Industrial Group Meets Thursday

The Newmarket Industrial group will hold its next meeting at The Exeter Inn on Thursday, May 25 at 6:30 p.m. This will be a dinner meeting and will feature a discussion of industrial development at the state and local level.

It is expected that Winford Foss or Allen Chase of the state planning and development commission will be there to help the local group in its search for more industry for Newmarket. They will explain the states activities in industrial promotion.

Newmarket needs more manufacturing plants and the industrial group is endeavoring to provide space, employment and improve conditions here. If Newmarket is to keep pace with other area towns and cities the Main street must show an improved appearance and new business invited to settle here.

Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

I could not help but be tremendously impressed by the letter to the editor that appeared in last week's edition of THE NEWMARKET TIMES. It seems to me that Mr. Bastarache has presented clearly, constructively and objectively a vital issue that faces our wonderful little Town of Newmarket.

The progressive ideas put forth in his letter were so refreshing and thought provoking that I felt I should openly express my congratulations to Mr. Bastarache and the members of the Newmarket Service Club.

I am very proud to be a member of this community; proud of its spirit, proud of its traditions and proud of its fine people and I think that I could have an even greater pride in Newmarket if these excellent proposals as outlined by the Service Club could be realized.

Respectfully,
FATHER ROBERT BRYSON.

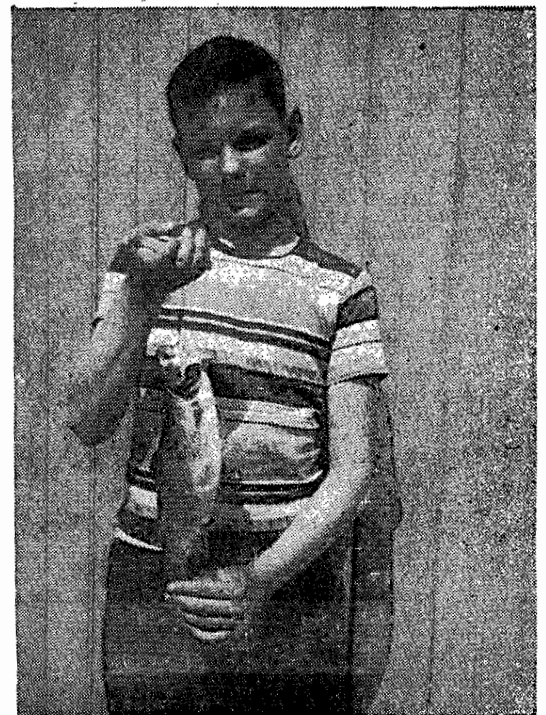

Main Street Musings

By THE INQUIRER

WHILE DISCUSSING sprucing up of the Main street with Edward Tourigney, proprietor of Griffin Hardware, he told this reporter that he would gladly donate the paint needed to freshen up the bandstand. In view of the program taking shape to beautify our Main street, why not start here and accept his offer?

WE HAVE seen the results of the renovation of the second floor of the Gallant Mill Building and from the beautiful appearance of the structure it won't be long before new tenants will be moving in.

FARM HILLS SCIENTIFIC FIELD STATION

SO. LEE, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Author's Note: This is the first in a series of articles dealing with landscaping and gardening in general. Most of the articles are time-phased to coincide with planting and harvesting schedules in central New England. It is suggested that interested readers clip the articles and maintain a file for ready reference. Many helpful and authentic hints ranging from selection and care of landscaping shrubs to control of insects and plant disease will be offered.

After the first week in May, there should be little danger from a late frost. Many spring flowers reach their crowning glory during this month. Early spring planning and preparation for planting should be completed. Evaluate your past activities and record the findings in a notebook.

Keep the notebook current throughout the year and note successes as well as failures with changes that might be advantageous. Visit other gardens and nurseries for ideas you might like to try.

COLD FRAMES

Cold frames will be used chiefly for hardening of tender plants prior to setting them out in the garden, window boxes and other locations. Protect them from extremes of temperature and be sure they get plenty of water.

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS

Sow pansy seeds now for indoor blooming next Christmas.

The plants must be grown as cool as possible under light shade during the summer. Poinsettia plants that have been stored dry since blooming should be cut back to six inches for weak plants and twelve inches for strong specimens. Shake away most of the soil and repot in fresh soil. Use a pot just large enough to comfortably contain the roots. With full sun and a warm, moist atmosphere, they will produce suitable cuttings for repotting next month. Keep plants moderately moist but do not over-water.

PRUNING

Forsythia, spirea, deutzia and weigela should be pruned immediately after they have flowered. Cut out the weak and poorly-spaced branches as well as the old branches that can be spared. The young and vigorous growth will produce the blooms next spring.

EVERGREENS

Plant new evergreens before the new shoots have made appreciable growth. You may find some plants have been damaged during the winter or that some parts of the landscaping scheme are sparse. Prepare the soil well prior to planting and water well after planting. Mulching with peat moss, compost or other suitable material will help insure a successful planting.

BULBS

Do not remove the green foliage from spring-flowering bulbs until they have browned and died naturally. While still green, they are manufacturing food and storing it in the bulb. To preserve neatness in the bed, the green leaves may be knotted or tied in bundles until they wither. If it is necessary to remove tulips to make room for summer flowers, dig them carefully and plant close together where they will be shaded from the strong sun and water well. They will complete their ripening before storing.

STAKING

Plants that have tall stems and may be damaged by wind or rain storms should be staked. Set stakes for pole beans prior to sowing and for dahlias before planting.

GROWING CROPS

Cultivate often but carefully between rows of growing crops. This will reduce moisture loss and promote healthy growth. Pinch the tips out of the chrysanthemums when the plants are six inches high and again when the branches are about six inches long. Remove unwanted suckers from the raspberries when they are about a foot high. Cut well below the surface or many new suckers will sprout from the severed ends.

THE VEGETABLE GARDEN

Make the first sowings of sweet corn, snap beans and lima beans, cucumbers, squash and melons. Continue with successive sowings of beets, carrots, lettuce and other vegetable for continuing crops. When the beans have made sufficient growth, hill around the stems.

ANNUALS

Portulaca, phlox, sweet alysum and nasturtiums are best sown where they are to bloom. Calendulas, zinnias, marigolds and asters may be grown in the beds or in seedbeds and transplanted as soon as they are large enough to handle.

STRAWBERRIES

Everbearing strawberries will make better crops later if early blooms are removed. The same is true of those plants set out earlier this spring. They will make sturdier plants and produce more berries next spring.

THINNING

Each time weeding is accomplished, thin out early sown annuals and vegetables that become crowded.

INSECTS AND DISEASE

Watch carefully for the first sign of insects and disease. Take prompt action against cutworm, slugs, fruit tree borers, beetles and caterpillars. These pests will do a lot of damage to foliage in a very short time.

PERENNIALS AND BIENNIALS

Foxglove, honesty, forget-me-nots, Siberian wallflowers, verbascums, hollyhocks, columbine, aubretias and English daisies do well when sown in late May or early June. Sow in drills a few inches apart in a cold frame or prepared bed. When the second pair of leaves are well-developed, transplant to nursery rows to be grown in readiness for transfer in the fall or spring to their place in the flower garden.

This is a critical month in the life of your garden. Good planning and careful preparation will now pay off if you keep abreast of planting schedules and ahead of the weeds.

BASEBALL

Newmarket High has dropped its first two games of the year. The scores were 3-2 to Winnacunnet and 22-1 to Somersworth.

The Winnacunnet loss was a heart breaker for freshman Terry Zych as he pitched an excellent game. The leading hitters for the Mules in this game were Leo Pelletier, Dick Gorski and George Rousseau.

The next day Somersworth completely over powered the locals with a very strong hitting attack. Pitcher Dave Veno of Somersworth hurled a no-hitter and struck out fourteen batters.

The team is very young, being composed mainly of 8th, 9th and 10th graders. As the season progresses and the boys gain a little game experience, their ball playing should improve tremendously.

PTA Entertains
Mrs. Henderson of Durham

The electing and installation of officers, the announcement of the "Know Your Money" essay winners by Superintendent Jonathan Osgood in his first public appearance in Newmarket and an exhibit of the work done by pupils in the twelve grades of the Newmarket public schools, made the final spring P.T.A. meeting one of outstanding interest. It was held in the high school auditorium Monday night.

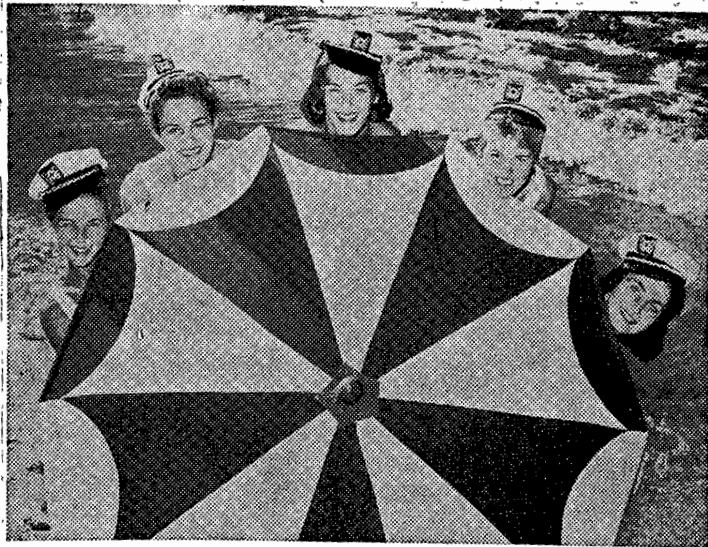

Mrs. Mary Abbott was named the new president of the association and will be assisted by Mrs. Mabel Schanda, vice president; Mrs. Alexander Berman, secretary; and Miss Beatrice Mecurio, treasurer. The program committee includes Mrs. Marjorie Atherton, Mrs. Mary Labranche, Mrs. Harriet Varney and Mrs. Doris Mullen.

Mrs. Oren Henderson of Durham, a past president of the N. H. Congress of P.T.A. and a member of the present state board, installed the new officers impressively and later asked if she might become a member of the Newmarket P.T.A.

In announcing the "Know Your Money" essay winners, Superintendent Osgood paid tribute to the pupils who presented the evening program, to the teachers who trained them and to the persons responsible for the splendid display of young people's work.

Miss Claire Rodman was winner of the first prize, a $25 U. S. War Bond; Miss Joyce West, second prize, $10 in defense stamps; and Miss Marie Schanda, third prize, $5 in defense stamps.

American Legion News

By Fred L. Beale

The Robert G. Durgin Post has been saddened twice in the same week. Last Wednesday we attended the funeral of one of our members, Stanley Sielicki, and on Friday we get word of the passing of another of our members, Frank Brangiel. On April 30 we attended the funeral of Harold G. Caldwell.

We have just reached our quota for 1961 and already have a deficit. A movement is on foot for the formation of a pre-burial service and a committee is about to be formed. We would like the participation of all of the members.

Saturday, May 20, the annual spring conference of the third New Hampshire district will be held with the Robert G. Durgin Post of Newmarket in Legion Hall starting promptly at 8 p.m. The department officers will be present and the programs of the Legion will be gone over and any member who does not know what the Legion stands for should attend this meeting and can be assured of a great surprise. The mere belonging to the Legion is a very small part of the Legion.

Not only are the members of the Legion to attend but the Auxiliary will also be holding their spring conference in our hall. There are now sixteen Posts in this district with over 3,000 members. Newmarket has always taken an active part in the workings of the district and have had three district commanders in the last ten years and the present commander, William Robitille, is a member of our Post and wishes that a large number of the membership turn out to this, the last district meeting that he will preside at as district commander.

Come one and come all and bring the better half. Let's give Bill a grand finale.

Local Man Is Sentenced

Charles Pelczar, 47, of 26 Bay road, was arrested by Chief John Valliere and Officers Jordan and Hauschel Tuesday morning, May 9, and was charged with four offenses: operating without a license, operating an unregistered motor vehicle, operating an unlicensed motor vehicle and operating a motor vehicle after revocation of license.

Pelczar was brought before Judge Russell H. McGuirk at a special court session Tuesday afternoon and upon evidence was found guilty and sentenced to Rockingham County House of Correction for a term of six months.

The other charges were placed on file.

You still have time to make arrangements to have the lawn cut, windows washed, spring cleaning done or any other jobs by ambitious members of the Junior Class.

Their work day will be held Saturday, May 27. If you are interested in acquiring the boys' or girls' services, please call OL 9-3712 or OL 9-3755.

STATE LEGISLATURE NEWS

By F. ALBERT SEWALL

THE NEWMARKET TIMES is pleased to present the first in a series of reports from the New Hampshire State Legislature by Newmarket's representative, F. Albert Sewall.

Mr. Sewall is in his seventeenth year as a member of the House of Representatives. During the current session he has been assigned to the transportation committee that deals mostly with safety measures.

Also the resources and development committee dealing with state promotion and bills relative to recreational development and forestry. Several recent bills which have gone through the latter committee were the anti-pollution bill and the Adams Point game refuge bill.

Mr. Sewall is also a member of the finance committee of the Rockingham County delegation that handles county government matters.

Mr. Sewall reports on the important bills that were passed by the House of Representatives during the nineteenth week of the legislative session.

There was the anti-discrimination bill banning discrimination in public places of accommodations. The Health and Welfare reorganization bill. A bill naming a section of the Interstate Route 93 from Salem to Hooksett in honor of Navy astronaut Alan B. Shepard Jr. These bills now move to the Senate for final approval or disapproval.

A bill already approved by the Senate that would allow special licenses for cocktail lounges at municipal airports has been passed by the House.

The question of financing the state's investigation of subversive activities seems to be a very controversial issue and should be settled in the near future.

Attends Eastern Star Sessions

Mrs. Elna M. Stevens of 8 Maple street, Newmarket, Grand Conductress of the Grand Chapter O. E. S. of New Hampshire, attended the Grand Chapter session of the Grand Jurisdiction of Massachusetts, held at Springfield, Mass., last Thursday and Friday.

NEWS FROM LEE

Fire Department Auxiliary

Mrs. James Funkhouser of Durham entertained members of the Lee Fire Department Auxiliary and guests with a lively and interesting talk on "Flower Arranging", at the May meeting of the Auxiliary which was held at the home of Mrs. Dale Underwood, Lee Hill.

Following the talk, Mrs. Funkhouser donated many lovely arrangements for distribution to those in attendance.

A business meeting was held prior to the entertainment. A report was given on the recent successful hard times dance and plans for the Lee Swimming School, sponsored each year by the Auxiliary, were discussed.

A committee was appointed consisting of Mrs. Sara Black, Mrs. Bambi Kimball, Mrs. Kay Stauchfield and President Mrs. Ann Hatch to meet with representatives of the Lee Church and the Jeremiah Smith Grange to discuss the possibilities of a combined fair. The committee will make a report at the next meeting and a decision will be made.

It was voted not to have any fund raising activities during the summer months because of vacation conflicts and summer activities.

Members voted to have a last get-together before summer recess during June, to be in the form of a Dutch treat dinner party at some area restaurant. A committee was formed with Mrs. Fay Tuttle as chairman, to make arrangements.

The next and last meeting of the season will be held June 12 at the Lee Fire Station and will feature a demonstration by members of Mrs. Philip Sanborn's 4-H dog husbandry class on obedience training.

Fire Department

At the May meeting of the Lee Fire Department held Thursday, May 11, members voted to purchase six new hats and coats with the money donated by the fire department auxiliary.

They also voted to have the articles stamped with luminous tape for quick identification.

It was also voted to finish painting the inside of the firehouse and volunteers were signed up to work nights this week.

The department tried out the new lengths of forestry hose which it recently purchased.

Following the meeting, members burned the papers and trash that had accumulated around the dump.

Many questions were asked with world, national and domestic issues well discussed by all those present.

Refreshments followed the evening's informative program.

Lee-ites Return

Not wasting any time in getting at some good fishing, the Knoxes are spending the week at Lake Winnepesaukee trying their luck with the lake salmon.

New Tent and Trailer Park

Another trailer park is making its appearance in Lee. This one, along with accommodations for tents, will open June 1 along the Lamprey River and is owned by Fernand LaRoche of Wednesday Hill road.

Randall's Celebrate Twenty-fifth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Randall Jr. of Snell road, Lee, were recently feted at a surprise party in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Over two hundred friends and relatives from New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Maine and New Hampshire were on hand to surprise the couple with many lovely gifts.

The Randall house was decorated with streamers and wedding bells by the Randall's three children, Ruth (Mrs. Peter Clark), Barbara and Jack who planned and executed the whole celebration.

A beautiful anniversary cake was made by Mrs. Jack Randall and decorated by Mrs. Armand Lebeau.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall were married twenty-five years ago at Pawtucket, R. I., in the Trinity Episcopal Church.

Members of the original ceremony who were present to help celebrate the Randall's anniversary were: matron of honor, Mrs. Hugh Gleason (bride's sister), her husband and son Richard from Pawtucket; brides maid, Mrs. James Milligan (bride's sister-in-law) and her husband from Pawtucket, and usher, Edward Hooper from Fitchburg, Mass.

Unable to attend but sending a congratulatory telegram was Rev. Thom Williamson, who married the couple.

Mr. Randall is a public accountant and tax consultant and is now serving his second three-year term as selectman of Lee.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Armand Lebeau and children Carlene and Paul, recently attended the wedding and reception of friend, Steven Slawnwhaite at Lynn, Mass.

Signs of summer: barefoot boys; a twenty-one inch, three and one-half pound rainbow trout proudly stashed away in a Lee Hill freezer, an overturned canoe with one of Lee's most ardent fisherman madly swimming after his tackle, wet clothes and all; an optimistic family out water skiing on Wheelwright Pond, and a determined young mother who waited until Mother's Day to deliver eight healthy babies—Labrador retrievers, that is.

Attends Safety Conference

Andrew White of South Lee recently returned from the seventh annual conference of the Dominion of Canada Highway Safety Board held for a week at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel in Montreal.

The conference is attended by virtually every manufacturer of motor vehicles around the world as well as other persons interested in motor vehicle safety measures.

Mr. White, who is the founder of the nationally-known Motor Vehicle Research, Inc., was a member of the safety brake seminar. His committee recommended that laws be passed for all passenger cars, buses and trucks be required to have new emergency systems; especially school buses.

Plays with Navy Band

Ralph Granger Jr., of Lee, a senior at Oyster River High School in Durham, was one of the ten young musicians in the seacoast area to be chosen to sit in and play with the United States Navy Band at their concert in Exeter, May 2.

During the matinee performance, the ten young people took their places with the internationally famous Navy band and sight read a musical number.

Following the concert, which was held at the Thompson Cage at Phillips Exeter Academy, members of the Navy band held clinics in woodwinds, brass and benefit of academy and other percussion instruments for the area high school musicians.

Many of the Oyster River band members participated in the clinics, which they found both informative and exciting.

Lee Bible School Meeting

A meeting to discuss plans for the Lee Vacation Bible School was held recently at the Lee vestry.

Those attending were shown a film strip depicting the purposes and ideals of vacation Bible school. They were also shown the materials to be used.

Several of the teachers at last year's Bible school have moved from Lee and the need is urgent for new instructors. The main qualification is that a person be interested in children and young people.

Anyone interested in more information is cordially invited to contact Rev. Richard Clark or Mrs. Hugh MacDonald.

Last year's Vacation Bible School was an overwhelming success; hopes are high for this summer also.

Through The Years . . .

A Sketch of New Market

New Market was set off from Exeter in 1727 and incorporated into a separate town comprising two villages, one called Lamprae's River and the other Newfields. Lamprae River received its name from a Frenchman, John Lamprae, who came to the Exeter settlement at an early day and built a little house on the banks of this stream.

Newfields was so called from the beautiful fields which lie on the banks of the river.

David Murray Esq., to whom we are indebted for many facts concerning the early history of the town, writes that, "Early in its history there was a large amount of ship building and lumbering carried on; probably more ship building done at one time at Lamprae River Village than on all other branches of the Piscataqua. Seven vessels, some of them quite large for those times, have been seen on the stocks in process of building at one time, and twenty-one of all kinds have been built in a single year. Ship building was also carried on at Newfields Village, by Zacharia Beals, Dudley Watson and George Hilton, Esquires, and others, and lumber and shooks were shipped there direct for the West Indies."

The population was nearly two hundred more in 1767 than in 1820, probably on account of the decline in ship building. The last vessel built was in Newfields Village.

Although Newfields was quite a small town in extent of territory, it was at one time the seventh town in the state as to population. One remarkable fact in the number of large families of children.

Deacon Thomas Drowns and Benning Brackett had each sixteen, and Joseph Young and Simeon Loche each fourteen, by a single marriage.

Mr. Drowne was a brother of Capt. Peter Drowne, who was murdered by Elisha Thomas. Denning Brackett was the father of the New Hampshire giant, Daniel Brackett. His family consisted of five sons and ten daughters, one having died in infancy and although several were of ordinary size, yet the aggregate weight of the fifteen, as estimated by a grandson, was 3,580 pounds.

The late David Chapman had eight children only six of whom were married previous to 1816, and yet he had fifty grandchildren born between Oct. 4, 1796 and April 10, 1815, all within three-fourths of a mile of his residence, and James Chapman, above named son of said David Chapman, had seventy-one grandchildren and died at the age of seventy-four years.

The Chapman Spring

David Murray Esq. has collected some facts in relation to this wonderful spring. To see it but for a short time is well worth a ten mile ride. Its source is wholly unknown and probably miles back in the country. It issues through a large aperture under the roots of a maple tree in the field of David Chapman about one and one-half miles northwest of New Market Village.

It has been gauged and found to discharge, of pure limpid waters at the rate of one hundred forty-nine, six hundred ten gallons per twenty-four hours.

From the earliest recollection of the oldest inhabitants in the neighborhood and their fathers, there has not appeared to be the slightest variation in amount discharged, whatever might be the state of the atmosphere.

The old plains meeting house, where the Rev. Nath'l Ewer and Elder John Osborne preached the Word, was near this spring and on pleasant Sabbaths during the summer season, might be seen a large portion of the worshippers gathered around it to partake of luncheons, which had been brought from one to six miles, and to drink the excellent water.

It also has been a frequent resort during the summer months for picnic parties, bands, engine companies and numerous individuals.

A few years ago the owner, David Chapman, built a dam across the ravine, about twenty rods below the spring and erected a building for mechanical purposes where quite an amount of business is done by machinery propelled wholly by the waters of this spring.

Then they fall into the Piscataqua River, about a mile above the falls, where Lafayette Hall Esq., a very enterprising and benevolent citizen of New Market, has a large mill, in which about one hundred tons of iron per annum is turned or made into nuts, bolts, etc., mostly for railroads.

The Bell Chime

A central ringer for your telephone that you can set to three different sounds

- A GENTLE CHIME

You'll hear a pleasant, cheerful chime instead of a telephone "ring." Ideal when you or the children are resting or when someone in the house is ill.

- A LOUD BELL

Set your central ringer to "LOUD" when you're busy outdoors or in the basement . . . and to make sure you hear your telephone when there's lots of noise and activity in your home.

- A NORMAL RING

Adjust the switch to "LOW" and you'll hear the familiar, regular telephone "ring."

The BELL CHIME is low in cost, yet adds a pleasant and distinctive touch to your home. Choice of colors, ivory or gold. Call your Telephone Business Office for further information:

The alewives came in with the tide last Monday morning. This should start the stripper season, so limber up your eel jigs and bass plugs and give the big line-siders a try.

The New Hampshire Highway Department has put a ban on all bridge fishing, so the General Sullivan Bridge and the Bellamy River Bridge are now off-limits for the night stripper fishermen.

If you have no boat to troll for the bass you can still fish by using the various points up and down the bay. Hilton Park, Fox Point, Adams Point and Pierce Island all offer fair casting beaches.

The past week-end, which saw two beautiful hot summer days, really warmed up the trout brooks and streams. The Fish and Game Department has upped the stocking length of the trout.

In years past the department stocked trout which ran from five to six inches. Now-a-days, the trout run from eight to fourteen inches. Improved rearing methods have made this possible. Stocked or native, when you get a fourteen-inch brookie you have a nice fish.

Speaking of fourteen-inch trout, young Ron Hayes landed a beauty down back of the mills. It measured fourteen and one-half inches and weighed nearly a pound. Ducharme picked up another beaut up to Lang's Bridge. This was a rainbow and measured over fourteen inches. Both of these boys are still quite young but they catch fish like veterans.

Art Provost Jr. brought a limit of fine rainbows back from the Lake Francis area. Art claims that the ice went out of Back Lake Saturday morning. So you can plan that Memorial Day week-end, if you intend to fish that area.

George Genderson hiked into Sawyer Pond last Saturday and reported that the lake was frozen tight enough to skate on. He also said that the trail was covered with at least a foot of ice and snow in the shady areas so forget this pond for another two weeks.

Sawyer Pond is heavily stocked with golden trout and a nice brook close by is loaded with brookies.

News from Concord:

HB 229 authorized the Fish and Game Department to purchase Adams Point property in Durham under a federal-aid agreement to provide access to Great Bay for fishermen, hunters and the public, and to become a wildlife management area. (Already endorsed by the resources committee and has received favorable consideration by the House to refer it to this committee.)

HB 260 would curtail self-hunting dogs during winter months when most dangerous to deer.

HB 410 requires hunter safety training for youngsters between sixteen and nineteen. House Fish and Game committee reports "ought to pass".

HB 440 permits (but does not require) owners of bobhouses to register them with the Fish and Game Department for a fee of one dollar.

ED. NOTE: If all these new laws pass the hunters and fishermen will need a Philadelphia lawyer to explain all these new do's and don'ts.

Upon checking with the Fish and Game Department concerning the salmon and its deadly enemy, the Lamprey eel, I find that they are not too concerned. They claim that with proper management of the lower proposed fish ladder, the Lamprey eel will not be able to reach the upper river.

A new chemical which is used in fish management circles for the control of Lamprey eels will be used on the spawning grounds of this eel. This chemical kills the young eel and apparently does not effect other fish.

The sport fishermen knows that the Lamprey eel killed most of the lake trout in the great Lakes, and they hope as I do that this chemical performs as the label reads.

H. D. Group Meets Tuesday

NEW BROWNIE TROOP 598

INVESTITURE CEREMONY HELD FOR NEW BROWNIE TROOP

An investiture ceremony for Brownie Troop 598 was held Wednesday afternoon, May 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Forbes Getchell.

The following new Brownies were invested: Helen Bearisto, Janice Charest, Ann Getchell, Kathleen Hood, Francine Jones and Shelly Sharples.

Ethelind Wright and Wendy Wright, who had been Brownies in a Ward Hill Troop in Haverhill, also transferred to Troop 598 at this same time.

Mrs. Forbes Getchell, Troop Leader, and Mrs. Calvin Wright, Assistant Leader, conducted the ceremony of investiture after the girls had had a treasure hunt to find their pins.

There were several guests present: Mrs. Frank Jones, Miss Brenda Jones, Mrs. Wilbur Sharples Jr., Miss Lisa Sharples, Mrs. George Livingston, Mrs. Calvin Wright.

Afterwards a very pleasant supper picnic was held by the fireplace. The girls planned it themselves and each brought a share of the food.

Serving as Troop Committee members are the following: Mrs. Frank Jones, Mrs. Wilbur Sharples, Jr., and Mrs. Albert Charest, who was unable to be present.

The girls have been meeting once a week since March 29 and are now chartered as a new Brownie Troop 598. They have been doing some nature study and have begun cooking lessons. One week they modelled animals, birds and flowers from clay. At another meeting, Helen Bearisto brought a cake which had baked herself and each girl made a rose from gumdrops to decorate her piece.

They made puzzles from magazine pictures and cardboard one afternoon. Kathleen Hood had charge of making all our paste. Their last cooking lesson was on preparing grapefruit. The girls learned something about the use of sharp knives. Several of the girls play the piano and they are learning new Brownie songs.

Artists Invited to Join Durham Art Assoc.

Newmarket artists now have an opportunity to exhibit their wares at the first D. A. A. Exhibition to be held in Durham, June 3, according to officials of the organization.

This decision was made at the second meeting of the Durham Art Association which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sewell, May 15.

Since considerable interest by creative artists in nearby communities has been shown in the D. A. A. and its first project—an outdoor art exhibit in the upper parking lot of the Durham Community Church June 3—the association voted to extend membership to anyone interested.

In order to exhibit, persons must become members of the association and obtain application forms from the association secretary, Mrs. Russell Skelton, 37 Edgewood road, Durham, UN 8-2733. Applications must be in by May 25.

Membership has grown to twenty-six enthusiastic members and it is hoped that anyone else in the area interested will apply for membership.
