elected at the first meeting: Greta Wilson, treasurer and Donna Gazda, secretary.

Patrol names and officers were chosen as follows: Yankee Beavers with Leah Tilton as patrol leader and Sandy Roy as assistant patrol leader; the Watomachicks with Diane Van Fleet as patrol leader and Diane Gazda as assistant.

It is hoped that the new troop will have its number in the near future.

On Oct. 26 the Girl Scouts celebrated the birthday of their founder, Juliet Gordon Lowe. Flag bearer and color guards for the flag company were Diane Van Fleet, Lauren Beers and Leah Tilton. The scouts all wrote compositions on "Juliet Lowe" and read their stories aloud. Before the closing of the meeting refreshments were served and all the scouts joined in a song fest.

Twenty-two girls from the "second troop" attended a Halloween party held at the home of Mrs. Doris Puchlopek Saturday evening from 6:30 to 9:30. A lot of Halloween fun was had starting off with a weinie roast, followed by a scavenger hunt, Halloween games and prizes.

Girl Scout Troop #585 celebrated it's founder's birthday at the last meeting with the entire program devoted to Juliet Lowe. Donna Bakowski recited "Juliet Lowe" by Edith Balenger Price, which was followed by the traditional flag ceremony with Becky Walker, Sandra Paradise and Cathy Blanchette.

Jane Hazeltine gave a short biography of Juliet Lowe, Linda Pohopek spoke on "What

STATE PUBLIC WELFARE INCREASES ASSISTANCE

The Department of Public Welfare has increased its grant maxima from $80 to $100 effective Oct. 1, 1960 in the old age assistance, aid to needy blind and aid to the permanently and totally disabled programs.

This action was necessitated, according to Commissioner James J. Barry, by continued increases in the cost of living which made it impossible for elderly persons and others living alone to meet their total basic requirement within the former ceiling of $80. Increases in the items of taxes, rent and fuel have been particularly acute in recent months for welfare beneficiaries.

In voting this adjustment, the Board of Public Welfare has stated that the action is in line with its long-established and progressive policy of gearing recipient allowances as closely as possible to changes in the cost of living, providing appropriate funds are available.

"The Board is well aware," Barry said, "of the difficult struggle encountered by many of our recipients to maintain a minimum standard of living in the face of today's inflationary trends."

The outlined adjustment relates to monthly assistance allowances and those persons requiring medical care in addition will have such obligation liquidated through a supplemental payment.

Stamp Collectors News

By Ione Kent

A new stamp issued by Australia is interesting. It is a Christmas stamp, not a Christmas seal. Australia has issued other Christmas stamps, but this one commemorates the 350 years since the 1611 translation of the Bible. Also this stamp is good looking.

Topical stamps seem to be of interest among the new collectors, especially those who feel that the older U.S. stamps are beyond their reach. With a little imagination and artistic ability, the flower topicals can be placed on sheets to be very attractive.

Colored circles and diamonds drawn outside the stamps add to the overall picture. Some times flowers from one set are swapped to another in order to keep a color scheme.

Flowers and animals have not been popular on U. S. stamps, so a collector must look to foreign collections for these. The U.S. stamps do lend to topical on famous people, famous buildings, monuments and automation.

The United Nations stamps have been considered topical perhaps because they are recent issues. However, to start now they would be rather expensive for the younger generation. The new countries can be challenging to one and all.

Then there are Boy Scout, Campfire Girls, Olympics, Refugee, Europa and various kinds of transportation. Such issues as the World Refugee year string out until they make expensive issue. If, for instance, the Refugee stamps, consisted of only those issued April 7, 1960, they would make a fine topical.

Since, these countries have issued sheets and more stamps to make money. In this case, some of the extra money goes to the cause of the Refugees but in the case of the 75th Anniversary of the Universal Postal Union, the money was for the individual countries.

According to the number of people who buy plate block at the post office, many people in Newmarket are saving at least that kind of a collection. For adults who want fun with plate blocks, the position blocks would be of interest.

When our government prints the stamps, the sheets are four times as large as the sheets which you see and can buy in the local post office. This means that there is the same number on four corners of the large sheet. Collectors try to get all four positions of the same plate number. There are special albums and special catalogues on this subject.

If some positions cannot be found in the local offices, the collector joins exchange clubs — exchanging with people in a different section of the country. In this way, new friendships can be made. One man said that to him the fun of collecting stamps was the friendships he made.

U. S. stamp issues:
Nov. (10-15) — John Foster Dulles, 4c, Washington, D.C.

Nov. 19—4c American Credo, Abraham Lincoln, New York, N. Y.

Nov. 25 — 4c Andrew Carnegie, Famous American, New York, N. Y.

Jan. 1961 — 4c American Credo, Patrick Henry, Richmond, Va.

U. N., Dec. 9 — International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, 4c and 8c.

For the collectors interested in United Nations stamps, a few words on the recent issues might be welcomed. An article in the New York Times dated Oct. 24, would give the impression that the 15th Anniversary Souvenir Sheet was all sold out early in the day.

Formerly, an announcement was made that enough souvenir sheets would be issued for all the United Nations collectors. However, due to the speculation on the 10th Anniversary sheet and resulting high prices, the wholesalers and collectors were ready to buy

C.Y.O. Corner

By Gail Griswold

Last Wednesday night the officers of St. Mary's CYO were installed. Marsha Jordan was installed as a State CYO officer. Rev. Colin McDonald, State CYO director, installed Marsha. Father Bryson then installed our four officers.

Following the installation Rev. Colin McDonald gave a very interesting talk on leaders and leadership. He also added that we should be proud and honored that one of our representatives was selected out of 25,000 CYO youths to be one of the State officers.

Following the talk Rev. Vincent Lawless, deanery director, gave Benediction.

A group of 80 youths represented our CYO that night. But every one of those 80 youths were disappointed in the showing of adults. If the adults won't support the youths of America, who will?

After the installation there was a reception and dance in the school hall. It was a very learned and enjoyable evening.

The CYO youths are looking forward to Nov. 11, when the Catholic youth of this deanery will gather at St. Thomas Aquinas High School, where they will hear a talk given by the head of the G.B.I. in the city of Boston, Mass.

His talk will be followed by a number of sessions being held for the officers. The officers will be accompanied by a delegate. The sessions will be headed by a chairman who will speak and then the sessions will be open for discussion.

A banquet will be served followed by a dance.

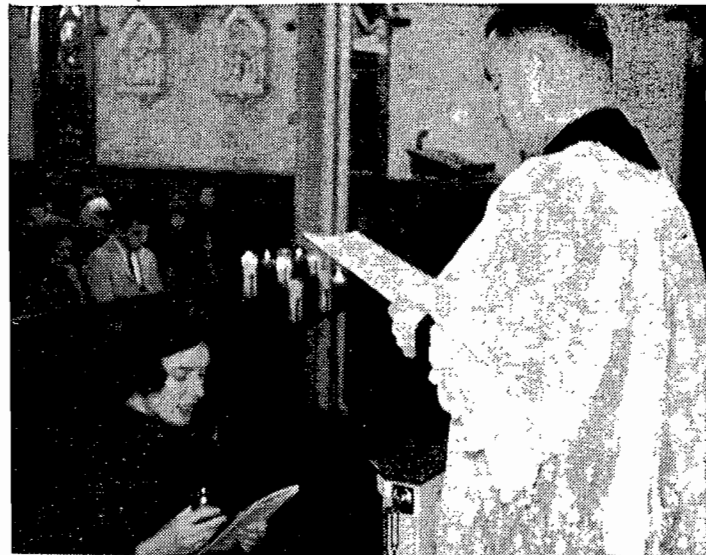

large quantities of the new sheet.

The United Nations Postal Administration decided to handle these sheets in a completely fair and equal way. No favoritism was shown. The smaller purchasers were given preference over the larger, getting their orders filled. The larger purchasers were covered for their full needs based on previous orders but no more.

The stamps and sheets are now on public sale, over the counter, with the sole restrictions of no more than five souvenir sheets for each person (as of Oct. 27).

At the present time individuals should not pay dealers more than 25c a souvenir sheet.

N. H. AIR NATIONAL GUARD LISTS MANY OPPORTUNITIES

Young men who have a military obligation have a golden opportunity to enlist in the New Hampshire Air National Guard's new positions.

Openings for training as navigators at officer candidate school are being offered high school senior and graduates. In addition, young men who would like to fly but cannot qualify as pilots or navigators may apply for positions as flight engineers or as loadmasters aboard the C-97 planes of the State's Air Guard units.

Navigator training leads to a commission as a second lieutenant. Flight engineer and loadmaster positions range through the non-commissioned officer ranks. All three types of positions include special flight pay in addition to the basic pay of each man.

Seniors and high school graduates interested in these positions, involving travel to Bermuda, Puerto Rico and other Caribbean areas, as well as long range flight to California, Alaska, Hawaii and Japan, are invited to contact Warrant Officer Benjamin LaSalle at Air National Guard Headquarters at Grenier Field Manchester Municipal Airport.

LOCAL BOY AND GIRL SCOUTS ENJOY ALL-DAY TOUR AT PEASE A.F.B.

Twenty-four Boy Scouts and forty-four Girl Scouts thoroughly enjoyed an all-day tour of the Pease Air Force Base arranged through the courtesy of Chief Master Sergeant Kenneth Eickholt.

Many parents offered transportation for the youngsters and the cavalcade left the Newmarket Public Library at 9:30 Saturday morning. The groups were met at the main gate of the base where they transferred to two buses assigned especially to them for the whole day.

They were first taken to the Service Club for a tour of all its many activities rooms, then proceeded to the huge gymnasium where they just missed seeing a judo exhibition, on to the Youth Center where they saw youngsters at ballet and acrobatic lessons and returned to the Service Club before going to the mess hall where they were served a most delicious meal for 45c each.

Going through the line with trays in the same manner as the regular GIs, they were offered a large assortment of foods and as much as they wanted. Following lunch they watched a fire demonstration and were then taken to the Flight Line where they were allowed to examine the outside of the mammoth planes.

They also were allowed in the hangars where Mr. Eickholt explained and answered questions concerning the planes. The final demonstration was given to the groups by the Air Force sentry dogs and their masters which was most exciting to the youngsters.

Accompanying the Boy Scouts were scoutmaster Ralph Willey and Mr. Eickholt, while the girls were accompanied by Shirley Varney, Pat Jordan,

Objective of Radio Free Europe

For those who read my last article concerning "Radio Free Europe", I am quite sure that now they know more about this gigantic program abroad, which is trying to help these poor unfortunates behind the Iron Curtain.

Again I say that we should consider ourselves lucky to be living as free people under our free democratic system in the United States.

Now, in this final article concerning Radio Free Europe, I would like to clarify the objective of such a program, so well supported by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, therefore by being more specific in my statement concerning the same subject started two weeks ago.

Let us bear in mind that 70 million human beings depend almost solely on Radio Free Europe to know that there is such a thing as a part of the world in which people can be free. Unfortunately they live behind the Iron Curtain and freedom is denied to all of them!

Their communist masters employ every device to keep this news from them. Every avenue of learning the truth is denied them except one — the communist propaganda on radios, which are all lies and deceptions. Daily these poor people are bombarded by lies fed to them in the guise of daily news on the theory that if a big lie is told often enough, then it will be accepted as truth to them.

So, what do they hear in these false broadcasts?

Well, for one thing, they hear that in the United States, people are going hungry, that the only way the capitalistic bosses can stay in business is to start another war, this one to end not only all wars but all people as well and that somehow we are different from them, unable to understand their problems and wants, therefore their only hope lies with "Good Mother Russia."

Well, one thing beats this sordid game, the truth and nothing is so powerful as the truth. So that is the commodity which Radio Free Europe is selling and it is the only commodity promoted by freedom loving Americans, who through Crusade for Freedom, seek to maintain their contacts with their fellow men ensalved by those whose belief it is that some are born to be masters and some are born to be slaves.

Crusade for Freedom is a unique cause and one little understood by many. Now, let us pay attention to this statement. It is completely supported by private donors.

It in no way depends on government assistance. Independent from officialdom, it is free to tell the truth as it exists, hampered not at all by diplomatic dogma.

The Crusade depends entirely on the truth dollars contributed each year by Eagle men and women, who believe in the way we live and on the donations of millions of others, whose hearts tell them that nothing from the Kremlin can take the place of Freedom.

I want to make clear also that Radio Free Europe does not attempt to foment rebellions. It is content to refute Red untruths and try to give its audience a true picture of life as it can be lived in a free world, beamed to Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Rumania and Bulgaria, etc., bringing people the truth in their own language and proving that life under freedom is better.

Yes, RFE keeps demonstrating that those under the heel of the Kremlin dynasty, whoever they might be at the moment, could live a richer and fuller life in a free society.

The people we are reaching through RFE do not have to be sold on being anti-communist. They know what it is like to be behind the Iron Curtain. We are not selling America, we are selling a way of life and whether we succeed or not may determine whether we survive in the United States.

I certainly believe that this fight is for our survival and this battle is to bring truth to the enslaved. Therefore, this is the objective as well as the mission of Radio Free Europe.

Not too long ago, one of our most distinguished Eagles, during his visit to Europe, was fortunate enough to speak to many who had escaped from behind the Iron Curtain and in so doing, he learned that the most powerful asset we have is not only the truth but letting these friends of ours (and they are all our friends) know that we do not forget them and that we will always do something, one way or another, to encourage them whenever there is any possibility.

This is our objective and with the help of Almighty God, we will certainly continue to help them all, wherever they live. And, may I add also, that those giving for CARE each year are certainly falling in line with the same program and the same idea towards these poor enslaved in the communist countries.

Therefore, let's keep up the good work and by so doing, we will reach our objective.

Auto Accident Reported Here

Hunting seems to be in season. While the men are hunting deer and bear, you girls can go bargain hunting. The place is the I.G.A.

Last Tuesday and Wednesday, for instance, we had Tablerite veal cutlets at 69c per lb. Do come in and look around.

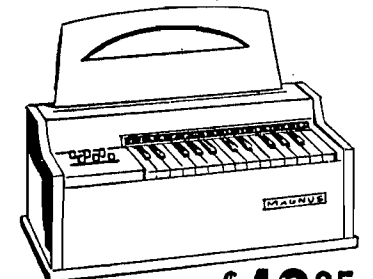

Some of our boys went hunting this past week. Among those dodging raindrops on the first day were Bert Lapene, Red White, Frank Schanda (husband of our bookkeeper), and my own, Red Schanda. Hope you boys have better luck than you did the first few days.

Martha Schanda was surprised last Friday with a stork shower given for her by Alvina LaBranche. Many friends and relatives were present to wish her every happiness with her new joy.

A farewell wish is bid to Mary Ellen Robinson, our ex-cashier. She is leaving shortly to join her husband who is stationed in England. Good luck, Mary.

All is quiet on the card games. I believe the boys are a little afraid of getting beaten.

The 42nd birthday party of the Robert G. Durgin Post will be held this coming Saturday and will be observed by a smorgasbord supper and the cutting of a huge four-layer cake. The charter members of both the Post and Auxiliary are asked to attend this event. Department and national officers are expected to attend.

Festivities will be followed by dancing till midnight by one of the smoothest dance orchestras hereabouts. Come and let us prove it to you. Supper will be served in the dining hall from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The cake will be cut during the meeting which is of special nature and no special business other than introducing the charter members and speakers. Thomas Filion, our oldest living past commander will cut the cake with Commander Charles E. Bennett.

The committee is working hard on this and wish every member and his wife would attend this one in 42 years event. It is possible that this may be the last time we will see some of these members again in our meetings, so lets all turn out and make this an event well worth while and at the same time enjoy ourselves.

On behalf of the officers I wish to thank those who are and will help us make the 42nd birthday party of the Robert G. Durgin Post a huge success. The Town of Newmarket should be proud of its fraternal and social organizations within its bounds. Few towns and some with a larger population than Newmarket can boast of so many public spirited groups.

Take the Polish American Citizens Club, always on the watch to spring a new athletic team on the community, they have had baseball teams of their own or sponsored them, they have helped the youth of our town in every way athletically with baseball, basketball and even bowling and shuffleboard.

Take the Lamprey Aerie of Eagles. They also have sponsored athletics and have one of the best children's Christmas parties in the State.

Take the Newmarket Service Club. They are making an effort with the assistance of the other clubs in the town to establish an outdoor ice skating rink on the Legion property on Durham side.

Now look at the local Legion. Working with and for the youth of the country is one of the principle programs of the Legion nation-wide. Locally, we donate financially in practically all the athletic ventures in town, we are supplying the area for the ice skating rink this winter, we are using our hall to house one of the Girl Scout troops in town, we take a page in this high school yearbook each year, we sponsor a boy to Boy's State at Durham each year and also have the cooperation of the Eagles and Polish Club and also the Service Club when that number of boys are eligible.

But we are noted for many other things than our work with the youth of our town. Our charity, of which little is spoken as it is a topic that does not bear airing to the public, but which has the blessing of the Town fathers and the churches. At Thanksgiving, Christmas and yes, all through the year, these needy cases come into our sphere of action, some real serious and others needing a slight boost financially and morally.

As the year rolls by, much publicity is given the Robert G. Durgin Post on its activities in the Legion programs. At the present moment, the uppermost program is membership and the Durgin Post is still rolling up records such as last Friday, when they attended the annual fall conference of the 3rd New Hampshire District, which has grown to be the largest district in the N. H. department.

They reported the most activity of the season and also the largest number of paid members for the year 1961. They had collected the same amount at this time that they did all year 1960. On Sunday, they went to Tilton to attend the annual fall conference of the N. H. department and again came away with honors.

The Durgin Post is in the upper class of posts in membership and won the top prize for membership for the year 1961 up to date, the Big 10 award for Posts with quota of over 400 members. A poll of Posts was taken to find out who the heavy membership getters were and Newmarket again took the top.

Fred L. Beale of this Post had collected 170 member's dues and the next three in standing were 117, 107 and 89. For a Post in a town the size of Newmarket, we have no competition in this State. We have had possession of the Thomas McLin Memorial trophy four times and our name is inscribed on it to that fact and we are out after it again this year.

There are about 150 more members whose dues are not in and it would be a great help to the membership committee if you would bring them in and help us get this trophy back. We are in the running for the new History trophy and also the Service and Community trophies.

Every member of this Post can feel with pride that they belong to what we think is the best Post in the department. Can we count on your help to keep it that way and help us mount up our activities in all phases of Legion work?

We are in need of a member who like to work with boys, as we desire to start our own troop of the Sons of the Legion. We have a great many members who have sons that are able to make a name in Legion work, but lack the competent member to take care of such a program.

Recently, I was asked by a past department commander, "What do you do in Newmarket to make you click the way you do?" I shot back at him, "It's not what we do, it's who does it."

Most of us are jealous of our national Preamble of the Constitution and we try to live by it as we know it. The programs are all there and in most cases set up for us and it only takes a bit of grey matter and a good stiff spine backed up by a good grade of elbow grease and there you have it.

Yes, some of the members of the Robert G. Durgin Post are endowed with a goodly allotment of the necessary requirements and have used them to good advantage and they will be rewarded richly before the present term of the officers now in command expires. Not too much credit can be given a true Legionnaire.

NEWS FROM LEE . . .

Jeremiah Smith Grange

Jeremiah Smith Grange held its regular meeting Tuesday night with Overseer Clyde Fogg presiding in the absence of Master Arthur McDaniel, who was attending the State Grange session at Littleton as the local Grange delegate. Miss Garrity, chairman of the recent harvest supper committee, reported it a great success, netting the Grange $158.

Officers for 1961 were elected as follows: master, Clyde Fogg, Sr.; overseer, Tom Brown; lecturer, Miss Esther Garrity; steward, Mrs. Lois Brown; assistant steward, Arthur Pratte; chaplain, Mrs. Katherine Jones; treasurer, Mrs. Marion Sanders; secretary, Miss Alice Dudley.

And gatekeeper, Daniel Shannon; Ceres, Mrs. Harriett Fogg; Pomona, Mrs. Rose Goodwin; Flora, Mrs. Virginia Brady; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Irene Pratte and a member of the executive committee for three years, Arthur McDaniel.

The lecturer presented a program of songs, Halloween games and stunts. Mrs. Blanche Ball won the silver march. It was announced that each member should bring a quiz for a quiz program at the next meeting.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Rose Goodwin, Mrs. Blanche Ball, Mrs. Katherine Jones and Miss Esther Garrity. There were 23 members and one visitor present.

Refreshment committee for next meeting consists of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pratte and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brady.

The Grange will serve a roast beef banquet to the Strafford County Holstein Breeders Association in the Grange Hall. Members will also serve dinners to the town officers on election day, Nov. 8.

Lee School Statistics

Mrs. Geore Nugent, Oyster River School District census

taker for the town of Lee, reports the following interesting figures. As of Oct. 1, 1960, there were 308 children from birth to 16 years of age in Lee; 113 of these were pre-schoolers (up to five years of age).

There were an even number of boys and girls. Broken down into years, the statistics show that there are 17 children under one year of age, 18 one year olds, 14 two year olds, 25 three year olds, 21 four year olds, 18 five year olds, 20 six year olds, 23 seven year olds, 26 eight year olds, 13 nine year olds, 12 ten year olds, 13 eleven year olds, 12 twelve year olds, 27 thirteen year olds, 17 fourteen year olds, 11 fifteen year olds, 13 sixteen year olds and 7 seventeen year olds.

County Republican Candidates at Lee Meeting

County GOP chairman Victor Cardosi and county vice chairman Molly O'Gara led off with a full slate of county candidates at a rousing GOP rally, the first to be held in Lee for many years.

G. E. Wellington opened the meeting welcoming those sixty or seventy persons attending the rally at the Lee Town Hall last Thursday evening and then introduced Mr. Cardosi, who in turn asked the candidates to state their platforms.

Those obliging were Andrew Jarvis of Portsmouth, running for councilor, Thomas Dunnington of Dover, running for senator; Shirley Clark of Lee, running for representative to the General Court; Walter Riekert of Dover, running for sheriff; Robert Carignan of Rochester, running for county attorney.

And Marjorie Holmes of Dover, running for register of deeds; Leon Hayes of Farmington, running for county commissioner; William Nehring of New Durham and George Young of Rochester, also running for county commission.

Feature speaker was Rep. John Pillsbury of Manchester, who gave an informative and lively pep talk to those assembled.

A social hour with refreshments followed the meeting. Those serving on the town GOP committee are Aaron Chadbourne, chairman; Mrs. Lawrence Hill, vice chairman; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. John Randall, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wenant.

Community Club

The monthly meeting of the Lee Community Club was held Nov. 2 at the Lee Vestry with 24 members and 6 guests present. Lee Hill 4-H members Dianne Wenant, Ralph Gran-ger, Jr., Kathy Dow and Nancy Taylor presented a hort program about the Lee Hill 4-H Club's activities during the past year.

Also in attendance were co-leaders Ralph Granger and Mrs. Leonard Wenant. The Lee Community Club and the Jeremiah Smith Grange sponsor the 4-H group.

It was announced that the December meeting will feature a Christmas party with members bringing exchange gifts of not more than 50¢ value. A foreign student from UNH is expected to be guest speaker.

Four new members were welcomed into the club: Mrs. George Bradford, Mrs. Ray Green, Mrs. Fred Lebeau and Mrs. Dennis Haine.

Homemade apple pie and ice cream were served following the meeting by Mrs. Tom Brown, Mrs. Dennis Haine and Mrs. Frank Caldwell.

Voting Services

Republicans in the different sections of town were offered free baby sitting and transportation services so that all could get to the polls on Tuesday.

Members of the Republican town committee were in charge of the voting service program.

Fire Department Auxiliary To Hold Hobby Night

Hobby night will be the feature of the November meeting of the Lee Fire Department Auxiliary to be held Monday, Nov. 14 at the home of Mrs. Dale Underwood at Lee Hill. Members are requested to bring or tell of any hobbies they may have whether it is a favorite cookie recipe, handicraft, collection, sewing, a recently read book or what-have-you.

An important business meeting will precede the program and members are urged to attend.

Hospital Patient

Calixte Baillargeon of Lee Hook road is a surgical patient at the Manchester Veterans Hospital. It is expected he will be there for some time and we know he would appreciate mail from his neighbors and friends.

Fire Department

The Lee Fire Department was called out to a fire at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Booth on Mast road Friday morning around 10:45.

WINTER BANTAM LEAGUE SEASON OPEN

the Interstate Restaurant Equipment Co. of Manchester, N. H. and driven by Edward Mullen was headed for Portland, Me., when a fire started in the back of the pickup.

Before it was discovered by the driver, sparks had caused three spot fires. The stiff winds whipped one spot completely around Booth's gas pumps.

According to Fire Chief Lloyd Stevens the truck sustained only minor damage, but the load was a total loss.

Congregational Church

Communion services at eight in the morning are being conducted at the Lee Church for the month of November under the direction of Mr. Richard Clark, pastor, as a convenience for those unable to attend the regular 11 a.m. Sunday Church Service.

Everyone is cordially invited to participate.

Couples Club To Hold Pot Luck Supper

A pot luck supper of meat loaf, potato and tossed green salads, baked beans, scalloped potatoes, rolls and dessert will feature the first meeting of the newly organized Lee Couples Club.

Any townspeople, regardless of faith, are cordially invited to attend. An interesting and worthwhile program is in store for those who wish to join.

Mrs. Jack Randall may be contacted concerning the supper which will start at 6:30 at the Lee Vestry.

Lee Riders

Members of the 4-H Lee Riders met at the home of leaders Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dennis last Thursday evening. One new member from Dover was welcomed.

Teams were chosen for a question and answer bee on horsemanship and Jane Moore gave a demonstration on bandaging a horse.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 17.

Krazy Kone Closes

If there is any doubt that winter is on the way after Monday morning's eighteen degree reading, the empty yard and close-up look of one of Lee's favorite eating places, the Krazy Kone, at the Lee Traffic Circle will assure the die-hards that the winter season is at hand.

This was the Saulniers last weekend until after the snow melts and weekend motorists come out of hibernation next Spring.

S. S. Teachers To Meet

A Sunday School teachers meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday at 7:30 at the Lee Vestry.

Lights Out

A lovely antique kerosene lamp lent a soft glow of welcome and an old-fashioned atmosphere to customers at the College Drive In, Lee Traffic Circle, Sunday evening when all the lights went out.

Business proceeded as usual, thanks in part to the gas stoves, when Joe Furina, proprietor, remembered an old kerosene lamp he had sentimentally rescued from a trip to the dump during a house cleaning spree.

Prompt service from Northwood soon remedied the trouble which was in the transformer, but in the meantime, mortorists were treated to a rare sight indeed, a restaurant lit only by lamplight.

Personals

Mrs. Ira Hull recently returned from Gloucester, Mass., where she had been visiting for several days.

Mrs. Carl Sanders of Lee Hook road was unexpectedly called to Greenwood, Mass., Sunday to take care of her grandchildren when her son-in-law's mother, Mrs. Sanford, died suddenly in Connecticut.

Marine Pvt. B. Theodore Ward completed his recruit training Oct. 25 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S. C. Ted, who graduated from Oyster River High School last June is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ward of Lee Hook road.

Great Bay Pomona Grange

Great Bay Pomona Grange met recently at Greenland and held election of officers for the coming year. Members of Jeremiah Smith Grange elected to offices were Miss Esther Garrity as overseer and Mrs. Katherine Jones as Ceres.

The Fish and Game Department has started its late fall salmon trapping and egg stripping project. For the interested fishermen, drop in at the Melvin Village collection station and take a long fond look at some beautiful fish.

Some of those salmon run up to 12 pounds. After the egg stripping the adult fish will be released to become fair game for the salmon fishermen.

The first week of deer season turned out to be on the poor side as far as the weather was concerned. A north east rain storm washed out the first day. Very light hunting pressure was noted around the usual hot spots.

The 2nd, 3rd and 4th of November also had light hunting with again the weather holding down the deer kill. The hard wood lots were almost impossible to hunt due to the 25 to 35 mile per hour winds.

This wind made still-hunting useless as you had to sight the deer, not listen for them.

Saturday and Sunday were

FIRST IN TOWN

Pictured above is a 4-point buck, shot by Ed Nichols, up in Stacyville, Me. This buck was shot on the 15th of October, at 9 a.m. with a 30-06 automatic. The buck tipped the scales at 166 lbs., was very fat and should be real good eating.

ideal days and heavy hunting pressure upped the kill. The total kill for the first 3 days ran to 118 compared to 260 deer for the first 3 days of 1959.

The Fish and Game Department will hold a public auction up in Concord at the Fish and Game Department headquarters, 34 Bridge street, at 10 a.m., Nov. 18, 1960.

This auction will be offering firearms taken from deer-jackers who have been convicted of night hunting. High bid buys the gun.

Partridge hunting has improved with the falling of the leaves. Plenty of birds reported with older patches and 3 to 5 year pine cut-off lots are producing the best coveys. Daily bags of 2 to 4 birds are fairly common.

The wood duck has just about left the area and right on their heels are the teal. The big red legged Canadian blacks are starting to show up. Check the smaller swamp holes and river coves for these birds. The time to look in fresh water for the big reds is about 2 to 4 hours after low tide.

A word of warning to the local bird dog owners. Watch out for porcupines in the pine cut-offs. A fine labrador retriever had to be put away after tangling with a porky down along the Bay road.

This is a terrible way to lose a dog and a friend. Every porcupine you see should be allotted at least one shot. The town clerk will pay a small bounty on each porcupine brought into his office.

The Fish and Game Department estimates that this bark eating animal damages or destroys at least two pines trees every day of its life.

Four Families Involved In Sale Of Homes

Three houses in Newmarket recently changed families in such rapid succession that they didn't even have a chance to cool off. Nor did they reach the real estate dealers office except for the first one belonging to Dr. Irving E. Brown, Jr., which was handled by Bo-Chaine's Inc.

Dr. Brown and family moved into their new home on Epping road and had scarcely vacated it when BoChaine's passed papers of ownership to the Phil Bernier family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevens moved into the vacant Bernier house and Mr. and Mrs. Rita Longa moved into the Stevens' Maplecrest home.

TRANSPORTATION URGENTLY NEEDED FOR LOCAL BANTAM BOWLING LEAGUE

Due to the lack of transportation facilities, many Bantam Bowlers were unable to attend the regular league bowling session last Saturday. This made it impossible to run off the league games. The 24 members present just bowled three strings.

There are 41 children registered in the Newmarket Bantam Bowling League and at the most there have been only four or five cars made available to transport these members. Transportation is needed desperately if the league is to survive. Parents of bantam bowlers who would be willing to pay for a bus to transport the youngsters are asked to call the Exeter Bowling Lanes at PR 8-8948 after 1 p.m. for further information.

It is sincerely hoped some satisfactory transportation arrangements can be made to avoid disappointment by the youngsters if the problem can not be met.

For the past two Saturdays, due to lack of transportation, there was no league playing. This past Saturday, some children were left at the parking lot, also because of lack of transportation.

In regards to the State tournament, parents are reminded that they should register their child if they wish them to participate.

Family Night Successful

The Primary Department Family Night which was held at the Newmarket Community Church last week was a great success.

Following an enjoyable supper, families played games, joined in community singing and made Advent wreaths.
