BRISSON BLOCK IS SOLD

PROPERTY IS ACQUIRED BY ROBERT LABRANCH

A big step forward in the appearance of Newmarket's Main street was instigated this week when the Times learned that the property of Joseph Brisson was purchased by Robert Labranch, manager of the local IGA Super Market.

In an interview with Mr. Labranch it was learned that the entire building will be torn down and replaced with a hot-topped parking lot for the convenience of IGA customers. The lot will be marked off for parking and will be well lighted. According to the new owner, bids have been asked for the demolition of the building which can be accomplished within a two-week period. This operation will certainly go far to improve the appearance of the Main street shopping area. The property as it now appears has done very little to help in establishing an up-to-date, smart-looking business area for the town.

Hampton Shoe Starts Cutting Next Week

The Times learned today that according to Mr. George Vine-cour, new owner, the Hampton Shoe Company will be ready to start cutting early next week. They expect to receive a shipment of material at that time. Many people have been interviewed for employment and it is felt by the management that every consideration will be given to local workers when positions are assigned.

The production output is estimated to be 60 cases per day at the start.

Lee Woman Is Badly Burned

Mrs. Aaron Chadbourn of Turtle Pond road, Lee, is in serious condition at the Exeter Hospital where she is suffering from first- and second-degree burns covering 30 per cent of her body. Her condition is the result of an accident which occurred at her home Thursday evening.

While standing in front of an open fireplace, her robe caught on fire, severely burning her back and shoulders and left arm and hand before her husband could reach her. He suffered burns on his hand trying to extinguish the blaze.

Mrs. Chadbourn will be in the hospital for some time and we know she would appreciate cards. They may be sent to her in care of the Exeter Hospital.

Catholic Relief Clothing Drive Nets 3,525 lbs. of Clothing Locally

A total of 3,525 pounds of clothing was recently collected from Newmarket and Newfields during the annual Catholic Relief Thanksgiving Clothing drive.

The drive, sponsored nationally by the National Catholic Welfare Council and locally by the Catholic Daughters of America at St. Mary's Church, was considered the most successful yet due to the generosity of the people in the two towns.

Many persons, knowing the drive is an annual event and the cause a worthy one, save their clothing throughout the year to give at Thanksgiving time to those in this country and overseas less fortunate than they are.

Chairman Mrs. Claire Hamel reported 5,713 articles were donated besides 400 pairs of shoes and 450 pairs of stockings. There were 360 men's shirts, 136 men's trousers, 189 suits, 111 overcoats, 41 boy's jackets, 877 T-shirts and pants, 522 girl's shirts and skirts and 125 girl's dresses.

There were 852 women's dresses given as well as 175 skirts and blouses, 214 sweat-

JOHN F. CUTTER TROPHY IS PRESENTED TO TIGER COMPANY

At a recent meeting, Charles Mastin, secretary-treasurer of the New England Veteran Firemen's League, presented George Griswold, president of the Tiger Hand Engine Company of Newmarket, with the John F. Cutter trophy for the longest average stream, 191 ft. 8 ins.

The runners up for this championship trophy were the Union #1 of Southboro, Mass., with a stream of 186 ft. 1/4 ins.; and third was the D. A. Taggart from Goffstown, N. H., with a stream of 184 ft. 7 3/4 ins. The D. A. Taggart has held this trophy for the past two years.

At this time jackets were presented to Robert Keller, Lewis Leavitt, Dick Knight, Harmon Littlefield, Dick Littlefield, Junior Littlefield, John Tatro, Lemon Hatch, Al Pierce, John Willey, Larry Gowen, Elwood Edgerly and Richard Littlefield, who had perfect attendance at the 1960 musters.

For perfect attendance at the meetings in 1960, silver badges were awarded to Fred Harcel- rode, Ronnie Sklarski, Hank Willey, George Griswold, Gail Griswold, Jennie Griswold, Al Pierce, John Tatro, Lemon Hatch and Richard Littlefield.

A gold badge was given to Ronald Griswold, who has been the foreman for the past two years of the Tiger Hand Engine Company.

NO RIDERS ALLOWED!

Early Wednesday morning when the driver of the above truck started to drive to work he found the head of a bear lodged in the back bumper of his truck. Rubbing his eyes, he took another look and as he drove off was heard to mumble something about, "They should know better than that, they know I'm not allowed to pick up passengers."

American Legion News

By Fred L. Beale

Of special interest is the Turkey Party to be held at the Town Hall Saturday, Dec. 10, starting at 1:30 p.m. During this party there will be a drawing for several turkeys that members of the Post have been selling tickets for in order that we may carry on our program of assisting some of our needy families in town for their Christmas dinner.

There will also be drawings for free turkeys during the party and everybody who attends will have plenty of opportunity to lug off some of the birds for a mere 25c. May be you will be one of the lucky ones, but to be that lucky you must attend the party.

Our membership drive is slowing down a bit and there are still about 50 who have not been contacted. Our quota this year is 417 and to date we have 358 or 85.85%. We only need 59 more paid up members for 1961 to obtain our quota. Won't you help these hard working officers to obtain their quota.

by sending in or better still, come to the next meeting and turn in your dues.

The next meeting is the final meeting of this year and is on Dec. 19, the Monday before Christmas. We are having a good list of social evenings this season and the officers are trying to make this the best year in our history.

Following is a list of activities on schedule for the rest of the season:

Dec. 30 in the upper hall, we will hold a New Years party and have one of the best bands in this vicinity to play for us.

Jan. 21, 1961, we will hold a Citation Evening, at which time we will present citations to several local organizations and individuals and also receive at least one from department on our membership drive. If we can make our quota before Jan. 1, we will also receive a special citation from national. These presentations will be followed by dancing. Be sure to come and bring your wife or lady friend.

Feb. 18, 1961, we will hold a mass initiation and will follow it with dancing, as usual. Bring the women folks to this party also. All members who have not received their Legion button are expected to be present for initiation this evening.

On March 18, 1961, we will hold the annual birthday party of the founding of the American Legion. There will be special features and further notice will be found in the columns of THE NEWMARKET TIMES.

Don't forget, subscribe to THE NEWMARKET TIMES in order that you will be informed of all the doings of this Post.

On April 29 we will hold our annual installation of officers and this will also be followed by dancing. It is expected that this will be a joint affair with our Auxiliary.

Every meeting we draw off a number for the Jack Pot and the winner must be in attendance to win it; at present the amount is 50. A nice little Christmas present for someone. On the first Monday of each month we draw for the 50/50 Club and this amounts to $125, also worth getting. Why don't you attend and see what you are missing each meeting. Refreshments after every meeting.

On Monday night, Dec. 5, we drew off a turkey to some lucky member present and the winner was Frank M. Toland. The new Jack Pot numbers were used and beginning Jan. 1 the old numbers will be gone and the new ones will become official.

The meetings for January have been changed. For that month only the meeting will be held on the second and fourth Mondays. Mark this on the calendar.

They say experience is a good teacher. Here is what experience really is: It is something that enables you to recognize a mistake when you make it again!

Enjoy yourself! These are the good old days you're going to miss in 1980!

Junior Vice Commander

FRANK M. TOLAND

Frank M. Toland was born on Jan. 9, 1906, at Haverhill, Mass. In his childhood his parents moved to Exeter and he attended school in Exeter.

He joined the Army on May 5, 1942 and was assigned to the 29th Division. He received his discharge in September, 1945. He joined the Robert G. Durgin Post in 1946 and has also held membership in the V.F.W. and Disabled American Veterans. While a member of the D.A.V., he was commander of the Exeter D.A.V. Post and went on up the ladder and became a Department junior vice commander.

Comrade Frank, being a shoe worker, moved to Newmarket and again became interested in the Durgin Post and served on several committees and soon was going through the chairs and is now the junior vice commander of the Durgin Post. He is chairman of the shuffleboard committee and runs the Legion team. He is also active on other committees and is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Legion Club 67.

Two Welcomed Into Boy Scouts

Two new members were welcomed into the Newmarket Boy Scouts at last Thursday's meeting. They are Gary Rodrigues, who came up from the Cub Scouts and Keith Toland.

Scoutmaster Ralph Willey extends a cordial invitation to any boy interested in joining the troop to visit with the Scouts any Thursday evening between 6:30 and 8:30 at the Tower Room in the Newmarket Public Library.

Next week's meeting will feature a board of review.

ers, 33 bath robes, 375 pieces of infant wear, 188 pieces of bedding, 593 pieces of underwear, 270 women's and girl's coats and 500 miscellaneous articles.

The committee who had the task of tabulating and packing this impressive amount of clothing for final delivery to the port of New York consisted of Mrs. Claire Hamel, Mrs. Emily Mongeon, Mrs. Ruth Archambault, Mrs. Mary Monaghan and Mrs. Cecile Arsonault.

Three men, Albert Hamel, Romeo Turcotte and Edward Tourigny, volunteered their services and their trucks to make collections throughout the town during Thanksgiving week. Assisting them were Bill Labranch, Louis Turcotte, Alfred Peloquin, Robert Turcotte, Robert Mariotti, Edward Robin, Raymond Gagne, Roy Lemieux and George Labranch.

One of the first agencies to send in clothing and supplies after the Chilean relief was this same organization and it is possible that some of that same clothing might have come from Newmarket, as the warehouse in New York is kept stocked for just such emergencies.

What F.O.E. Has To Offer

According to statisticians and actuaries, these supposedly efficient people who use their pencils, rulers and adding machines to tell you the future, as for instance, how long you might be expected to live, even your chances of getting rich or how many children you probably will have and so forth.

According to these supposedly bright men, the Fraternal Order of Eagles should have passed out of existence years ago.

Some have pointed out in the past that no organization could maintain quarters for its members, assure them a place to meet friends and enjoy parties, make new business acquaintances and even sometimes meet the person who someday many become their wife; some of them went even further by saying that the FOE could not afford to have an Aerie's doctor and could not pay for sickness and death benefits, etc., but nevertheless this has been done and is still being done today in spite of their scientific predictions and all these things mentioned above have been accomplished through the cooperation of all members and for a small cost raised through dues.

That was impossible said these statisticians and actuaries. Not only are we still in existence, but actually the FOE is one of the biggest organizations in the USA.

By joining the Eagles we take advantage of associating with men from all walks of life from whom we may benefit personally and who, in turn, may benefit by knowing us. By joining such an organization, we certainly learn a lot.

What these statisticians and actuaries can't see is the work, devotion and effort Eagles put into their organization. Therefore, this cannot be measured by a pencil nor an adding machine nor a slide rule. It's like one Eagle said once in a slogan contest that won him a free trip to Hawaii: "It's people helping people."

So, if you or any of your friends have been denying yourself the advantages of being part of the FOE, don't delay. Contact an Eagle and ask for an application card in order to join. Remember, it is not a question of "Can I afford it?", but "How can I afford to stay out of the FOE?"

At this moment I would like to remind all Eagles that next week on Wednesday, Dec. 14, there will be an important meeting. Let's all be there!

The final party of the ten game series of Eagles Whist was held Sunday, Dec. 4. The prize winners were as follows: First prize, William Colcord, who had a total score of 1432; second prize, Helen Burke with a total of 1318; third prize went to Rose Gaulin with a total score of 1289.

The winners of last Sunday's game were Floating Prize, Lorraine Harrison; Door Prize, Helen Burke; 2nd Floating Prize, Ellen Dostie; Game winners were William Colcord, Marguerite Keller, Lorraine Harrison, Yvonne Caswell and Bertha Mitchell.

Your attention is called to the fact that whist parties will continue next two Sundays at the Eagles Hall at 7:30 p.m.

A new series will start Jan. 8, 1961 and will be announced by the chairman, Mr. Edward Dostie in THE NEWMARKET TIMES.

Staff Instruction Meeting

Miss Peggy Hart, district director of Swift Water Council, will be the featured speaker.

Troop committee members and leaders from Durham are expected to attend this meeting to be held Monday, Dec. 12 at 8 p.m.

NEWMARKET COMMUNITY CHURCH HOLDS SUCCESSFUL CHRISTMAS FAIR

The Christmas Fair held at the Newmarket Community Church Saturday afternoon and evening was the most successful one in recent years. Receipts were well over $600.

Year-long planning and the devoted labors of many parishioners helped make it such a success. The supper which was held in the evening was better attended than anticipated, due in a large measure to re-sale of tickets.

One of the new attractions this year was the Greens table, which was presided over by Mrs. Harry Bassett and Mrs. Ross Tennant, with many beautiful Christmas arrangements made by the two co-chairmen.

The fair is an annual event sponsored by the Parish Circle of the Newmarket Community Church and this year was under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Roger Donovan and Mrs. Ralph Jackson. Many thanks are extended to those who contributed in anyway to the success of the project including the young people who were on hand to help out during fair day.

Women's Club Civics Department Is Entertained

The Civics Department of the Newmarket Women's Club held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Betty Philbrick last Thursday evening.

Following the business meeting at which the club decided to donate $5 to the Eagles' annual Christmas party. Mrs. Doris Paradise gave a report on last summer's playground activities.

Mrs. Paradise and John Dow were in charge of the playground which is sponsored by the Civics Department every summer. It was reported that weekly attendance ranged from 70 to 90 youngsters and was considered one of the most successful seasons yet.

Mrs. Paradise noted that some parents felt their children had to register for the entire season and could not participate for just part of it. She hastened to assure everyone interested that this was not so and children would be welcomed for any portion as well as the whole of the season.

Refreshments were served following Mrs. Paradise's talk by Mrs. Laurence Beauchesne, Mrs. Theresa Mullen and Mrs. Betty Philbrick.

The next meeting will be held in January at the home of Mrs. Henry Brandt on Grape street.

Early Land Grants

If Wheelwright's Indian deed be valid, the Rev. John Wheelwright of Squamscot Falls, May 17, 1629, cancelled the claims of the lords of the soil by purchasing New Hampshire of Passaconaway and other chiefs on the Merrimack and Piscataque for a valuable consideration in coats, shirts and kettles.

It is alleged that Gorges and Mason divided their patent and took separate grants Nov. 17, 1629, Mason taking the territory west of Piscataque which he called New Hampshire and Gorges taking that east of Piscataque which was called Maine.

Another division of Piscataqua soon took place. In March, 1630, a patent was obtained whereby there was granted to Edward Hilton "all that part of the river Piscataque, called or known by the name of Hilton's Point" with the south side of said river up to the falls of Squamscot and three miles into the main for breadth.

The London adventurers also Nov. 3, 1631, obtained a grant on both sides of the river Piscataque, to the extent of five miles westward by the sea-coast, then to cross over towards the other plantation in the hands of Edward Hilton, the whole extent being thus divided into two part. Thus, Wiggin was appointed agent for the upper or Hilton's patent and Walter Neal for the lower patent.

Fifty acres of land were granted to Capt. Thomas Parker, April 11, 1694, on the east side of Lamprey River. March 26, 1707, Joseph Chesley bought off Sampson Doe all the land between John Goddard's and Richard York's. The two mile streak was "a strip of land two mile wide at the head of ancient Dover granted in 1719 and confirmed in 1722, to the proprietors of the iron works at Lamprey River for their encouragement" and to supply them with fuel. In 1747 there were 16 families and two garrison on this streak.

Joseph Hall of Newmarket conveyed to Thomas Millet on February 11, 1736, two tracks of land in Dover, which originally belonged to his grandfather, Lieut Ralph Hall.

The following Newmarket men were among the original proprietors of Nottingham in 1722-23: William Young, Job Gilman, Nathaniel Hersey, Edward Hall, Capt. John Gilman, Joseph Hall, Peter Gilman, Nathaniel Rogers and Joseph Moulton.

After the Indians became hostile, every town and neighborhood had at least one garrison or "strong house" as a refuge for all the settlers when the red man was on the war path. At times all the women and children would be in the garrison for several weeks.

These houses were usually owned and occupied by one family, but when used as a garrison the expenses of living and defense were shared.

Wolves were the most troublesome and dangerous animals encountered by the early settlers of New Hampshire.

As early as 1716, laws were passed to stop their depredations. It was voted, Jan. 8, 1725, that there be paid out of the public treasury, for the head of every grown wolf, 30 shillings besides what is already allowed, which will make the sum four pounds for every wolf's head killed as above. Under this law during the years 1735-37, some 550 pounds were paid out.

There were no regular public conveyances anywhere north of Boston prior to 1761. In the spring of that year the first regular stage line was opened, running from Portsmouth through Newbury, Ipswich and Medford to Boston. One round trip was made each week.

The stage left Staver's Inn, Portsmouth, at 8 a.m., Tuesday, reaching Boston Wednesday night. Returning, it left Boston

Friday morning and reached Portsmouth Saturday night.

John Balch, postrider, set out from Portsmouth Saturday morning July 27, 1781 and rode by way of Conway and Plymouth to Haverhill, N. H., then down the river to Charlestown Keene and to Portsmouth again. This was repeated every 14 days.

The Piscataqua bridge from Durham to Newington was built in 1793-94. It was 2,000 feet long and cost $65,000. The first turnpike constructed in New Hampshire was from Concord to Piscataque bridge, Durham. The company was incorporated in June, 1796.

The first newspaper printed in New Hampshire was the New Hampshire Gazette, first issued Oct. 7, 1756 at Portsmouth.

In those days, houses were first made of logs and later with frames. The rooms were generally not more than seven feet high. Some fireplaces would take in wood from four to six feet in length, back logs, fore stick and kindling.

Common chairs were bottomed with strips of the brown ash. In the company room were from three to six black, high-back, rush-bottomed chairs. In the living room there would be in winter the bed, trundle bed, cradle, spinning wheel and sometimes the loom.

The kitchen "dressers" contained the table furniture of wooden plates, pewter platters, earthen mugs and tin dippers, with knives and later iron forks and pewter spoons. The knife basket hung at the side of the room. There was also an eight-day clock, often without a case, a gun on wooden hooks and on the mantelpiece, a mug of cider and several pipes.

Their diet also lacked the luxuries of the present day. Potatoes were introduced by the Londonderry settlers in 1719, but very few were raised. Turnips and parsnips were grown in large quantities. The common article of food was bean porridge, which was eaten for breakfast and often for supper.

Another article of food was baked pumpkin. A hard-shelled pumpkin was selected, a hole cut in the stem and the seeds and soft portions removed, leaving the solid meat. It was then partly filled with new milk and baked six or eight hours and allowed to cool in the oven.

Stamp Collectors News

By Ione Kent

Our government is issuing Indians. Later he escaped to another stamp in December. The satellite "Echo", described as the world's first communications satellite, will be the subject of this new issue. Echo was placed in orbit last Aug. 12, by the National Aeronautics Space Administration.

This stamp is to be issued from Washington, D.C. So, though no details as to color and design have been given, envelopes to be serviced as first day covers may be sent anytime to Washington, D.C. — anytime up to Dec. 10.

Mr. Summerfield thinks "the Echo" gives promise of a day when a system of such satellites for peaceful purposes would bring the peoples of the world closer through a wider exchange of information and viewpoints.

Eventually we may have a large set of conservation stamps. So far we've had one for the land and one for the water. Now we are to have one for the range. The range conservation stamp is to be issued Feb. 2 in conjunction with the annual convention of the American Society of Range Management, whose members are livestock operators. Of course, the purpose is to emphasize the importance of grassland and livestock. Covers for this stamp should reach Washington, D.C., by Jan. 26.

Belgian Congo stamps overprinted in minerals, under the leadership of its president, Moise Tphombi, it wishes to secede from the rest of the Congo. If it should, these stamps would be in demand as the forerunners of a new nation. There's stamps are of three denomination. A black line nearly obliterates the words Congo-Belgiseh and Belge-Katange is stamped also in black and with capital letters.

Besides the regular United Nations stamps sent from U. N., N. Y., a collection could be formed of stamps from all countries which honor the U.N. and its branches from time to time. Several countries have honored the fifteenth anniversary of the U. N.

Spain has issued a set of four stamps which might interest those who wish portraits of men who have been in some way connected to our early history.

One is Juan Ponce de Leon (1460-1521). He was sent to find the Fountain of Youth. Later he was designated as the governor of Florida.

Another is Nunez Cabega de Vaca (1490-1564). A Spanish colonel imprisoned in Texas by Indians. Later he escaped to another stamp in December. The satellite "Echo", described as the world's first communications satellite, will be the subject of this new issue. Echo was placed in orbit last Aug. 12, by the National Aeronautics Space Administration.

The fourth is Hernando (or Fernando) de Soto (1500-1542). Assigned by Spain's king, Charles (1537) to conquer Florida. He journeyed to the Mississippi River. He died on the shore of the river and his followers floated down the river and left by the Gulf of Mexico.

A fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a coronet of matching lace. The bride carried a white missal with an orchard and streamer with baby mums.

The maid of honor, Suellen O'Hare, cousin of the bride and bridesmaids Melissa A. O'Hare and Jennifer O'Hare, also the brides cousins and Dawn M. Ledgard, all wore street length dresses of American beauty velvet fashioned with a scoop neckline, short capped sleeves trimmed with satin midribs and back bows and streamers.

They wore matching lace crowns with circular veils. The maid of honor carried a basket of pink and white baby carnations while the bridesmaids carried baskets of pink baby carnations.

Best man was Daniel C. Labranch of Newmarket, the groom's brother. Ushers were George Mitchell of Newmarket, David Noon of Amherst, Mass., Michael Plunkett, the bride's brother of Lowell and Elliott Bosinger of Portsmouth. ### Laymen's Fellowship To Complete Municipal Park

Ted Turner, park committee chairman, reports that the Laymen's Fellowship of the Lee Congregational Church, voted to try for a late spring (1961) opening of a town ball park and athletic field.

The ball field is located adjacent to the new elementary Mast Way School at Lee Hill and will be available to school children as well as the rest of the town.

The decision to go ahead with the project which had been at a temporary standstill, was made at a meeting of the Laymen's Fellowship held last Tuesday night at the Lee Vestry. Work will begin as early as possible in the spring.

The next meeting of the Laymen's Fellowship will be held in March.

Officers for the group are Tom Brown, president; Ted Turner, vice president and park chairman; Sam Taylor, secretary; Bob Keniston, Jr., treasurer.

Successful Dance

The dance sponsored by the Junior High School class of the Lee Church was termed a success by those attending the affair held at the Jeremiah Smith Grange last Friday evening.

The Sunday School class charged a small admission fee to raise money for an outdoor manger scene to be placed in front of the church on Lee Hill.

So much interest was shown that the group plans to hold another dance following the Christmas season.

Chaperones were Mrs. Helen MacDonald, Mrs. Tom Brown, Rev. and Mrs. Richard T. Clark and the young people's Sunday School teacher, A3c Darrow Jorgens of Pease Air Force Base.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL TEAM DEFEATS ST. JOE'S IN OPENER

The Newmarket Junior High basketball team won its first game of the year, Monday, defeating St. Joseph's team of Manchester 47-22. The local five took an early lead and maintained it throughout the contests.

The game started off at a very slow pace with the score standing at 6-4 in favor of Newmarket at the end of the first period.

The visitors employed a tight zone defense and on offense they waited for a clear opening before shooting. As a result of this maneuver, the home forces fast break was cut down to a standstill.

In the second quarter, Roger Sklarski hit with two long shots to open up the zone defense and enable Newmarket to take a comfortable lead. However, the lead was short-lived as the blue and gold from the Queen City fought back and cut the lead to 14-11 at the half.

The second half began with a flurry of baskets by Mike Anderson and Gary Gage on a burst of speed with the fast break working to perfection.

Lemon Hatch was tremendous in gathering rebounds and Dale Marden was needle-threading his passes for important scoring plays. At the end of the third period the local basketweavers were leading 32-16.

In the fourth period, Newmarket continued to roll and substitutes were sent in to gain a little experience. When the cheering had subsided, the scoreboard read 47-22 in favor of Newmarket.

Receiving the plaudits of the fans for outstanding performance was forward Roger Sklarski, who not only scored six baskets, but was instrumental in the rebounding department and a "demon" on defense.

Gary Gage was high scorer with 14 points. Mike Anderson tallied 11 points and Dale Marden hooped four baskets while Lemon Hatch made one basket to round out the scoring for the evening.

The next home game will be Thursday, Dec. 8, at 7 p.m., against the Somersworth Junior High team coached by Mike Chick. On Monday evening, Dec. 12, the locals will meet with the Epping team at 7 p.m.

NEWS IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS!

Joe Dixx's Sport Corner

By Richard Schanda

The lack of snow up country and dry noisy conditions has dropped the 1960 deer kill to 696 behind the 1959 total kill. As of Dec. 5, the 1960 deer kill stood at 4,298 compared with 1959's 4,994.

The southern counties opened on Dec. 1 with a hard north wind blowing and the temperature down around 12 degrees. Many hunters were out but very few scored.

The deer were able to move without being heard due to the high winds. Very little shooting was heard from the local and usual hot spots. Many hunters are looking for about three ins. of dry powder and when this shows, up the kill will jump.

The deer kill is broken down as follows: residents, 3,120; non-residents 1,097 and minors 81. Bucks, 2,419; does, 1,846 and 33 unclassified.

The bear bag is rising rapidly with 101 bear reported as of Dec. 5. Of this total, 63 were boars, 37 sows and 1 unclassified.

Wardens predict that the 1960 bear kill will reach 130 and unless a real cold snap moves in, this figure may go higher.

The ice has started to form in the moat with about 1 1/2 ins. made up over the cold weekend.

Parents are cautioned to keep their children away from the rivers and ponds. The ice looks solid but due to warm currents and fast moving water, there are many thin spots.

If the cold nights hold on for one more week the ice fishermen will be hauling out pickeral and perch, so if you have not put your ice fishing rigs in order, now is the time.

Check for weak and rotted lines; also sharpen your hooks if they look a little rusty. It would be a shame to lose a 30 incher on the first flag up.

The Fish and Game Department reported on the winged tick which many partridge hunters had noticed on their fresh killed birds. This winged tick or louse is fairly common. The department claims that this is a warm weather pest which is usually found on most hawks and owls. It apparently causes the birds little harm and carries no known diseases.

The Fish and Game Department doubts that this pest has any connection with the grouse cycle. Conservation officials spend much time on the grouse problem and to date no real reason can be found for the rise and fall of the grouse population.

The coon season ended on Dec. 1 and all reports indicated that this year was as good or better than average.

Your sports editor and Marty Crowley, a semi-rare Massachusetts coon hunter, had a date with the old coon hunter down on New road.

The old gent wanted us to pick him and his hounds up at 7:30 shary, which we intended to do. It was raining a bit but not so bad that you had to swim.

We called on the old gent

HAPPY HUNTER

Ed Szacik shot this beauty up in Ossipee. He used a 12 gauge auto-loader. One slug was sufficient. A 9-point rack and the buck woods-dressed at 182 pounds.

Hunter(?) Bags Car

It was a bad day all around for Rene Beaudette of Exeter street, last Sunday when he went for a solo day of hunting up in the neighboring town of Lee. The only thing he caught was a bad case of the blues for his car was shot full of holes and he lost a wounded deer in the process.

Beaudette parked his car on a back road near a deer crossing and stopped to chat with a young chap, a stranger, who was hunting along the road. They amiable agreed to watch out for each other in the woods and Rene jokingly told the young hunter to be sure not to hit his car which was parked just down the road. He then went about 25 yards into the woods where Wyman Smith of Epping road had previously shot a deer.

A short time later, shots rang out from the roadside and a deer came crashing through the woods. Rene could only get one shot at the animal before it took off again. Anxious not to leave the wounded animal in the woods to die, Rene hastened after it but lost the trail in some thick underbrush.

When he returned to the road he found his pride and joy (car, that is!) riddled by bullets and the young hunter vanished!

Considerable damage was done to the radiator, fan and fan belt and needless to say, Rene's morale.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Has anyone consulted Joe Dixx about this? It is rumored that the local game warden is looking for his Uncle Flub, who was seen in the area.)
