ACCIDENT REPORT

On June 3, Mrs. Irene Mariotti of Lee was backing her car from the curbing in front of the First National store, when she was hit by a Badger Farms truck driven by Raymond Chase of York Village, Me.

Slight damage was done to the rear right door of the Mariotti vehicle.

URGENT BUSINESS

Voluntary health agencies are as integral part of our democracy and as such they are a tower of strength to our way of life. They have made the nation stronger through better health and through a better understanding of other people's problems.

The American Cancer Society, which this month is conducting its annual education and fund raising Crusade, is such an organization. It is made up of all kinds of people—people with a great desire to serve their fellow man and rid civilization of the profound tragedy cancer is.

The American Cancer Society is many things. It is doctors in their offices trying to detect cancer early, when it is most curable. It is scientists in their laboratories seeking new cures and possible means of prevention. It is dedicated volunteers manning detection centers, providing comfort and service to cancer patients.

It is also more than just people. It is great corporations, business and institutions cooperating in the effort to save lives today and in the search for the eventual conquest of cancer.

The American Cancer Society is an organization driven by a sense of urgency. There are more than 1,000,000 Americans alive today who have been cured of cancer. This would have been thought impossible a few decades ago. But 45,000,000 Americans now alive will die of cancer if greater advances are not made. The American Cancer Society wants to see these lives saved, cancer conquered and then go out of business.

Indeed, the Society belongs to the people—to anyone who wants to join the struggle to destroy the disease that brings so much hardship and tragedy to so many families.

Make it your organization. Do it by having a health checkup to guard your own health. Do it by offering your services as a volunteer. Do it by making a contribution to the annual Crusade which will mean more research, more life-saving education and more service to stricken patients.

PLAYGROUND FUNDS UNDER DISCUSSION

The Newmarket Budget Committee met June 1 with representatives of the Civic's Department, of the Women's Club, which supervises the town appropriations for playgrounds, for the purpose of discussing plans and expenditures for the coming season.

The playground appropriation was discussed at length with the two civic's representatives, Mrs. Estella Waugh and Mrs. Helen Mitchell, stating that of the director is $500 and his crafts $1,500 sum, the salaries of the assistant is $250 for the season.

The balance is spent on play-repairs and purchases of items of major equipment, the most recent of which is a sizeable ground expenses which include hot topped area planned to be large enough to accommodate two double tennis courts and which, in addition, can be used as an outdoor basketball court, volleyball court and many other outdoor sports which can only be played on a smooth, hard surface.

The club representatives stated that their group has already spent a considerable amount from their own club funds, earned by money raising activities in this area.

It is hoped that the surface will be finished in time for the playground season this year and later can easily be incorporated in the high school physical education program, thus providing a two-fold service.

Civic's club members plan a later meeting with the Newmarket School Board to complete additional details.

The next meeting of the Newmarket Budget Committee will be held Thursday, July 13, when they will review the adopted town budget for 1961, which will provide the opportunity of surveying town department expenditures at the six-month level, thus the committee will have an opportunity to express itself on any financial recommendations.

At this time the committee has invited a representative of the capital reserve and cemetery trust funds, who will meet with them.

It has been felt that a better understanding of the functions of the budget committee could be obtained by better informing the public. Therefore, a publicity committee was appointed to carry out this function. Appointed to serve were George Griswold, Leo Filion and Mrs. Betty Philbrick.

Budget committee members in attendance were Charles Dearborn, chairman; Leo Filion, Herman Hauschel, Mrs. Philbrick, Mr. Griswold, board of selectmen representative, John Twardus, and representing the school board, John Dodds.

Lee Hill 4-H Club

The Lee Hill 4-H Club held the final meeting of this year Thursday evening at the Lee Town Hall. Members armed with rakes did a splendid job of cleaning up around the Lee Town Hall.

The annual clean-up was followed by a cook-out on the grounds. Members then retired to the town hall where they were led in singing by Carolyn Granger and also give a most interesting report by the club president, Ralph Granger, Jr., on the recent week-long National 4-H Conference held in Washington, D. C., to which he was a New Hampshire state delegate. He also showed many lovely colored pictures which he took at the conference.

Lee Hill 4-H Club leader, Ralph Granger, announced that applications are still being accepted for Strafford County 4-Hers wishing to attend 4-H camp this summer. Any member who does not have an application and wants to attend may obtain forms from Mr. Granger or the county office in Rochester.

Operation Town Meeting Friendship Carries On

Dr. Prem Nath of Punjab, India, one of the visiting foreign students brought to this area last March by the N. H. Council of World Affairs to observe New Hampshire town meetings, formed an enduring bond of friendship with his hosts Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whippen, Mast road, Lee.

Although total strangers at the start of the project, the three hit upon an instantaneous mutual trust and friendship which has inspired them to keep in close touch with each other ever since.

Dr. Nath, who has been studying American Culture and Customs at Boston University, preparatory to writing a book, was recently asked to speak before the New Hampshire State Association of Universalist Women at the Unitarian-Universalist Church in Portsmouth. Dr. Nath spoke of the customs and religion in India and the monumental strides which have taken place in education in his country. Dr. Nath also advocated a world-wide religion and language.

Mr. and Mrs. Whippen were on hand to hear his talk and following the program they took him back to Boston by way of the New Hampshire seacoast scenic route.

Dr. Nath will be leaving Boston this month to spend the summer touring the country and visiting other universities and colleges before returning to his home in Punjab.

The Whippen's are most grateful to the New Hampshire Council of World Affairs for having given them the opportunity to invite Dr. Nath into their home.

They strongly feel that this "person-to-person" contact is one of the best ways to further international understanding and friendship.

Lee Church News

The Lee Church Sunday School's annual Children's Day will be held June 11 at 11 a.m., in the Lee Church with all the Sunday School children participating in the program. This service will conclude Sunday School activities until next fall.

The Women's Guild annual outing will be held Thursday, June 8. Members are asked to meet at the Lee Vestry at 10 a.m. for a business meeting following which they will adjourn to Yoken's for lunch at 12:30.

Officers of the Youth Fellowship will conduct church services at the Lee Church on Sunday, June 18, with Dave Carr delivering the sermon. Church goers are urged to attend to attend in a salute to this active and growing young peoples group.

Dan's Supermarket, the A&P of Dover and the Ideal Market in Durham all contributed food for a cook-out planned by the Youth Fellowship on their mountain climbing trip.

Unfortunately bad weather cancelled the trip but the food has been frozen until the next trip is planned.

The Youth Fellowship wishes to thank the managers of the stores for their generosity and also Mrs. Charles Woodward for doing the soliciting.

The car wash held by members of the Youth Fellowship last Saturday was highly successful. The whole group participated, working in shifts throughout the day. Many thanks are extended to Mr. L. O. Wenant who donated the use of his garage at the Lee Traffic Circle. The group plans to have another car wash in the near future.

With the cooperation of the weatherman, the Youth Fellowship will hold a cook-out at 6:30 p.m., Saturday, June 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Miller on Lec Hook road.

Memorial Day

TO THE EDITOR:

I would like to comment on one of the nicest Memorial Day observances I have seen in Newmarket.

Congratulations should certainly be extended to the town officials who saw that the band stand was freshly painted, war memorials cleaned and Riverside Cemetery in such a neat and tidy condition. Also to all the organization who took part in the large and colorful parade and memorial services.

The only thing I found lacking was the shortage of flags; let's hope this can be remedied by another year. In years gone by, Main street was literally lined with flags flying from business buildings and homes.

I was happy to receive this week a new fifty-star flag from Congressman Chester Merrow. A certificate was enclosed verifying it had flown over the Capitol Building in Washington, D. C.

We will be flying it for the first time over our home on June 14, Flag Day. I hope many other flags will also be in evidence.

Sincerely,

CHARLES H. STEVENS

Grand Aerie Convention in August

A few weeks ago, I wrote a short article concerning the Grand Aerie Convention in Minneapolis, Minn. Then, I gave a few highlights about the big parade and prizes involved, including drill teams, ritual teams, floats, drum corps, musical units, bands, etc., but today I would like to elaborate a little more about the advantage of visiting the State of Minnesota, before or after the convention, if possible, for those going to this affair Aug. 9 to 12.

Whenever someone is planning to entertain, as a rule, he makes it a point to say to his special guests or friend, "Come early and stay late — enjoy yourselves." Surely it's an invitation with warmth and real meaning. The Eagles of Minnesota share the mood of such a host as they prepare for the 1961 Grand Aerie Convention in the Twin Cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis. They are saying to their fellow Eagles everywhere, "Come early and stay late, enjoy yourselves once in our state."

Conventions are always crowded with activities. If you plan your vacation to coincide with the convention, they tell us you should have a few extra days either before or after or both to enjoy some of those pleasures of life which can be found wherever you go in our State of Minnesota.

Whether you approach the state from north, south, east or west, you will pass many places where you will be urged to stop if only for an hour, to absorb the beauty that nature has bestowed so generously on the land — that is Minnesota — to cast a line into a stream or lake, to play a round of golf, to swim or water ski, to picnic, to admire the works of industry, to look upon the lush vegetation or maybe just to rest, contemplate and dream.

To everyone who appreciates the beauties of nature, there is an exciting addition to the state's most famous scenic highway — the Lake Superior North Shore Drive, now part of a circle tour around the lake. With the completion last September of a new highway over the last remaining gap in Ontario, where motorists may drive completely around the largest body of fresh water in the world, skirting the lake through terrain of rare beauty.

You will see Minnesota's only seaport — in Duluth, on the western most point of the St. Lawrence Seaway. Highriding "salties" with strange-sounding names attract spectators by the thousands to the waterfront, as ships move in and out of the harbor, loading and unloading cargoes, bound to and from far away lands.

In its beauty, its history, its industry, its people—in everything that is a part of Minnesota's character, there is fascination. Its iron mines, known the world over, still are a thrill to see sprawling gigantically in a panoramic surprise of colors.

Throughout the state, there are members of Eagles who operate resorts, many of them specializing in family accommodations and other facilities for travelers. And, there are similar facilities operated by others, who have shown special friendship toward Eagles. So, for those who will be lucky enough to go to this Grand Aerie Convention in August, then why not visit this State of Minnesota, either before or after the convention, and enjoy yourself while you have the opportunity? In other words, "Go early and stay late, visit the state and have a real good time."

Of course, it is a nice opportunity to visit this famous State of Minnesota while going to the Grand Aerie Convention, but the question remains, "Who are going to be the delegates from New Hampshire to go to this big F. O. E. affair?" At any rate, the Newmarket Aerie #1934 wishes to thank very sincerely the Twin Cities' Aerie as well as the chamber of commerce for their kind invitation. Best wishes for a successful four-day convention. Though we might not be there in person, nevertheless our minds will be there with all the great leaders of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Before concluding this article I would like to remind all members about the installation of officers Wednesday, June 14 at 8 p.m. The F. O. E. code is (32) plus. There will be refreshments following the meeting. So, come one, come all!

Did Betsy Ross really make the first American flag? Historians are not quite sure.

The first public assertion that she did appeared in a paper read before the Historical Society of Pennsylvania in March of 1870 by her grandson, William J. Canby. But Mr. Canby later found no official documents of any action by Congress on the flag before June 14, 1777.

Betsy's own story, related by her daughter, was that George Washington, along with Congressional representatives Robert Morris and George Ross, visited Philadelphia in June of 1776, showing her a sketch of the flag and asking her to make one.

The only record of flags made by Betsy Ross is a voucher in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, for 14 pounds and several shillings for flags made for the Pennsylvania navy.

Regardless of the origin of the American flag, it is the symbol of our nation's glorious history and achievements. The American Legion Auxiliary urges all Americans to proudly display the flag on Flag Day, June 14th, and all other appropriate occasions. Many homeowners display flags on national holidays. Special dates during the summer months include: Flag Day, June 14; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day (the first Monday in September).

Applications to Camp Seawood are still being accepted. Registration deadline for all Girl Scouts is June first. Non-Scouts (7-17 years of age) may register from June first to June fifteen. A registration fee of $10.00 for the nine (9) days (includes transportation, milk, insurance, and program supplies) should be sent to Mrs. Kenneth Grant, Emerson Road, Durham, N. H. Make checks payable to Swift Water Girl Scout Council, Inc.

The camp program will provide an opportunity for girls to enjoy together a variety of camping experiences on a primitive campsite. Special interest units for acquiring skills in nature and campcraft can best be accomplished out-of-doors. An overnight (for fifth grade and), a hayride and a watermelon hunt are only three of the highlights planned for this year.

A plea for unit leaders (minimum age 21) and assistant leaders (minimum age 18) comes from Mrs. Richard Phenix, Durham, UN 8-9657, Mrs. Austin Remick, Rye, Woodlawn 4-5987, and Mrs. Harold Campbell, No. Hampton, Waverly -3908, staff recruiters. Pre-camp training program will be offered for all leaders.

Amateur Radio Operators Plan Tests on June 24th

Amateur radio operators in the Exeter area will take to the field Saturday, June twenty-fourth for a twenty-four hour demonstration of their ability to handle communications under actual field conditions cut off from commercial power lines. In the 1961 annual Field Day sponsored by the American Radio Relay League (National Association of Radio men), thirty members of the Exeter Amateur Radio Society will meet at Sentry Hill in Newmarket early Saturday morning, June twenty-fourth to set up equipment and string antennas. The Society has planned to erect five separate transmitting stations all within 1,000 ft. of a central point. The stations will be completely powered by emergency power equipment, including a large gasoline motor generator and batteries.

The Field Day is a test of self powered equipment and is participated in by hundreds of clubs and thousands of individuals throughout the nation.

The portable station attempts to contact as many other stations throughout the nation as it can within the allotted time of twenty-four hours.

The public is cordially invited to come and see the Field Day set up.

COMMUNITY CHURCH PLANS CHILDREN'S SUNDAY PROGRAM

Sunday, June 4, was the last Sunday of worship services at 11. Starting next Sunday, June 11, and every Sunday thereafter until the end of July, worship services will be held at 9:30. None of these summertime services will run for the full hour.

Next Sunday, June 11, is Children's Day and the Sunday School will be presenting appropriate exercises at 9:30. Everyone is cordially invited to attend and also to stay for the open house following, to be held in the Sunday School rooms.

Teaching materials will be on display and coffee and cookies will be served.

The church is trying to determine the correct names, address and denominational affiliation of all its active members in order to have an accurate mailing list as well as make reports to the denomination.

A list of active members, according to present records, is now posted on the bulletin board. This list contains some errors and help is being requested to up-date it.

If there are any errors or omissions of members, relatives or friends, it would please the church officials if the needed corrections or additions could be made on said list. Anyone wishing to join the church is cordially invited to contact the minister.

Lee Twins Are Winners in "Keep N. H. Beautiful Contest"

Gary and Peter Wolfe, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolfe of Mast road, Lee, were among the 39 finalists in the recent "Keep N. H. Beautiful" poster promotion.

Gary and Peter attend kindergarten at Mast Way School in Lee, part of the Oyster River Cooperative School District.

The tenth annual "Keep New Hampshire Beautiful" contest is sponsored by the N. H. Roadside Improvement Association, Inc., for all school children in the state from kindergarten through high school.

The posters are judged on originality both in work and theme interpretation and for their artistic content. The judges do not know the names of the students participating nor the schools from which they come until after the judging. It was therefore unusual that two of the kindergarten entries were from the same school and even more coincidental that the winners were twins.

This year there were 824 posters submitted to the judges from schools all over the state; The thirty-nine finalists were awarded cash prizes. Judges for the finals were Meg Geraghty of the Manchester Leader; Mrs. Laura Jaskiel, Manchester and Robert P. Eshoo of the Currier Art Center, Manchester.

Mrs. James Funkhouser, president of the N. H. Roadside Improvement Association, said, it is interesting to note that the winning posters travel extensively throughout the country in "Keep America Beautiful" Exhibitions. They are also used by 4-H groups for illustrative purposes.

The Wolfe twins are scheduled to appear on television on Channel 11, Monday June 12 at 7 p.m. at which time they will be presented their awards by Mrs. Funkhouser. Also appearing with them will be Nicci Kane of Manchester, their place winner in the kindergarten category. The first place posters in the twelve grades plus the three kindergarten winning entries will be shown at this time.

The twins' TV appearance will be part of the final show of "4-H In Action".

Aside from the poster promotion, the N.H.R.I.A sponsors a summer improvement promotion. The Association invites any individual, organization or town interested to send for applications and information, Box 583, care of Mr. Robert Kane, Manchester, N. H.

The Association which was organization run by private funds with volunteer help. Their programs and promotion work to "Keep N. H. Beautiful" have won recognition and admiration from all over the country.

YF Group Climbs Chocorua

The Youth Fellowship of the Newmarket Community Church enjoyed a perfect day of mountain climbing when they tackled Mount Chocorua last Sunday.

Eleven members accompanied by Mr. Kenneth Varney, Miss Shirley Varney and Mr. James George left Newmarket around 7:45 a.m. with picnic lunches and lots of enthusiasm. The picnic lunches were eaten on the summit of the mountain amidst one of New Hampshire's most spectacular views.

Those taking part in the adventure were Jan Varney, Jean Nesbitt, John Carpenter, John Monroe, Jimmy George, Eugene Beaudette, John Tatro, Roger Donovan, George Phalen, Ralph Jackson and Leman Hatch.

The group is expecting to take an overnight trip to Mount Washington sometime during the summer.

Cancer Drive In Full Swing

The Newmarket Cancer Drive is now in full swing, according to co-chairmen Charles Stevens and Atty. Russell McGuirk.

Letters have been sent out and contributions are now being received.

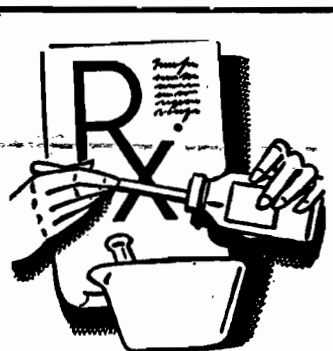

If anyone has not been contacted and wishes to contribute to this most important fund drive, he may do so by contacting Fred Durell. (Checks should be made payable to the American Cancer Society.)

"Here in Newmarket, we can help save lives by contributing our money to the Crusade", Mr. Stevens recently said.

"Free educational material which could save the life of one of your family is available to anyone desiring it. The leaflets stress the value of annual health checkups and the importance of learning the seven danger signals. Approximately 85,000 men, women and children die needlessly of cancer every year simply because they do not see doctors in time."

Mr. Stevens added, "Let us all help the American Cancer Society fight cancer through research, education and service. One million Americans now living have been cured of cancer. Our objective is to help save more lives and to support the research that will one day find a solution to the cancer problem."

The colorful, annual open house tour in Exeter, Hampton and Hampton Falls, will take visitors through many historical home on July 12.

Through The Years . . .

With Mary Richardson

The Story of Emma Borden

Yes, this is the story of Emma Borden, the sister of Lizzie Borden, who it is claimed murdered her parents, and it is also claimed no one will ever know the truth.

The Borden family included Mr. and Mrs. Borden, their two daughters, Lizzie and Emma, and Bridget, the maid of all work.

Mr. Borden's brother-in-law, Morse, was also present when the crime was committed. It could have been any one of these or an intruder, who hid in the house, but it is strange no one heard any noise.

The officials in Lizzie's hometown decided that since she was heir to her rich skin-flint father she was the only suspect who had both motive and opportunity. She was put on trial but the jury acquitted her.

Bridget must have known something about the murder for it was told she was sent to Europe by the sisters about this time.

The story is that Mrs. Borden that hot August morning in 1892, was killed in her spare chamber by having her head chopped with an ax. Two hours later, Mr. Borden was found killed the same way.

And now for Emma Borden—Uncle George and Aunt Josie Leavitt decided they would move to California, to be with their daughters, as they were getting along in years, so they sold their home on Pound street, across the road from the home of Mary J. Richardson, to two maiden ladies, who we will call by their first names, Anne and Mary, who were much pleased with their purchase.

After letting their home in Lee to some friends they moved down. Their nephew John, who boarded with them, also came along with the dog, two cats and a pet sheep. The animals all liked their new quarters, especially the sheep, who one fine morning presenter her mistress with a little wollie lamb, who was as tame as a kitten and followed the sisters all over the house.

Mary was not very well and as time went on became worse and passed on. She was missed by all her neighbors.

Anne used to keep boarders, and at one time the headmaster of the Newmarket High School boarded there.

One day I went over to see Anne and there was a pleasant faced old lady sitting there. Anne introduced her as Miss Borden. I had a very pleasant call and invited here to call on me, which she did many time.

She never wanted to be alone and if Anne was gone only a little while down street, or upstairs cleaning, Miss Borden would rush over to my house. If Anne wished to go away or downtown, I would stay with her. She would tell me about her father and the fine horses he used to have.

One time when I was with her and Anne had gone to Haverhill, a heavy thunder shower came up and Miss Borden was afraid. I told here the Lord would take care of us. She said, "Why don't you ask him? I don't dare."

She had the keys to her room and kept locking the door and after the third time I had great difficulty in finding them. It rained very hard that afternoon and looking out I saw the principal's trousers on the line blowing back and forth soaking wet, and do you know he was really angry about it when he came home from school that afternoon!

You see, I forgot to take

MUNICIPAL COURT PROCEEDINGS

Three cases were brought before Judge Russel McGuirk on Friday, June 2.

Roger C. Booth, 27, of Dorchester, Mass., who was picked up by Officer Jordan on Main street May 27 for drunk and disorderly conduct, was represented in Municipal Court by Atty. Ovila J. Gregoire of Dover, who entered a plea of guilty for the defendant. The defendant was found guilty by the court and ordered to pay a fine of $10.

Robert F. Schultz, 19, of Newmarket, was charged with operating a motor vehicle at a speed greater than reasonable and prudent. He entered a plea of not guilty but after hearing evidence presented by Officer Jordan, the court found him guilty and ordered him to pay a fine of $25.

Leon D. Dennett, 18, of Newmarket, was charged with a similar offense, entered a plea of not guilty, but was found guilty by the court after evidence presented by Officer Gilbert and ordered to pay a fine of $10.

them in when the shower came up.

With her boarders and her housework it soon became too hard for Anne, so Mrs. Borden's guardian sent a young lady by the name of Gladys to help her. Anne was obliged to go to Haverhill for a few days and asked if I would care for Miss Borden while she was gone, and Gladys would do the housework.

The first night I stayed there, Miss Borden was up every hour and I had to chase her for fear she would go downstairs, and early in the morning I fell asleep and woke up suddenly and ran into Miss Borden's room. She wasn't there.

I grabbed my bathrobe and downstairs I went and there she was wandering around the kitchen and there sat that darn principal watching her. I managed to get her upstairs and to bed. The next night Gladys stayed with her and the third night Anne came home.

Miss Borden stayed with Anne a couple of years until she passed away and was taken home to Fall River to be buried.

I have a book which she gave me, with her name in it, Emma Borden.

The weather over the past week-end was calm enough to permit some deep sea fishing.

A local party ran out to the Isle of Shoals and had some fair luck. Cod, Catfish and Cusk made up the catch. The best made up the catch. The largest fish caught for the day was a fifteen pound sea Catfish.

Stripers are in the Bay and are being caught. Dewane Marden may have caught the first Linesider of the season which was around 20 inches long, down near the Sullivan bridge area. Other lucky stripper fishermen picked up some fair fish. The fish now being caught are School Stripers which range in size from 16 to 26 inches. The big tackle busters will be in later this month.

Up-Country fishing over the week-end was slow and cold. All reports indicate very cold

The spring release of state reared Pheasants have been completed. The Bay Road area Road got three of four pair. The New Road, about five birds and the Epping Road about the same. The Pheasant nesting period now in full swing, usually runs into the dangerous hay-cutting time. Many farmers have unwillingly ended up with roast Pheasant dinners after trimming off the head of a tight setting hen. Midwest farmer-sportsmen have tried many contraptions to overcome this accidental bird killing. The best method found was a two foot rod attached to the fingers of the mowing machine cutting bar. This rod flushed the bird ahead of the deadly blade. Of course the nest may be destroyed. But the bird is alive to breed again.

Dover Chamber of Commerce Starts Membership Drive

Arthur J. Heaphy, chairman of the membership campaign of the Dover Chamber of Commerce, announced today that the new member drive was started with a kick-off breakfast on Tuesday at the Sherwood Motor Hotel, at which time a large group of chamber members received last minute instructions and prospect cards for potential new members upon whom they will call during the next few days.

"The chamber of commerce is a voluntary association of businessmen and civic minded citizens engaged in a collective effort to promote the Garrison City as a better place in which to work, live and play," Mr. Heaphy said.

"Aggressive business and civic leaders provide the sound judgement, the foresight and the aggressiveness that keeps our chamber moving in the right direction," Mr. Heaphy continued, "but we need more help, more people who are willing to assist us to carry on the growing program of our chamber of commerce. We have a good team—we can use an even better team—we need the assistance of all business and professional men in the city in order that our budget may be expanded to include better development of many of our chamber programs."

Members of the membership campaign team include: Samuel K. King, Dr. John A. Desnoyers, Fred E. Easter, Donald P. Huston, Stuart N. Shaines, Robert H. Foster, Raymond O. Winters, Albert Issokson, Louis Stocklan, Raymond N. Guillemette, Boyd E. Brodhead, F. Howard Williams, Donald R. Bryant, Joseph T. Jalbert, Walter A. Calderwood and Victor Mucher.

The Little League opened Memorial Day with a fine crowd and Mr. Bealieu throwing the first ball out to the pitcher.

In the first game Hayes pitched a no-hit game and Allen Hill hit a home run as the Yankees defeated the Braves 9-1. In the second game the Giants defeated the Red Sox 7-1.

On Sunday June fourth the Braves defeated the Giants 10-1. Pelletier pitched for the Braves and homered. In the nightcap Randy Gage pitched a perfect game by getting out 18 consecutive batters. It was the second no-hit game by Yanks pitching in two games. Don Dzedzic pitched a fine game for the Red Sox who lost 3-0.

The batting averages will be posted as soon as each team has played three games.

Fluorine

What is fluorine and why is the dental profession anxious for people to have its benefits?

This is a question often asked of me in my office by my friends. Perhaps I can help to clear this up for you by writing an article for THE TIMES.

Fluorine is a chemical element belonging to the same family as chlorine and bromine. Fluorine is a necessary trace element that aids teeth to become more resistant to decay, or caries as the dentist calls it. Fluorine is perfectly safe to use if used according to directions.

There are a number of ways in which you, the public, can obtain the benefits of fluorine. These are, in order of the degree of prevention: (1) In the public water supply. This, incidentally, is the least expensive way—approximately 10c to 15c per person per year. (2) By using tablets or drops by prescription and strictly following directions. This is an expensive procedure, and is also open to misuse. (3)

By having your dentist paint it on the teeth. This should be done once a year and is an expensive way of getting your fluorine. (4) By using one of the new fluorine toothpastes. This is the least beneficial way to get fluorine, as the percentage of protection is much less.

The biggest advantage of fluorine in decay prevention comes to the person who has lived all his life where he has been able to drink fluoridated water. Tests have shown a 55% to 65% reduction in decay where children have lived all their lives in such an area. Not all children would get as high a percentage reduction but would be aided just the same to some extent.

A question my friends invariably come around to in any lengthy discussion of this matter of fluoridation is: "Why do you dentists want to stop decay when it's the way you make your living?" The answer is simply that there are not enough dentists to go around. There are more dental colleges than there were ten years ago but the population increases faster than the number of den-

American Legion News

By Fred L. Beale

Now that Memorial Day for 1961 has passed into the history books as one of the best and largest ever held in Newmarket, we of the Robert G. Durgin Post are busy trying to make history repeat itself at a department convention.

Seldom do we have a department convention in our own backyard, as you might say. This year the department convention will be held in Portsmouth and from all reports and contacts it will be the largest and best convention held by the American Legion in the seacoast area.

Especially, the parade will be an extra fine one. It will take two and one-quarter hours to pass a given point. Some of the best musical organizations in this part of the country have signalled that they will be here.

The Robert G. Durgin Post is again in the thick of things; it is again among the leaders and a short while ago reached its 100%. The third district, to which the Durgin Post is a member, won the membership drive and have the honor of leading the parade and, of course, Newmarket, while a small town, does not want to be left out.

The Durgin Post is making plans to have as many of its members present as possible parade we will be able to see practically the entire parade. Let's show why we are one of the most important Posts in the and as we are in the van of the New Hampshire department. Let's all attend the department parade and let's leave to women folk to watch us proudly carrying the spirit of Newmarket through the streets of Portsmouth. Let's make the townsfolk of Newmarket proud of their American Legion post.

If you are sick, lame or lazy and do not find that you will be able to parade, why not join a cheering squad and help the Post along at every corner. This will be the shortest parade ever and is planned to turn out the most legionnaires ever (one and seven-tenths of a mile), shorter than the one we hold Memorial Day and everybody should be able to make that.

Much has been said about other towns and cities and now let's give them something to talk about. We can do it and we the the personnel—all the officers want is 100% cooperation.

Next week the annual school awards will be made and the oratorical award will be made. There will be four boys going to Boys State from Newmarket.

Special Committee Meets at Oyster River

A special committee of seven representatives from local organizations, appointed by the Oyster River School district moderator by vote of citizens at the last district meeting, held its organizational meeting recently.

At this time the committee elected Charles Wheeler of Durham as chairman and Mrs. William Lee of Durham as secretary. It also named itself the high school advisory committee.

The committee requested names of volunteers who would be interested in working in fact finding groups to study educational facilities needed in a future high school.

The advisory committee met with the Oyster River School Board last Thursday evening for a discussion of proposed plans. The committee made plans to meet with twenty interested volunteers on Wednesday evening.

tists. It is simple arithmetic that if Johnny has fewer cavities I will need to see him less to keep him in good shape and therefore I will have more time to take care of someone else. I am not fond of seeing my small young friends come in with toothaches or badly broken down teeth due to decay. Prevention is part of all good medical care.

I know I have only scratched the surface of the fluoridation question so that there may be questions unanswered. I'll be more than pleased to try to answer them in the future if you'll let me know what they are.
